THE SUPREME COURT -- COMMUNISM'S TROJAN HORSE IN THE U.S.A.

By Robert Lee Gibbons

At last the Invisible Government has apparently secured the complete control of the Supreme Court of the United States. While Franklin D. Roosevelt was in the White House, the Invisible Government tried to take over the Supreme Court by having their chief tool, F.D.R., increase to 16 the number of Justices so they could add enough "left-wing" stooges to swing the High Court decisions in favor of the Marxists. Strong public protests prevented them from packing the Supreme Court at that time, hence they were forced to wait and replace deceased members with judges who would do their bidding.

May 17, 1954, the day of the desegregation decision by the U.S. Supreme Court, has properly been called "Black Monday." In recent weeks, however, patriotic Americans of all sections should have been filled with anxiety when they picked up their evening papers on Mondays for fear of reading of additional "Black Monday" decisions by that Court. They have certainly been forthcoming.

Probably the worst of these decisions was the ruling on June 3, 1957, in the case of Jencks v. United States that the defendant was entitled to inspect all FBI reports relating to testimony of witnesses against him. This appalling and outrageous decision, which went beyond even the request of the attorneys for Jencks, and which Justice Clark, in dissenting, said afforded to the criminal "a Roman holiday for rummaging through confidential information as well as vital national secrets," might have a crippling effect on law enforcement in general in this country, and has already created confusion in the Federal courts. Lawyers for Communist traitors under this ruling can now, unless prosecution is abandoned, learn the identities of FBI informants within the Communist movement.

In order to place the Jencks decision in its proper perspective as part of an overall trend and pattern of the Court's assistance to traitors and security risks, extending over a period of more than 2 years, we present the following brief descriptions of 31 other decisions:

1. In Quinn v. United States, decided May 23, 1955, the Court reversed the contempt conviction of a member of United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America who refused to answer a question before the House Un-American Activities Committee as to whether he had ever been a member of the Communist Party, even though he did not expressly invoke the privilege against self-incrimination, merely saying that he supported the statement of a witness on the preceding day who had invoked the First and Fifth Amendments.

2. On the same day the Quinn case was decided, the Court reversed the conviction of Julius Emspak, General Secretary and Treasurer of the same union, who had refused to answer 58 questions of the House

Chief Justice Earl Warren

Appointed to the Supreme Court as a Chief Justice in 1953, as a reward for his support of Ike in place of Sen. Robert A. Taft for the Presidency. Many of his opinions have favored the Communists.

Committee as to whether or not he was acquainted with named individuals who had been charged with having Communist affiliations. He cited the First and Fifth Amendments. In reversing, the Court claimed that these questions were within the scope of the Fifth Amendment.

3. In Bart v. United States, also decided on May 23, 1955, the contempt conviction of Philip Bart, general manager of the Daily Worker, was reversed, the Court claiming that the House Committee did not directly overrule his refusal, based on the Fifth Amendment, to name officials of the Ohio section of the Communist Party in 1936. The Committee counsel, Tavenner, had clearly told Bart that testimony relating to other people could not incriminate him.

4. In Peters v. Hobby, decided June 6, 1955, the Court gave a declaratory judgment that Peters, who had been Special Consultant to the U.S. Public Health Service and had been barred from the Federal service by the Civil Service Commission's Loyalty Review Board because of reasonable doubt as to his loyalty, had been removed invalidly, and ordered that the Board's findings as to reasonable doubt and its debarment ruling be expunged from its records.

5. On Nov. 7, 1955, the Court refused to review a decision of the Wis. Supreme Court which held that the Gwinn Amendment to the Federal Housing Law, prohibiting occupancy of subsidized Federal housing developments by persons in organizations on the Attorney General's list, was unconstitutional.

6. In Cammer v. United States, decided Mar. 12, 1956, the Court reversed the contempt conviction of Cammer, attorney for Ben Gold, who, after indictment of Gold by a Federal grand jury, mailed to members of the grand jury who were government employees, a questionnaire which sought to ascertain whether such employee jurors might be influenced by bias or fear to indict persons charged with association with the Communist Party.

7. In Penn. v. Nelson, decided Apr. 2, 1956, the Court upheld the Supreme Court of Penn. in its holding that the Smith Act supersedes the enforceability of the Penn. Sedition Act under which Steve Nelson, in the words of Earl Warren "an acknowledged member of the Communist Party," had been convicted. This holding in effect annuls all state sedition acts, and the immediate effect thereof was to stop prosecution of 10 defendants under the Massachusetts law as well as a prosecution then pending in Kentucky.

8. Not content with wreaking havoc with state legislation, the Court on Apr. 9, 1956, held that Sec. 903 of the Charter of the City of N.Y., which provided that whenever a city employee used the privilege against self-incrimination to avoid answering a question relating to his official conduct his tenure of office shall terminate, was unconstitutional. Irving Slochower, an associate professor at Brooklyn College, who had been suspended under the provisions of Sec. 903, as a result of this decision recovered over three and one half years back pay from N.Y. City and was reinstated as a teacher!

9. In United States v. Zucca, decided April 30, 1956, the Court upheld dismissal of denaturalization proceedings against Zucca, who was alleged by the government to have been a member of the Communist Party and other organizations affiliated with or controlled by it, and to have procured naturalization by concealment.

10. In Communist Party of the United States v. Subversive Activities Control

Associate Justice Felix Frankfurter

An Austrian born Jew, who rules the Court with an iron fist. Was the main incorporator of the Communist-front American Civil Liberties Union, a member of the legal staff of the NAACP and placed Alger Hiss in the Government with many more Reds.

Board, decided also on Apr. 30, 1956, the Court gratified the highest hopes of the Party. After the SACB had ordered the Party to register, the Party claimed that the testimony of Paul Crouch, Manning Johnson and Harvey Matusow before the SACB was perjurious. The government and the Court of Appeals deemed the unchallenged testimony sufficient to sustain the SACB's order. The Supreme Court reversed the Court of Appeals and remanded the case to the SACB where the Party could make its allegations as to perjured testimony.

11. In Cole v. Young, decided June 11, 1956, a preference-eligible veteran had been suspended from a classified civil service position on charges of close association with alleged Communists and an allegedly subversive organization, and later dismissed. The Court held the dismissal not authorized.

12. In Mesarosh v. U.S., the Court again came to the aid of Steve Mesarosh, alias Steve Nelson. The convictions of Mesarosh and 4 others under the Smith Act were reversed, and new trials granted, because the Solicitor General believed that the testimony of one witness, Mazzei, given on occasions other than the trials of these defendants, was untrue. The Solicitor General merely asked that the trial court determine the credibility of Mazzei's testimony. Instead the Court brought to nought the government's efforts of more than 3 years duration to convict these defendants by the above reversal. (Oct. 10, 1956)

13. In Leedom v. International Union of Mine, and Smelter Workers, decided Dec. 10, 1956, the Court exploited a loophole in the Taft Hartley Act and also held that the National Labor Relations Board could take no administrative action to withhold from a union the benefits of the National Labor Relations Act even though a trial examiner had found that an officer of the union, Travis, had filed a false non-Communist affidavit.

14. On the same day, in a similar case, the Court held that benefits of the National Labor Relations Act could not be withheld from the Amalgamated Meat Cutters & Butcher Workmen of North America, AFL-CIO, even though one of its officers, Ben Gold, had been convicted in 1954 for a false non-Communist affidavit filed in 1950.

15. Not content with ruling in favor of Ben Gold's counsel and union as stated above, the Court on Jan. 28, 1957 made it a clean sweep for Gold, reversing his conviction for filing a non-Communist affidavit because of "official intrusion into the privacy of the jury."

16. In U.S. v. Witkovich, decided April 29, 1957, the Court ruled that the Attorney General could not, under the Immigration and Nationality Act of 1952, ask an alien against whom a final order of deportation had been outstanding for more than six months, questions relating to membership in and activities on behalf of the Communist Party.

17. In Schware v. Board of Bar Examiners of New Mexico, the Court held that the Supreme Court of N. Mexico had deprived Schware of due process in denying him the opportunity to qualify for the practice of law on the ground that he had failed to satisfy the Board of Bar Examiners as to his moral character. Schware had been a member of the Communist Party from 1932 to 1940, had used aliases to hide his Jewishness, had been arrested in Cal. on suspicion of criminal syndicalism, and had been charged with recruiting persons for the Loyalist (Communist) cause in Spain (May 6, 1957)

18. Not content with the Schware decision, the Court on the same day flagrantly invaded the sovereign prerogatives of the State of California in licensing practicing attorneys. It reversed the action of the Cal. Committee of Bar Examiners in refusing to admit one Raphael Konigsberg to prac-

Congressman James C. Davis

Congressman James Davis was not far wrong when he said; "It seems that the Communists cannot lose a case in the United States Supreme Court."

Georgia is doing something about the Court. What about the other States following in its footsteps?

tice, even though he had refused to answer questions directed at finding whether he was or ever had been a member of the Communist Party.

19. On May 13, 1957, the Court reversed the convictions of Kremen, Coleman and Stein for harboring Robert Thompson, convicted Smith Act defendant and bail jumper, on the ground that the defendants were victims of an illegal search and seizure.

20. On May 20, 1957, the Court affirmed the order of a court in St. Louis which struck out restrictions on Mrs. Antonia Sentner's Communist associations while under order of deportation.

21. On June 17, 1957, which clearly qualifies as a Black Monday, the Court ruled that John Stewart Service, one of the first targets of the late Joe McCarthy, had been wrongfully discharged from his State Dept. job by Secretary of State Dean Acheson in 1951 because of reasonable doubt as to his loyalty. This is the same Service who in 1945 gave confidential documents to Philip Jaffe of Amerasia Magazine.

22. Another blow delivered by the Court on the same day was much more damaging in its implications to the U.S. The convictions of 14 West Coast Communist leaders under the Smith Act were reversed. The Court enunciated a very narrow construction of the word "organize" in the Act, holding that it meant the mere establishment of the present Communist Party in this case, which took place in 1945, and that the 3-year statute of limitations barred any indictment on the "organize" section after 1948. The Court also criticized the charge to the jury for not specifying clearly that advocacy of violent overthrow, to be illegal, must be advocacy of action, and not just theoretical urging. Five of the fourteen defendants were acquitted, and the other nine were granted new trials.

23. On the same day the Court reversed the contempt conviction of labor leader John Watkins, who had refused to tell the House Un-American Activities Committee the names of persons he had known as Communists. In his opinion, Chief Justice Warren adopted standard Communist jargon, saying "there is no Congressional power to expose for the sake of exposure." Cases in lower courts which will probably be affected by this decision are those of Arthur Miller, who has already moved for reversal of his contempt conviction, and N.Y. Times employees Robert Shelton, Seymour Peck and Alden Whitman, who have also been convicted of contempt.

24. Likewise on June 17th the Court in Sweezy v. Wyman, reversed the New Hampshire contempt conviction of Prof. Paul Sweezy of the University of New Hampshire. Sweezy had been directed by the Supreme Court of that State to answer questions by Attorney General Wyman during an inquiry into alleged subversive activities. Sweezy refused and was convicted.

25. The Court, meanwhile, on May 27, 1957, had agreed to review the legality of the sentences of Gil Green and Henry Winston, original Smith Act defendants. This action resulted in the release on bail of Robert Thompson, also an original Smith Act defendant.

26. On June 24, 1957, the Court reversed the conviction of Communist lawyer Harry Sacher for contempt of Congress. Sacher, one of the lawyers who made a travesty of the Smith Act trial in 1949 before Judge Medina, refused to tell the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee in 1955 if he was then or ever had been a member of the Communist Party.

27. Also on June 24, 1957, the Court set aside the contempt conviction of Abram Flaxer, former president of the now defunct United Public Workers of America. Flaxer had refused to give the same Subcommittee information it requested.

28. On the same day the Court set aside the contempt conviction of Lloyd Barenblatt, former teacher at the University of Michigan and Vassar College. He had refused to tell the House Committee whether he was a Communist Party member at the time he testified, or if he ever had been.

29. Continuing to nullify the government's efforts under the Smith Act, the Court, on June 24, 1957, vacated the conviction of Detroit's Communists Sol. L. Wellman, Nathan Kaplan, Thomas Dennies, Philip Schatz, Helen Winter and William Allan.

30. On the same day the Court ordered a new trial in Ohio for Anna Morgan, convicted of contempt for invoking the privilege against self-incrimination 37 times before the Ohio State Un-American Activities Commission. (1952)

31. Also on the same day the Court vacated the Ohio conviction of 3 other defendants, Raley, Stern and Brown, who had refused to answer before the same Commission questions about "suspected Communist and subversive activities in Ohio."

It should be noted that over half of the above cases relate to JEWS. Case 22 includes Sternberg, Richmond, Schneiderman, Starvus Stack, Churnin Kunitz. Other cases include Green, Gold, Mesarosh, Witkovich, Schware, Konigsberg, Kremen, Stein, Sentner, Sacher, Barenblatt, Flaxer, Wellman, Kaplan, Schatz, Winter, and Stern—ALL JEWS!

The foregoing record proves conclusively that the present majority of the Supreme Court is willfully subordinating the rights of the American public to the so-called "individual liberties" of traitors, security risks and other dubious characters. The rights under natural law for the people of a nation through its government to protect itself are being trampled upon by uncurbed judicial despots.

Congressmen Davis and Flynt of Georgia have made appropriate comments on the recent activities of the Court, as reported on page 8795 of the June 20, 1957, issue of the Congressional Record.

Representative Davis said:

"It seems that if there is one thing well settled, it is that a Communist cannot lose a case in the United States Supreme Court."

Representative Flynt is even more forceful, saying:

"Mr. Speaker, it is evident and it is clear that unless some action is taken to curb and check the unwarranted abuses of the Anglo-American system of jurisprudence by the present majority of the Supreme Court of the United States, they will gradually or precipitously devastate and shatter our Constitution, our laws, our statutes, the Congress of the United States, indeed our very Nation itself."

The future damage from the Court's ukases may be even greater than what has been described here. The Court has agreed to review the convictions of Claude Light-

The Nine Strong Men Of Our High Court!

By Sam Crockett

Hugo Black is the longest appointed member of the Court (1937); had no experience on the bench; accepted an award from the Communist Southern Conference for Human Welfare just after his appointment. (See Appendix IX, p. 1591) He is one of the sinister trio which has fought so viciously as members of the Court for a Soviet America from the very first. (The others of course are Frankfurter and Douglas). His wife sponsored the Communist Council of Young Southerners and the League of Young Southerners. (App. IX, pp. 675 and 1037)

William O. Douglas (1939) had no experience on the bench; brought his infamous career to a climax with his wilfull grant of an order to stay the execution of the Rosenbergs after the Court had ended its term. This order was granted by Douglas on intervention by a stranger to the case who had been convicted as a dissolute person by California, the case having reached the Supreme Court 6 months previously with Douglas dissenting against conviction. (Edelman vs. State of Cal. 1/12/52) His wife sponsored the Communist League of Women Shoppers and its Washington branch. (App. IX, pp. 1009 and 1023)

These citations quoted are only tiny surface indications of the entire record of these justices, even though most of them have been careful to avoid open subversive affiliations.

Felix Frankfurter (1939) sponsored the Communist Medical Bureau and Committee to Aid Spanish Democracy. App. IX, p. 1611 He is the Jew who rules the Court with an iron fist. (Warren is merely the weak figure-head) He was a main incorporator of the ACLU, a Communist front, so cited; a member of the legal staff of the NAACP for many years, "had assisted that organization in making plans for and in the realization of its objectives as a Communist-front organization to advocate, propagandize and litigate to bring on racial strife to secure racial integration from which his own race is immune on religious grounds, as a part of the Communist objectives in the U.S." (See Ga. Resolution re. Impeachment, pp. 8 and 9, 2/22/57)

While teaching law at Harvard, his secretary was a known Communist. He placed Alger Hiss in the government and Wyzanski, a Jew, as a Federal Judge in Mass., who later fought successfully for Oppenheimer's acceptance as a lecturer at Harvard in 1957. Other of his proteges were Biddle, Acheson, McCloy, Nathan Witt, Lee Pressman, Lauchlin Currie—the last named, another alien and a Soviet agent. His brother Otto is an ex-convict, served time in W. Va. and in Iowa State Prison.

An investigation is underway to determine if Frankfurter is actually a citizen of the U.S! There is some doubt that he is as there does not seem to be any legal proof of his citizenship other than his unsupported word. He came to this country from Austria when 12 years old.

He was a member of the Advisory Committee of the Socialist Workers Education Bureau of America, counsel for the Tom Mooney Commission, attorney for anarchists Sacco-Vanzetti and the Communist Tom Mooney, supported the Scottsboro Rapists, etc. (See Common Sense issue 255 for his complete detailed record and the sources thereof)

Earl Warren (1953) appointed to the Supreme Court as Chief Justice as an award and in place of Robert Taft, for his key support of Ike's candidacy for President; has denied that the Communist Party secretly or publicly ordered its membership to support him for Governor of California. Nevertheless, it is doubtful that even he would deny now that the Communist Party would gladly support him for any office he might wish, including the Presidency.

William Brennan (1956) was attacked by Sen. McCarthy for pro-Communist utterances before his appointment to the Court. McCarthy was a right-wing Catholic and Brennan a left-wing Catholic.

John Harlan (1955) was supported widely by the Negro and Jewish Communist press when appointed due to his father's previous record on the Supreme Court and because it was anticipated he would follow the same pattern of appeasement of minorities. He has not disappointed them.

Harold Burton (1945) a Unitarian, as mayor of Cleveland, officially welcomed the delegates to the 3rd U.S. Congress Against War and Fascism, a Communist operation. (Appendix IX, p. 1094)

Tom Clark (1949) who ran with the majority of pro-Communist decisions of the Court until last month, is now seemingly scared of what is going on and may not be privy to the orders which were given to Warren et al, on the Court. He has had no practice on the bench and was kicked upstairs by Truman before the investigation of the Dept. of Justice then pending got too close for comfort.

Charles Evans Whittaker (1957) hasn't had a chance to prove his fidelity to the Court's pro-Soviet bias, but it is not expected that he will attempt to deviate.

Sen. Eastland warned the country over a year ago that "the Supreme Court had been indoctrinated and brainwashed by left-wing pressure groups; that individual members of the Court were guilty of grossly improper conduct in accepting awards and emoluments from groups and organizations interested in political litigation before the Court."

David Lawrence (N.Y. Herald Tribune, 6/5/57, p. 25) asked "Who really writes the decisions of the Supreme Court Justices? Do they use 'ghost writers'...Should the public be told what part of the decision is actually written by a Justice and what part is the composition of his law clerk? These questions have arisen not only because of the occasional expressions and phrasing which appear in Supreme Court opinions that seem conspicuously different from the accustomed writings of a Justice in his previous career but because the whole subject had just been opened up by the Commission on Government Security (12 citizens appointed by the President, Senate and House) which issued a recommendation that hereafter the judicial branch of the government should 'take...steps to insure that its employees are loyal...'"

Lawrence here has almost laid bare the notorious secret bandied privately among Washington investigators—that the law clerks and other personnel aiding the Court are RIDDLED WITH COMMUNISTS AND PRO-COMMUNISTS. It is explicitly in this area of investigation that there lies real hope of exposing the true machinations going on behind the august portals of the Court. The scandal which would result from the revelation that these petty, inadequate, evil men who crawled through slime to be appointed to the Supreme Court are merely the willing tools of their own subordinates and other external agents who dictate all major political decisions by the Court, would rock the foundations of the Judicial Jugger-naut that has been formed since FDR took office.

Hints of this can be found in a book "Nine Men. A Political History of the Supreme Court from 1790 to 1955" by Fred Rodell, Random House, 1955. $5.00. A Jew and member of the Communist-front National Lawyers Guild, reviews this book in the Lawyers Guild Review for the winter of 1956. The reviewer, Murray A Gordon, fulminates at length against Rodell for his attack upon the Court (strange, isn't it for a writer for the Red-front N.L.G. to defend the Court?) "Virtually each member of the Court is said by Rodell to be a servitor of his class interest—subtly or powerfully if able; without grace or force if mediocre... even (a) few renegades never succeed in deterring the Court from collectively yielding to the importunities of the monied interests or to the necessities of the political origins of the members of the Court...the Court is the sanctuary of sanctimonious political partisanship...the decisions of the Court are merely the expressions of individual political predilections...a Court...devoid of principle...the Court is simply the abode of a handful of men, each intent upon following his political and economic star."

Louis C. Wyman (N.Y. Times 6/25/57, p. 1) Attorney General of New Hampshire and head of the National Association of Attorney's General, publicly rebuked the Court in Sun Valley, Idaho, stated the Court's decisions relating to subversive activities "have set the U.S. back 25 years in its attempt to make certain that those loyal to a foreign power cannot create another Trojan horse here." He urged that the attorneys general support four courses of action: Clarify the 10th Amendment, which covers powers reserved to the states, and recommend the clarification at once to the 48 States; (2) Call for a method that would give the States "a greater voice in the confirmation of appointments to the Court than now exists through the U.S. Senate."; (3) Support legislation "designed to insulate against judicial legislation in derogation of a State sovereignty."; (4) The Conference named a special committee on internal security to prepare legislation for introduction at the present session of Congress.

With these recommendations and the suggestion made above COMMON SENSE concurs.

Hate Literature Hits The State

Republished from a Miami newspaper.

An "extremely large circulation" of hate literature throughout Florida was reported Monday by B'nai B'rith's Anti-Defamation League.

Nate Perlmutter, ADL state director, said "Common Sense," a newspaper printed in New Jersey, apparently was shipped into Florida, then re-mailed locally.

Perlmutter said the printing probably was distributed by a local group, and was mailed to a select list of officials, newspapermen and others in influential positions.

Now isn't this too bad?

"Hate literature," according to the ADL, is literature which exposes the world-wide Jewish Communist conspiracy. The Anti-Defamation League is the Jewish F.B.I., and the militant arm of B'nai B'rith. (Invisible Government) foot and Junius Scales under the membership clause of the Smith Act, which clause may become a casualty. Indeed the Daily Worker is subtly suggesting that the Smith Act itself may be later held unconstitutional, and this is not a remote possibility, for the Court has overruled itself before, as in the desegregation decision.

This news item makes no mention of the tons of brainwashing literature circulated by the ADL in Christian church circles, schools, factories and government.

It has also agreed to review Wilson et al, v. Loews, Inc. et al., which will involve the old Communist charge of "blacklisting" in Hollywood by the 23 writers and actors who brought this suit.

A dispatch just received from London England, quotes the Communist Daily Worker as praising the United States Supreme Court! (why shouldn't they? Ed.)

The Supreme Court is, in the words of its late member, Oliver Wendell Holmes, "a clear and present danger" to the United States. Its present majority is levying war against the United States, which constitutes treason under the Constitution. The appropriate Constitutional remedy is IMPEACHMENT."

We strongly urge all readers of COMMON SENSE to support as candidates for the House of Representatives only those men who will not shrink from IMPEACHMENT. The General Assembly of the home State of Congressmen Davis and Flynt has taken the lead by adopting a Resolution for IMPEACHMENT.

IF A MAJORITY OF THE STATES FOLLOW GEORGIA'S LEAD, THEIR SENATORS AND REPRESENTATIVES MUST SUPPORT IMPEACHMENT PROCEEDINGS. BUT YOU MUST FIRST FORCE ACTION BY PRESSURE UPON YOUR STATE LEGISLATORS!

Paging Uncle Sam

Not every Jew is part of the Marxist conspiracy but many insincere Jews receive respect they do not deserve because Patriots are unable to properly screen them in fear of injuring the few Jews believed to be sincere. Jews as a whole are often defended by uninformed Christians; this provides a good cover for the majority to operate.

Here is a poem by a good foreign born Jewish person now living in California. "By their fruits ye shall know them."

PAGING UNCLE SAM

"Dear Uncle Sam, all that I am
Or ever hope to be,
I owe to you for all you do
To keep our country free;
Pressure groups hook many dupes,
(They're a crop that never fails)
Americanism needs a foreign "ism"
Like a cat would need two tails;
Let's remember the admonition
Of our own George Washington:
"FRIENDSHIP WITH ALL NATIONS EN-TANGLING ALLIANCES WITH NONE";
Why should we, bow to trickery
Of alien-minded organizations
Who use our Flag as a grab-bag
In behalf of foreign Nations;
Each Nation should fly its own Flag
To save its sovereignty,
My allegiance belongs to OLD GLORY
Its the only Flag for me."

Proof Positive--Communism Is Jewish From Start To Finish

WE HAVE STRIVED IN THIS ISSUE TO PROVE BEYOND A SHADOW OF DOUBT THAT COMMUNISM ALWAYS HAS BEEN JEWISH. THE EXCERPTS HEREIN ARE FROM THEIR OWN WRITINGS—BOOKS, NEWSPAPERS, MAGAZINES—MEANT ONLY FOR JEWISH EYES AND EARS—JUDGE FOR YOURSELF.

Reports from Hungary at this writing say thousands of Hungarians have been killed and thousands wounded by the Communists. Communism did not start in 1956, it was set up in 1917. Who organized, directed and financed it? Who has nursed and protected this Frankenstein during these last 38 years?

People who have the interest and courage to face facts regarding the world wide crisis are not surprised at the following quotations:

Winston Churchill in a speech to the House of Commons on Nov. 5, 1919 said:

"Certainly I dispute the title of the Bolsheviks to represent Russia...They despise such commonplace as nationality...No sooner did Lenin arrive than he began beckoning a finger here and a finger there to obscure persons in sheltered retreats in N. Y., in Glasgow, in Berne and other countries, and he gathered together the leading spirits of a most formidable sect, the most formidable sect in the world..."

(The London Sunday Herald on Feb. 8, 1920, carried an illustrated article entitled, "A Struggle for the Soul of the Jewish People," by Winston Churchill, from which the following is published.)

"Some people like Jews and some do not; but no thoughtful man can doubt the fact that they are beyond all question the most formidable and the most remarkable race which has ever appeared in the world."

"I deal here with the schemes of the International Jews. The adherents of this sinister confederacy are mostly men reared up among the unhappy populations of countries where Jews are persecuted on account of their race. Most, if not all, of them have forsaken the faith of their forefathers and divorced from their minds all spiritual hopes of the next world. This movement among the Jews is not new. From the days of Spartacus—Weishaupt to those of Karl Marx, and down to Trotsky (Russia), Bela Kun (Hungary), Rosa Luxembourg (Germany), and Emma Goldman (U. S.), this world-wide conspiracy for the overthrow of civilization and for the reconstitution of society on the basis of arrested development, of envious malevolence, and impossible equality, has been steadily growing. It played, as a modern writer, Mrs. Webster (author of World Revolution), has so ably shown, a definitely recognizable part in the tragedy of the French Revolution. It has been the mainspring of every subversive movement during the 19th Century; and now at last this band of extraordinary personalities from the underworld of the great cities of Europe and America have gripped the Russian people by the hair of their heads and have become practically the undisputed masters of that enormous empire."

and in the actual bringing about of the Russian Revolution by these international and for the most part atheistic Jews. It is certainly a very great one; it probably outweighs all others. With the notable exception of Lenin, the majority of the leading figures are Jews. Moreover, the principal inspiration and driving power comes from the Jewish leaders. Thus Tchitcherin, a pure Russian, is eclipsed by his nominal subordinate Litvinoff, and the influence of Russians like Bukharin or Lunacharski cannot be compared with the power of Trotsky, or of Zinovieff, the Dictator of the Red Citadel (Petrograd), or of Krassin or Radek—all Jews. In the Soviet institutions the prominence of Jews is even more astonishing. And the prominent, if not indeed the principal, part in the system of terrorism applied by the Extraordinary Commissions for Combating Counter Revo-

THEY WORK BOTH SIDES OF STREET

The Hungarian patriots are waging a costly war against their Bolshevik rulers and there are signs of revolt against Communism in most Communist controlled countries. Should there be a crumbling of Communist rule in all Communist countries, who or what forces will take charge?

People who are wondering if arrangements have been made can rest assured this has been taken care of. The machinery is all set and the American taxpayers have paid for it. For the last five years "characters" from the U.S. have been busy in Europe planning so as to be ready to step in and take over. Always secretive, but active. Who are they? None other than Jews.

Alexander Kerensky (real name Aaron Kirbiz) set up a Socialist government in Russia on March 12, 1917, and one of his first acts was to order every available copy of the Protocols destroyed. These the Jews claim are forgeries. Kerensky gave the government to the Bolsheviks Lenin and Trotsky (Bronstein) in Oct. 1917. For the last five years working with Kerensky in Europe are Jay Lovestone, who helped organize the Communist Party in the U.S., and Irving Brown, both Trotskyites and employees of David Dubinsky. Westbrook Pegler calls Lovestone and Brown anti-Kremlin Communists.

There is much evidence that David Dubinsky, Polish born Jew and czar of the International Garment Workers Union, with one quarter billion dollars reserve (N.Y. Times 5/14/56) has been receiving millions of dollars from our CIA (Central Intelligence Agency) to finance a swarm of Trotsky Jews working in Europe, perfecting a movement to take over and salvage Marxism in event of a Soviet collapse.

Students of the Jewish plot are aware that the Jews always work both sides of the street. If there is any organizing to be done, or any one going to fight Communism, they are going to direct it and smear everyone who questions them. They set up Communism in 1917; now, if it is to fall Trotskyite Jews are waiting with open arms to receive it and start all over again under another name.

No doubt the top Jews in the Soviet Union will be working with these Trotskyites when Stalin Communism falls. The three most important Jews in the present Bolshevik Soviet Union are Lazar Kaganovich, First Deputy Premier, and in charge of all industry and manpower; Anastas Mikoyan, Armenian Jew member of the Presidium, and Ashberg, top man of finance in the Soviet.

The present wholesale murder in Hungary reminds us of that terrible week during which 30,000 Ukrainians were slaughtered by Communists. Thousands of Ukrainians in the U.S., signed petitions—presented to FDR then Pres.—asking him to use his influence to stop the bloodshed: Roosevelt refused to even send a letter to Moscow. The fact that the Jews controlled the Kremlin and FDR is the answer.

This is not the first Bolshevik bloodbath given Hungary. During 1919 Bela Kun (Cohen) who had played a prominent part in the 1917 revolution in Russia, moved into Hungary with a large group of Jewish revolutionaries. Backed by the Soviet government Bela Kun became lution has been taken by the Jews, and in some notable cases by Jewesses. The same evil prominence was obtained by Jews in the brief period of terror during which Bela Kun ruled in Hungary. The same phenomenon has been presented in Germany (especially Bavaria), so far as this madness has been allowed to prey upon the temporary prostration of the German people. Although in all these countries there are many non-Jews every whit as bad as the worst of the Jewish revolutionaries, the part played by the latter in proportion to their numbers in the population is astonishing."

The following quotation is from an article in the Century Magazine, Jan. 1928, by Rabbi Marcus Eli Ravage:

"We have been at the bottom not merely of the latest war but of nearly all your wars, not only the Russian but of every other major revolution in your history. We have brought discord and confusion and frustration into your personal and public life. No one can tell how long we shall go on doing it...We still dominate you. At this moment your churches are torn asunder by civil war between Fundamentalists and Modernists."

The "Jewish World" of London issued this statement on Jan. 10, 1929:

"The fact of Bolshevism itself, the fact that so many Jews are Bolsheviks, the fact that the ideal of Bolshevism so nearly resembles the cherished ideals of Judaism, should make the serious Jew reflect with care."

"Jewish Life" of N. Y., issue of May, 1938, under the title "Anti-Semitism Must Be Defeated" declared:

"Every Jew who is sincerely interested in the plight of the Jews...should realize that the best sons of the Jewish people are the Jewish Communists, and that the most faithful ally of the Jews...is the Communist Party."

The late Rabbi Judah L. Magnes was even more explicit when he told a N. Y. audience in 1919:

"Revolutionaries, socialists, bolsheviks, majority or minority socialists, under whatever name we may call them, are Jews, and they are to be found in every revolutionary movement as leaders or propagandists."

The "Jewish Communal Register" of 1917-18, published by "Kehillih (Jewish Community) of N. Y.," 356 2nd Ave., N. Y. (p. 1019) praises Jacob Schiff head of Kuhn Loeb & Co. for financing the Russian Red Revolution.

"Without exaggeration it may be said that the great Russian Revolution was indeed accomplished by the hands of the Jews." Statement of the Jew M. Cohen in "The Communist Charkov," April 12, 1919.

"The world revolution which we will experience will be exclusively our affair and will rest in our hands. This revolution will tighten the Jewish domination over all other people." Paris Jewish magazine, "Peuple Juif," Feb. 8, 1919.

"War to the hilt between Communism and Capitalism is inevitable. Today, of course, we are not strong enough to attack. Our time will come in 20 or 30 years. To win we shall need the element of surprise. The bourgeoisie will have to be put to sleep. So we shall begin by launching the most spectacular peace movement on record. There will be electrifying overtures and unheard of concessions. The capitalist countries, stupid and decadent, will rejoice to cooperate in their own destruction. They will leap at another chance to be friends. As soon as their guard is down, we shall smash them with our clenched fist."

Dimitry Z. Manuisky (Jew)
Presiding Officer UN Security Council, 1949
From a speech before the Lenin School of Political Warfare, 1931

The following are from the "Protocols" which the Jews claim are forgeries:

"...Far back in ancient times we were the first to cry among the masses of the people the words 'Liberty, Equality, Fraternity.' ...and with them carried away the well-being of the world..." (Protocol 1)

"...Remember the French Revolution to which it was we who gave the name of 'Great'; the secrets of its preparations are well known to us for it was WHOLLY THE WORK OF OUR HANDS." (Protocol 3)

"...The intensification of armaments, the increase of police forces, are all essential for the completion of the aforementioned plans. What we have to get at is that there should be in all the States of the world, besides ourselves, only the masses of the proletariat, a few millionaires devoted to our interests, police and soldiers." (Protocol 7)

"...We must be in a position to respond to EVERY ACT OF OPPOSITION BY WAR with the neighbors of that country which dares to oppose us; but if those neighbors should also venture to stand collectively together against us, then we must offer resistance by a universal war." (Protocol 7)

The following is from the booklet "Jewish Anti-Communism".

From the very beginning of the modern Communist movement, its principal philosophical and practical motivation has been provided by the International Jew. Communism, in the Slavic states such as Russia, Hungary and Poland, was and is a predominantly Jewish movement; in the early days of the Russian Revolution, the reins of the Soviet government were almost entirely in the hands of Bolshevik Jews such as Trotsky, Zinovieff, Kamenev, Radek, Sverdlov, and Litvinov. Lenin, believed to be a gentile, was married to a Jewess, N. Kroupskaia, and contemporary anti-Communist historians recorded that the couple spoke only Yiddish in their home. The strongly Jewish flavor of the Bolshevik government was not confined to the higher echelons of officialdom; in the Politburo, the strongest governmental department, Jews numbered more than eight times the strength in proportion to their membership in the Communist Party, which was itself not inconsiderable. The Politburo remained almost exclusively Jewish throughout the increasing from forty per cent in early days of the regime, their number 1919, to 42.9 per cent in 1922. The Press Bureau, which was in charge of the conditioning of the Russian people through the propaganda media of the public press, was almost completely Jewish in complexion; the Jew Radolsky was appointed official censor of all Soviet journalistic activities in one of Lenin's first governmental appointments. Jewish influence was especially powerful in the Central Council of Commissaries. In 1920, the Central Council consisted of 20 members, of which 17 were Jews, and 3 gentiles. The Commissariat of War at the same time consisted of 43 members, of which no less than 34 were Jews. In the Commissariat of the Provinces, 21 out of 23 belonged to the same race, as did 45 out of the 55 members of the Commissariat of the Interior. The Commissariat for Foreign Affairs was comprised of 17 members; out of this number, 14 were Jews. Taken as a whole, the percentage of Jews in the Commissariats, the highest offices of Revolutionary Russia, was during the Lenin regime as follows:

In 1917-18, out of 316 Commissars, 300 were Jews.

In 1920, out of 457 Commissars, 322 were Jews.

In 1921, out of 550 Commissars, 447 were Jews.

In 1922, out of 525 Commissars, 445 were Jews.

The U. S. Secret Service (a forerunner of the present Central Intelligence Agency) was aware of this Jewish influence in the Soviet government, and circulated to allied governments a confidential report on the matter, from which we quote extensively below:

SECTION I.-In February, 1916, it was first discovered that a revolution was being fomented in Russia. It was found that the following persons, as well as the banking houses mentioned, were engaged in this work of destruction; Jacob Schiff, Guggenheim, Max Breiting, Kuhn, Loeb & Co., Jewish banking houses of which the following are directors: Jacob Schiff, Felix Warburg, Otto Kahn, Mortimer Schiff, S. H. Hannauer. (All Jewish.)

SECTION II.-In the spring of 1917, Jacob Schiff began to supply funds to Trotsky (Bronstein) to bring about the social revolution in Russia. The N. Y. "Daily Forward", which is a Judeo-Bolshevik organ, gave a subscription for the same cause.

SECTION III.-In Oct. 1917, the social revolution took place in Russia, thanks to which certain Soviet institutions took over the direction of the Russian people. In these Soviets the following people (all Jewish) made themselves remarkable: Lenin (real name Unianoff); Trotsky (Bronstein); Steckloff (Nakames); Martoff (Zederbaum); Zinovieff (Apfelbaum); Parvus (Helphand); Uritsky (Padomilsky); Larin (Largo); Bohrin (Nathansohn); Martinoff (Zibar); Bogdanoff (Zilberstein); Dan (Gourevitch); Genetsky (Furstenburg); Garin (Garfeld); Suchanoff (Zilberstein); Sanchanoff (Gimel); Kammelf (Goldman); Segersky (Krochman); Elszanoff (Bleichmann); Pistnitsky (Ziwin); Axelrod (Orthodox); Glasunoff (Schultze); Zuriesian (Weinstein); Lapinsky (Lowensohn).

SECTION IV.-At the same time the Jew Paul Warburg was remarked to be in active contact with certain Bolshevik notables in the U.S.A. This circumstance, together with other points about which information has been obtained, was the cause of his not being elected again to the Federal Reserve.

SECTION V.-On the other hand, Judas Magnes, subsidized by Jacob Schiff, is in close touch with the world wide Zionist organization (Paole Zion) of which in fact he is director. The final end of this organization is to establish the international supremacy of the Jewish Labor movement.

SECTION VII.-Scarcely had the social revolution broken out in Germany when the Jewess Rosa Luxemburg automatically assumed the political direction of it. One of the chief leaders of the international Bolshevik movement was the Jew, Haas. At the same time the social revolution developed along the same lines as the social revolution in Russia.

SECTION VIII If we bear in mind the Jewish banking house of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. is in touch with the Westphalian Rhineland Syndicate, German Jewish house; and with the two brothers Lazare (Jewish House in Paris); and if in addition we remark that all the above mentioned Jewish houses are in close touch with the Jewish houses of Jacob Speyer of London, New York, and Frankfurt-on-Main, as well as with Nyan Banken, Judeo-Bolshevik house at Stockholm; it will be manifest that the Bolshevik movement is in a general measure the expression of a general Jewish movement, and that certain Jewish banking houses are interested in the organization of this movement.

FURTHER PROOF

During 1917 Yiddish speaking Jews had set up Communism in Russia and had 100% control of Communism up until 1948.

During 1933, shortly after FDR was elected, the Communist Soviet Union's government was about to fall apart and the only way it could be saved was to stabilize it by recognition by the United States.

The Ambassador from the Soviet Union—Maxim Litvinoff (Finkelstein) a Jew, was pressing FDR to recognize these Godless, anti-Christian gangsters

The New York Jews who were the main strength in FDR's election, demanded recognition of the Soviet Union and FDR complied, thus saving Communism as he was to do again later.

Before World War II, Yiddish speaking Jews were pouring into Germany from the Soviet Union, through Czechoslovakia to assist the native Jews in taking over Germany from the inside, and stopping the German opposition to Communism.

In order to prevent a Communist revolution inside Germany, the Jews were placed in concentration camps, and immediately all over the world they screamed persecution and deceived the gullible public as to why they were placed under observation. The Jews in London, Paris, and also the U.S., where they had complete control of the Roosevelt Administration, brought pressure on the government to wage war on Germany.

Col. Charles Lindbergh in a speech for the America First Committee, stated that the Jews were pushing us into war, and immediately FDR branded Lindbergh as a "Copperhead" and stripped him of his rank of Colonel. Jewish advertisers forced the newspapers to give Lindbergh the silent treatment for many years.

Although the U. S. sunk German ships in the process of taking supplies to England before war actually existed between the US and Germany, the Germans disregarded it, not wanting to have the U.S. declare open war on them.

Churchill pressured FDR to force Japan into attacking us which he did, bringing on the Pearl Harbor disaster, which allowed the U.S. to declare open war on Germany. The Jews pressured FDR into sending two-thirds of the Pacific Fleet against Germany. Among those influential in Washington were Rabbi Stephen Wise, Felix Frankfurter, Bernard Baruch and Henry Morgenthau, Jr. We went to war against Germany and gave eleven billion LEND-LEASE material to the Communist Soviet Union. Germany was on the verge of conquering the Soviet Union, and would have ended Communism in Europe. German armies were only 20 miles from Moscow and would have captured Stalingrad had it not been for the enormous help from our Jewish controlled government in Washington.

Germany, which had kept Communism hemmed up in the Soviet Union, was crushed. The Communists now, with no opposition, have spread out taking over 16 countries, including China with its 550 million people. COMMUNISM MARCHES ON!

Jews solidly entrenched in all the principal governments maneuver hate among the nations,—one group against the other—and before the citizens can recover from the staggering sacrifice of bloodshed and taxes (World War II cost U.S. taxpayers 350 billion dollars) a new alignment of hate is developed and governments put their taxpayers under more debt to the International Bankers. This will go on and on until the gullible Christians dig deep and look into the phony "brotherly love" propaganda, which prevents the source and cause from being generally known.

The European Jews did not remain in Europe to fight Germany. They swarmed into the U.S. and screamed for our boys to go over and fight. These very same Jews in the U.S., added billions to their wealth and now boast that in the U.S. they enjoy more power than at any other time in the history of the world.

WHY DO JEWS CREATE SUBVERSIVE MOVEMENTS?

The Jewish people are taught, and believe that before their Messiah comes they are to have complete control of the world.

BOTH SIDES OF THE STREET

Dictator of Hungary (from Mar. 22 to July 31, 1919) and had 30,000 Christians slaughtered.

The new international yearbook of 1919 (Dodd Meade & Co., p. 587) states that "the government of Bela Kun was composed almost exclusively of Jews who held all administrative offices." With Bela Kun during his bloody rule over Hungarian Christians, was Matyas Rakosi (Rosenweig). They escaped from prison to the Soviet Union and Rakosi returned to Hungary in 1945 with the Red Army. Appointed Vice President of the Communist regime in 1946, and in 1950 this Jew became Dictator of Hungary, he resigned July 18, 1956. These two Communists, Bela Kun and Matyas Rakosi, butchered thousands of Hungarian Christians.

The 7 top government positions during the rule of Rakosi were all filled by Jews: Matyas Rakosi—Dictator, Peter Gabor (Beno Auspitz)—Chief of Political Police, Erno Gero (Singer)—Minister of Finance, Zoltan Vas (Weinberger)—Chief of Planning, Joseph Reval (Roth)—Minister of Education, Ivan Boldizar (Blum)—Chief of Press Foreign Affairs, Miholy Farkas—Minister of Defense. COMMON SENSE has the names of many more.

Our present administration in an apparent humanitarian move set 5,000 as the number of

With only 16 million in a population of two and one half billion, the Jews must control governments and mass membership in labor organizations. Communism and Socialism are two of the twelve hundred fronts organized by them in the U.S. alone.

Judaism is a cult based entirely on the hatred of Christianity. We quote here two of more than 100 anti-Christian statements COMMON SENSE has in its files. These statements are made by noted Jewish leaders.

Joseph Dunner, Zionist Jew, in "The Republic of Israel," page 10, of Oct. 1950, stated the following:

"To Christians of all denominations Jesus is the symbol of all that is pure, sacred, and lovely. To Jews from the fourth century, Jesus became the symbol of anti-Semitism, of libel, of cruelty, of death."

Ben Hecht, Zionist writer of Hollywood on page 20 of "A Jew in Love," wrote:

"One of the finest things ever done by the mob was the Crucifixion of Christ. Intellectually it was a splendid gesture. But trust the mob to bungle. If I'd had charge of executing Christ I'd have handled it differently. You see, what I'd have done was had him shipped to Rome and fed to the lions. They could not have made a Savior out of mincemeat."

Now after 38 years of Communist activity, public sentiment is rising against Communism. The American Jewish Committee and the Anti-Defamation League are making frantic efforts to turn the spot light away from them. They are even distributing a few "milk-toast" leaflets against Communism.

Hungarian refugees to be admitted. Fine, let's take in plenty of good Hungarian CHRISTIANS. But quickly the Jewish organizations who have been campaigning to break down the McCarran Walters Act and admit hordes were busy, and the number was raised to 21,000. Now Vice Pres. Nixon is in Austria to look into the refugee problem and the N.Y. newspapers are remarking that the number will be raised again.

Only 3% of Hungarians are Jews. Why such a high percentage of Jewish refugees? Gullible Americans are supposed to believe they are escaping from Communism. This is ridiculous. The regime in Hungary has been Jewish since Communism took over and these Jews have been living high off the Christian people.

COMMON SENSE has on-the-spot information from Budapest that there are 28,000 Secret Police in Hungary, practically all are Jews, and when the freedom fighters revolted they swore they would kill every one. This is one reason for the rush of Hungarian Jews; Another reason is that the highly organized Jewish organizations are reinforcing this emergency to open the gates to these European Jews, a large number of which are Communist.

Delegations of representatives of the American Jewish Congress, Joint Distribution Committee (Jewish), United HIAS service, and Zachariah Schuster, European director of American Jewish Committee, are very busy in Austria and very influential in Washington.

There is no way yet to tell how many Communist Secret Police will slip through and be given jobs in the Defense Dept.

Should anyone challenge these Communist Hungarian Jews he would immediately be brand as anti-Semitic. When Sen. McCarthy (the only man who ever put Drew Pearson in his place) found the 42 Communists in Fort Monmouth N.J.,—38 were Jews, the A.D.L. cried "anti-Semitism!" (WHO PROMOTED PERESS the COMMUNIST?)

The Zionist Jews in the U.S. are doing all they possibly can to take the spotlight off of their scheming plans to destroy CHRISTIANITY.

Red Aliens Infiltrate Our C.I.C.!

By an on the spot observer

Recent changing events and trends in the world situation came as a surprise to men in official government circles and went a long way to point out how totally inefficient and useless the super-secret hush, hush CIA organization is, and for that matter the Armed Forces intelligence services as well. Inefficiency is bad but can be corrected by careful study, planning and gradual improvement. What is by far worse is enemy infiltration by propaganda agents as our "early warning" network of news reporters and analysts. Some of the State Dept. secret reports on recent events in Poland and Hungary stand out as proof that some of the Soviet Union's agents are not only working undercover on our public news services but also on the official CIA and US Army intelligence units as well, as for instance the sly digs made about the uprisings in Poland to the effect that the Polish people didn't quite make up their minds about whether they should be loyal to Moscow or some kind of "national" Communism or possibly some kind of "Tito" Communism. This peculiar mention of "national" Communism was strange and could not have been a mistake in analysis inasmuch as anyone acquainted with the subject of Communism understands that both religion and nationality are criminal offenses behind the Iron Curtain. Also, we know for a fact that all Polish people in Poland are fanatically loyal to Poland and to their Christian faith. There are no "Christian" Communists and there are no "national" Communists, because Communism is a criminal and subversive Jewish conspiracy which our ancestors referred to as "secret Judaism" when they restricted Jewish travels and activities to assigned ghettos.

The comic opera CIA network was founded by the Dulles brothers on the proposition that home front Communists are a group of political party members representing not much more than a difference of opinion which should be respected in a Democracy, and that Communists in foreign countries are to be investigated as a combination of so many reasons why we have to send out point 4 Aid, Mutual Security relief, our defense forces, etc., to foreign countries and put whole nations on relief. The reason we taxpayers were given for starting up such a CIA operation, was as "an early warning system." However, that covers a multitude of errors and much by way of downright stupidity to the Soviet advantage.

The Army has its intelligence and counter-intelligence teams spread all over foreign countries wherever our troops and military attaches are located. The principle is that it is extremely important that we learn as much as possible about enemy intentions, enemy capabilities and possible courses of action. The counter-intelligence agents are to protect our installations from enemy espionage, sabotage, subversive activities, treason, sedition, etc. in other words mainly keeping our own positions secure from enemy spies and disruption agents. Intelligence and counter-intelligence operations in foreign countries naturally require foreign language specialists which means, considering that Americans are generally poor at learning foreign languages, we use mainly foreign-born personnel most of whom come from the new DP invasion of the US since 1945. The former Army CIC (counter-intelligence corpsmen) operating in Europe was almost entirely composed of German-Jews from the 1938 and 1939 immigration. These men illegally wore officers uniforms on the pretext that their rank was secret and these "damn Krauts" respect only military rank. They also confiscated the swankiest villas of each town which, interestingly enough was the same first move of the first Soviet secret police, the Cheka, during the Revolution. In their cellars they set up "interrogation rooms" which were actually torture chambers.

This situation was especially disturbing in consideration of the fact that a CIC man also conducts loyalty checks as a security measure and what is a man to think if his loyalty to the land of his birth is to be checked by some politically undesirable out-cast of a foreign country. The only attempt to correct this situation came about when these agents were rotated back to the U.S., mostly around 1950 and 1951. As CIC men they were reassigned by orders from the Army CIC center of Fort Holabird, Md. and mostly put on duties in different cities conducting interviews in conjunction with loyalty checks on native born Americans. It was naturally sensational how citizens got worked up when so many sloppy looking foreign Jews with cigars stuck in their faces went around asking questions and badgering Germans. People called up police stations, US Army units, FBI and several other agencies until a new directive was issued outlining personnel requirements for admittance to the Corps. On recommendation of one Colonel it followed that the new agents were solicited from young college men on the same principle as carried out by the CIA. This ends up with younger men that were trained with liberal arts college and some blitz course in German or other appropriate language accepting the serious responsibilities of defining our nations enemies, which they do by pointing them out as some fascinating, exciting, intellectual challenge. The Russians know this and oblige with a steady stream of confusion agents of a variety of nationalities to keep these men running in circles and clear the path for their own agents to operate without interference. One Army Lt. could never figure out how it was all the spies his agents caught were originally given an almost useless question guide for their activities, such questions that could be answered practically by reading newspapers and passing by the army installation in question, as for instance, how many tanks the battalion has, who is the battalion commander and how does the unit cooperate with the police, etc. By the time the Lt. finds out that espionage is a very carefully defined science and that any alert plan or plan of attack is based on more serious questioning than what confusion agents are capable of, it will have been time for him to rotate to other duties and some other agent assigned to learn the whole racket from scratch.

The entire counter-intelligence corps in Europe, as well as MIS or CIA agents that often times pass themselves off as CIC agents or Dept. of the Army civilians affiliated with the CIC, has recently been totally discredited to the point where they became the laughing stock of Europe, and any civilian would feel uneasy and embarrassed to have any contact with such an organization or any of its agents. The reason is the popular German film, "The Major and the Steers" which showed the last days of the German army and the first days of the American army occupation in one of the South German hill-billy towns in the Bavarian Alps. The American soldiers were shown as a fine bunch of men, full of good cheer with plenty of laughs, and a desirable bunch of men to have around. Who was the villain of the picture but the CIC man whom the picture lampooned as being ignorant, bad mannered, stupid and downright obnoxious. The misunderstandings between our troops and the Germans was portrayed as mischief which always resolves itself in the end in an eventual harmony, but the antics of the CIC man were clearly Communistic, as was shown in one example of him appointing a "democratic" county clerk in the person of a notorious confidence man and swindler. The American agents generally don't know these things because they usually don't mix in local affairs more than necessary to put out an occasional report here and there to justify their existence.

The MIS (Military Intelligence Service) is made up mainly of naturalized aliens, and in many cases some aliens that are not naturalized, as in the case of one Saul Steinberg who is allegedly from near Peiping, China, and who was employed as a prisoner of war interrogator during the Korean War. He spoke a perfect English that one would ordinarily only know if he were born and raised in the U.S., and also a perfect Russian. His Chinese was faulty so naturally what could anybody conclude but that he is in reality from Biro Bidjan, that part of the Soviet Empire where nothing ever comes out except for more "bona fide/DP's" or the so-called "refugees" to immigrate to the U.S. In this way with any new "crisis" to crop in one country or another, as for instance in Hungary at the present time, personnel of the US Army, State Dept. and private research foundations that assist the various intelligence units all together comb through their personnel files and dig out all available men that know the particular foreign language peculiar to this area of operations. It is for this reason that it comes as a terrible shock to the anti-Communist refugee that risks his life to escape to the free West, away from the dreaded Soviet secret police organizations, only to find himself being interrogated by some Russian Mongolian Jew, this time as an American intelligence chief in the West.

The question comes up as to who screens all such kind of aliens that come to America as every kind of refugee or displaced person (and eventually end up as MIS men) and what kind of security precaution is taken to weed out undesirables. The US Army CIC men were for several years since the war, on loan to the State Dept. for visa screening operations because of "shortage of personnel" in being able to handle the huge masses of immigrants being admitted on Truman's different emergency immigration deals. This sounds impressive to describe "rigid screening by US Army counter-intelligence agents" but what was actually the case, was that in each area of operations the CIC always assigned their stupidest agent or their poorest foreign language specialist, on the principle that there was not a thing in the world they could ever do to prevent any undesirable from getting his immigration visa, so why not use the better agents for more colorful type jobs, investigating suspicious foreigners for espionage and any subversive activities that would look nice on paper reports and better justify their existence?

This is an actual fact: any Christian that had an entry on police files no matter how small and insignificant, was barred from entry to the U.S. and Jews were never held back by any crime except for crimes of "moral turpitude". In this way, they came in on every single quota as Poles, Hungarians, Lithuanians, Latvians, etc. The biggest mastermind in this situation was and still is Saul Moscovitz of the HICOG Board of Appeals in Munich, aided for many years by the former Region Chief of the CIC there, a Colonel Aaron Banks, who attained his position by political pull only. If some CIC agent acting on his own would find any reason to detain a visa applicant, he would find himself transferred to some other less influential position or, if his written report would get through to the right channels, the CIC Region chief would later on get an official letter through official channels from Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, or some other friend of the Zionists demanding to know why this displaced person could not enter the U.S.

Are Communists Entering U.S. Disguised As "Refugees"?

On all sides people are asking—how about these Hungarian Refugees? How many are good—how many bad? We have heard many reports, none official, for no official report can be made or dare be made, but after talking to a number of people who have been at Camp Kilmer, the reports are very alarming—indicating that a very large number of the refugees are Jews, the percentage running from 40% to 70%.

Several people from whom we have these reports are in positions to give reliable information. One official said they were having difficulty in securing sufficient number of people to translate Yiddish.

On the night of Friday, Dec. 21st, two Military Air Transport Service planes were unable to land at Fort Dix, N.J. due to a very heavy fog, the planes were rerouted to Newark Airport, where they made a safe landing. Later 6 Army buses transported the 114 refugees to Camp Kilmer. Three persons of the staff of COMMON SENSE were at the same airport, and from all observations and appearances, at least 65% of the refugees were Jews—and surprisingly well dressed at that!

Naturally, the highly organized Jewish Agencies—HIAS and the American Jewish Committee are well organized and alert enough to prevent the public from realizing that they are so successful in circumventing the McCarran-Walter Immigration Law.

The first plane load of refugees to arrive in America carried 60, the papers slipped up by stating that 24 were Jewish. There is no way of knowing exactly how many Jews have arrived for many years. During FDR's Administration, the Justice Dept. changed the procedure so that it is not permissible to ask any refugee if they are Jewish. This covered up for the swarm of Jews who came to the U.S. when Germany began war on the Communists. The Jews today come in as French, German, Polish, etc.—and as the Jews control our immigration machinery in Europe, they can and do use up the largest part of the quota.

For years following World War II, our immigration machinery in Europe, and particularly in Germany, made it very difficult for people opposed to Communism to come to the U.S. but the red tape was removed for those who favored Communism. Groups who were known to oppose Communism were urged to go to Australia. Is the immigration authorities in Austria now being bluffed and directed by Marxist Jews?

The Newark Star Ledger, of Dec. 23rd, quotes three freedom fighters from Hungary, who were in Austria for 10 days, as stating that certain men in charge of the questioning, if slipped $25.00 in American money, would see that you receive a visa in two days, otherwise people would have to wait for weeks or never get a visa at all. They said the greatest shock of all was to see visas bought not only by refugees who were not freedom fighters, but who were not even Hungarians!

The N.Y. Daily News of Dec. 18th, carries a report of a talk that Sen. Herbert Lehman made before the Women's Div. of the American Jewish Congress at the Waldorf Astoria. Mr. Lehman told these Zionist women that provisions in the McCarran Walter Act to prevent Communists from coming into this country were "booby traps" and he was happy they were being disregarded in dealing with the Hungarian refugees and that we should drop these provisions entirely from our immigration law.

Congressman Francis Walter of Penna. went to Austria immediately after provisions were made to admit refugees to the U.S. and had been supervising the work. Several days ago he returned to the U.S.—now it would be very interesting to know

NO CHRISTIANS AVAILABLE?

The COMMON SENSE staff living here in the Metropolitan area among approximately six million Jews know that the entire Jewish vote went for Adlai Stevenson—no doubt all informed people are aware of this.

However, the Jews apparently still control IKE, who said in a speech in Los Angeles during the 1952 campaign, "For many years I sat at the feet of Bernard Baruch and listened to his words of wisdom." Eisenhower has appointed J.D. Zellerbach as Ambassador to Italy. The appointment must be approved by the U.S. Senate but that is regarded as a certainty, and why not? Here are some of his qualifications:

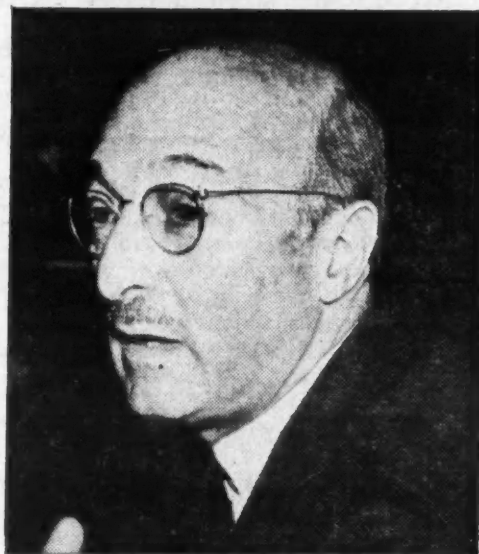

Member of United World Federalists, who are out to junk our Constitution and set up World Government. Fund for the Republic, which finances anti anti-Communists and other Marxist movements.

Committee for an Effective Congress that spent several million to destroy Sen. McCarthy's crusade against Communism.

Institute of Pacific Relations, which was packed with Communists.

He heads the $450 million Crown-Zellerbach Corp. His brother, Harold, is a member of the executive committee of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations.

Best of all, he is a Zionist Jew like those who fill practically all important administrative positions in our Government and as further evidence that Zellerbach should be confirmed, we submit, there is not a single Christian in the one hundred and sixty seven million people in the U.S. who is qualified. As with Anna Rosenberg, who was placed in the Dept. of Defense, in charge of hiring all man-power for over 115 Government departments, there was not a Christian man in the U.S. who was smart enough. (WHO DID PROMOTE PERESS?)

The American Legion and many other good Americans oppose the appointment of Zellerbach, but despite this, the U.S. Senate will confirm him. (Due to Jewish pressure) Simon E. Sobeloff, the Russian born Jew, just why Cong. Walter has been prevented from reporting directly to Pres. Eisenhower until Vice Pres. Nixon could return from his hurried trip to Austria and make his own report.

From reliable reports it is believed the Zionist organizations caused Pres. Eisenhower to send Nixon to Austria instructed to return with a report that would propagandize the Administration into further increasing the number of refugees. Five thousand was the number originally set, then it was raised to twenty-one thousand.

The N.Y. Telegram of Dec. 26th, carries a leading article covering Nixon's report. This article states that Pres. Eisenhower will now ask Congress to greatly increase the number and accept refugees from Poland, Czechoslovakia and other countries as well.

We are faced with a situation where approximately 3% of the population of Hungary are Jews, yet the number of incoming Hungarian refugees we are receiving, are apparently 50% Jewish.

There's Something Fishy About This Revolt

The Jewish organizations which have been fighting the McCarran-Walter Act from the start, are using the Hungarian situation to sweep us off our feet, and some of our un-informed people do not realize these Hungarian Jews are escaping from the real freedom fighters. Jews, knowing they are unwelcome in all Europe, have at last found a loophole by which to enter the U.S.

N.Y. Russian language Jewish papers this week, state Jews from Poland, Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania are flocking to the Soviet Union in large numbers, due to the fact that as the Communist discipline relaxes, the non-Jewish population vent their hatred on the people who have been living off of them.

Is this the way we are going to defeat Communism—by bringing in millions, many of them street fighters and trouble makers. And what is to become of the courageous people who remain in those countries to actually fight Communism?

We can welcome real Hungarian people when they are properly screened and found clean of Communism, but the Jews will only add numbers and strength to our enemies here in the U.S. where we already have a battle on our hands. Reports are already trickling out of Camp Kilmer that Hungarian freedom fighters have recognized several Secret Police at the camp. We read about the legless man who came 6 miles through the mud—but just ahead of him may have been 50 Communist Secret Police with their wives and children.

We are informed by reliable sources that immediately following the fall of the Marxist Government in these Communist countries, the population will turn on the Jewish people, for they certainly know who has been ruling them. As told to us by an intelligent Russian who lived under Communism in the Soviet Union for 25 years, "if Communism falls, every Jew in the Soviet Union will likely be killed." This gives you an idea of the intense hatred for the Jews by people who have been under their rule for 39 years. Jewish propaganda agencies in the U.S. are continually releasing items to the press leading our people to believe that the poor Jews are being persecuted and thus trying to escape from Communism.

During World War II, hordes of Jewish immigrants flooded the U.S. and their effect can certainly be felt, for the Jews here now are arrogant and aggressive and have a very strong hold on our political machinery in our cities—particularly in Washington. Are we to have another swarm of Reds, and pinks to pollute the blood stream of our country? What about the millions in China who would like to escape Communism that was forced upon them by our State Dept.

It is nothing new to informed people that of the 28,000 Secret Police in Hungary

Dear Friend:

I am writing to you as a reader of The ADL Bulletin. Through its pages we have been able to bring you the newest developments and ideas in human relations.

There is a limitation, however, to the written word. We have reported in The ADL Bulletin how the dramatic mass media help bring understanding of democratic ideas to millions. But there is nothing like seeing for yourself. I am therefore taking this unusual method of inviting you to experience with me the great impact which the mass media can make upon the American people with the message of freedom.

On November 25th, we plan during the annual meeting of our National Commission, to televise "Tragedy in a Temporary Town," by Reginald Rose. In our view this is the finest example of what the television medium has done in the past year to promote democratic concepts and we are therefore presenting it the ADL's 1956 TV award. "Tragedy in a Temporary Town" was first shown on the Alcoa Hour over the NBC network and received the Robert Sherwood Award of the Fund for the Republic. It tells the story of the flaring-up of mob rule in a tense race situation and how decency finally prevails.

During the hour show (Sunday, November 25th, 2-3 P.M., Eastern time on NBC-TV) the 1956-57 America's Democratic Legacy Awards will be made to Senator Herbert H. Lehman, Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell, and Mayor Charles P. Taft of Cincinnati, Ohio. The telecast will permit you a glimpse into the proceedings of our annual meeting. I hope you will take this opportunity to look in on us.

The other day, through the good offices of Barney Balaban, president of Paramount Pictures who for more than 30 years has been among the national leaders of ADL, I had an opportunity to preview Cecil B. DeMille's spectacular film, "The Ten Commandments." It is great entertainment. But I would not be writing to you about it if that were all it was.

I came away from "The Ten Commandments" feeling that it was the finest film presentation I had ever seen of the basic Jewish contribution to the struggle for freedom from oppression and slavery. Moses, first as Prince of Egypt and then as the son of Hebrew slaves, in whom burns the spirit of God and the love of justice for all mankind, emerges as a Jewish figure of heroic proportions.

Millions who see "The Ten Commandments" must come away deeply impressed with an image of the Jew as the progenitor of our basic ideas of freedom, democracy and social justice. The film, I believe, will make a vitally important contribution to better understanding of Jews by our fellow-citizens. For that reason and because of its timely significance in these troubled days, I know you will want to see it and to get your friends and neighbors to see it.

Sincerely yours,

Henry Edward Schultz

It is interesting to see the intense interest of the Anti-Defamation League (Jewish Plotters) in promoting the recent film "TEN COMMANDMENTS."

nearly all of them are Jews, and of the total six hundred thousand Secret Police in all Communist countries, 60% are Jews.

Here at COMMON SENSE we receive all leading Jewish publications and they are now screaming for our government to bring in the Jews from Egypt, where even the Chief Rabbi, Haim Nahum of Egypt states emphatically that they are not and have not been bothered. These Jewish publications want sympathy for the Jews in Egypt whom they claim are being deported. Demands are being made that our State Dept. intercede, but how about the nine hundred thousand Arabs who were driven from their homes by the Jews 9 years ago and still exist like animals in the desert. These people are also human.

May our Lord give understanding and courage to sufficient number of Christian people in the U.S. that we may have the wisdom and back-bone to prevent our country from being demoralized and broken down as other countries have at the hands of these ruthless, Marxist anti-Christians.

A LETTER FROM HUNGARY

THE FIGHTING WAS REAL FOR THE PATRIOTS BUT—WAS IT PLANNED THAT WAY?

Dear Conde:

Its a long time since I heard from you and much has happened since. I came back out of Hungary only a few days ago. Went in during Oct. with what was left here of our group, as we knew of course what was shaping up. We had reached Budapest a day before it broke and saw action the first time at the storming of the Soviet City Hdqtrs. As you probably followed events in the papers you will know what all transpired.

By the time the Nationals definitely had the upper hand, only 4 of our boys, including myself, were left. The others (13) we had to bury just near where they fell in the street of fighting. We were just beginning to get organized within the frame of the National Students Battalion, for up to then every bit of fighting was done spontaneously and without central over-all directive when the bloody night of the 4th and 5th of Nov. broke. On the 11th of Nov. our unit (we had formed with students and workers) had to give up the strong point we held because Soviet Tanks had gotten around our city block. We retreated through cellars and the drainage system to another part of town, joined up with another National unit and held on with them until the 15th. We were then forced to break into little groups and retreat into the hills west of Budapest. Its too close still to write you details and I must first thoroughly realize that this is — again with no houses crashing down around me under shell fire and get accustomed to think about two of us only and get over the fact that 15 of us are buried in the rubble of the city we already had thought to be Christian National. I cannot and will never believe that all that blood was shed for nothing. I will not believe that the West will not finally acknowledge the sacrifice and react to it by really helping these heroic people who once more have become the bulwark of Christianity against the pagan threat from the East.

Its become bitter night again in Hungary, firing squads, torture and deportations. A wonderful people are being torn to pieces before the eyes of the "civilized" world. What's left of us must first regain our belief in the actions and principles of the West, and of course we know that Hungary and its people were sacrificed upon the altar of World Jewish interests.

But God sees the blood shed and it talks louder than the explanations and excuses cowardly selfish politicians are now planning before the deceived western people. God's judgment will not fail.

Our retreat to and coming from the Austrian border to "safety" (as if there still is such a thing) would fill pages. Marching, fighting, the same over and over until the border was before us with no Soviet forces between it and us any more. We slept where we dropped, handing over our now useless arms to Austrian military. The breaking apart here of what in only a few short weeks had become a close terribly effective fighting unit, and now one man and myself here in the old quarters where the souls of the 15 pals buried in and between there and the border come to keep us company. But God will lead us out of this fog of the mind, out of this feeling of disappointment and spiritual tiredness. We know He will send us light again so that by it we may truly understand why all happened as it did.

Please Pray, Pray For Us. That no matter what our bodies had to and still may be subjected to, that our souls be made whole again. Pray, pray, pray that the devils may not succeed in smothering the light, that strength may be given us to fight our way out and upward out of this bitterness in which our souls are floundering. We need your prayers as never before.—We two who are alive, and those who died for us and for all of you in the Faith. God bless and keep you safe. I am as ever.

Irregularities In Our C.I.C

By our on the spot observer

- CIC (Counter Intelligence Corps)
- CIA (Central Intelligence Agency)
- MIS (Military Intelligence Service)

About three years ago two American born CIC agents of Regensburg, visited the local MIS unit to initiate loyalty checks on one of their newly assigned members. What they found generally typified the MIS units everywhere: a Polish born Jew Lt., in charge of a unit made up entirely of newly naturalized aliens that, after finishing their basic training, were assigned to military intelligence as "foreign language specialists". What stood out as a shock was a letter of commendation the Lt. produced to prove the loyalty, integrity and character of one of his men. The letter was from the Augsburg, Germany, CIC Region house declaring that up to the time he emigrated to America in 1949, he worked as interviewer interrogating and processing DP visa applicants for America.

This would naturally be denied with some explanation that DP's might have been used as interpreters, but never as interviewing agents. However, nobody can deny the fact that the DP's of Augsburg spent their whole time there black marketing, pandering, changing money illegally for the Russians, and peddling off methyl alcohol booze and narcotics to our troops. Also, anyone with access to the counter-intelligence files of Augsburg, would find in them a cheap useless line of denunciatory rumors of the same type collected by Soviet Secret Police informants which were in fact, collected and reported by these same low level DP's before their immigration to the U.S.

The question comes up that if such gross irregularities exist in the intelligence services, why aren't they corrected by the officers in charge. Major General Trudeau recently investigated and wrote his findings on a written report with appropriate recommendations for an efficient and useful service and found himself mysteriously transferred to a walking post in the Pacific.

Most all the fantastic blunders and irregularities of every description get by because of the secrecy of such operations as "security precautions" and also by some downright dishonesty of certain officers who would like to protect this line of service as a comfortable and happy deal. An article in the Saturday Evening Post of 6 June 1953, described one of the political murders that took place in the post stockade of the strategic interrogation center of Oberursel in Taunus, near Frankfurt Germany. One mistake in the article was that the Oberursel MIS unit shut down after this incident. They did shut down—but only for a couple of weeks, until they were sure of no high-level G-2 or Senate investigators prowling around after which they reopened and went back in full swing operations. When the article appeared in the Post, all the Staff officers of Oberursel met together and figured out the usual list of cover stories to have on hand in case any higher level wheels should come around to ask questions. However, at the same time one German refugee from the East German army was being given a Russian NKVD type of interrogation in the same stockade. Everyone in the military interrogation was happy when this one German came to Oberursel inasmuch as he came at the time when Russia had given T-34 tanks to the East German army, and this was the first opportunity to get information on armored order of battle in Eastern Germany.

What happened in the end was, after so many cross-fire interrogations by day and night, to try to prove him in reality a spy and not a real armored man, the Americans didn't find out anything at all about East German armored tactics, but they almost had another murder on their hands, in the form of a Russian NKVD provoked suicide, when the stockade guard heard moaning from the German's cell and found the German hanging from a bedsheet improvised noose. How did this happen? Through a German language interrogator, a Sgt. first class George Trofimoff, who came from the Soviet Union in 1948, immigrated to America in 1949, and is now top secret spook who will try to prove that any really useful source of information is in reality a fake, a phony and possible spy. What proved beyond a shadow of doubt that nobody really was serious in believing that this man was a spy or agent sent over by the Russians was, that no CIC counter-espionage or security agent was ever called in to check on this man and nothing was committed to writing as a report of this was appointed as U.S. Court of Appeals Judge, after being held up in two sessions of Congress. Sobeloff, a Vice Pres. of the Zionist organization, the American Jewish Congress, was confirmed by the Senate on June 29, 1956 and will serve as Federal appeals Judge in Virginia, Maryland, West Virginia, North and South Carolina.

affair except for a pencil scratched note of a Capt. Czarnik to a member of the U.S. Army Europe G-2 staff, that he would report verbally about the suspicious nature of this one German.

At the same time any agents discovered within the ranks of the MIS are always given kid glove treatment and special handling, plus various cover stories dreamed up to soft-pedal the whole issue. No better case of this could be pointed out than the case of Michael Rothkrug (Jew), a German-born naturalized alien in charge of the document section of the MIS unit of Berlin. He was investigated by CIC agents after he carried over several cases of documents to Communist agents in East Berlin and brought back 500,000 German marks worth of narcotics for our troops in Western Germany black market circles. His trial naturally had to be secret for security purposes, which is a nice way of hushing things up. One of the character witnesses for the defense flew in from California where he was in the motion picture business, and testified that it was perfectly normal for Rothkrug to bring military documents to his downtown apartment, because of the souvenir value of such documents. In fact, he testified that he himself had the complete set of documents pertaining to the battle of the bulge of World War II. Rothkrug was handed down a minimum sentence of four months suspended sentence provided he return to the U.S. from Germany. This makes an interesting study on the subject of American citizenship. A naturalized alien goes out of his way to prove his loyalty to the Soviet Union as a Dept. of the Army civilian on a trusted position in sensitive duty status, and instead of revoking his citizenship he is practically exonerated if he chooses to return to the America that he holds in contempt. One of the investigating officers in this case said it was a good thing this happened because through it we became more security conscious and security precautions were tightened.

Allen Dulles also declared that espionage within the CIA setup is impossible because of the system of compartmentalization,—every agent being assigned only one detailed specific part of an overall mission. All of these agencies are interwoven in a huge fantastic bureaucratic maze on the cold war front overseas, CIA, Army CIC and MIS units, Radio Free Europe, Voice of America, etc. If these agencies have a fool-proof system of operating securely, then how explain all those cases, as for instance Sgt. Katz, of the 501st MIS in Bayreuth, running over to the Russians for asylum; Jiri Kalas, of the Nuernberg Interrogation Office of Radio Free Europe running over to the Czechs for asylum; Special Agent Wolfgang Hoeffler of the Berlin CIC blowing his brains out with an army pistol in connection with the sensational Otto John case; and more recently yet, the case of the one trusted agent of Wuerzburg running over to East Germany with two safes of classified documents?

The East German Communists are having a field day at the present time publishing these documents in newspapers bit by bit, in such a calculated way to prove point by point that those Americans are sneaky and also are planning an all out war on central European soil just in case anybody there should be dissatisfied with the present Communist regime. This Wuerzburg safe ideal was so sensational that the combined intelligence network was forced to completely reorganize their setup. However, no one was nearly so anxious to protect themselves from Soviet espionage as they were anxious to protect themselves from higher level wheels who might demand an accounting point by point of all the factors involved.

If it were really necessary to support an international spy network to protect us from Soviet intrigues, then why couldn't we have just internationalized the FBI services? The FBI is a real enemy threat to Communists everywhere with all their wiles and deceptions, and still no Communist has been able to find any compromising information on FBI chief Hoover or his men, or methods to use in smearing them, which is a credit to the FBI's fine record. The answer is simple, the Dulles brothers expect reports that Communists are all foreign citizens, and the FBI might embarrass the State Dept. by keeping a check on some of their own shady members and find out some nasty things about their foreign give-away programs.

In the later part of 1949, in the large Yugoslavian DP Camp of Landshut, in Lower Bavaria, some learned and patriotic men representing the Yugoslavian underground in the homeland, were negotiating with the local CIC office in a deal that was to keep the Americans supplied with information of the highest value, with some of the sources up on Tito's top staff. At this time the CIA was taking over such deals gradually, allegedly with the idea of streamlining channels to Washington and for greater security in handling information and information sources. In this case one of the CIC men reported to Paris to secret rendezvous points with torn off boxtops to match against someone else's box top and various other melodramatic and practically foolproof security precautions. Sen. McCarthy had accused the State Dept. of harboring Soviet agents some six months before, but no one in either the CIC or among the Yugoslavs seemed to take this into account and are still wondering today why is it that Tito practically holds a tighter grip than ever, and what kind of successful brand of counter-intelligence is it that keeps such a brother Soviet tyrant informed on who within his staff or his subordinates should be purged next.

Some Russians also contacted State Dept. men in 1950, with the mistaken belief that our representatives of the State Dept. were actually sincere in their show of anti-Communism. They tried to conclude a deal whereby they could assassinate Stalin and some of his key men to take over a free Russia, liberated from Bolshevik tyrants. They got a flat "no" which also proves more emphatically that the State Dept. intends to continue support of the legality, integrity, and sovereignty of the Soviet Union, in spite of certain worded protests and negotiating speeches made to give an otherwise appearance.

The Hungarians have also tried for several years to interest the U.S. intelligence agencies in their common struggle against Communism both within their Hungarian homeland by underground fighters and in exile by their patriotic groups, which incidentally, never asked for money but for moral support. They also learned that the pattern of operations of our intelligence people was not to get a clear-cut picture of any situation as it really stands, but rather to pick up cheap denunciation material, especially if it would sound colorful when written up in a report, and if it would cast some shadow of suspicions in an intriguing way without making any pinpoint statements by which the agent could be held accountable in any way.

The Top Secret Employment Guide of the old 66th CIC Group, which later was the foundation of CIA investigations was a big mess of useless confusing details of "dissident elements" in the whole over-all intelligence picture. In this way these investigations are exactly to the point, the same as those made by Soviet Secret Police agents, inasmuch as dissident elements are very positive factors in maintaining control over an unwilling population. The general impression that somebody would get is that each small exile group is a squabbling bunch of cranks, broken down into a huge bunch of dissident organizations and parties. There are no partisan politics among refugee groups any more than would any bunch of Americans in exile from a Soviet dominated America argue over such things as the Taft-Hartley laws or States Rights.

No one can keep much track of intelligence agents of any country because their movements are shrouded in secrecy and cover stories of every kind. The way to check in detail their value, is to run through the results of their handicrafts, in other words, their intelligence summaries and special reports of every kind. The periodic intelligence summary "Countering Soviet Propaganda", by Dept. of State, Office of Intelligence Research, Div. of Research for USSR and Eastern Europe, is a first class example of Communist diversionary tactics within our American research agencies.

Twisted propaganda creeps into our different services in many ways, including even through the studies sponsored by foundations—as for instance in the case of the Rand Foundation which put out voluminous material on "minority groups" within the Soviet Union. In the usual plain and fancy double talk they describe any differences between different nationalities and Soviet tyranny as being nothing more than misunderstandings, or plain ordinary differences of opinion. If this is really an "intelligence survey" or "study" then how is it they omit the brutality, terrorism and degrading living conditions forced on the different nationalities in the Soviet orbit. One former Polish Army Sgt. risked his life to come to West Berlin—and after due processing was interrogated by one Polish Jew of Voice of America who seemed to be interested, not in what kind of evil was promoted by Communism, but rather in the subject of dogs and cats running around free on the streets. It finally hit the poor refugee with a terrible shock that this agent was actually taking him for a fool, to find out if he couldn't dream up some funny joke about Communism not being successful in providing a paradise, by pointing out how the absence of dogs and cats might show that the citizenry was forced to supplement their food rations in some drastic sort of way.

All Polish people are violently anti-Communist, the same as are all other Christian people who are victims of Communist terrorism. They always wonder day after day, when are the Americans coming to liberate them from Communist slave masters. But what better way could the Russians operate than through their Jewish spies and confusion agents putting on some sort of Voice of America show like this to answer their questions each time by letting them know that "the Americans are laughing at us; because of food shortages; government demands; silent torture and secret terrorism."

We need some more private citizens the same caliber as Eugene Castle ("Billions, Blunders and Baloney") to investigate something of the order of battle of our cold war front lines and report to the public on their findings. One of the many facts such people would learn is that all the anti-American papers in Western Germany were founded and financed by a Hans Habe, originally Jonas Bekessy, a Hungarian Jewish terrorist during the days of Bela Kun, (Cohen) who later escaped into Germany where he worked with the Communist Party of Germany until he was kicked out of that country when the Americans greeted him with open arms as being a bona fide acceptable refugee.

Through some mysterious strings pulled, Habe worked his way to full Colonel in Gen. Eisenhower's Psychological Warfare Staff during World War II. Some description of the psychological warfare activities can be found in Saul Padover's "Experiment in Germany"; however what was mainly interesting, was that in 1949, when John J. McCloy gave the Germans freedom of the press, Habe hustled all around the country and with a mysterious unlimited financial reserve as against most of the bankrupt native German editors and publishers, he set up a string of anti-American papers, the worst of which was "Oeffentliche Meinung," more vile and rotten than anything printed anywhere in Communist East Germany.

What was interesting to see was what exactly would the hush hush CIA boys do in this case to protect our good name in Germany, and the answer to that was nothing at all. In fact the CIA members assigned to investigate Habe were actually fascinated and excited about the whole deal because this would be so much more to put a little glamour or color in their line of duty. Also, by stamping "top secret" on their reports, they were naturally sworn to secrecy in this case in the name of "National Security" which amounts to actually protecting and covering the activities of such a subversive and criminal nature, carried out by American citizens.

Also, while we're on the subject of who specifically engineers and finances anti-Americanism in foreign countries, we bring to mind the latest of "disillusioned ex-Communists" namely the French-Jewish playwright and spark-plug of the left bank Bohemian esoteric circles of Paris' left bank, named Jean Paul Sartre. This man Sartre, wrote the play for the violently anti-American film "The Honorable Prostitute" which showed Europeans how we Americans have nothing better to do with our time than to beat up, terrorize and brutally attack all people not of our same race, color and creed. Nice girls who behave well, dress well, go to church, live modestly and quietly were pointed out as being hypocritical, phoney, two faced, stuffy etc, and the heroine of the film, a real filthy prostitute, was really a nice girl because she was understanding and harbored one so-called innocent Negro in her living quarters at the time that white Southern gentlemen started mob riots to lynch him. One sly twist in the picture which was naturally meant to discredit our young Americans in uniform in our 7th Army in Europe, was to point out that the two evil gentlemen of the South in the picture were reserve officers in the American Army! Which of our many agencies overseas, working allegedly to defend our position in the free world, actually came to our defense?...The answer is none of them did. However, the State Dept. published "Neue Zeitung" newspaper recommended seeing the picture as did also the "Amerika Haus" programs, which described the picture as being "artistic; dynamic and colorful."

UNESCO—Greatest Danger To American Youth And Schools

UNESCO—United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization—Marxist Plotters working to undermine our government and put us all under World Government.

A release of the National Defense Committee of Daughters of the American Revolution, 1776 D St. N.W. Wash. 6, D.C.

The United Nations Charter which was signed at San Francisco on June 26, 1945, included provisions for the promotion of cultural and educational cooperation between member states.

Accordingly, the UN Conference for the Establishment of an Educational and Cultural Organization was convened in London in Nov. 1945. Its constitution was signed by government representatives participating in this conference on Nov. 15, 1945. The U.S. representation included two members of Congress, Sen. James E. Murray of Montana and Rep. Chester E. Merrow of New Hampshire.

Following a ratification by the necessary twenty member nations including the U.S., the constitution of the United Nations Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Organization entered into force on Nov. 4, 1946. Public Law 565 adopted by the 79th Congress, 2nd Session, on July 30, 1946, authorized United States' acceptance of membership in the organization.

According to UNESCO, WHAT IT IS... WHAT IT DOES...HOW IT WORKS... "UNESCO has a Secretariat headed by a Director General with headquarters in Paris. Its Executive Board is made up of representatives of 22 countries elected to the post by the 74 member states. The 74 member states meet every two years in General Conference and lay down the policies and general lines of action UNESCO is to follow.

"The organization with about 850 employees and an annual regular budget of some ten million dollars plays the role of catalyst, helper, coordinator, clearing house for information and nerve center. The success of those programs ultimately depends upon the efforts of the member states.

"UNESCO can recommend international treaties to increase the flow of educational materials. The states must sign and ratify those treaties before they will do any good.

"In the U.S. and 64 other countries, national commissions have been set up to serve as links between the national organization and such bodies.

"Our own Congress set the membership of the U.S. National Commission for UNESCO at 100 American citizens of which 60 are nominated by private voluntary organizations, broadly representative of the intellectual life of the nation, 15 from state and local governments, 10 from the federal government, and 15 chosen at large by the Secretary of State.

"The National Commission advises the government on UNESCO matters, and its organization and individual members help the government carry out the program adopted by the General Conference."

The first meeting of the U.S. National Commission for UNESCO was held in Washington, Sept. 23, 1946. The Chairman, Sen. Wm. Benton of Conn., said: "We are at the beginning of a long process of breaking down the walls of national sovereignty..."

In this process UNESCO must be the pioneer....The Dept. of State has fathered this National Commission (for UNESCO) and you give for the first time in our history a collective brain to the whole nervous system of American culture, science, education, and means of communication. Everything that you may now do will establish a precedent...This is an unprecedented opportunity." (From the State Dept., publication 2726--U.N. Information, Series 14.)

On Aug. 31, 1947, in an address to the UNESCO Teacher Seminar in Paris, France, Wm. G. Carr of the National Education Association, and at that time a member of the U.S. national Commission for UNESCO said: "I urge you, therefore, not only to teach about the U.N. as it is today, but also to teach about the various proposals that have been made for strengthening the U.N. by the establishment of world law. Teach the attitudes which will ultimately result in the creation of world government for the people, of the people, and by the people. I am not suggesting school room propaganda for some one particular plan of world government. I am suggesting the development of the attitudes, information and ability which will make world citizenship possible." (Emphasis ours.) (THE BULLETIN OF THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF SECONDARY SCHOOL PRINCIPALS, Vol. 31, Dec. 1947, 150.)

On Dec. 12, 1947, Milton Eisenhower, addressing the closing session of the first

FORWARD

During the war between the states the famous General Forrest received a message from one of his commanders whom he had sent on a detached mission, saying—"I am being attacked in front by a strong Federal force. Strong Federal patrols are attacking my flanks and rear. WHAT SHALL I DO?" The General turned the message over and wrote this reply—"FIGHTUM."

Uncle Sam is in an even worse position today. The enemy is prepared to attack him by air from all directions. But more serious still that same enemy has infiltrated into every activity in the home life of our nation and aims to destroy us from within.

LET'S FACE THE FACTS

Dear fellow Americans:

How strange it is that our intelligentsia are so prone to turn out in large numbers to hear a foreigner, especially a Britisher such as Toynbee and a Red such as the Dean of Canterbury. All such creatures should be turned back to Ellis Island. Few of our people are sufficiently informed of the present tragedy that confronts us to understand the difference between the situation in Russia in 1917 and that in the U.S. in 1956. In Russia, the powerful and rich, the intelligentsia, the Christians, had to be completely liquidated before the Bolsheviks could take over completely. With us, almost the opposite is true. Many of our rich and Hay's conference on UNESCO at Wichita, Kansas, said... "one can truly understand UNESCO only if one views it in its historical context (and) viewed in this way it reveals itself as one more step in our halting, painful, but I think very real progress toward a genuine world government." (THE KANSAS STORY ON UNESCO. Dept. of State Publication 3378. Int'l. Org'n. and Conference Series IV, U.N. Educational, Scientific & Cultural Organization, 7, Mar. 1949.) (p. 23.)

The U.S. as a government has played a leading role in supporting and guiding UNESCO. Thousands of Americans have contributed to its activities, which have grown by leaps and bounds. The State Dept. dominates American policy in UNESCO.

Information from the State Dept. as reported by the Honorable George A. Dondero of Michigan in the House, July 20, 1956, states that, "The U.S. is paying at present 30% of the UNESCO budget. For 1956 the United States is contributing $3,152,574 to UNESCO. It is estimated that the U.S. will pay about $2,100,000 toward the new headquarters building in Paris."

Article I of the constitution of UNESCO states: "The purpose of the Organization is to contribute to peace and security by promoting collaboration among the nations through education, science and culture in order to further universal respect for justice, for the rule of law and for the human rights and fundamental freedoms which are affirmed for the peoples of the world, without distinction of race, sex, language or religion, by the Charter of the United Nations." (BASIC DOCUMENTS, UNESCO, p. 8.)

Resolution 215 of the House of Representatives and Resolution 122 of the U.S. Senate were the basis of U.S. participation in UNESCO and provide, "That such agency shall not interfere with educational systems or programs within the several nations or their administration." (Emphasis ours.)

The following suggestions, plans or reports indicate interference in national programs: On page 27 of the report of the GENERAL CONFERENCE ON UNESCO, 1946: CONCEPT OF WORLD MIND. "We are assigned the positive function of building peace in the minds of men through science, education and culture. The Executive Secretary's report gives us the blueprints for the development of what one may call a world brain, a world mind, or a world culture, which alone can be the basis of a world authority or a world government."

From the same report on page 24, it is suggested that there be a revision of textbooks, with a view to reducing international friction and promoting better understanding between peoples, the creation of World Citizenship Clubs in schools all over the world, and every kind of exchange which will help promote understanding between nations and groups.

Same report, page 47: It is necessary that it is in the education of youth that the formation of a new mentality has the best opportunities of obtaining speedy and lasting results.

A pamphlet, entitled, UNESCO TODAY, published in Nov. 1949, as State Dept. publication No. 3694, states: "Largely as a result of Commission activities at least a dozen universities and colleges now have UNESCO courses on international understanding. Scores of grade school teachers interested in the UNESCO movement have brought it to the attention of their classes; international themes have been stressed in pageants, plays, and music; and national scholastic newspapers and magazines, as well as those published by schools, have stressed UNESCO along with the U.N. and other specialized agencies."

In May 1950, a booklet entitled, THE UNESCO STORY, was published as State Dept. publication No. 3921. Activities in the schools of the U.S. in support of UNESCO are listed on approximately 50 pages of this publication.

A bulletin entitled, TEACHING ABOUT THE UNITED NATIONS IN THE SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES OF THE UNITED STATES IN 1950 and 1951, (State Dept. publication No. 4649, issued Sept. 1952), describes how students are being indoctrinated with the UNESCO concept of world citizenship from the kindergarten to the university.

The primary objective of UNESCO in the field of education is to make every person international minded in order to destroy any particular national loyalty. The goal seems to be uniformity in all things.

UNESCO urges American teachers to particularly dwell on the aspects of foreign cultures which are attractive and less on American traditions and culture; to suppress American history and American geography; to give less emphasis than has been the custom in this country to things American.

In his ENDS AND MEANS IN EDUCATION, 1950, Dr. Theodore Brameld said: "There is wide spread, if still superficial acceptance among teachers of the belief that national sovereignty must go."

In every published work of UNESCO there is the complete turning of the child's eyes away from independence to interdependence. The object is to mold our children's thinking, and to sell them on a way of life that we consider un-American.

The following are quotations from UNESCO series TOWARD WORLD UNDERSTANDING—remember UNESCO's word for patriotism is nationalism.

Vol. I. "One of the chief aims of education everywhere is to develop those qualities of citizenship which provide the foundation upon which international government must be based if it is to succeed."

Vol. V. "The ideal to be pursued is that, whether in the home, the social environment or the school, our children should be educated to live with others and to prepare themselves for citizenship in a world society."

"The kindergarten or infant school has a significant part to play in the child's education. Not only can it correct many of the errors of home training, but it can also prepare the child for membership, at about the age of 7, in a group of his own age and habits—the first of many such social identifications that he must achieve on his way to membership in the world society."

"We shall come to nationalism later on."

For the moment it is sufficient to note that it is most frequently in the family that the children are infected with nationalism, hearing what is national extolled and what is foreign disparaged. As chauvinism, this may be more ridiculous than dangerous, but it must, none the less, be regarded as the complete negation of world-mindedness. We shall presently recognize in nationalism the major obstacle to the development of world-mindedness.

"As long as the child breathes the poisoned air of nationalism, education in world-mindedness can produce only rather precarious results. As we have pointed out, it is frequently the family that infects the child with extreme nationalism. The school should therefore use the means described earlier to combat family attitudes that favor jingoism."

The series of booklets (10) TOWARD WORLD UNDERSTANDING may be purchased from the Columbia University Press, 2960 Broadway, New York, N.Y. Each pamphlet contains disclaimers: "This pamphlet is in no way an official expression of the views of UNESCO," or "UNESCO does not necessarily endorse opinions expressed by the author." As Mr. Harley Cope, former Director of the "American Sovereignty Campaign" of the Veterans of Foreign Wars has said: "If this weak-kneed attempt to avoid responsibility is brought to your attention by a UNESCO apologist, it would be quite proper to inform him that anyone who administers poison to a nation's youth is guilty of a crime whether the prescription is official or not." These booklets are published by UNESCO.

From THE GREATEST DANGER TO AMERICAN YOUTH by Lillian Moon Roberts, "UNESCO is the most powerful of the United Nations' instruments for establishing the forced uniformity of mankind. UNESCO is unseen, deadly, and everywhere. Among the dangers that confront free men today, UNESCO is unique because:

"1.-It is vast in its aims, channels of operation, publication, and agencies.

"2.-It uses every means of communication through which the thinking of mankind is influenced.

"3.-Its method of attacking freedom is so diffused and unfamiliar.

"4.-It presents, above any other present organization, the gravest danger to free men.

"5.-Including all the years of alphabetical Federal Bureaucracy, Pentagon channels, and United Nations' agencies, sub-agencies, affiliated agencies panels, committees, conferences and commissions—UNESCO is the most bewildering organization ever conceived.

"From this Commission (U.S. National Commission for UNESCO) UNESCO's program is channeled into local communities through myriad organizations, committees, and panels which in turn, channel it to reach you and your children from every direction—from philanthropical societies, churches, radio, television, theatre, newspapers, magazines, motion pictures, school organizations, schools, civic groups, government agencies, etc.

"There is no possible way to give or to gain a quick knowledge of this octopus-like organization of UNESCO with its thousands of publications, areas of operation and channels of propaganda. It is too vast and unwieldy to be summarized with briefness or clarity. So the work of reading and listening and discovering and understanding must be yours. But there is a guide, a simple guide...

"If you measure all that you see and hear with question, 'Will this help reduce mankind to uniformity' you will never lose your way in investigating UNESCO, the UNITED NATIONS, our own Federal Government's policies, school curriculums, or anything else. Refuse the luxury of emotion and wishful thinking. Do not permit yourself to be duped by beautiful words such as 'brotherhood' and 'peace' and 'democratic' and 'peoples of the world' and 'elimination of barriers' and 'solidarity of mankind'. Let not ingratiating personality or intellectually superior manner sway you—remember, Alger Hiss was possessed of both. A person thus armed with knowledge and possessed of the courage to apply this knowledge regardless of intimidation or camouflage, is Communism's greatest enemy and Freedom's most valuable defender.

"In studying UNESCO's publications, programs, meetings, speakers, goals, acts etc., to see if they would tend to reduce mankind to uniformity, I believe that you will find the answer in every instance to be an unequivocal yes. Many of the answers to the UNESCO puzzle will then instantly come to hand—answers to such questions as, why does UNESCO try so hard to destroy American patriotism (which they call 'nationalism'); why does UNESCO present 'Nationalism' as such an evil thing; why do they dispense with religion; why do they present internationalism and 'world citizenship' as the most glorious achievement available to man; why do they attempt in every way to belittle the parents and diminish their influence with the child; why is their most powerful ammunition turned on the child and his teachers; why the attempt to eradicate all competition from the child's life both athletically and scholastically; why the lack of proper grounding in the three R's, which lack will automatically destroy the child's future facility of learning? The answers are obvious."

The late Sen. Pat McCarran stated publicly: "I made an error which I shall regret all the days of my life when I voted for the United Nations Charter before I had even read it." Sen. McCarran's subcommittee held three hearings on UNESCO and he stated: "This is a very clever propaganda campaign to sell the people of this country and particularly the school children on the doctrine of one world government and world citizenship....The committee had presented to it documented proof of this insidious campaign." (Reference—Dept. of State, Justice, Commerce and the Judiciary Appropriations for 1953. Hearings before the Subcommittee of the Committee on Appropriations, U.S. Senate, 82nd Congress on H.R. 7289, Page 1514 to 1534.)

From statement of Major Gen. Sumter L. Lorry (ret.) before subcommittee referred to in preceding paragraph, p. 1516: "The State Dept. is the fountainhead, the brain, and the driving force of the movement for UNESCO in the U.S. Throughout this Nation there are numerous misguided small groups which take the lead from the State Dept. in this matter. These groups are composed of some of our very finest organizations and our most prominent people. The clever propaganda line of the State Dept. has completely pulled the wool over the eyes of these men and women. These same groups of befuddled people think they are fighting for world-wide peace while, in fact, they are pushing our country down the road to national suicide."

"These same people are largely responsible for teaching the idea of world citizenship and the world socialistic state in the schools of our country. The chief propaganda effort of UNESCO is directed at our schools from the very lowest grades on through the institutions of higher learning."

"The State Dept. is flooding the country with tons of pamphlets and documents designed to make our young people believe that UNESCO is the salvation of our country and that we cannot survive without it. The propaganda line throughout the entire series of publications is designed to glorify the UNESCO movement, world citizenship, and world government."

"A careful study of the documents from our State Dept. reveals that their discussion of UNESCO and the U.N. is entirely a one-sided affair. Let me stress that the State Dept. says nothing whatsoever about the evils of this institution and what it will do to our government."

"The State Department's prime reason for existence is to protect and preserve the interests of the United States of America. Yet that same State Dept. is taking taxpayer's money and using it to create a world government to replace our own. By no possible reasoning should the State Dept. be engaged in any effort which, if carried to a conclusion, would destroy our country and American institutions."

Our first duty is to our children—the future American citizens. In the United States UNESCO is functioning under a long range plan to capture the minds of our children, "and parents themselves who know little or nothing about their own heritage because they have not taken time to remember."

powerful, our intelligentsia, our Christians with few exceptions, have been brainwashed and indoctrinated, and they are ready to be taken over. In Russia, it was the work of the Jews, and the same is true in America today.

The question before the United States and the world today is RACE—BREED. The index of the ability of a nation to march on successfully in this old world is in the breed and character of the men and women on Main Street—and we are breeding them down, as all statistics show. What we fail to realize is that, as we breed them down, the character of the vote goes down in the same proportion, and this is reflected directly in our elected bodies and officials of the Federal Government. With race and breed the outstanding elements in the solution of our present-day problems, those subjects are taboo on the floors of both Houses of Congress and to a large degree in the press. The members of Congress who mention the subject are smeared and run out of office by processes of blackmail supported by millions of dollars.

Congress has several times attempted to investigate the Foundations, generally under Jewish control, but so great is their power that practically nothing has been accomplished.

What happens to anyone interfering with the interests of the Jews is made clear by the following piece of evidence. N.Y. State Supreme Court Justice Meyer Steinbrink, who also holds the position as Chairman of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, declared at the close of the group's convention at the Waldorf Astoria several years ago—

"Under American law an offender who has served his sentence meted out by the courts is considered as having paid for his offenses. This is not our idea. ANYBODY WHO HAS OFFENDED OR HARMED THE JEWISH CAUSE IS NEVER TO BE FORGIVEN, AND WE (The Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith) shall employ the MILLIONS OF DOLLARS AT OUR DISPOSAL to see to it that such an enemy of the Jewish cause shall never regain his previously held position or social standing."

For 150 years, our Republic, so ideally conceived and organized, made an outstanding record over the world, never before equalled in history. It was organized by Christian people and, until it completed its cycle in 1932, it was generally administered by the people of that same fine type. Unfortunately, in the period before our entrance into World War I, we permitted a group of Jews to be housed and supported in N.Y. City where they laid the foundation of the Russian Revolution. Jewish influence and money got them to Europe and the same influences had them transferred to Russia. When the Bolshevik revolution was in full operation, the Netherlands Minister at Petrograd, who was also handling British affairs, issued a warning to the whole world. It was received by Mr. Balfour Sept. 18, 1918. The Minister warned:

"The danger is now so great that I feel it my duty to call the attention of the British and all other Governments to the fact that if an end is not put to Bolshevism in Russia at once the civilization of the whole world will be threatened. This is not an exaggeration but a sober matter of fact; I consider that the immediate sup- pression of Bolshevism is the greatest issue now before the world, not even excluding the war which is still raging, and unless, as above stated, Bolshevism is nipped in the bud immediately, it is bound to spread in one form or another over Europe and the whole world, as it is organized and worked by Jews, who have no nationality, and whose object is to destroy for their own ends the existing order of things. The only manner in which this danger could be averted would be collective action on the part of all powers."

This great giant of an enemy facing us today is a creature of our own making. While for 16 years we did not recognize our handiwork or permit it to enter the U.S., Bolshevik friends and sympathizers were found throughout the United States organizing the Communist and various "Socialist" and "Labor" Parties with tentacles extending over—and under—our entire nation.

For 39 years this enemy has told us in the plainest terms how they plan our destruction. Their plans have progressed perfectly. They have become such a political power that their "friendship" must be sought and secured by every individual in public life.

The fact is that our nation today is being destroyed BY LAW, laws passed or interpreted in the interest of this Jewish gang. The Jew has told the world repeatedly that the White Race must go, and with it will go, as he says, his deadliest enemy, the White Christian. The sanction supporting their aims and plans is BLACKMAIL. We Christians are just a pack of COWARDS to permit it.

The Jew has no real interest in the negro and his advancement, but he aims to use the negro in two ways. First, to mongrelize the White Race, and second he plans to control the negro vote, and this he does quite successfully. Some of the top officials of the NAACP, including the Pres. are Jews. The plans of the NAACP go far beyond integration in schools. They plan break down every barrier to include intermarriage and the mongrelization of the White Race. This is no idle statement or threat, but it is an actual fact and the process is now in operation. Furthermore, the final result is shown in a picture of a dark skinned human, the future American, as depicted by UNESCO of U.N. How absurd it is that we should support the U.N. organization which aims at our destruction.

The facts are appalling. The question is—what are we going to do about it? You will note that I see no solution coming from the White House or from Congress, completely controlled as they are today, in those vital issues that determine our destiny—problems they lack the intelligence and character to tackle. History will repeat itself. The Jews always overplay their hand, and as a result, populations rise up in mass against them with just fury. As a first step in this upheaval, I look to see full Justice done the Arabs, and Israel completely wiped off the map.

In the nationwide problems now before us, I look to see a fearless American leader arise from the Christian majority, take over our nation as did Mustafa Kemal Ataturk in Turkey, and reclaim and re-establish our Republic. In that new day the immigration law will permit the entry of only selected people. We will look with shame upon those pages of our history when a President permitted thousands of undesirables to be run into our country; when his wife used her influence to secure the entry of un-American creatures all in violation of the law. How could such things have happened? If such a leader fails to arise, if we lack the character to face the present-day tragedy, taking action to save our lives and our very souls, then only could it be written:

"Take a good look at endeared scenes in the days just ahead—you are seeing them for the last time as features of the Republic of the United States. The cycle of our history that began in Washington's

Friends:

Those who have studied the all-important question before the world today realize that the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith is the back-bone of the Marxist program in the United States. The B'nai B'rith is a Jewish organization functioning on a world-wide scale.

B'nai B'rith has 1750 lodges in the U.S. and Canada, with 400,000 members. According to the N.Y. Times May 4, 1956, they have expended sixty million dollars in the last three years. The A.D.L. is the militant arm of the B'nai B'rith; it is the Invisible Government in the United States.

In the Communist satellite states, the high government officials have been Jews almost without exception. Before the Jewish rule could be established officially, the leaders opposing Communism had to be broken down and destroyed. During the last three years the Russian Communists, having discovered that the Jews set up Communism to use it in advancing their own interests, have been successful in maneuvering some Jews out of top positions. The population of these countries did not realize what was going on until too late; then they were too helpless to stand behind their leaders.

This is what is going on in the U.S. today. The Anti-Defamation League with the American Jewish Committee and the American Jewish Congress, using many unsuspecting non-Jews, prominent persons, and fifteen to twenty million dollars a year for propaganda in newspaper, radio and television, are trying to discredit and destroy our patriotic leaders just as they have done with Col. Charles Lindberg, Sen. Nye, Sen. Bert Wheeler, Sen. McCarthy, James Forrestal and many others.

The A.D.L. has been pounding away at COMMON SENSE for 11 years, trying to drive its friends away so it will be left standing alone. However, as thinking people, examine the facts published only in one paper, COMMON SENSE,—and our paper has grown until it now reaches more awakened Americans than any publication in existence.

time completes its eclipse. The snake has his tail in his mouth, or however the symbolists represent these matters—anyhow, the orbit of our Republican era is ended. The twilight finale of a great nation, rotten, rotten, to the core."

"Historians of the future will marvel most of all, I suppose, at the non-resistance of those who had most to lose. Not a civil war was needed for the seizure—not a shot was fired. The peasants of Russia offered considerably more opposition, even when they had less to lose. The greatest prize in all the annals of mankind—the United States—handed over on request, with most of the poor goofs actually congratulating themselves that they have a taker!"

My assets are in the form of factual information spread all over the United States. Eleven years ago, I quit business for a profit and have spent every dollar I could get my hands on in this Crusade. Some people told me then I was foolish, that Communism meant nothing. Today some of these same people tell me I am wasting my time, that Communism cannot be stopped.

Long ago I realized I would use up my funds and not make a living promoting a paper which carries no advertising. Any one who studies this subject as I have, realizes that profit means nothing compared to the importance of saving our Republic.

COMMON SENSE, with no advertising, will never show a profit but must be subsidized by people who have sufficient patriotism to help make the truth available to many. If there are not enough people ready to sacrifice and help expose the enemies of our country, then freedom in the United States is near the end.

I am the unpaid Editor of COMMON SENSE. Help me make this movement the decisive factor in turning the Marxist trend that is destroying our government. The need now is for a large number of informed people. Help us raise the number of our readers to a million. If you could visualize how hard we work and plan to increase our effectiveness, nothing could stop you from doing your very best to assist us. Those good people who are awake to the crisis but unable to help substantially can help by renewing their subscription, taking a lifetime subscription ($25.00), buying and distributing literature, securing subscriptions, passing out COMMON SENSE, and last but not least, praying for us. The prayers of any good Christian will not go unheeded.

If you would like to help me strengthen COMMON SENSE so we can publish weekly and correctly inform millions of people, please do not hesitate to reach me.

We hold such contacts in strict confidence.

Is Whole World Wrong?

WHY HAVE JEWS BEEN DRIVEN FROM NEARLY EVERY COUNTRY IN THE WORLD? HERE IN THE US THEY SPEND AN AVERAGE OF TWENTY MILLION A YEAR TO CAUSE NON-JEWS TO TOLERATE THEM—IS THE WHOLE WORLD WRONG?

The ROMAN armies turned the Jews out of Jerusalem in 70 A. D.

Successive Roman emperors continued the suppression...

In the 7th century they were barred from all of SPAIN and again in 1492.

The Moorish kingdom of GRANADA expelled them in 1066...

They were forced out of FRANCE in 1182 and again in 1306, again in 1394, again in Southern France in 1682...

The Jews were expelled from GERMANY in the 10th century by a decree of Pope Leo VII; they were expelled again 100 years later, and once again in the year 1349...

ENGLAND ordered them to leave in 1290—preventing their return for 350 years.

Jews were forced out of HUNGARY twice; in 1360 and again in 1582...

From BELGIUM, they were expelled in 1370.

From AUSTRIA, in 1420 and again in 1670.

From LITHUANIA, in 1495...

From PORTUGAL, in 1498...

From PRUSSIA, in 1510...

From the Kingdom of NAPLES, in 1540.

From BAVARIA, in 1551...

From the GENOESE REPUBLIC, in 1567...

From the PAPAL STATES, the Jews were expelled in 1569 and again 30 years later.

16 POPES have issued proclamations against the Jews.

Just before World War II, Jews left Germany in droves for the U.S. to take over the main streets in our cities. In 1956 they are unwelcome in all Europe and the Middle East. They are always crying that they are being persecuted, but never tell us that they have been caught with the goods.

British-French "Police-Action" In Port Said, Egypt

By Per-Olow Anderson
Swedish Journalist-Photographer

My eye witness story would not be a very nice story to tell children of the world. If it can be called a "police-action" what the French and British troops have done to the Egyptians, then there is no place for the word humanity in their Dictionaries.

A few hours after the cease fire was declared, I entered in the city of Port-Said and found a burning smoking inferno. I met children in the bombed out houses and among the ruins searching for their parents. I saw parents, they too were searching with bleeding hands in the wreckage that was left of their homes, to find their killed children. I saw the thousands of dead bodies in smoldering ruins, in the backyards of the few hospitals that were still left, two hospitals, completely blown up containing some 900 patients altogether. Is this to be called "Police-action" to fly along the streets machine gunning into every house as well as the streets? I call it terror and murder!

If you want to see my pictures please call on International News Photos who has my material, the pictures and the story that British officers tried to stop me from getting out of Port-Said. I was smuggled out of that hell so that the whole world may know what happened in Port-Said.

It is a shame for England and a black spot which can never be cleaned off. I have been a war photographer since the Civil War in Spain, and it is hard for me to find any comparison to Port-Said, horror and terror against civilians.

British officers in the Port-Said area claimed that only small damage was done to civilians and their property. So do the so-called French and British war correspondents. I met and talked to some British Officers, they were never allowed to the terrible bombed areas by the Public Relations Office. They never had a chance to speak to the population that had been so cruelly hurt.

The Israeli correspondents naturally would never give a true picture. That is why some officers offered to send me to Cyprus for developing my pictures.

I had been with the people of Port-Said and got all these details from Doctors in the hospitals, the commander of the fire brigade and the men and women in the streets. I had seen the bodies of the civilians, children as well as women with the holes in their backs as they had been shot whilst running away. Six blocks of wood houses were fire-bombed in the Gamil Area, and in the ruins among all other buildings I counted 270 dead carried away, in the 2 hours I was there. There is not much more to say; it could never be put into words. But my picture of the father over his dead little daughter, and the wounded mother holding her dead little baby are documents that will never be forgotten.

EDITORS NOTE:

All the unrest and misery in the Middle East is brought on the whole world today, as a result of the establishment of the State of Israel, they achieved the partition of

Could this wholesale bombing of Port Said and the civilian population have something to do with the resignation of Eden? Information has leaked that approximately 3,000 British paratroopers were annihilated while landing in broad daylight in the Suez area.

Dr. O.C. Carmichael And The University Of Alabama

By C.F. Langly

Quoting from the Nov. 1956 issue of 'MAHOUT', the official publication for Alabama University, Tuscaloosa, Alabama "No man is too big for the University of Alabama".

"As an institution, it deserves the best the state can provide in the way of accommodations and men. In Dr. Carmichael, it had the best leadership. But leadership is not always synonymous with power.

The men, the little men, with the power have won. Dr. Carmichael has resigned. (Itallic's ours)

"He saw the course that American life is taking and fought for an intelligent and long-range program to meet the changes... he saw that changes were inevitable and had the courage to work toward their gradual assimilation into University planning."

On page 28 of this same publication is a SATIRE on the Carmichael DILEMMA denouncing the apparent interference by the trustees of the University in the style Dr. Carmichael chose to direct this great institution—the closing lines, "No. O.C., you need not say, Why it is you cannot stay."

It may or may not come as a surprise to the good people of Alabama that Dr. O.C. Carmichael is a full-fledged integrationist, a product of the Rhodes Scholarship plan and a former Pres. of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching. In

Vehicle--Eisenhower's

1. Eisenhower asks Congress to remain dormant and give him the power to act in the Middle East. He asks sole authority to spend money belonging to 167 million of us. He demands the power to spend the blood of our sons. Was not Congress created to weigh and decide on just such emergencies? John Foster Dulles tells us that civilization will be destroyed if we do not place this power in Eisenhower's hands immediately. Is he trying to scare Congress into a quick decision?
2. S. J. Resolution 19 to be voted on by the Senate and House has an entirely different meaning than Eisenhower's speech. Could this resolution have been written by the American Jewish Committee?
3. Ike did not want Israel to attack Egypt just before the election when our people were about to vote. His attitude before the election has thrown people off guard after the election just as in 1940 when F.D.R. stated: "And while I am talking to you fathers and mothers, I give you one more assurance. I have said this before, but I shall say it again and again and again, your boys are not going to be sent into any foreign wars." It disarmed those who did not trust F.D.R., but as soon as he was elected, he put us in war with dead and casualties in millions.
4. America may be bled white fighting 450 million Arabs, Moslems, and Hindus, plus millions of Red Chinese "Volunteers" while Russia supplies them with arms, but does not lose a man.
5. Your attention is called to the wording of Ike's proposal: "To give military aid to any nation resisting aggression from a nation controlled by International Communism." Many are wrongfully assuming that Ike's plan is for Americans to fight Communist nations. But that is not it. If you assumed that, you have missed the point entirely.
6. Senators and Congressmen, Hear ye! Hear Ye! Do not miss the import of the underlined word "from a nation controlled by International Communism."
7. Israel has been claiming aggression by Arab countries which naturally will never be pacified until the million Arabs in the desert are returned to the homes from which they have been driven. Israel, in grabbing more land, will provoke the Arabs into attacking them. Then our American sons are to die again just as they died to crush Germany and strengthen the Communist Soviet Union.
8. Israel intends to carve out a large section

- of the Arab country including oil, and conspires for the U.S. to help them just as we made Soviet Union into a world power. The least Israel expects is for Ike to prevent Arab countries from receiving arms, hence the Arabs will be helpless before highly mechanized Israel, forcing the Arabs to acknowledge Israel's banditry and murder.
9. A very popular anti-Communist magazine, in its January issue, states: "Do you know that the red leaders in conspiring with some people in New York City have planned to bleed and then isolate the United States and then take over the Country from within?"
10. Is this the plan to embroil Americans into fighting the Arabs. Dulles says that in the economic aid plan of Ike's bill, he does not contemplate aid to "Syria" or "Egypt" because they appear to be "controlled by International Communism."
11. Here you have the tip off. We are to "fight the nations which are controlled by International Communism" and he already admits "Syria" and "Egypt" are "controlled by International Communism."
12. Hence, Syria and Egypt are the two nations we are to fight, on behalf of Israel, which will provoke them into attacking her, then call on us for assistance, in order to embroil us into the bloodletting, which would bleed America white, while Russia supplies the arms, but does not lose a man.
13. For the past several years, Israel sought from us a mutual assistance pact so she could provoke an Arab attack, and draw us into this bloodletting, but she was unable to get this pact. But now, Ike's plan gives this pact, without naming Israel in particular.
14. Some time before England and France invaded Egypt, Dulles told them they should not do so, because he said they could not win, but would be bled white against 450 million Arabs and Moslems in a holy war, with arms supplied by Russia. Now he wants to put us into that same position.
15. Ike says our Armed Forces would be "subject to the over-riding authority of the United Nations Security Council." This puts our troops under world government authority where we have 1 vote out of 11 on the council, and the Russian Chief of Staff is Chairman of the U.N. Military Committee every 5th month. A Communist would be the dictator of our troops every 5th month. As in Korea, our military plans would be known in advance by the Soviet Union. Is this fighting Com- munism? Shall you place the lives of American boys at the mercy of this traitorous set-up?

16. If Ike really wants to take effective action, why not take the initiative away from Soviet Union by letting Chiang Kai-Shek cross the Formosa Strait to liberate Red China? This will set the Red Empire on the Defensive everywhere, and cause Soviet Union to pull out of eastern Europe and the Middle East, or at least forego any action there. Chiang Kai-Shek had 600,000 fighting men ready to send against the Communists in Korea, but we refused, insisting our boys should die. They did — 32,237 of them with 105,871 wounded. We lost this war to the Communists.
17. Are we going to police the world? According to U. S. News and World Report, our armed forces are stationed in 62 countries. Why does the blood of our sons have to be spilled everywhere in the world where there is factional dispute?
18. It is the last act in the Zionist World Mastery Plan to destroy the United States and set-up a Jewish-controlled world government, fulfilling their 2500 year old plan of "every Jew a King and every Gentile a slave."
19. Eisenhower is the tool of the top Jewish planners Bernard Baruch, Sidney Weinberg, Herbert Lehman, Justice Frankfurter, Lewis Strauss and many others. He plays golf while they write up his speeches. He carries out their every instruction. He constantly appoints more Jewish leaders to top positions in our government. Gen. Lyman K. Lemnitzer, who sent only $200 worth of barbed wire to South Korea out of 11 million dollars military aid voted by Congress just before the outbreak of the Korean War, is now head of all our Far East land, sea and air forces, in position to sacrifice them in furtherance of the Zionist plan. Gen. Curtis LeMay, Jew, is head of our strategic air force. Lewis Strauss, Jew, is head of the A.E.C. Jews have almost all the top positions in our government as department heads or assistant department heads. Zellerbach, New Ambassador to Italy, is a Jew. Dillon, former Ambassador to France, now promoted to State Department, is a Jew.
20. The Jews created World Wars I and 2, the Depression, and the Korean War, and now are about to bleed America white in the last act. Communism is the Jewish World Mastery Plan.
21. The Russian Revolution in 1917 was a Jewish

- movement, financed by Jacob Schiff, Jew, head of Kuhn-Loeb Banking House of New York (of which Lewis Strauss, A.E.C. head, is a member). Schiff furnished 48 million dollars; 265 Jewish revolutionists were trained in lower New York City and then sent to Russia to carry out the revolution.
22. Lazar Kaganovich, Jew, is top man in the Soviet Union. Stalin's wife was his daughter. Molotov's wife is a Jewess. Moshe Pijade, Jew, Tito's Deputy Prime Minister, is and always has been a close friend of Lazar. M. Kaganovich, Deputy Prime Minister of the Soviet Union. Pijade is also a very close friend of Geroe, Jew, the tyrant of Hungary.
23. The Soviet Jewish masters are in complete connivance with Bernard Baruch (Jew of New York City and the most powerful man in the world) and the Jewish brain-trust of America for the carrying out of the Jew plan. Molotov visited Baruch on his Long Island estate in 1955 when here to attend the San Francisco United Nations meeting. They have the plan all worked out for bleeding America white.
24. Think of the hundreds of millions of anti-communists in China, Korea, Hungary, Poland, East Germany, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Rumania, Yugoslavia and Soviet Union who want to fight Communism. All they ask is guns and food. We have the factories to turn out the guns and eight billion dollars surplus food deteriorating in storage. Why does Washington insist our sons must die all over the world? Do we want to destroy Communism or do our Jew Bankers want to seize the resources of the world at the cost of our sons' lives?
25. At last our citizens are being aroused. They want to know who is really running our government and giving away our money and the blood of our youth. Our taxpayers are being burdened to give billions of dollars to governments whose citizens won't pay taxes.
26. If Congressmen do not stand up this time for Christian America but succumb as in the past to the lines of least resistance, and to the bribery of the Jew-controlled administration, it is "Taps" for America. Do Congressmen care enough for their own families and future of their loved ones to resist Ike's plan?
27. Fathers and Mothers of young sons, men of military age, and wives and relatives of men of fighting age, you will be held accountable for the sacrificing of American manpower in the Middle East if you don't resist Ike's plan and any other plan which commits American troops to the Middle East.

And CONGRESSMEN Today!

1947 Pres. Truman placed him on the 30 man commission "HIGHER EDUCATION FOR AMERICAN DEMOCRACY. Of these 30 men, 21 were associates of left-wing organizations as listed by the House Un-American Activities Committee, arranging in number of one-third page to one and a half pages of citations each. By association Dr. Carmichael is branded along with his character, especially so under the appointment of former Pres. Truman.

Sen. James O. Eastland addressing the Senate places Dr. Carmichael in no unmistakable position when he indirectly revealed Dr. Carmichael was a fledgling of World Federalism under the works of the Carnegie Foundation. Sen. Eastland said:

"In 1937 the Carnegie Foundation brought over Dr. Gunnar Myrdal of the University of Stockholm, Sweden. He was described by the Corporation as a social economist. He called himself a social engineer. He was a Socialist who served the Communist cause. He admitted he had no knowledge of the Negro question in the U.S. He was hired to make an investigation of race relations in this country; he was given an ample staff and funds for that purpose, and was told to publish his findings. On this project Myrdal naturally found himself in the company of those recommended by the Carnegie Foundation, of the Alger Hiss fame.

"The U.S. Supreme Court adopted generally and without reservation, as its leading authority on modern psychology, Myrdal's book An American Dilemma, when it said; and I quote from Chief Justice Warren's opinion: "And see generally Myrdal, An American Dilemma, 1944."

Alabama University came into the limelight as the first University where the native students expressed opposition to interventions of policy and traditions in the anti-Lucy case. The stooges for the NAACP approached the campus with Communist style tactics, blocking traffic in the early morning hours delaying workers from their jobs, and manifesting snobish and arrogant behavior in the class rooms. To the native student the stigma, and repulsion necessitated immediate action, and as true sons of a great heritage they expressed their righteous indignation in demonstrations resulting in the severance of Negro Lucy from the University.

Leonard Wilson, dubbed as THE LEADER was permanently expelled from school and maligned, denying him the right of a higher education. Wilson became the fall guy, the affair was a spontaneous, simulated pattern of many hundred native students in defense of their heritage.

Important in this fact is the work of research done by a handful of students who exposed Dr. Carmichael: of the Report to the Pres. from the commission on Higher Education for American Democracy, p. 39, Vol. 1., foot note, appears the names of 4 members who wish to dissent from the Commission's pronouncements on "segregation," especially as these pronouncements are related to education in the South. The name of Carmichael was conspicuously absent!

A bombardment of letters to the Editor of the Tuscaloosa, Alabama TUSCALOOSA NEWS was given some priority as readers interest. Placing before the public the fact that Dr. Carmichael, in July 1954, speaking before the Commercial Law League of America at Miami Beach, is quoted as saying that the University of Alabama would make every effort to comply with the Supreme Court ruling banning segregation in public schools. Commenting on how this ruling would be implemented, Dr. Carmichael said, and I quote from the UP dispatch: "...the segregation problem can be worked out just as it worked out in the armed services."

In another incident Dr. Carmichael's and the name of James H. Newman, Dean of Administration of the Alabama University were participants in a called meeting of the American Council on Education, assembled in St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 15-16, '54. Dr. Carmichael, one-time president of this organization, filled the vacancy where many Communist parroters had been engaged. The St. Louis meeting was sponsored by the Anti-Defamation League, the NAACP, the Urban League, and the American Council on Education. Included among the recommendations of the conference was:

"The conference recommends that all institutions of higher education assume further leadership in implementing the integration of student life, and appointment to administrative and faculty posts, without regard to race, color, or sex."

Dr. Carmichael called into his office one Sunday afternoon one of the students whose name appeared under the newspaper articles. Shocked and enraged he made every effort to intimidate the student. Face to face with a fearless challenger, Dr. Carmichael had met someone above his equal. In the intercourse, Dr. Carmichael is quoted as saying: "You know I was in the East when I endorsed the works of the President's COMMISSION ON HIGHER EDUCATION FOR DEMOCRACY, I had no alternative." The cool calm reply was "You didn't have to sell your birthright for a mess of pottage." Dr. Carmichael was whipped.

During this hectic period in the lives of Alabama's people, W.L. (Doc.) Martin, House Member from Eutaw, Alabama, expressed on the House Floor the right to subpoena a list of names appearing on a petition to the officials of the University for the retention of Autherine Lucy as a student. A delegation of students filling 2 automobiles arrived at Rep. Martin's home a few days later. Such was the conversation. "Mr. Martin, we wish you would not subpoena that list of names." Rep. Martin asked them why, and in unison the reply was, "Our names are on it". Mr. Martin; "What is your name doing on a list to retain a Negro at our State University?" One student replied, "My Math. teacher told me I would get a poor grade if I didn't sign it". Rep. Martin pledges confirmation of the above statement to the doubting Thomas.

The average citizen is so engrossed with the routine of daily living, he learns little of the methods employed by the despoilers of heritage. Research on a few institutions of higher education by the National Council for American Education reveal:

5 Red-ucators at Antioch College, 60 Red-ucators at the University of California, Stanford, and Calif. Institute of Technology. 60 Red-ucators at University of Chicago, (Sen. Paul Douglas of Ill. is listed as on loan by the University. This report carries Douglas on 22 citations by the House Un-American Activities Committee). 35 Red-ucator at Yale, 315 Red-ucators who have openly collaborated with 3 Communist Organizations, 100 Red-ucators at leading Women's Colleges. 11 Red-ucators at Dartmouth College, 289 Red-ucators in the Communist Peace Offensive, 350 Red-verends who have openly collaborated with 3 vicious Communist Organizations, 170 Red-ucators on a special report, who opposed the Walter-McCarran Act on immigration, 103 Red-ucators at Columbia University, 76 Red-ucators at Harvard.

The above named documented material, long and laborious in accumulation is typical of needed activities to ascertain a true appraisal of the inroads the un-American activities have made in positions of edu-

Under the leadership of Citizens Council initiates, the dark cloud of integration is being rolled back. With chapters in 34 States, the Councils have stimulated personal interest of both the member and non-member on the grass-root level. Unfortunately, the Council strategists are unaware of the black magic and sorcery used against them, nor the power to legislate against them.

The propaganda organs ran a series of tirades against the Citizens Councils in the N.Y. Post, captioned DIXIE DYNAMITE, The Inside Story of the White Citizens Councils. A story with the essence first appeared in the American Jewish Committee official organ "COMMENTARY".

The N.Y. Post is owned by Dorothy Schiff whose grandfather financed the Red Revolution in Russia in 1917. Jacob Schiff, head of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., in a telegram to friends at a big Communist-front demonstration at Carnegie Hall on the night of March 23, 1917, celebrating the triumph of the first Russian Revolution, wired in part: "Will you say for me to those present at tonight's meeting how deeply I regret my inability to celebrate with the Friends of the Russian Freedom, the actual reward of what we had hoped and striven for these long years..." signed JACOB H. SCHIFF. This telegram was published the following morning on page 2 of the N.Y. Times.

Significant in this issue is the action of Jewish interest in the Communist activities, the promotion of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the domination of Governmental Agencies, issuing the directives for modern education, editing Church and school literature, controlling the nations finance and policy for foreign affairs. Libraries are required to accommodate the files documenting the activities of these peoples, while on the other hand, we the Christians sleep in gross negligence to the preservation of our rightful place in history and our societies.

The 1956 fall roster of the B'NAI B'RITH HILLIEL FOUNDATION, lists Jewish sons and daughters attending the University of Alabama at 377. The petitions for retention of Autherine Lucy were chiefly of a Jewish nature. Like Harvard, where the faculty is upwards of 50% Jewish, Alabama University is being infiltrated by these people who assist in establishing new evaluation to established traditions.

Dr. Carmichael aided and abetted functional operations strictly anti-Southern. The Communist Party is known to have said they would use the State of Alabama as a "guinea pig" for "operation integration" in the South. The students of Alabama University and the Trustees of Alabama University have met that challenge.

"No, O.C., you need not say—why it is you can not stay."

Palestine through political Zionist pressure here in the U.S. and abroad. The displaced Arabs (who lived in Palestine for centuries) can never rest until they are once again back in their rightful homes.

The newspapers here and abroad cannot and do not dare to print the real truth as the Jews would immediately transfer their advertising. They control radio and television. The policy of this newspaper (which does not have any advertising) is free to print the truth.

At the present time Jewish pressure is on Washington to get the U.S. entangled in the Middle East to defend Israel through the proposed Eisenhower Plan.

Should we send Christian boys to fight the Arabs who want to be our friends—and we need their friendship. Without the Middle East oil, our entire fleet in the Mediterranean would be useless.

We have here thousands of so-called Jewish War Veterans who are constantly yelling in Israel's favor, let them volunteer to stop Communism in the Middle East.

Zionism Does Its Work By Murder - Terror - Intimidation!

WILL MAYOR WAGNER WELCOME THE STRONG-ARM MAN OF ISRAEL?

We welcomed Menachem Beigin before on Nov. 29, 1948 with a $50 a plate dinner at the Waldorf Astoria in N.Y. City. It is reported we are being honored again by a visit from Mr. Beigin, who is coming here from Israel where he is leader of the powerful political party HERUT in the Knesset (Parliament).

Mr. Beigin has pledged his Organization HERUT to setting up Israel with 3 times the territory now occupied. There is an inscription on the wall of the Knesset which describes Israel as extending "from the Tigris and Euphrates to the Nile." With this pledge in mind, it is interesting to see just who and what this man is.

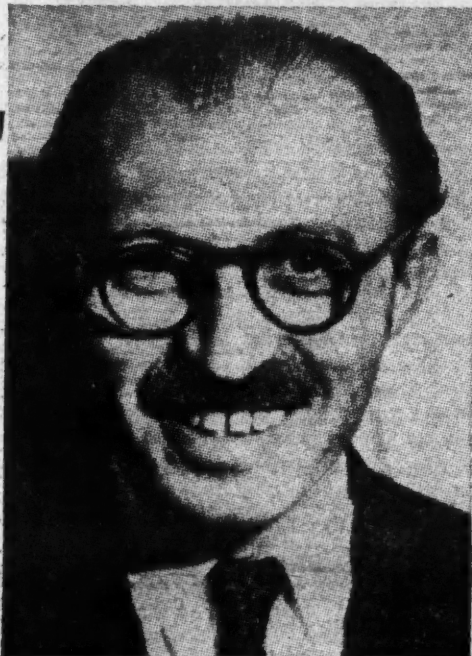

On Nov. 23, 1948, a few months after Israel was established, Beigin visited the U.S. and the N.Y. Times carried a full page ad welcoming him. The ad carried the bold headline "The man who defied an empire and gained glory for Israel," and continued, "A man who has become a legion in his own lifetime, Menachem Beigin, the former Commander-in-Chief of the Irgun Zvai Leumi, who at one time carried a price of ten thousand pounds on his head, arrived at 2:30 at La Guardia Airport."

"He is considered the logical and natural candidate for Prime Minister of Israel. Mr. Beigin led one of the most glorious and successful resistance movements in history. It was because of the valiant fight waged by the heroic underground that the whole structure of the British Regime in Palestine collapsed making possible the proclamation of Jewish Sovereignty and the establishment of the State of Israel.

"The strategy employed by Beigin was that of continuous harassment of the British, compelling them first to withdraw into their own Ghetto behind barbed wire and fortress walls and then reaching them behind the barbed wire and their own fortifications. The destruction of Government buildings, Tax records, Emergency records and the underhanded attacks on military targets turned British policy in Palestine into a nightmare.

"With the formal declaration of the State of Israel, Beigin ordered the men of the Irgun into the Army of Israel. They profess the revolutionary Army is not over. That is why a Reception Committee of more than one thousand distinguished Americans from all walks of life, including U.S. Senators, Congressmen, Clergy, Educators, Industrialists and Labor leaders joined together in order to welcome Mr. Beigin."

As many as a hundred Jewish Rabbis are listed in this page as part of the Reception Committee. There are also 552 other prominent Jews and some non-Jews who were maneuvered into lending their names. Among these are 72 Congressmen, 11 Senators, 11 Governors, 9 Mayors of large cities, who, in fear of the Jewish vote, lent their names to honor Menachem

Menachem Beigin

Beigin.

Menachem Beigin is a revolutionist and terrorist, a former leader of Irgun Zvai Leumi in Palestine, the group that murdered Count Bernadotte in cold blood.

Max Wullschleger, the political Editor of Arbeiter-Zeitung (Worker's Journal) of Basle, Switzerland, is authority for the statement that Beigin's real name is Freymann, a former Communist in Germany. Another source states he is a yiddish-speaking Khazar born in Brest-Litovsk, Russia; fathers name Zeev Dov.

He received his military training in the Soviet Union and was sent to Spain with the Communist Brigade in 1936, taking a prominent part in the Revolution there, where over one and a half million people died before the Communist forces were finally driven out.

He served with the Red Army in China and later in Palestine. He was in charge of the Irgun Organization, and in 1946 he consolidated Irgun with the Stern Gang. (Incidentally, the Editor of Common Sense has received several violent threats from the Stern Gang)

"Brotherhood" Jewish Style!

In the early afternoon of July 22nd, Jewish terrorists blew up the greater part of the Government offices in the south wing of the King David Hotel, Jerusalem. For this "brutal and murderous crime" and "insane act of terrorism," to use Mr. Attlee's words in the House of Commons, the Jewish Irgun Zvai Leumi have publicly proclaimed themselves responsible. This body, some of whose terrorist acts have been detailed in the White Paper of July 24, which also proved its connection with the Hagana, is a strong military organisation, now once more associated with the notorious Stern Gang; and a reward of two thousand pounds is offered for the capture of its leader, the former corporal in the Polish Army, Menachem Beigin. At the date of writing, the casualties in this atrocity are 66 dead, 43 missing, and 47 injured.

Salvaging American Influence In The Middle East

Miss Dorothy Thompson, President of the American Friends of the Middle-East issued a statement on 9 Nov., 1956, on the Middle-East crisis in which she said:-

"There is not the slightest hope of salvaging American influence in the Arab world until, or unless, the United States shakes off the stranglehold that Israel, via the powerful Zionist Organization of America, has exercised over our policies.

"In all American history there is no comparable example of a national minority, or that part of it who claim to speak in its name, exercising such influence in behalf of a foreign state upon the media of communication, the legislatures, and Executive.

"America cannot have any policy in the Middle East if her actions are dictated by the interests of one single Middle Eastern

Devastation in Port Said, Egypt

I Escaped From Communist Hell

A description of "life" in the Soviet Union by Ivan P., as told to a dedicated American who will henceforth be known as the Patriot.

I was born in 1909 in a thatched one-roomed log cabin near Petrograd, Russia, of poor, hard-working parents, my father laboring at a factory and my mother, on a farm. Since the nearest school was 6 miles away and only those fortunate children whose parents could afford proper clothes for them could attend. As a boy I received no schooling. Sometimes I worked as a goseherd.

THE RED TERROR

While I was yet a boy the dread Red Revolution burst upon us. When the Red Army invaded our area, they immediately singled out our nobles, priests, doctors and all other educated Gentiles who failed to escape from Russia and murdered them and their entire families. After looting all the mansions of the rich, the Reds burned them to the ground.

With my own eyes I saw the Bolsheviks, under the command of a fiendish Jewish commissar, take our good Bishop out into the bitter north Russian winter and pour water over him standing there freezing in his vestments until death released him from his tormentors. We children watching were driven away by some Estonian soldiers.

This atrocious official attack on the Christian Church stands in strange contrast to Lenin's declaration that anti-semitism is a crime against the state, which he decreed immediately after gaining power. Anti-semitism is the most serious crime in the Soviet Union! To this day the Jewish synagogues have functioned completely unmolested, and no case of a rabbi being officially persecuted has ever come to light.

On another occasion, while we children observed from the bushes, the Red soldiers liquidated 7 men of the educated class. First lining them up against the wall of a cabin, the soldiers in vicious sport went through the motions of "shooting" the doomed men with empty rifles. The Jewish commissar then commanded the hapless victims each to dig a hole, in which upon completion they were ordered to lie, while the soldiers commenced to bury them alive. When 2 of their victims tried to escape from their graves, the soldiers rudely shoved them back with their shovels and accomplished their gruesome task as ordered.

THE PEASANTS FIGHT BACK

After enduring several months of hideous Red-inflicted terror, the people began to fight back in kind. I witnessed our peasants catching and burning alive on a blazing heap of straw 3 Red Army officers, whom they recognized as Red-released criminals. In our area the peasants began to band together to form the Green Army, but since all potential leaders had already been murdered by the Bolsheviks, it was led locally by an 18 year old youth named Ivanov, the sole survivor of an educated, prosperous peasant family.

When the Reds sent a regiment to crush them, the Green Army instead surrounded and captured the entire Red regiment. All the captured Red officers had removed their insignias, but their soldiers willingly identified them when asked by Ivanov. Since nearly all the Red officers were either Jewish conspirators or freed criminals, he ordered them executed. After explaining to the captured soldiers how they were unwittingly fighting for a secret Jewish conspiracy and relieving them of their rifles and 18 machine guns, Ivanov told them to return home, since he could not feed them.

RETRIBUTION!

Among the officers captured was the aforementioned beast of a Jewish commissar in charge of liquidating the educated class in our district. He was singled out for special punishment for his countless atrocities against our people, being bound and shoved head first into the foul pit underneath an outhouse toilet, where he drowned in filth.

Nicolai Lenin

The man who put roller bearings under the Marxist Conspiracy

Ivanov attacked by night the center of the 2nd Red regiment sent to destroy the Green Army, splitting it into two parts. Finding the Reds' command post in the dark, he killed their staff officers and quietly withdrew before daylight. When dawn came, the two leaderless Red groups began firing upon each other, completely unaware of the ridiculous situation. A commissar was hastily dispatched from nearby Slovkovich to order the confused troops back to the city.

Finally the Bolsheviks sent overwhelming forces against the Green Army, forcing them to retreat into the forest, the men later escaping to the newly-created independent state of Estonia. Whomever the Reds caught hiding in the woods was killed forthwith. Only women and children were left in the villages, the men remaining in exile in Estonia, Latvia, and Lithuania until 1927-28, when most of them returned home as a result of the pardon promised them by the Soviet government. In 1930-31 the government arrested all these brave men and their luckless families, sending them to concentration camps to die in agony from overwork, privation, disease, and starvation.

THE PEACEFUL PERIOD

After the Red Army had finally established complete control, travel between the villages was forbidden during the summer, though this was relaxed during the fall and winter months, when long trips were impossible. After quiet was restored in the North in 1924, Lenin instituted a milder new economic policy and permitted limited freedom of religion, trade, travel, and education—an ominous lull that preceded an even more violent storm already abrewing.

Trotsky, Zinoviev, Kamenev, and others maintained that Jewish World Rule must first be established before the liquidation of all potential Gentile leadership, else the rest of the world, recoiling in horror, would band together to exterminate the Jewish arch-conspirators. An opposing faction argued that all potential counter-revolutionary leadership inside Russia must be destroyed immediately and the Gentiles reduced to an animal existence, or a successful counter-revolution would occur. The infuriated Gentiles would certainly exterminate all the Jews in Russia and expose the satanic Jewish master plan to the rest of the world. This faction further argued that Jewish control of world communications was so complete as to prevent the outside world from learning what went on inside the Soviet Union, especially since all Gentile emigration and correspondence would be ruthlessly prohibited.

From 1924 until 1929 Trotsky's policy of sweet deceit ruled, and beautiful fantasies about the Communist "Paradise" were rained upon the world by the Jewish controlled press, ensnaring the minds of millions of "intellectual" idealists.

There was only one Jew living in my village, and he was, as to be expected, wealthy. However, he had been neither killed nor imprisoned, in strange contrast to the extermination of all wealthy Christians. One day he sold his cows, horses, tools, etc. to the neighboring peasants and moved to Leningrad, where he became a high government official. He obviously knew well what was coming!

THE STORM BREAKS ANEW

The proponents of immediate genocide, for which Stalin fronted, finally gained complete control, exiling the irresponsible Trotsky and unleashing in 1929 a fiendish savagery upon the miserable Gentile of the Soviet Union more scientifically heartless than any in the brutal history of the world. This was "Brotherhood", kosher-style! The Jews had determined to concentrate on consolidating their grip on the Soviet Union while postponing the World Revolution for a few years.

A zone several kilometers wide was cleared of all inhabitants along the borders of Latvia, Lithuania, Estonia and Finland. Anyone being found in this zone trying to escape was executed. I crossed this dead zone when the Red Army seized Estonia. I learned later that such a forbidden zone actually extended all along the land borders of the Soviet Union.

In 1929 the first Five-Year Plan to industrialize the Soviet Union was put into effect. The seizure of all Gentile property was renewed with relentless fury. All Jews had by this time left the large cities, where they formed the new Master Race, ruling the Soviet Union by remote control with such a ruthless disregard for the welfare of the Gentiles that we could not fail to see that the Talmudic Laws regarding treatment of the goy cattle were the guiding principles in the new Communist Paradise—for Jews only (combination pigsty and slaughterhouse for the unfortunate goy cattle!).

Since the Jews regard themselves as the only people, they can champion democracy with straight faces and clear consciences, since "rule by the people" can mean to them "rule by Jews", everyone else being "stupid goy cattle".

THE "CLASSLESS" CLASSES

At this time in the Communist "classless society" the Gentiles were officially divided into classes, each and every Gentile being assigned a classification, which was entered on his official secret personal file, which follows him like a menacing shadow, wherever he goes. The peasants were divided into the following classes:

Liquidated

1. Kulaks—all prosperous peasants, employing others.
2. Semi-Kulaks.
3. Tverdozadanec—prosperous farmers not employing others.
4. Podpevala (2nd stringers)—propertyless, but secretly denounce the government.
5. Shaptun (whisperers)—believe in God and secretly read the Bible.
6. Sredniak (middle farmers)—most numerous class.
7. Bedyenak (poor farmers)—own either a horse or a cow. (I was of this class).
8. Proletariat—own no property. Provide most of Gentile Communist Party members. Illiterates are barred from the Party, but are used as "actives". The following proletariat are liquidated:
 - A. Bukharincy (politicians)—demonstrate ability to think, also those who express political disapproval of the government.

*communism is treason!

Common Sense

*fight it with common sense!

3

B. Vrediteli (saboteurs)—those who repeatedly fail to produce normally or cause breakdowns, accidents, etc.

GENOCIDE (GENTILEOCIDE!)

The first 5 classes were liquidated entirely as "enemies of the people"; i.e., enemies of the Jews. In 1930-33 ten million peasants died from government-created famine. The Don and Kuban provinces were singled out for terrible revenge, since the Jews nursed especial hatred for these people, for two reasons:

1. Attacks had been made on the Jews in these provinces prior to the Revolution, instigated by the revelation that the Christian children who had been disappearing with alarming regularity were being bled to death to provide the prescribed blood for Jewish religious rituals.

2. The Cossacks were the Czar's most reliable soldiers, and were given the job of repressing the constant Jewish intrigues, uprisings, and strikes. Six million Don and Kuban Cossacks were deliberately starved to death in 1933.

When the desperate peasants realized that their more prosperous neighbors were being arrested and sent to die in concentration camps, they began to pauperize themselves by destroying their property, deliberately killing large numbers of livestock. Forced collectivization was first begun in the Ukraine, then later in Russia proper. Wherever the Communists have seized control, this liquidation of the wealthier farmers, with the ensuing destruction of property this forces upon the remaining panic-stricken peasants, invariably produces famine.

COLLECTIVIZATION

"Bears" who were permitted the dubious pleasure of surviving were one by one deprived of all their property and asked to go to a collective farm—if they refused, they were "upgraded" and often sent to concentration camps. Neighbors were forced by the chairman and members of the village presidium, on pain of being declared "enemies of the people", to confiscate the property of first one and then another of their fellow peasants. The property thus seized was taken to the village presidium, livestock, tools, etc. being retained by the collective farm, and personal effects being sold to the remaining peasants. Stripping a peasant of his last shirt and pants which he was wearing was not permitted. So when a peasant realized that he had been selected for the day's confiscation program, he attempted to put on all the clothes he could, while his systematically degraded and bestialized neighbors attempted to take them off of him. "Bears" who refused to go to the collective farm after being dispossessed often fled to the woods, but after 5 or 6 months they were usually glad to be allowed to return to work (if they had managed to survive).

If one is convicted of stealing from his fellows, he is sentenced to a 2 or 3 year prison term, but if one is suspected of appropriating the smallest crumb from the government, he is branded an "enemy of the people", and given a sentence of death or long imprisonment.

THE PHARISAIC CONSPIRACY

I must digress from my description of the wretched life I knew on the farm to describe briefly the unbelievable organization responsible for declaring the bulk of the human species to be mere cattle and treating us accordingly.

The Soviet Union was the first conquest of a group of Pharisaic Jews (the direct doctrinaire successors of those same Pharisees who expressed their "brotherly love" by murdering Jesus) who have become obsessed with the idea that they are God's "Chosen People", an elite chosen to rule over the earth. They have plotted for two milleniums against their hated goy rulers, who have stood squarely across their road to the achievement of their self-appointed "divine" mission to rule the entire human race. The route which they have so cleverly selected begins with the infiltration of all nations, proceeds to financial and then political domination, and ends in the utter subjugation, decapitation, and de-humanizing of the entire balance of humanity, leaving the Jews triumph human masters of a mass of sub-human zombies. These Jews have developed such a contempt for all other people that they can no longer regard the fellow goyim as fellow humans. From childhood a Jew is never allowed to forget every misery that Jews have suffered from the beginning of their history. He is constantly instructed in the crafty art of taking advantage of their enemies; i.e., all other people! their entire lives consist of deceiving and conspiring to live in luxury by their wits off the hard-working goyim.

After they had seized control of the Empire of the Czars, they have organized it solely for their benefit—to make it a veritable Jewish paradise.

THE RULING CLASS

Russia is ruled ostensibly by the Communist Party, every Jew becoming automatically a member of the Party at the age of 16. Roughly half of the Party membership is Jewish. In order to maintain their hateful degradation of the goyim from the safety of remote control, the Jews operate through non-Jewish tools. This is the reason that about half of Communist Party membership consists of a carefully selected group of Gentile hatchetmen, chosen because they are either criminal, depraved, dissolute, or stupid! A very selected group are married to Jewesses (who serve as intimate and omnipresent spies upon their husbands) and are allowed the privilege of living like Jews to act as false fronts to present to the world.

Normally a Gentile is liquidated after 5 years of service as a Party member, as by that time he is usually aware of the Jewish Master Race conspiracy. The older non-member Gentiles are often aware of it too and want no part of it. So the Jews are obliged to indoctrinate and prepare fresh material in the form of the Komsomols (Young Communists), who are separated from their parents and sent to special schools. (This nefarious scheme is a copy of the old Janissary idea of the Sultans of Turkey!)

THE INVISIBLE GOVERNMENT

Parallel to, yet superior to, every visible board of control in the Soviet Union is a Secret Board, consisting of both Jews and Gentile catspaws, which must pass on every decision of the visible board. (I have been before the Secret Board on occasion, so I know of its existence and composition from personal experience.) Behind and superior to the Secret Board is the ultra-secret Troyka, a three-man all-Jewish super-committee, with whom all business is conducted by correspondence, to preserve the secrecy of their identities. Thus the Soviet Union is not ruled by its visible rulers at all, but by a hierarchy of secret Jewish Troykas. In 1932 I learned the identities of the 3 members of the Troyka for Leningrad, where I was living at the time. All 3 were Jews, 2 of whose names I still remember, Rabbis Yadin and Dvorson.

LIFE ON THE FARM

Life on the collective farm is drab, shameful, odious, miserable. In most places the workers (about 97%) huddle together in some of the old thatched log cabins of the former peasants. The cabins are in a miserable state of disrepair, about half of them having broken windows, the chimneys on many having fallen down, causing them to be smoke-filled purgatories. We slept in our bare rooms on straw laid on the floor or on "beds" made of boards laid across two sawhorses (if boards could be found) we had no other furniture. One small room serves as the entire living quarters for two families or about 7 single people, serving as kitchen also. At some large concentrations workers inhabit large barracks, each family occupying only the floor space necessary to contain their self-constructed boards-on-sawhorse "beds". These barracks are a bedlam of perpetual argument, bawling children, thievery, and altercation of nerve-racked and demoralized proletariat (all according to the Jewish plan for the utter degradation of the Gentiles).

Work goes on 7 days a week, only 2 holidays per year being permitted, May 1st and Oct. 25th—the days celebrating our enslavement! A farm worker is permitted to buy his food ration only for the days he actually works—no extra ration is allowed for children, unless they work.

It is impossible for Americans to imagine the poverty of the collective farm workers. All summer everyone goes barefooted to save shoes. Farm workers can seldom afford manufactured leather shoes, so they must make them of bark or linen. Each year about 15% of the better workers are given a pair of inferior leather shoes as a reward. During the muddy fall and spring months many workers die from having their feet constantly wet—it is better in the winter when everything is frozen hard. In the fall and spring many workers are arrested as saboteurs for refusing to risk death by continuing to work in the cold dampness after they are already taking sick.

Our collective farm produced a quantity of linen, entirely hand-processed by the ancient methods. All such cloth is turned over to the farm management, which, after rendering the quota to the government, distributes the insufficient remainder among the workers, from which they must make their own clothes. Winter clothing is made of linen quilting.

Prior to 1937 every remaining peasant owning a cow was required to furnish the government with 40 kilograms (88pounds) of meat and 250 liters (quarts) of milk per year. In order to meet this meat quota the peasants were obliged to slaughter all their cows. About 1938 the government made the impossible demand of 40 kilos of meat per year from each peasant chimney (representing a household)!

During summer the collective farm work-day stretched from 6 A.M to 8 P.M., after which the laborers had to perform their domestic chores. The forest served as a source of grass hay for winter (when we owned a cow), berries, and mushrooms. During Stalin's time gardens of about one-third acre were permitted for most families, although this privilege has since been withdrawn. The laborers preferred to work in their own gardens than for the government as it was far more rewarding! During the winter we worked about 8 hours per day cutting wood for the government; after work hours we could cut firewood for ourselves.

Council and Leader of the House of Commons, in a statement to the House during the Palestine Debate on July 31, 1946:

"...Zionism is regarded by its supporters as the expression of a profound and splendid impulse in the soul of the Jewish people, and its purpose as transcending the material needs of the immediate present. Let them beware, however, lest this modern perversion of their faith brings ruin upon them and it. Sane and healthy nationalism has inspired many of the finest achievements of mankind; its perversion spells only degradation and depravity.

"...The leaders of the Jewish community in Palestine have, we feel bound to say, failed to preserve their movement from the contagion of these false ideals." ("The Times" London—Aug. 1, 1946, Page 7, Col. 2)

INSANE ACT

The Right Hon. Clement Attlee, then Prime Minister of Great Britain, in a statement to the House of Commons on July 23, 1946, on the blowing up of the British Headquarters in the King David Hotel, Jerusalem:

"Hon. members will have learned with horror of the brutal and murderous crime committed yesterday in Jerusalem. Of all the outrages which have occurred in Palestine, and they have been many and horrible in the last few months, this is the worse. By this insane act of terrorism, 93 innocent people have been killed or are missing in the ruins."

Most Reverend Cyril Foster Garbett, D.D. Archbishop of York and Primate of England in an address to the York Diocesan Conference on July 2, 1946:

"...There could be no hope for the future of Palestine until terrorism is stamped out... The Jews in that country have been committing these acts of violence against those who have been their chief benefactors." ("The Times" London—Aug. 1, 1946, Page 4, Col. 1 and 2)

In a debate on Palestine in the House of Lords, July 31, 1946:

"...He (the Most Reverend Primate) was in Palestine last March and while he was there, what struck him was the attitude of our men. They said they could not stand treachery. 'The Jews dress up in British uniforms and they come behind us and shoot us with British guns,' they said." ("The Times" London—July 3, 1946, Page 4, Col. 3)

A CALENDAR OF VIOLENCE

The Zionists used Winston Churchill to maneuver England into bringing war on the German people to help the Jews crush Germany and build up Communist Russia. The English people suffered enormously in deaths and casualties, but the reader should note how the Jews in the following year after WW II, showed their appreciation by their senseless and brutal atrocities on the British soldiers in Palestine.

In Nov. 1956, Israel was successful in having England again save the Jews from defeat in Egypt when British planes bombed Egyptian cities and civilians, making it possible for the Israeli Army to grab more territory. Three thousand British paratroopers were killed in a daylight landing.

Is there any group on earth except the Zionists that can maneuver one country after another into shedding their sons' blood to advance their selfish interests? Israel, which was not in existence until 3 years after the war on Germany, exists on Reparations from Germany and hundreds of millions squeezed from the American taxpayers.

Count Folke Bernadotte

The U.N. on May 21, 1948 appointed Swedish Count Folke Bernadotte as mediator between Israel and the Arab States. After making an exhaustive study of the questions involved, the Count was to report with a solution for peace. The U.N. Assembly was to meet in Paris for this purpose on Sept. 21, 1948, but the Jews learned that the Count's findings were not favorable to Israel.

Four men in Israeli uniform approached the Count's car in Jerusalem on Sept. 17th, and murdered Bernadotte and Col. Andre Serot, his aid. Col. Frank Begley, a U.S. marine, also in the car was powder burned and spattered with blood.

This is the Jews way of accepting any decision against them. Not a soul was ever arrested, but the man believed to have ordered this cold blooded murder is the most powerful man in the Israeli Government today, MENACHEM BEGIN!

Bridges We Cross

By Eunice Davey Dean

The personal income tax is the most vicious, dishonest unmoral tax ever imposed on the American people. First, when the tax was imposed on the American people, those in favor of the tax screamed to the hilltops 2% would be the limit.

These same men said the American people would revolt if more than 2% of their wages was taxed from them. The First World War was in the making and money from the American people was a much needed item. We were led to the slaughter rather gently so far as the tax was concerned. Our minds were moved over to Germany.

We forgot the home front. Emotion, grief, broken homes, sad hearts took precedence over reason. Public sentiment was aroused and life became easy to sacrifice. Like a desert flash-flood there was no rhyme or reason to anything we did. We became swollen with false pride, governed by human will and led like sheep. Years later when we began to reckon with the results of the war, we took a new look and how different the view. We still have the personal income tax and now from 20% to 91% comes out of your earnings. Under this vicious tax you are a slave.

If you earn quite a sum you are taxed 91%, so what do you say?—What's the use? So you quit. Then, if you decide to buy a piece of property, you pay a tax on the income. If you sell and make a profit the government cashes in on that, if you die and leave the property to a relative the inheritance or income tax eats the value out of the property, and your heirs have no inheritance because values have gone up and so goes the tax and every cent, every transaction, every bill is looked into from the day you bought the property to the day you sell it or die. So who has what?

Your private papers are recorded from your home or business and sent to Washington and so far as you are concerned you are neither a private citizen or have a private paper or business. Everything about you and your business is documented. Unless we storm and storm loud enough to be heard around the world, 30 billion will be taken again from you next year. Men in control of your tax dollars have given away 100 billion since 1939. Just consider if that 100 billion were divided among the 165 million of us what we would have. You earned it, and under the personal income tax 100 billion was confiscated from you. Billions flow yearly from inheritance tax... people die you know. In less than 100 years, if we continue as we are now doing with the inheritance tax and personal income tax the government, centralized government, will own every home, every place of business, every church, and every hill, lake and river in the United States. Russian methods on the home front.

The income and inheritance tax is socialism, and socialism and communism are Siamese twins!

Write to the Organization to Repeal the Personal Income Tax—3757 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles California and ask for information. Our boys died back in 1914-1941-1945. Can you live under this vicious tax or just continue to be a slave? You have a choice, our boys didn't. You can save yourself by repealing the federal income tax. THE COMING BLEED

Vehicle--Eisenhower's

1. Eisenhower asks Congress to remain dormant and give him the power to act in the Middle East. He asks sole authority to spend money belonging to 167 million of us. He demands the power to spend the blood of our sons. Was not Congress created to weigh and decide on just such emergencies? John Foster Dulles tells us that civilization will be destroyed if we do not place this power in Eisenhower's hands immediately. Is he trying to scare Congress into a quick decision?
2. S. J. Resolution 19 to be voted on by the Senate and House has an entirely different meaning than Eisenhower's speech. Could this resolution have been written by the American Jewish Committee?
3. Ike did not want Israel to attack Egypt just before the election when our people were about to vote. His attitude before the election has thrown people off guard after the election just as in 1940 when F.D.R. stated: "And while I am talking to you fathers and mothers, I give you one more assurance. I have said this before, but I shall say it again and again and again, your boys are not going to be sent into any foreign wars." It disarmed those who did not trust F.D.R., but as soon as he was elected, he put us in war with dead and casualties in millions.
4. America may be bled white fighting 450 million Arabs, Moslems, and Hindus, plus millions of Red Chinese "Volunteers" while Russia supplies them with arms, but does not lose a man.
5. Your attention is called to the wording of Ike's proposal: "To give military aid to any nation resisting aggression from a nation controlled by International Communism." Many are wrongfully assuming that Ike's plan is for Americans to fight Communist nations. But that is not it. If you assumed that, you have missed the point entirely.
6. Senators and Congressmen, Hear ye! Hear Ye! Do not miss the import of the underlined word "from a nation controlled by International Communism."
7. Israel has been claiming aggression by Arab countries which naturally will never be pacified until the million Arabs in the desert are returned to the homes from which they have been driven. Israel, in grabbing more land, will provoke the Arabs into attacking them. Then our American sons are to die again just as they died to crush Germany and strengthen the Communist Soviet Union.
8. Israel intends to carve out a large section

- of the Arab country including oil, and conspires for the U.S. to help them just as we made Soviet Union into a world power. The least Israel expects is for Ike to prevent Arab countries from receiving arms, hence the Arabs will be helpless before highly mechanized Israel, forcing the Arabs to acknowledge Israel's banditry and murder.
9. A very popular anti-Communist magazine, in its January issue, states: "Do you know that the red leaders in conspiring with some people in New York City have planned to bleed and then isolate the United States and then take over the Country from within?"
 10. Is this the plan to embroil Americans into fighting the Arabs. Dulles says that in the economic aid plan of Ike's bill, he does not contemplate aid to "Syria" or "Egypt" because they appear to be "controlled by International Communism."
 11. Here you have the tip off. We are to "fight the nations which are controlled by International Communism" and he already admits "Syria" and "Egypt" are "controlled by International Communism."
 12. Hence, Syria and Egypt are the two nations we are to fight, on behalf of Israel, which will provoke them into attacking her, then call on us for assistance, in order to embroil us into the bloodletting, which would bleed America white, while Russia supplies the arms, but does not lose a man.
 13. For the past several years, Israel sought from us a mutual assistance pact so she could provoke an Arab attack, and draw us into this bloodletting, but she was unable to get this pact. But now, Ike's plan gives this pact, without naming Israel in particular.
 14. Some time before England and France invaded Egypt, Dulles told them they should not do so, because he said they could not win, but would be bled white against 450 million Arabs and Moslems in a holy war, with arms supplied by Russia. Now he wants to put us into that same position.
 15. Ike says our Armed Forces would be "subject to the over-riding authority of the United Nations Security Council." This puts our troops under world government authority where we have 1 vote out of 11 on the council, and the Russian Chief of Staff is Chairman of the U.N. Military Committee every 5th month. A Communist would be the dictator of our troops every 5th month. As in Korea, our military plans would be known in advance by the Soviet Union. Is this fighting Com- munism? Shall you place the lives of American boys at the mercy of this traitorous set-up?

16. If Ike really wants to take effective action, why not take the initiative away from Soviet Union by letting Chiang Kai-Shek cross the Formosa Strait to liberate Red China? This will set the Red Empire on the Defensive everywhere, and cause Soviet Union to pull out of eastern Europe and the Middle East, or at least forego any action there. Chiang Kai-Shek had 600,000 fighting men ready to send against the Communists in Korea, but we refused, insisting our boys should die. They did — 32,237 of them with 105,871 wounded. We lost this war to the Communists.

17. Are we going to police the world? According to U. S. News and World Report, our armed forces are stationed in 62 countries. Why does the blood of our sons have to be spilled everywhere in the world where there is factional dispute?

18. It is the last act in the Zionist World Mastery Plan to destroy the United States and set-up a Jewish-controlled world government, fulfilling their 2500 year old plan of "every Jew a King and every Gentile a slave."

19. Eisenhower is the tool of the top Jewish planners Bernard Baruch, Sidney Weinberg, Herbert Lehman, Justice Frankfurter, Lewis Strauss and many others. He plays golf while they write up his speeches. He carries out their every instruction. He constantly appoints more Jewish leaders to top positions in our government. Gen. Lyman K. Lemnitzer, who sent only $200 worth of barbed wire to South Korea out of 11 million dollars military aid voted by Congress just before the outbreak of the Korean War, is now head of all our Far East land, sea and air forces, in position to sacrifice them in furtherance of the Zionist plan. Gen. Curtis LeMay, Jew, is head of our strategic air force. Lewis Strauss, Jew, is head of the A.E.C. Jews have almost all the top positions in our government as department heads or assistant department heads. Zellerbach, New Ambassador to Italy, is a Jew. Dillon, former Ambassador to France, now promoted to State Department, is a Jew.

20. The Jews created World Wars I and 2, the Depression, and the Korean War, and now are about to bleed America white in the last act. Communism is the Jewish World Mastery Plan.

21. The Russian Revolution in 1917 was a Jewish movement, financed by Jacob Schiff, Jew, head of Kuhn-Loeb Banking House of New York (of which Lewis Strauss, A.E.C. head, is a member). Schiff furnished 48 million dollars; 265 Jewish revolutionists were trained in lower New York City and then sent to Russia to carry out the revolution.

22. Lazar Kaganovich, Jew, is top man in the Soviet Union. Stalin's wife was his daughter. Molotov's wife is a Jewess. Moshe Pijade, Jew, Tito's Deputy Prime Minister, is and always has been a close friend of Lazar. M. Kaganovich, Deputy Prime Minister of the Soviet Union. Pijade is also a very close friend of Geroe, Jew, the tyrant of Hungary.

23. The Soviet Jewish masters are in complete connivance with Bernard Baruch (Jew of New York City and the most powerful man in the world) and the Jewish brain-trust of America for the carrying out of the Jew plan. Molotov visited Baruch on his Long Island estate in 1955 when here to attend the San Francisco United Nations meeting. They have the plan all worked out for bleeding America white.

24. Think of the hundreds of millions of anti-communists in China, Korea, Hungary, Poland, East Germany, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Rumania, Yugoslavia and Soviet Union who want to fight Communism. All they ask is guns and food. We have the factories to turn out the guns and eight billion dollars surplus food deteriorating in storage. Why does Washington insist our sons must die all over the world? Do we want to destroy Communism or do our Jew Bankers want to seize the resources of the world at the cost of our sons' lives?

25. At last our citizens are being aroused. They want to know who is really running our government and giving away our money and the blood of our youth. Our taxpayers are being burdened to give billions of dollars to governments whose citizens won't pay taxes.

26. If Congressmen do not stand up this time for Christian America but succumb as in the past to the lines of least resistance, and to the bribery of the Jew-controlled administration, it is "Taps" for America. Do Congressmen care enough for their own families and future of their loved ones to resist Ike's plan?

27. Fathers and Mothers of young sons, men of military age, and wives and relatives of men of fighting age, you will be held accountable for the sacrificing of American manpower in the Middle East if you don't resist Ike's plan and any other plan which commits American troops to the Middle East.

UN Control Of Our A-Bomb Will Be Death Blow To U.S.

JEW'S HOLD TIGHT CONTROL OVER THE ATOMIC PROGRAM—BOTH WAR AND PEACETIME

Nowhere has the control of the Jewish international bankers and their Communist philosophy of government been more apparent than in the atomic energy program. Sen. Herbert Lehman sent Dr. Alexander Sachs, an employee of his Jewish international banking house, Lehman Brothers, to the late Pres. F.D. Roosevelt in Oct., 1939 with a letter from the inveterate Communist-fronter, Albert Einstein, ordering FDR to start work on the atomic bomb. John Hancock, partner of Lehman Brothers, was alternate delegate with Wall Street gambler Bernard Baruch representing the U.S. on the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission. When Gordon Dean stepped aside for Strauss as Chairman of the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission, he became a $100,000 a year "consultant" to Lehman Brothers. The Oppenheimer treason case was decided by Thomas A. Morgan, a director of Sen. Lehman's giant holding company, the Lehman Corporation!

David Lilienthal

David Lilienthal, scion of the Jewish international banking house of Hirsch Lilienthal (now known as Hirsch & Co.) was appointed by Truman as the first Chairman of the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission. He fought fanatically against the American development of the H bomb until the USSR had time to catch up with the U.S., and only then did he resign.

Lewis Lichtenstein Strauss

Lilienthal's dominant place on the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission was taken by Lewis Lichtenstein Strauss, partner of the international Jewish banking house of Kuhn, Loeb Co., which financed the bloody anti-Christian Communist revolution in Russia in 1917. Appointed by Truman, Strauss was called by Eisenhower to be his personal advisor on atomic energy. Do you get the picture? No less than three international Jewish bankers, Lehman, Lilienthal, and Strauss, all with Marxist connections, have been in constant control of the United States atomic energy program since its very inception. Under their regime, the Jewish Communist spies who gave the atom bomb to the USSR were hired.

Anna M. Rosenberg, identified before a Senate Subcommittee as a Communist, hired 10,000 people for the Manhattan (Atomic Energy) project. (The New Yorker, Sept. 15, 1945.)

Anna M. Rosenberg was a protege of Bernard Baruch who took over the task of representing the U.S. on atomic problems.

Military vs. Civilian Control

As soon as World War II was ended, the Jewish left-wing press, spearheaded by Eugene Meyer's (Jew) Washington Post, and the Commie Daily Worker, began a hysterical campaign to get the atomic bomb away from military control. Although it was and is a military weapon, the Jews argued that our loyal American generals would use the bomb to create a "fascist" state here in America (fascist being a catch-all term for anyone who opposes Jewish Communism). They were so successful in this vicious propaganda that the public was lulled to sleep.

David Niles (Neyhus), Truman's Jewish master in the White House, created the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission in 1946, which took atomic energy control away from our generals and gave it to a five-man board, of whom 4 were Jews and 1 Gentile, a fellow-traveler of the Zionist conspirators.

This Commission was headed by David Lilienthal, now consultant with the international Jewish banking house of Lazard Freres, which was Eugene Meyer's family banking house. The other 3 Jews were Strauss of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. and Dr. Robert F. Bacher, who was at the Los Alamos atomic bomb base with Jewish Communist spies David Greenglass and Julius Rosenberg, and Wm. Waymack, editor of the Des Moines Register Tribune, owned by Gardner Cowles of Look Magazine, which follows the pro-Jewish racial line laid down by Eugene Meyer's Washington Post. Waymack's name has appeared on the boards of directors of many organizations dedicated to the destruction of the U.S. among them the American Association for the United Nations, a nest of Communist fellow-travelers. He also is a director of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago. The Federal Reserve System was set up by Paul Warburg of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. as exposed in "The Federal Reserve Conspiracy" (order from COMMON SENSE, $1.00). The Gentile stooge was Sumner Pike, a Wall Street banker.

Today the five-man Commission is headed by Lewis L. Strauss, who besides being a partner of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. is on the board of directors of Industrial Rayon Corporation. He is also a director of Radio Corporation of America, Rockefeller Center Inc., and the National Broadcasting System, which may explain the Marxist orientation of our radio-television networks.

More alarming is the fact that most of the members of the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission to date have been members of the Council on Foreign Relations, central and co-ordinating international agency in the U.S., supported by Kuhn Loeb and the Rothschilds, and sister organization of the Royal Institute of International Affairs in London, also supported by the Rothschilds. These two organizations were founded jointly by Baron Eduard de Rothschild at the Paris Peace Conference of 1919, and are parent-institutes of the Institute of Pacific Relations, the agency which the McCarran Committee investigation proved was responsible for the delivery of China to the Soviet Union, giving Communism 400,000,000 new allies, and condemning the Chinese people to hopeless slavery under Jewish commissars from Moscow. Thus the Chinese Communist troops were able to slaughter thousands of captured American boys in Korea. However, the Institute of Pacific Relations traitors still go unpunished, because they are the Wall Street bankers and lawyers who support Communism.

Oppenheimer's Treason

On April 6, 1954, Senator Joseph R. McCarthy revealed to his television audience that traitors had delayed our development of the hydrogen defense bomb program by 18 months. He declared that our intelligence agencies had informed him that the Soviet Union had caught up with our lead in the production of nuclear weapons. He also said he wanted to make a full scale investigation into the H-bomb treason.

This meant that he would be investigating the three international Jewish bankers, Lehman, Lilienthal, and Strauss. Immediately a terrific smear campaign, more intense than any yet made against him, was launched through radio, television, and the press. The television farce of McCarthy-Army began, its avowed purpose being to crush McCarthy once and for all, its instigators believing that because the entire proceedings were so ridiculous, McCarthy would necessarily be made ridiculous. Of course Secretary of the Army Stevens would be made into a Milton Berle type of clown, but he was to be sacrificed in the vicious attempt to halt McCarthy's coming probe into the H-bomb program.

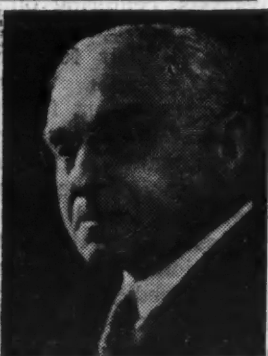

Doom Of Western Civilization

Because of the 18 month delay in our production of the H-bomb, by Oppenheimer and Lilienthal, Sen. McCarthy warned that our nation and our civilization may die. It is almost a certainty that this means a 3rd World War with all the horrors of atomic weapon destruction visited upon our homeland. The terrible blame rests upon these Jewish bankers and their Jewish scientists who profess the Marxist philosophy. The N.Y. Times, Congressman Sterling Cole of the Joint Congressional Committee, and every other authority on the subject name David Lilienthal and J. Robert Oppenheimer as the two men who delayed the H-bomb. What is wrong with us? Do we have to be shot down in our homes before we see the necessity for protecting our nation from these enemies in our midst? Oppenheimer is the personal protege of Lewis Lichtenstein Strauss, as revealed by the N.Y. Times of April 13, 1954, which stated that Strauss had appointed Oppenheimer to the post of head of the Institute for Advanced Study at Princeton, New Jersey.

Had we been able to retain our leadership in the production of atomic weapons, we could have warned the Soviet Union, "Stop the spread of aggressive Communism and release the captive nations from the death-grip of your Jewish commissars, or we will employ atomic weapons against you." This course of action has been urged by many of our military leaders, who recognized long ago that either the Soviet Union would wipe us out or we would stop Communism. There is no middle ground in dealing with an international conspiracy. Sinister influences in Washington demoted and silenced those military leaders, gave the atomic bomb to Russia, and delayed our production of the H-bomb. These influences have now been proven to be entirely Jewish, boldly committing treason from the protection of the White House on a scale hitherto unknown in the world.

Jew Control

The N.Y. Times of April 18, 1954 says, "Fermi, Szilard, and Wigner of Princeton met with Alexander Sachs of the Lehman Corp. to discuss the possibility of an atomic bomb. On Oct. 11, 1939, Sachs read to FDR a letter from Einstein and a memo from Szilard. The President ordered an advisory Committee on Uranium to be set up."

Who's Who In America, 1951, contains the following entry,

"Dr. Alexander Sachs,—born Rossien, Russia, economist, graduated from Harvard Graduate School, now economic advisor and director of the Lehman Corp., member of the National Policy Committee, special consultant to the Office of Strategic Services during WW II, originated the atomic project in conference with President Roosevelt in 1939, and served as the President's representative on the organizing committee of the Manhattan Project (atomic bomb program)."

A Gentile, Major General Groves, was placed in charge of the Manhattan Project, but he was powerless to maintain control over the horde of alien Jewish Communists which infiltrated every level of the operation. The influence of Harry Hopkins and Anna Rosenberg was too much for him. They as well as Dr. Sachs must be held responsible for the long list of convicted Jewish spies, Rosenbergs, Greenglass, Sobell, Gold, Brothman, Weinberg, etc. who gave the atomic bomb to the USSR and placed the American people in grave danger of atomic annihilation.

Dr. Sachs was a special consultant to the Office of Strategic Services in 1945 when that agency compiled a secret list of German scientists who had been working on the atomic program in Germany, and gave that list to the Russian secret police, who immediately arrested these scientists and shipped them to Russia to work in the Soviet atomic program. Those on this list, whose names could have been known only to Sachs or his co-workers, were obligingly arrested by our military police, acting on orders from the Eisenhower administration of Germany, and handed over to the Reds.

Baruch And The Atomic Program

The aged Bernard Baruch himself came out of retirement to take charge of the atomic program. He appointed himself U.S. Representative to the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission in 1946, and came forth with a plan for international control of atomic energy, blissful of the fact that it had been developed in the U.S. with American money and resources. The following year Oppenheimer came out with a program which clearly showed his political allegiance. He wanted a World Atom Authority, with 6 laboratories in different countries, to be open to any scientist of any nation seeking information and aid in atomic development. Naturally this would include the Soviet Union.

The alternate U.S. Representative to the U.N. Commission on Atomic Energy was John Hancock, partner of Sen. Lehman's family banking house of Lehman Brothers, which has furnished so many top people for the atomic program.

Atomic Treason

In Nov. of 1946 it was estimated by our intelligence agencies that Russia could not possibly build an atomic bomb in less than 6 years, and even in 1949 the Presidential Commission on Air Policy set 1953 as the earliest date we could expect an atomic attack from the Soviet Union. Only a few months later, in Sept. 1949, Truman announced that an atomic explosion had taken place in the Soviet Union. The Jewish Communist spies had been able to deliver our plans to our enemies.

Bombing Of Japan

Not only had the Jews given the USSR the atomic bomb, but by deliberately engineering an atomic attack upon Japan during the closing weeks of WW II, they had placed the U.S. in the intolerable position of having been the first to use the horror weapon against civilians, thus giving the Soviet's the excuse to use it on us whenever it suited them. Our military leaders have now testified that it was completely unnecessary to use the atomic bomb on Japanese civilians. Japan, already defeated, had been suing for peace for weeks, but we would not receive her offers. The Emperor and Prime Minister, Suzuki, in July, desperately tried to make peace, but Soviet Ambassador Malik, in Tokyo, sabotaged the peace efforts of the Japanese government.

Who ordered the atomic bomb used against Japan? The lawyer for Kuhn, Loeb & Co., Henry L. Stimson, senior partner of the Wall Street firm of Winthrop and Stimson and law partner of the fanatical Zionist leader, Supreme Court Justice Felix Frankfurter, boasts that he is solely responsible for the decision. Stimson was FDR's Secretary of War. In his autobiography, "On Active Duty in Peace and War," Stimson says on page 612;

"For nearly 4 years I was directly connected with all major decisions of policy on the development and use of atomic energy, and from May 1, 1943 until my resignation as Secretary of War on Sept. 21, 1945, I was directly responsible to the President for the administration of the entire undertaking. At the same time I was the President's senior advisor on the military employment of atomic energy. The atomic energy undertaking was not solely American. It was another and conspicuous example of co-operation between the U.S. and the British Commonwealth, in this instance represented by Great Britain and Canada, the latter being a critically important source of raw materials. In April I set up the Interim Committee which held discussions on the whole field of atomic energy. I was its chairman, but the principal labor fell to George L. Harrison (The governor of the Federal Reserve Bank of N.Y., who is dealt with at length in The Federal Reserve Conspiracy), who acted as Chairman in my absence; Ralph A. Bard, Under Secretary of the Navy; Wm. L. Clayton, Under Secretary of State (a former law clerk to Justice Brandeis, fanatical Zionist leader and uncle of Felix Frankfurter.) Dr. Vannevar Bush, Chairman of the Carnegie Institution of Washington (which made many grants to pro-Communist fellow travelers); Dr. Karl T. Compton, and Dr. James B. Conant (as Pres. of Harvard, refused to discharge revolutionary Communist professors). The Interim Committee recommended on June 1, 1945 that the bomb should be used against Japan without any specific warning. The ultimate responsibility for the recommendation to President Truman rested upon me. The detailed plans were brought to me for approval. I approved 4 targets including the cities of Hiroshima and Nagasaki."

Here Henry L. Stimson was acting as the front for his law partner, Felix Frankfurter, just as Dean Acheson, who walked to work every morning with Frankfurter, used the State Dept. to destroy General MacArthur and lose the Korean war to the Communists.

This bland confession of guilt for the slaughtered hundreds of thousands of helpless Japanese civilians by radio-active poisoning at Hiroshima and Nagasaki also appeared in Harper's Magazine, Feb. 1947. Stimson, the creature of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., was the law partner of Bronson Winthrop, director of the International Acceptance Bank and the Bank of Manhattan, both enterprises of the Warburg Family of Kuhn, Loeb & Co.

Admiral Ellis Zacharias, head of the Office of Naval Intelligence, says in his book, "Behind Closed Doors,"

"The development of the atomic bomb needed foreign prodding and encouragement. It was left to a group of foreign-born physicists, centering on L. Szilard, and including E. Wigner, E. Teller, V.F. Weisskopf, and their foreign-born sponsor, Dr. Alexander Sachs, to stimulate reluctant American support for its use for military purposes." (All these are Jews)

This valuable testimony by a Secret Service chief proves that Americans would never have used the horror weapon on helpless civilians, but the stooges of the international Jewish bankers went ahead and dropped the atom bomb on Japanese cities, without the knowledge or approval

Will EISENHOWER GIVE OUR BOMBS TO THE SOVIETS?

Last Act In The Sellout Of America

FOR GIVING THESE SECRETS AWAY THE ROSENBERGS WERE ELECTROCUTED!

1.- Eisenhower's "ATOMS FOR PEACE" Treaty (Should be called Atoms For War) to come before SENATE any day now for Ratification.

2.- U.S. will give one-half billion dollars worth of U-235 (2000 Kilograms) to an International Atomic Energy Agency under the United Nations, to be distributed to other nations, INCLUDING COMMUNIST NATIONS!

3.- This is enough U-235 to make 2200 atom bombs, enough to wipe every major U.S. city off the map.

4.- We are the givers, all other nations the takers.

5.- Once we give this, we will have only 1 vote out of 39 as to who gets the bomb material.

6.- Communist nations on the International Committee will have 4 votes our 1.

7.- There is no effective means of inspection to insure such material will be used for PEACEFUL purposes. To be effective, inspection committees would have to inspect 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. No such inspection is provided. Feeble inspection mentioned will include Communist inspectors.

8.- Even Red China, a non-member of the U.N., can be given the material if a majority of the thirty-nine nation Committee vote to do so.

9.- You well know that all atomic material going to Red satellite nations such as Poland, Hungary, Rumania, Bulgaria, Yugoslavia, and Albania, will be turned over to their boss the Soviet Union, in addition to the share the USSR gets direct!

10.- You well know that the Soviet Union will not use this for PEACEFUL purposes.

11.- You well know this atom bomb material given by us, will likely be used to bomb us into surrender.

12.- This is the plot of the Internationalists in this country to wipe out our government and force us to accept a United Nations ONE WORLD COMMUNIST CONTROLLED government, a dictatorship such as the world has never known.

13.- Eisenhower's "ATOMS FOR PEACE PLAN" is not Eisenhower's any more than the Marshall Plan was General Marshall's. The Zionist masterminds set up these plans; then to inspire confidence in the Marxist plan, they arrange for a respectable name.

14.- We remind the reader of Eisenhower's speech before the U.N. on Tuesday Dec. 8, 1953. To lay the ground-work for this speech, which was based on the plan to give the atomic bomb to the U.N., a meeting of the "big three" had just been held in Bermuda. Previous to the meeting newspapers announced that Bernard Baruch would be the advisor to Eisenhower at Bermuda. The announcement caused unfavorable comment and Baruch did not appear; however it is believed he kept in close contact by telephone.

15.- C.D. Jackson (Jacobson) a Jew, and former editor of FORTUNE MAGAZINE, then military advisor to the Administration, was at Eisenhower's side, as were Lewis L. Strauss, Chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission and Hyman G. Rickover, head of Peacetime Atomic Energy. It is also a good guess that Max Rabb was at Ike's elbow too. All 5 mentioned above are Zionist Jews. Winston Churchill, who on 3 public occasions has stated he was a Zionist, was also at Bermuda. David Lilienthal was the first head of Atomic Energy. Why is it that since the invention of the atomic bomb it has always been under control of Jews?

16.- This atomic gift to the U.N, nest of traitors was looked upon as a death stroke to the U.S. and did not go over.

17.- Now we have a different and more deadly approach. Our Senators are to be asked to hold their noses and vote to put us at the mercy of a world dictatorship! Under heavy Zionist pressure they will do it without reading the fine print UNLESS YOU AS AN INFORMED PATRIOT PROTEST AND HAVE YOUR FRIENDS WRITE AND PROTEST TO YOUR SENATORS!

YOUR ACTION TO HEAD OFF THIS DEATH BLOW TO AMERICA IS REQUIRED AT ONCE!! RAIN ALL 96 SENATORS WITH YOUR PROTESTS AND DEMAND A REPLY AS TO HOW THEY WILL VOTE THUS PUTTING THEM ON RECORD, SO THEY CANNOT IGNORE YOU. URGE YOUR FRIENDS AND RELATIVES TO DO LIKEWISE.

LIST OF U.S. SENATORS FOLLOWS. RAIN THEM WITH PROTESTS AND DEMAND A REPLY. THIS IS MOST URGENT IF AMERICA IS TO BE SAVED FROM DESTRUCTION!!!

IKE'S MIDDLE-EAST PLAN & PROTOCOL No. 10

Many well-meaning people have been influenced to believe the "PROTOCOLS of ZION" are a forgery. Henry Ford, in an interview published in the N.Y. World, of Feb. 17, 1921, stated:

"The only statement I care to make about the PROTOCOLS is that they fit in with what is going on. They are 16 years old, and they have fitted the world situation up to this time. They fit it now."

Those who have a copy of the PROTOCOLS are asked to turn to Protocol No. 10 and read sections 13 to 20. Keep in mind this was written more than fifty years ago, then consider Eisenhower's demand for the power of a Military Dictator in the Middle East.

We quote in part from Protocol No. 10:-

The chamber of deputies will provide cover for, will protect, will elect presidents, but we shall take from it the right to propose new, or make changes in existing laws, for this right will be given by us to the responsible president, a puppet in our hands. Naturally, the authority of the presidents will then become a target for every possible form of attack, but we shall provide him with a means of self-defense in the right of an appeal to the people, for the decision of the people over the heads of their representatives, that is to say, an appeal to that mob. Independently of this we shall invest the president with the right of declaring a state of war. We shall justify this last right on the ground that the president as chief of the whole army of the country must have it at his disposal, in case of need for the defense of the new republican constitution, the right to defend which will belong to him as the responsible representative of this constitution.

Besides this we shall, with the introduction of the new republican constitution, take from the Chamber the right of interpellation on government measures, on the pretext of preserving political secrecy, and, further, we shall by the new constitution reduce the number of representatives to a minimum, thereby proportionately reducing political passions and the passion for politics. If, however, they should, which is hardly to be expected, burst into flame, even in this minimum, we shall nullify them by a stirring appeal and a reference to the majority of the whole people.

The president will, at our discretion, interpret the sense of such of the existing laws as admit of various interpretation; he will further annul them when we indicate to him the necessity to do so, besides this, he will have the right to propose temporary laws, and even new departures in the government constitutional working, the pretext both for the one and the other being the requirements for the supreme welfare of the State.

By such measures we shall obtain the power of destroying little by little, step by step, all that at the outset when we enter on our rights, we are compelled to introduce into the constitutions of States to prepare for the transition to an imperceptible abolition of every kind of constitution, and then the time is come to turn every form of government into our despotism.

The recognition of our despot may also come before the destruction of the constitution; the moment for this recognition will come when the peoples, utterly wearied by the irregularities and incompetence—a matter which we shall arrange for—of their rulers, will clamour: "Away with them and give us one king over all the earth who will unite us and annihilate the causes of disorders—frontiers, nationalities, religions, State debts—who will give us peace of the American people, most of whom were horrified when they heard about it. Specially selected personnel of 15 for the mission to deliver the atomic bomb to Hiroshima and Nagasaki included 7 Jews, directed by a Jew, Gen. Curtis LeMay, or more than 50% when we consider Jews constitute only 5% or 6% of the population of the U.S. The inhabitants of Hiroshima and Nagasaki were doomed to their horrible death by Kuhn, Loeb lawyer Stimson and his circle of Red physicists. Now the USSR can say "We have every right to drop atomic bombs on the U.S., because she used them first against the Japanese civilians."

U.N. CONTROL OF A-BOMB

While international Jewry directed the development of the atomic bomb, its very existence was kept a secret from the American people. It was truly the best-kept secret of the war, although Major Racey Jordan in his diaries, published by Harcourt Brace, 1952, records that Harry Hopkins sent tons of reports and uranium samples to Russia via air mail through the Lend-Lease Air Base at Great Falls, Montana. Thus the Communists were kept informed of every atomic development, while loyal Americans were not allowed to know about or participate in the program.

However, one "American" journalist was permitted to know everything about the atomic bomb project. Of course he was a foreign-born Jew. Here is his Who's Who in America biography for 1951:

"William L. Laurence, son of Lipman and Sarah (Preuss) Siew, born in Salantai, Lithuania, graduate of Harvard Law School. Selected by heads of the atomic bomb project to visit secret war plants and write series of reports following use of bomb against Japanese from April to Sept., 1945. Only journalist present at first atomic test explosion in New Mexico July 16, 1945. With atomic bomb mission to Marianas Islands, Aug. 1945, flew with mission to Nagasaki, witnessed both atomic bomb explosions at Bikini, awarded Pulitzer Prize for report on Nagasaki."

William Siew does not bother to inform us how he came by the name of Laurence, or who selected him to be the only journalist allowed to know about our bomb. A Lithuanian Jew, his loyalty was presumably greater than that of native-born Americans. He's now atomic expert for the N.Y. Times, owned by Jews, Sulzberger and Adler, who boast that news must be slanted.

Atomic Submarine

When the Navy started building an atomic submarine, a former personal aid of Lewis Lichtenstein Strauss, was chosen to head the program. He was Captain Hyman Rickover, a sinister-appearing Jew. Subsequently, the White House ordered the Navy Dept. to promote Rickover to the rank of Admiral over the heads of hundreds of loyal Gentile officers. The Navy refused and a desperate battle ensued. The outcome was that Rickover was made an Admiral, and the upper echelon of our Naval officers was left completely disgusted and demoralized. One top naval officer said in an interview that the damage done our Navy by the Rickover case was incalculable, and had greatly assisted the Russians by breaking down the morale of our officers.

The Strange Case Of Dr. Oppenheimer

Of course a Jew, Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer, a scientist, was placed in charge of the atomic research program from the very beginning, while the Jew, Anna Rosenberg, of Budapest, Hungary, was placed in charge of hiring the manpower for the project. The American people were horrified when Maj. Gen. K.D. Nichols of the Atomic Energy Commission, charged in a letter to Oppenheimer on Dec. 23, 1953, that Oppenheimer's brother, Dr. Frank Oppenheimer, had been an ardent and longtime member of the Communist Party, that J. Robert Oppenheimer's wife Katharine Puening had been the wife of a fanatical Communist, Joseph Dallet, who was killed fighting for the Communists in Spain, that she met Steve Nelson (Mesarosh) in Spain, that when she came to the U.S. and married Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer, Steve Nelson, one of the top echelon Communists, was a frequent guest in their home in Berkeley, California.

Many other Red connections of Oppenheimer were cited, his membership in some of the more notorious Communist-fronts, his signature on numerous petitions in behalf of Communist causes, his frequent entertainment of the most prominent Communist leaders of the U.S., and his close connections with Jewish Communist spies in the atomic energy program.

Consequently, Oppenheimer was removed from the atomic energy program, and denied access to our atomic installations. On May 28, 1954, the AEC decided that Oppenheimer was "a loyal citizen." But they couldn't trust him with our national security! However, this was only a joke. All of our top-secret atomic developments were kept at the Institute for Advanced Study in Princeton, N.J., a Jewish cultural center set up by the late Louis Bamberger, wealthy department store owner of Newark, N.J., and directed by L.L. Strauss, who placed Oppenheimer in charge of the Institute. The longtime friend of the USSR, Albert Einstein, who had urged Communists not to testify before Congressional Committees, was at the Institute, and Emmanuel Goldenweiser, the Russian Jew who directed the Federal Reserve System for 30 years, was also sent to the Institute upon his retirement.

This is an admirable case of locking the barn door after the horse has been stolen. Oppenheimer and his little group of Jews at the Institute has all of our atomic secrets. The obvious course is that Oppenheimer should be arrested at once and the atomic secrets removed from the Institute. The Jewish scientist Bruno Pontecorvo worked his way to the top of Great Britain's atomic program, then took the English plans and his wife and children and fled to the USSR. What is to prevent Oppenheimer from doing the same?

H-Bomb Delay

Already it has been proved that Oppenheimer has done inestimable harm to our defense program and has been of great assistance to the Soviet Union. On Feb. 12, 1950, Oppenheimer, Lilienthal, and Albert Einstein appeared on Eleanor Roosevelt's TV program and opposed the development of the H-bomb. Dean Acheson, lawyer for the Soviet Union participated in National Security Council discussions which delayed the production of the H-bomb. The Nichols letter of Dec. 23, 1953, charged that Oppenheimer continued to fight a desperate delaying action against the H-bomb even after it had become a matter of national policy on which the go ahead had been given by our government. He even tried to dissuade other scientists from working on the H-bomb!

Protege Of Lewis Strauss

J. Robert Oppenheimer is a personal protege of Lewis Lichtenstein Strauss, the present head of the AEC, and international Jewish banker, partner of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. which financed the Communist Revolution in Russia, according to the Sisson Report to President Wilson in 1918, according to the Overman Report (Senate Document 66, 1919) and according to many other Government documents. In the society column of the N.Y. Journal American Feb. 3, 1949, Cholly Knickerbocker said:

"Today it is estimated even by Jacob Schiff's grandson, John Schiff, a prominent member of N.Y. society, that the old man sank about $20,000,000 for the final triumph of Bolshevism in Russia."

Jacob Schiff was the senior partner of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. John Schiff is now President of the Boy Scouts of America. His sister Dorothy Schiff, many times married, is editor of the violently left-wing N.Y. Post. Naturally she has staffed her paper with a number of Marxists who call themselves "ex-Communists."

The N.Y. Times of March 24, 1917, told of wild revels by Jewish Communists at Carnegie Hall the previous evening, led by Rabbi Stephen S. Wise and Geo. Kennan, personal agent of Jacob Schiff in Russia before the Communist Revolution. Kennan boasted of how he had distributed tons of revolutionary propaganda to Russian prisoners in Japan during 1905, all paid for by Schiff. His nephew and namesake, George Kennan, subsequently became Ambassador to Moscow.

Why Atomic Energy?

The Jews had to gain control of atomic power for several reasons. First of all, they already control most of the public power in America and other nations. Victor Emanuel's giant holding company, Std. Gas and Electric, controls one-third of U.S. electrical power, J. and W. Seligman's holding company Electric Bond & Share, controls one-fourth, Lehman's holdings in Niagra Power accounts for another huge portion, while the Schoellkopf family and Kuhn, Loeb & Co. hold the rest of public utilities.

If atomic power were developed outside of Jewish hands, it would bankrupt them and their billions of dollars worth of holdings in electrical power. Consequently, they wrested control of it from the U.S. Army, set up a 5 man Commission according to the plan of David Niles, and set up a Joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy.

and quiet which we cannot find under our rulers and representatives."

But you yourselves perfectly well know that to produce the possibility of expression of such wishes by all the nations it is indispensable to trouble in all countries the people's relations with their governments so as to utterly exhaust humanity with dissension, hatred, struggle, envy and even by the use of torture, by starvation, BY THE INOCULATION OF DISEASES, by want, so that the GOYIM see no other issue than to take refuge in our complete sovereignty in money and all else.

But if we give the nations of the world a breathing space the moment we long for is hardly likely ever to arrive.

Wonder how much truth there is to the rumors we've been hearing that the "foreign aid" dollars (which we taxpayers finance) are finding their way back into this country through the refu-Jews, and then used to buy up the main street of all important towns in America. It is believed many billions have been used thusly in this country already.

The True Facts On Why Jews Are Fleeing Europe!

After promoting hatred, conflict and wars in Europe for centuries, Jews are leaving for the newer countries where the Christians, not having age-old experience with the Jews, welcome them with the "BROTHERHOOD" program.

It is quite difficult for warm-hearted Americans to believe the world wide conspiracy and all the subversive movements originate in the Jewish brain. We know the whole Satanic, Marxist program came from Europe, but those who have not taken time to study the question hardly understand who directs it. Anti-Communists in Poland know who have been ruling and slaughtering them for years.

The Hungarian people know the Communist heads of Hungary have been Jews; they know that the thousands of Communist Secret police are almost entirely Jewish. The Russians here know it, but are afraid to mention it to strangers, fearing their relatives in the Soviet Union will be liquidated.

Many many people from the different European countries have visited the headquarters of COMMON SENSE and told us that it definitely was and is the Jew who has ruined Europe with Communism, but here they are confronted daily with the "BROTHERHOOD" propaganda and advised against mentioning the Jew if they want to keep their job. Polish, Lithuanians, Latvians, Hungarians, Yugoslavs, Slovaks as well as Russians, Ukrainians and Germans visit us and all relate the same story. However, some prominent anti-Communist writers, who love money more than they hate Communism—and fear becoming unpopular, go through the motions of fighting Communism, but fear to connect the real menace behind Communism—the Jew.

They are content with centering their fight on the effect and completely ignore the cause. Such is the power of the Zionist Jew in the U.S. where they are taking control at an alarming pace, and now hordes are entering from Europe to join them!

It is believed from reliable sources that the coming spring will see Jews swarming into the U.S. like locusts to swell the forces of the American Jewish Committee, The American Jewish Congress, and also to strengthen the A.D.L. (Jewish Gestapo), while approximately 300 Jewish organizations are increasing pressure on Washington to destroy the McCarran-Walter Immigration law. It is estimated at least 2,000 a day are coming into the U.S. illegally.

When Tom Clark was head of the Justice Dept., he placed that figure as conservative. MARXISM MARCHES ON!!

As the Christians in Europe reach the limit of endurance and make desperate efforts to break the chains of Communism, their intense hatred of their Jewish masters explode into action. Many observers believe that Moscow, realizing the spirit of revolt is increasing throughout their satellite countries to the point where uprisings, such as the Hungarian revolt, are likely in all satellites, may use the atomic bomb to completely subdue the Christians.

The Toronto Globe and Mail of Canada, Jan. 3, 1957 issue, said that a high ranking Canadian official and a top Jew met in Vienna, Austria with 15 leaders of International Jewry, and ordered all Jews to leave Hungary! Apparently, word has reached the top Jewish leaders in Poland (as in other countries) that the threat of atomic war is now imminent.

When German troops were advancing on Russia in WW II, the first to be evacuated were the Jews. Anna Louise Strong has admitted this in speeches to at least 2 Communist audiences in Chicago and Los Angeles in recent months. The Gentiles were forced to remain in their homes, facing the on-rushing troops. They had to stand by and watch the Jews being loaded with their belongings aboard trains, buses, automobiles and airplanes. Is it any wonder that the Russian people hate the Jews?

Jews have always been evacuated and removed to safety in time of war, or at the threat of war. In Germany the Jews (those few who did not reach the U.S. and other countries before the war broke) were kept safely in concentration camps which were immune from bombing, while the people in the cities were bombed and killed indiscriminately.

A side product of this exodus is of course that these Jews, to a man Communist, are being shipped to the U.S., Canada, Australia, etc., to further poison and corrupt the very vitals of these countries

Report Jews Flee Poland in Terror

LONDON, Feb. 18 (INS).—Dispatches from Warsaw told today of a mass exodus of Jews from Poland and of "raving anti-Semitism."

The London Daily Telegraph said the flight rivals in extent that from Egypt in Biblical times.

The Polish newspaper Po Prostu was quoted as saying:

"We are witnessing the self-liquidation of the Jewish community that had existed in Poland for nearly 700 years."

The exodus was said to have started as a mere trickle but now has grown into a flood.

Polish authorities, the dispatches said, are no longer trying to halt it.

The number of passport requests reportedly have already passed 25,000 with no lessening in sight.

Nor, according to the Daily Telegraph, is there an effort any longer to hide the existence in Poland of what a leading Communist, Juliusz Burgin, calls "raving" anti-Semitism.

Writing in the newspaper

Przeglad Kulturalny, Burgin said:

"The exodus is in fact containing a frightful charge against our people, authority, our party and all of us."

Perlzwieg Cites Gomulka's Stand

Dr. Maurice L. Perlzwieg, director of the International Affairs Department of the World Jewish Congress, 15 E. 84th st., issued a statement today analyzing conditions in Poland.

He said:

"The anti-Semitic upsurge in Poland is being bitterly fought by the head of the Polish Government, Gomulka."

"However, five pro-Gomulka deputies of Jewish origin have been returned to Parliament."

"But despite Gomulka's efforts, anti-Semitism is becoming more articulate."

"It has spread to some of the more remote parts of the country."

Walter Favors Halt in Influx From Hungary

Washington, Feb. 18 (INS).—Chairman Francis E. Walter (D-Pa.) of the House Immigration subcommittee said today he is considering asking the Administration to halve the flow of Hungarian refugees to the United States.

"I feel we should stop the refugee program right this minute," he told a reporter.

Walter said any recommendation for halting the program would be made to Attorney General Herbert Brownell Jr. either by him or by the Immigration subcommittee. He was the second member of the group to advocate halting the program.

Walter repeated his charge that the "vast majority" of the first 6,200 Hungarian refugees admitted to this country were Communists fleeing from freedom fight-

As 6,200 were Reds

"My feeling is that every one of the 6,200 were Communists," he said.

Holds Europe 'Finished' in Eyes of Jews

VIENNA, Jan. 10 (INS).—Herbert A. Friedman, executive head of the United Jewish Appeal, says that "Europe in the eyes of Jews is finished for them."

Friedman's statement was made in Vienna when he announced that a campaign is under way to raise an extra $100,000,000 to meet the special needs of Jewish refugees from Egypt, North Africa and Hungary.

Explaining the plight of the Hungarian Jew, Friedman said 14 per cent of the nation's Jewish population had fled the revolt-torn country. The exact number who have fled is 16,007, or double Austria's total Jewish population of about 8,000.

Escaped From Communist Hell

A description of "life" in the Soviet Union by Ivan P., as told to a dedicated American who will henceforth be known as the Patriot...Continued from previous issue-

In 1933 I fled the abominable misery of the KOLKHOZ (collective farm) without a permit and headed even further north to try my luck as an industrial worker. Along with some other escapees from the collective farm I sneaked a ride on a freight train. When the train stopped we would get off to beg food from the inhabitants; often we were reduced to eating grass from the woods.

In Hibinogorsk I was permitted to work without papers loading rock on freight cars at a phosphate mine, where the director was short handed and striving to save his neck by fulfilling the norm. In order to put his own affairs in order the director supplied me with proper papers stating that I was an industrial worker. When the bitter North Russian winter closed down the mine, I was permitted to journey South, being assigned to work in a rubber plant near Leningrad.

MASS DRUGGING

In large factories and in the army we were given a yearly course of mysterious injections, one each month for 5 months. We were convinced that we were being drugged, for we observed that all who received these shots were put into a chronic state of intense nervous hypertension, resulting in constant friction and dissension among us. We found that Jews never received this drug, neither did people who worked in small units and on the farm, these latter reporting that they did not suffer from this nervousness. Probably the purpose was to keep people in large groups constantly bickering amongst themselves, thereby preventing any concerted action on the part of the slaves against their sinister masters.

If 3 or more Gentiles are observed talking among themselves and their conversation cannot be heard publicly, they are automatically suspected of conspiring against the government. I shall not bother to describe the hideous system where everybody is required to spy on everyone else, since that phase of the Communist method has already become well-known in the U.S.

THE "CLASSLESS" CLASSES

Here in the great "classless paradise of the proletariat" I found the same rigid official classification of the Gentile sub-humans as on the farm. They classified the proletariat as follows:

1. Bukharin (politicians)—demonstrate ability to think, also those who express political disapproval of the government.
2. Podpevala (second stringers)—secretly denounce the government.
3. Shapton (whisperers)—believe in God and secretly read the Bible.
4. Fascists (after 1940)—discuss nationalities of people, officers and soldiers who refuse to fight to enslave other peoples (such as recently in Hungary).
5. Vrediteli (saboteurs)—those who help prevent a factory from producing its quota.
6. Fliers—those who want to change jobs.

Needless to say, the proletariat who are put into these classifications receive the dread 2 a.m. knock of the secret police and quietly disappear from our midst forever. It is quite nerve-racking to hear these midnight knocks down the hall night after night and go out each morning to find that other unfortunate sufferers have been chosen by the Jewish exterminators. Sometimes one hopes maybe his own time will soon come and his interminable agony come to a sudden end.

If a Gentile refuses to work, he or she is called a saboteur. If he is just obstinately stupid, he is sent to prison for 6 months' enlightenment. After his release he can never live closer than 101 kilometers from a large city (where the Master Race enjoys life on their islands of Paradise in a sea of Hell). If his motives are of a more enlightened nature, he is liquidated.

THE FINNISH WAR

In 1939 I was drafted into the Red Army, serving as a rifleman in the infantry. During our training we were not trusted with ammunition except under strictest security. Target practice is done only in small groups, with but 3 bullets being given to each soldier. Three empty cartridge cases must be immediately returned to safeguard against any secreting of ammunition. About 4 times every week searches for bullets are made among all soldiers, and woe betide whoever is caught with bullets in his possession!

When we were sent to Finland we did not want to fight. Guns and ammunition were not issued us until we were in position at the front and the Special Army of slave drivers in position behind with their machine-guns trained upon us! Our officers were afraid to come to the front, for both the Russians and the Finnish snipers would shoot at them. The Finns and we sat down seventy meters apart and enjoyed an unofficial "truce." Both sides drew water from a little stream running between us without any displays of belligerence. Hoping to provoke hostilities, some of our officers and troops of the Special Army would come up and fire at Finnish soldiers drawing water from the brook.

Picture smuggled out of the USSR by a man now living in the U.S. The men in this mine asked for an increased ration of bread. All were lined up outside, and every 20th man was shot!

The Jewish World Enslavers had no intention of having their impertinent Gentile cattle upset their plans for the rape of little Finland, so the Special Army (composed mostly of criminals) was greatly increased. So with their machine guns at our backs we were forced to fight.

THE OUTSIDE WORLD REVEALED

Two old women were the only Finns who remained in the area which we captured, all the rest having fled at the prospect of becoming inhabitants of the "Communist Paradise." We always suspected the government lied to us about the misery of the outside world, but our suspicions were fully confirmed when we inspected the houses in which the Finns lived. They had real beds! Blankets, chairs, tables, and numerous household utensils that we did not even know existed!

Here the common people lived like people! We lived in a barren hell, jammed together on straw beds, sleeping in our clothes under our overcoats. We naturally began discussing this, whereupon our commissars informed us that this was a special area where only capitalists lived! But we knew they lied.

SEIZURE OF ESTONIA

Next came the seizure of the Baltic Republics of Estonia, Latvia, and Lithuania. We arrived at the Estonian border after crossing the uninhabited "dead zone" which separates the Soviet Union from the rest of the world. The Estonian border guards refused to open the barrier, so we brought up tanks, and after 2 days of browbeating and threats the border was opened and we poured through. The Estonians were despondently unhappy to see us, but when no officers were around, we tried to explain to them that we were acting against our wills.

We advised them that their educated people must escape immediately, and, appreciating our unhappy position, they offered us food. We tried to organize a rebellion against Communism in cooperation with the Estonian police and army. Up to this time we had not been issued ammunition. In stormed our Secret Police with tanks to commence the inevitable arrest of Estonian leaders. Many Estonians committed suicide rather than experience the Jewish New Order of the World. When the Estonians began to fight back, our ammunition trucks rushed up and we were issued 10 rounds each. The fight was all over in a couple of hours and all unused bullets were taken up. We received orders not to fraternize further with Estonians.

We were amazed at the abundance of fine merchandise in all their stores. Many Gentile officers or members of their families came in buses from Russia to shop in Estonian stores and soon depleted their stocks, exhausting them completely in 3 months. Jews did not participate in this wild buying spree, for they already had all their greedy hearts could desire.

At Narva I saw Russian soldiers take advantage of the chaos to strike back at their enslavers. They seized 2 carloads of their persecutors, in which were 2 Jewish embassy workers, a woman, and 2 Secret Police. Our soldiers burned the cars and seized all their belongings, including their guns and 200 grenades.

REFINEMENTS OF SLAVERY

A week after the declaration of war upon Russia by Germany I was called into the army. As a result of their experience in Finland, our Jewish masters increased greatly the strength and bestiality of the Special Army, as well as rules and regulations for the regular army. When a soldier is absent from duty for more than 2 hours, he is tried by his army Troyka (all-Jewish secret super-board of 3 men). When he is absent without leave for more than 2 hours, loses his gun, reads an enemy propaganda leaflet, or fails to obey orders, his superior officer must shoot him on the spot or himself be shot by the Special Army. Those guilty of failing to shoot a deserter going over to the enemy are "tried" by their Troyka and sentenced to be publicly executed before a firing squad.

Another interesting feature of the Jewish scheme is the labor battalion, composed chiefly of the grandchildren of educated Gentiles, long ago liquidated. They work under fire on military constructions, dig up unexploded bombs and shells, and build secret constructions, upon completion of which they are murdered to protect the secret!

No regular army units are ever allowed to be stationed closer than 20 kilometers from the large cities, only the Special Army being allowed in these significant areas—for here luxuriate the Master Race. Leningrad and Moscow each contain about 500,000 Jews, who do not relish the thought of having an army of their mortal enemies any closer!

WAR AGAINST GERMANY

As the Red Army disappeared into the maw of the rapidly advancing invaders, the Communists strived to "save" their people from the alleged horrors of the Nazis. So our Secret Police gassed all the Russians who could not stay ahead of the enemy advance, meaning the bed-ridden, wounded soldiers, women with small children. Their bodies were pitched into pits and covered with lime to destroy them. When trains carrying people into the "safety" of the vastness of the Soviet Union broke down, Red soldiers were ordered to machine-gun the cattle cars carrying their own flesh and blood. Then the car doors were opened and the bloody wreckage inspected for signs of life. If such were found, a coup-de-grace was administered to correct this error. Such is the nature of Jewish "brotherhood!"

When I reached the front, I was issued a rifle and after taking my position on the line, I was issued ammunition. At night soldiers sought and killed commissars, Secret Police, and some criminal Gentile officers, causing great disorganization.

An amazing fact I recall in retrospect is that the Germans used no effective propaganda. However, hand-written handbills were prepared and circulated by Russians stating that Germany intended to liberate us from Communism.

While the German invading army numbered only about 2 million soldiers, 3,500,000 Russian Gentiles went over to the Germans, most of them asking that they be allowed to fight against their Jewish enslavers.

I was captured in the bitter battles near Moscow in Jan. 1942. The Germans made little effort to feed the captured Russian soldiers, so the hungry prisoners often broke out and sought food and work in the occupied territory. The escapees were caught and reimprisoned. On the Soviet promise of pardon for those who returned to fight the Germans, about one-third of all these prisoners found their way back into the Red Army.

We heard that high German officers, including Field Marshal von Brauchitsch himself, wanted to organize a Russian liberation army. It was at this point that Alfred Rosenberg (born in Estonia), gauleiter of the East, convinced Hitler that the Russian liberation army would join the Western Allies against Germany. Von Brauchitsch countered by replying that, if the Germans did not use the Russian troops, the Nazis could never hope to win the war.

RUSSIAN ANTI-COMMUNIST FIGHTERS

Soviet Gen. Vlasov defected to the Germans in 1942, to plead with Hitler to organize a Russian liberation army and provisional government. Again on the strength of Rosenberg's "advice" Hitler refused. (Was Rosenberg a Jewish infiltrator into the Nazi high command?) After their defeat at Stalingrad German local commanders on their own initiative began to take Russians into their units.

Gen. Kaminsky was allowed to organize an all-Russian group, which in one night alone captured 2 battalions and 18 tanks. These prisoners were told that they had the choice of fighting Communism or returning back to it—they chose to fight Communism. Kaminsky had written propaganda leaflets for use on the Red Army, but the German General Staff vetoed the idea. Then he employed loudspeakers, urging the Russian Gentiles to join the Germans in their fight against their hated Jewish enslavers.

His success disturbed the German leaders, who began to fear that Kaminsky would have an army larger than theirs, but since the Russians had fought so well against Communism, they were ordered to be incorporated into the Wehrmacht. Kaminsky refused to incorporate his men into German units, giving the argument that his success was due to the fact that the Russians would not fight against his all-Russian army. He even threatened German officers who tried to take his men away from him! Gestapo agents killed Kaminsky and settled the argument.

Eleven Russian generals joined the Wehrmacht, including Vlasov and Krasnov, Bunichenko, Malushkin, and Shkuro. Later the American military government forcibly repatriated these unhappy heroes, who met death in Moscow before the unremitting firing squads. By 1943 over a million Russians were in the German army.

FORCED REPATRIATION

After the surrender of Germany there were 4 million former Soviet subjects in Allied Occupation Territory, all but a few being forcibly repatriated. About 60% accepted repatriation without argument because they had no source of food or housing. The rest were mercilessly driven back to the blood-crazed Soviet butchers through the exertion of savage pressure by the Jewish-controlled American Army, under the orders of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

One day I was hiding in the woods near a wire-enclosed barracks at Lienz, Austria, where about 60,000 Soviet deported persons were living. When the West Army was ordered to repatriate them forcibly, the Russians huddled together in a huge compact phalanx, holding to each other to prevent their being loaded into the waiting trucks. The English commanding officer then told them that only those who so desired would be repatriated, but the Russians shrewdly refused to trust him. After the frustrated soldiers had departed, most of the single men and women fled into the woods, leaving about 10,000 people in the barracks, mostly those with families. As was suspected, the soldiers returned to continue their repatriation efforts.

In Riminy the remaining deportees ran up to the 5th floors and began throwing first their children and then themselves out the windows. The horrified U.S. soldiers withdrew in confusion. Members of the U.S. Military Government next arrived to try to trick them into loading onto the waiting trucks. U.S. officers read a list of names of former Russian officers and told them to come out to discuss forming a Russian liberation army. Instead of holding a discussion they forcibly repatriated these officers, their grief-stricken families remaining in the barracks.

ALLIED ATROCITIES

In Germany allied troops returned, some having gotten drunk in the meantime. The DP's were told that they must return to the Soviet Union. A U.S. colonel, sick at having to participate in this infamous forcing of escaped slaves back to certain death in the Jewish "paradise," tore off his jacket bearing his insignia and flung it to the ground. An American general came up and spoke sternly to him, but the colonel never picked up his jacket. The Russians had again formed their protective phalanx, but this time the "lovable GI's" charged them with light tanks, killing and maiming many of these atrociously abused sufferers. After the phalanx was broken, many women ran to the river nearby and flung their children and themselves into the water, many drowning. At last the pitiful survivors dragged, and shoved into the trucks and started on their melancholy journey to a certain death in the hell from whence they had escaped—sealing their lips forever to prevent their telling the horrible truth about Russia to the world, and the truth about the world to the Russian slaves—another hideous sacrifice on the gory altar of ZIONISM!!!

At Dachau and Plattling it was much the same. When U.S. troops surrounded these DP camps, the Russian inmates set fire to the barracks and cremated themselves. At every door hung the body of a Russian suicide, who made of himself a mute, but unmistakable, demonstration that the DP's could not return to the pitiless clutches of the inventors of Gentilicide.

A comment by The Patriot: Good Christian American boys were forced by the Zionist Invisible Government of the United States to inflict this horrible mass murder of innocent Russian Gentiles! This is a graphic example of the true meaning of the merciless Zionist deception of "brotherhood!" They lament incessantly about the alleged 6,000,000 Jews "murdered" by the Nazis, most of whose "ghosts" we see amazingly alive today in the N.Y. metropolitan area, though there are plenty left over to infest our government's overseas agencies almost to the exclusion of native Gentile Americans. Even out in the country districts here we have our share of these latter-day-resurrectees!—these "gassed and cremated" cats-of-nine-lives who speak with foreign accents!

Is all this hue-and-cry about the 6,000,000 just to divert our attention from their Gentilicide of from 50 to 100,000,000 suffering slaves in the Soviet slaughter-house? God knows how many hundreds of millions of innocent souls they will exterminate in the Orient! And just how many tens of millions have they decided is the quota for the U.S.? Do you intend to be one of them? Or would you prefer to live as one of the sub-humans? You do not have very much longer to ponder these questions.

After witnessing in the DP camps of Austria the horrors of forced repatriation of the Russian displaced Gentiles, I fled to the U.S. Zone of Germany. Living without a ration card was so difficult that I was obliged to trade my jacket for bread in order to live.

ATTEMPTED BLACKMAIL

While I was in Regensburg, 3 men stopped me in the dark, telling me in Russian that they knew that I was Russian. They informed me that, if I wanted to go to the U.S., I must kill a certain German, offering me aid and accomplices. They told me that, if I refused, the next day the U.S. MP's would arrest me and send me back to the Soviet Union, where I would be punished for refusing to aid Communism! I refused and fled.

A Russian who called himself Eugene, who roomed at the same house as I, told me that I must rob a certain former-Nazi woman of her jewelry, offering me an accomplice. This jewelry was to be turned over to a Russian Colonel in the United States Zone of Germany. It appeared that the same evil Jews who ruled the Soviet Union with such atrocious tyranny exerted a large measure of control also in the U.S. Zone of Germany! Soviet agents were busy as bees in the U.S. Zone reporting back to Berlin the names of Gentile escapees, whom the Soviet authorities promptly demanded be repatriated. The Jewish controlled American Military Government lost little time in complying with all such Soviet demands.

I found out that the Jews were trying to influence Gentile Russians to commit major crimes in Europe before going to the U.S. These unfortunate prisoners of blackmail would forever be in the evil power of the Jews, doomed to obey their every order to murder, steal, spy, lie, and sabotage in the U.S. Any refusal to obey their most heinous command would bring immediate deportation to face prosecution for well-documented crimes committed in Europe UNDER THEIR ORDERS! Thus, at last, the people of America can realize the reason for the rash of atrocious crimes that broke out in the Allied Occupation Zones of Germany, committed by Russian DP's who were fulfilling the first requirement for an American visa! In this way the Jews liquidated in the Allied Occupation Zones of Germany many of the most capable potential German leaders, who might have re-organized a German Nationalist Movement to free their miserable country a second time from the deadly grip of the blood-sucking International Jewish Government.

OBTAINING A VISA TO THE U.S.

I applied for a visa to enter the U.S., being questioned first by a young Jewess, who turned me down cold. I tried first one place and then another. Finally I contacted Gentile American officials and bared the story of how only Jews and blackmailed Gentile catspaws were being allowed U.S. visas among the Russians. By some means a Gentile official obtained a visa for me in spite of the nearly air-tight screen the Jews maintain over immigration to the U.S., through their complete dominance of the Counter Intelligence Corps and State Dept. overseas offices.

Now that I have told my story, I know that the Jews controlling the U.S. Government will leave no stone unturned to ferret me out and illegally railroad me back to that slaughter-house for Gentiles known as the Soviet Union.

On two occasions already here in the U.S., Jews have attempted to seize me, intending probably to drag me to the Soviet Embassy. However, many good Christians have so far come to my rescue and turned these arrogant bullies into cowering jelly-fish.

GULLIVER, WAKE UP!

The misinformed people of the U.S. must heed the warning that my story provides. It not only CAN happen here, IT IS HAPPENING HERE! A weak minority of alien Jews will certainly enslave and slaughter the sleeping Gentiles of the U.S. too, unless they wake up to the awful danger they are in, and take drastic measures to destroy this fantastic, atrocious conspiracy!

The True Facts

and strengthen the Marxist pressure groups in the U.S.

The very nature of an atomic war has changed the whole concept of evacuation. Its suddenness and the uncontrollable fission fall-out spreading over the entire countryside means to the Jew that he cannot depend on gold, political pressure, and threats to save his life. He must be out of the war zone BEFORE THE WAR STARTS!

Naturally the "little Jew" must be kept alive, although in some cases he is expendable. He does not have to know why he is being told (by his leaders) to leave a certain country. A few leading Rabbis and leaders have been let in on the secret that there must be an atomic war under the present circumstances. The odds have shifted so far in favor of this inevitability that the current political upheavals have of necessity been seized upon as pretexts for the evacuation (called an exodus) of the Jews from the danger zone.

Malenkov, in a speech to the Presidium, stressed the fact that "Talmudism is our enemy" (as reported in Pravda) and ended with its originator being stripped of his power. An anti-Zionist policy has been followed rather consistently as a political policy, but this is not necessarily anti-Jewish.

The crystalizing of the forces in the various groupings of nations in Europe is taking place right now! In Paris on the 20th of Feb., six nations agreed on two treaties to merge their respective economies and to pool THEIR NUCLEAR RESOURCES UNDER A EUROPEAN ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION not unlike that of the U.S. The very same day, the U.S. Defense Dept. announced it was distributing nuclear weapons within the United States to strengthen the nation's defenses. These events, in addition to the fore-knowledge available to us from detailed analyses of the happenings in Europe, spell out, very clearly, the shadow of an impending atomic war.

As for the situation in Hungary and the relation of the freedom fighters to the Jews of that nation, no one has "spilled" the truth better than one Joshua Gershman, editor of the Communist Jewish Weekly Vochenblatt, published in Canada. The Daily Worker, 1/11/57, p. 4, carried excerpts from that paper. We quote: "In Toronto about 2 weeks ago, in a hostel housing a number of Hungarian refugees, a group of wild, blood-thirsty hooligans nearly lynched a Jewish-Hungarian refugee, Gyorgy Boros, accusing him of having been a member of the Security police in Hungary...shortly after the outbreak of the armed conflict in Hungary, the Satmarer Rabbi in N.Y. received a dispatch from Vienna which said: 'Jewish blood is being spilt by the rebels in Hungary, and especially in Budapest.'"

A correspondent for the Paris journal France Soir, Michel Gordel, wrote about "physical excesses against certain Communist leaders and Jewish personalities in Hungary."

Writing in the Tel Aviv Maariv, Mr. Gledi, the paper's correspondent, said: "I saw anti-Semitic posters in Budapest, Hungary...On the walls, street lights, street-cars, you saw inscriptions reading: 'Down with the Jew Gero!' 'Down with the Jew Rakosi,' or just simply 'Down with the Jews.'"

In a bulletin of the Zionist Press agency, Jewish World News, Rabbi R. Pozner relates; "Jewish refugees who left Hungary refuse to remain in the refugee camps in Austria because of anti-Semitism there... THE MAJORITY OF THE JEWS WHO LEFT HUNGARY DID SO FOR FEAR OF THE HUNGARIANS AND NOT THE RUSSIANS."

The Paris daily, Naye Presse relates that "MANY JEWS WERE SAVED FROM CERTAIN DEATH BY THE SOVIET SOLDIERS."

The London Jewish Chronicle, 1/11/57, p. 1, had a lead story about the murder of a Jew by "anti-Semites" in Poland, and the "panic among Polish Jews" which followed the occurrence. It said: "Even those Jews who have been members of the Communist Party for years are now seeking means to leave the country." (Are we to believe that the death of ONE Jew would cause this mass flight?) The story continued about the "deep-rooted" anti-Semitism of the people.

Labor Action, 1/28/57, p. 3, stated; "The Russians installed a large number of Stalinist hatchetmen of Jewish descent as their quislings in the East European satellites. Typical was the role of Jakub Berman and Hilary Minc, in Poland, and Rakosi and Gero in Hungary. This extended also to the composition of the Secret Police cadres." (Labor Action is a Jewish Trotskyite paper.)

Seymour Freidkin, writing from Warsaw in the N.Y. Post, 1/21/57, p. 25, on "Poland's Jews" stated that; "There is a real exodus from about 60,000 to 70,000 Jews; 'Get the Jews' is the customary cry...After the war anti-Semitism continued to flourish. JEWS WERE CONCENTRATED IN HIGH COMMUNIST PARTY POSITIONS, ESPECIALLY IN THE DREADED AND HATED SECRET POLICE."

Civil Rights & Secret Police

Terrific pressure is being waged on Congress to pass the so-called "CIVIL RIGHTS" Bill. This bill like all movements promoted by Marxist Zionists is misnamed. It is intended to deny Civil Rights instead of guaranteeing CIVIL RIGHTS!

People in the North and South, who have not studied the bill or understand the anti-Christian forces promoting it, are under the impression that the CIVIL RIGHTS BILL concerns only SEGREGATION.

Who are the forces that are bringing pressure on Congress to pass this "police" Bill? The same organizations which have been apologizing for Communism, smearing anti-Communists and are alive with members who have Communist-Front records.

For years they have been trying to put over the Genocide monstrosity on the U.S., which provides prison for one who causes mental harm to a person because of race or religion. Unsuccessful in this, they now hide such intentions under the CIVIL RIGHTS bill which is a "Frankenstein Monster" the Invisible Government masterminds hope will further help to confuse and divide our people in their plan to condition us for "dictatorship."

The well-meaning citizens who have been deceived into supporting this bill will have a terrible awakening far worse than with prohibition if this monkey-wrench is thrown into the Government machinery.

Here are only a few of the forces behind this Bill:

The powerful World Zionists, American Jewish Committee, American Jewish Congress, Anti-Defamation League, B'nai B'rith, About 250 other Jewish Organizations, All Jewish publications, except the American Council for Judaism. The Communist Party, Daily Worker, The Socialist Party, Americans for Democratic Action, Walter Reuther (who spent 18 months with his brother Victor, studying Communism in the Soviet Union.) Plus approximately 1200 Marxist fronts!

This CIVIL RIGHT bill would bring citizens further under control of Centralized Government. It by-passes State Courts and Laws of the State. It destroys States' Rights.

Informed people know there is an underhanded move in action to weaken and destroy the National Guard. Apparently, the plan is to build Central Intelligence Agency (now Zionist controlled) into Communist style Secret Police to replace the National Guard and all State and County police. (note the enormous building program in Washington.)

The CIVIL RIGHTS bill dovetails with plans to set up nation-wide Secret Police as in the Soviet Union and its Satellites.

Patriots if you wish to keep our country a free place for your children to develop under, take the time to write your Congressman and U.S. Senator NOW!

Remember he is there to represent you, and how is he to know what you want unless you tell him.

TRUTH ABOUT JEWS

The foregoing quotations should settle once and for all the relations of Jews to the upheavals in Hungary and Poland. However, their flight from these countries and subsequent entry into this country, along with the imminent threat of atomic warfare, poses a situation so fraught with dire consequences for all of us that it is indeed difficult to see how we can cope with it.

This powerful, highly financed, aggressive minority which has set up all subversive movements, promoted wars and hate is now to invade and finish taking over our country.

Why is this happening? Is it because our popular anti-Communists do not have the courage to expose these conspirators? They know full well who these Zionist pressure groups are and what they are doing!

Rear Admiral John G. Crommelin, (Ret.)

Wetumpka, Alabama

February 25, 1957

Honorable William F. Knowland
United States Senate
Senate Office Building
Washington, D.C.

Dear Bill:

For the past month or so you have been making noises like a man who might have his eye on the White House in 1960. Nothing would please us more down here in the Deep South than to see a real American Democrat and a real American Republican have a real "stomp down" political battle for the Presidency. Most informed Southerners are sick and tired of a "canned program" like the recent comic opera of the past presidential election. The one hundred and thirty-seven million white Christian citizens of the United States will not be fooled again; Suez or no Suez.

Doubtless you remember our conversation back in Washington in 1949. Then we discussed my grave concern over the systematically planned destruction of the offensive potential of the Armed Forces of the United States and the unwarranted concentration of power in the hands of a very few people with the resultant elimination of the civilian and Congressional checks and balances as provided in the Constitution for the military establishment. Of course, you remember that one year later the so-called police action in Korea, a national disgrace, well justified my apprehensions.

Therefore, imagine my dismay (for I know that you fully understand and appreciate the character of the "Hidden Force" or "Invisible Government") when the local newspaper of Feb. 4, 1957 carried the following headline and article:

"TARGET DATE IN SENATE FIXED ON CIVIL RIGHTS

"Wash. Feb. 3 (AP)—Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) today put a March 1st target date on efforts to get President Eisenhower's civil rights program before the Senate for debate...By whatever means the end is accomplished, he said he is confident that civil rights legislation will be enacted in this session of Congress.

"I hope we can get a bill reported to the Senate by the Judiciary Committee by the end of the month," he said. "As soon as the Middle-East resolution is out of the way, then we ought to turn our attention to civil rights."

Now, Bill, I just cannot believe that a man of your integrity could possibly have succumbed to the un-American pressure of the ADA, the NAACP, and the Anti-Defamation League. If you really wish to do something for your country why not initiate a Senate investigation and expose the ADL, the ADA, and the NAACP for what they really are?

Although the ADL has issued orders to its "gigolos of the fourth estate" to give me the "quarantine treatment," within the past month I have made talks in Fairfax, Virginia, in the embattled courthouse at Clinton, Tennessee, in Prattville, Alabama and before the Daughters of the American Revolution at Pensacola, Florida. The subject of these open-forum discussions has been "The Hidden Force," and I carefully explained just what it is. Whether you Westerners realize it or not we Southerners are beginning to know what domestic Communism really is and how it operates; this despite the fact that, from fear of political reprisal, not a single U.S. Senator nor Representative has the guts to stand on his feet and tell the American people the truth about Communism and the United Nations.

Bill, when you were an Army officer you took practically the same oath I did when I was a Navy officer—"to uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic." You must know as many millions of other Americans now know that this so-called Civil rights bill is nothing but a fraud perpetrated by the Herbert Lehman's, Felix Frankfurters, Emmanuel Cellers, and Richard Neuberger and politicians of that mixed breed for the real purpose of subjecting all the forty-eight States to Federal Police Control.

Since you know what the "Hidden Force" really is and since you know that I know you know, it causes me grave concern to see a man of your potential knuckle under.

It is not too late. You can still redeem yourself. Surely you realize that "the word is getting around" that the domestic Communists, despite their sponsorship of the "brotherhood" ballyhoo are using every stratagem to keep the Protestant and Catholic elements of one hundred and thirty seven million white Christian citizens of the United States dis-united while they, the Communists, Zionists, and Internationalists, the breed of insatiable greed, use the bloc Negro vote to control the federal political machinery. It may be of more than passing interest to you to know that very recently even the Negroes of Montgomery, Alabama, are beginning to see through the NAACP and its non-Christian backers.

Now Bill, if you doubt the validity of the statements in this letter, I would be most happy to have you come down and visit me and be my house guest, and I will arrange to debate the Civil Rights issue with you right here in the Elmore County Court House. If circumstances prevent your coming to Alabama, I shall be most happy to meet you in open debate on your reported Civil Rights stand at any place in the United States, including Washington, D.C. and at any appropriate time you may select.

Sincerely,

John G. Crommelin

Tax-Exempt American Jewish Committee Is Not A Charitable Organization

This issue is devoted almost entirely to the reproduction in print of part of the contents of an amazing tape recording, which is a commentary on the 1953 BUDGET REPORT of the directors of the American Jewish Committee.

On page 4 of this issue, we tell you how you can procure an actual photo-copy of this book.—Editor.

"STRAIGHT FROM THE SERPENT'S MOUTH"

There has recently come to light a "confidential" "top-secret," "hush-hush" document of utmost interest and value to Americans. It exposes hitherto unsuspected facts of a certain war. It reveals enough to convince every Doubting Thomas there actually IS an undercover set of so-called "Americans" working ceaselessly to destroy America. But you, Christian Reader, were never supposed to so much as hear of such a document, let alone scan it with your own eyes. For it is a private memorandum, a revelatory dossier designed and printed only for fellow . . . s. It is an outline and blueprint and summary of the activities, past and proposed, of a group of persons thereby unmasked as the worst and deadliest enemies ever tolerated under the American Flag.

This is not the Communist Party. It is not the Mafia. It is not "The Syndicate." Nor is it even one of those many, many crackpot cults this nation tolerates and with which this diabolical group has every affinity, provided that cult is likewise destructive. None of the Lait-Mortimer "Confidentials" have covered so much as a hint at it. Will it eventually be recognized as a criminal organization engaged upon the most illegal of all unlawful purposes, namely, the subversion, overthrow and destruction of the American Government?

Beyond this "top secret" document's detailed self-exposure of its evil designs against America, One of its most important disclosures is the record, page upon page, for 281 pages, of the MONEY it spends for anti-American purposes.

"Money talks!" In this secret document it shouts, boasts, gloats, and it even prints without hesitation or shame the "low down;" that is, the itemized statements and figures of WHO is to be worked upon by this secret body of . . . ; how NUMEROUS are its victims-to-be; WHERE they are to be found; how BEST to subvert them; how much MONEY is allotted for their subversion.

This is all set forth in implacably cold figures, with utmost explicit details as to methods, accomplishments and expectations. For religious bodies, so much spent on them, youth organizations, so much; veterans associations, so much; college professors and public school teachers, so much. No national grouping of whatever kind is overlooked. There are listed MONEY allotments for influencing of farmers, trades unionists, scientists, newspaper staffs and magazine writers. All influencers and shapers of public opinion, such as motion pictures, television and radio groups, have MONIES devoted for their "control." And so on through the TOTAL list of American institutions and associations of every description and purpose. MONEY, real CASH, MILLIONS of dollars, have been and is now being spent to change American patriots from what they have been to something other than American, namely, . . .

When such "money talks," does it not sound like conspiracy?

In history's long record of propaganda, intrigues, assassinations and revolts, this secret document's self-exposures are something new. Never before has there been revealed to the light of day such a consummate and diabolically SYSTEMATIC . . . by so few against so many. Never has there been acknowledged such inexhaustible sums of MONEY collected for such evil ends. Never until now was uncovered a personnel so maliciously, persistently and wickedly sworn to carry to catastrophic ends the destruction of a culture upon which rests the ethical future of the whole world. And, finally, never before such METHOD, analysis, practical application, cooperation of parts and breadth of action, as revealed in this "top secret" document's exposure of its underground war upon the Christian religion, hence upon the Christian Governments.

Why nothing less than the "AMERICAN JEWISH COMMITTEE'S ANNUAL BUDGET, 1953."

Yes, but you thought the Jews, the "poor oppressed Jews," were only interested in taking care of their own. . . . So you did, you naive, easy-going, tolerant, asleep-at-the-switch Christian Americans. Quite naturally, therefore, they would have a "budget." Would that was all there was to it! For so they do, take care of their own—so often with your help. But it doesn't stop there. Far from it. They are going to "take care" of you too. And when they do, you'll "know all about it." But you do not have to WAIT for this to happen; for it is all spread out in this Jewish secret document; their plans, processes, methods, devices, tricks, schemes, and deceits; and not least the MONEY they have spent in this enormous solicitude for Christians; the MONEY they are spending; the MONEY they will spend. . . . Touching—this enigmatic anxiety over the Welfare of Christian Americans, who have thus far pretty much stood on their own feet.

Once again, "Money talks"—and this gang of . . . have got it. . .

If you had this anti-American secret document before you, Christian Reader, you would look in vain for scurrilous language. In it are neither vehemence, vituperation nor curses. It is strictly factual, both as to motive and inference. This is a "business proposition." "Money talks." Money gets results. It bought all this 281 pages of figures and language. It paid for all this huge staff in the spending for results. Yet in all the printings of the world, never was a language so warped, twisted and perverted; never before such consummate mastery of the craft of "double-talk." It is a veritable lexicon of the most grandiloquent phrases, the most recent up-to-date vernacular from the leftish professional classrooms of sociology, political economy and psychology, not overlooking either that voodooistic mumbo-jumbo, "psychology;" that "science" of the shaded window and couched lupanar.

In short, it is all on the order of "uplift." It is set forth always in the saccharine terms of "do-gooding." It reeks with deceitful solicitude for benighted Christians, but breathes never a word of the Golden Rule. Written with forked tongue in cheek, there is not a line in the entire document, secret though it be, which says in plain words exactly what it means.

But we can say what it means. It means a war to the death with all of the Christian World.

THE UNOFFICIAL GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES

In a great speech on Feb. 14, 1955, Sen. Wm. E. Jenner of Indiana stated that the government of the United States is a "TWO-HEADED MONSTER," that our country has a "DUAL GOVERNMENT." One of these is the visible government—the Congress, the President and the Vice President, and other high officers appointed by the Executive branch, some of them confirmed by the Senate, but the great majority, of them not subject to such confirmation.

The other government, as Sen. Jenner points out, exists partly within the visible government of the U.S. and partly without. This government has its members, or agents, witting or unwitting, in the Congress; in the Supreme Court; in the Executive office of the President and other Executive agencies; in the government departments, and elsewhere.

Unofficial Govt. Of U.S.

Even more significant, however, the hidden government—revealed by Senator Jenner—has established controls over press, radio, television, the theater, charities and foundations, many schools and educational associations, and other media of influencing the public, including many churches, particularly those in the National Council of Churches.

Since censorship is a principal arm of the hidden government, a problem of considerable difficulty confronts the average citizen who wishes to know the truth about the extra-official controls and influences to which he is subjected.

Fortunately, however, the method of operation of the invisible government can frequently be shown from its own official documents.

The American Jewish Committee is but one of many Jewish groups which seek so successfully to shape the policies of the official government of the United States. The New York Times, for instance, listed the names of 16 Jewish organizations whose officials went to Wash. in a group to tell Sec. of State John Foster Dulles the kind of Middle East policy which they desired.

These 16 organizations are not to be considered all of the branches of the Jewish power block. There are power blocks which are not exclusively Jewish. There are doubtless power groups whose names are not known.

Among the visible branches of organized Jewry, however, the American Jewish Committee seems (with the closely cooperating order of B'nai B'rith) to be quite the most powerful.

Through its own publications, intended for more or less general circulation, much can be learned about the aims and methods of the American Jewish Committee. For instance, a magazine called Commentary and an annual Yearbook tell much.

Much more is learned, however, from documents prepared, apparently not for general wide distribution but for members and others under their influence.

A 36 page booklet entitled FACTS ABOUT THE AMERICAN JEWISH COMMITTEE (A.J.C., 386 4th Ave., N.Y. 16, N.Y., March, 1951) is helpful.

From this brochure it is learned (p. 2) that "funds for the American Jewish Committee's activities are raised jointly with the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith." A special map of the U.S. (p. 30) shows the network of local offices, including as many as 6 per State. Many of the goals of the AJC organization are clearly stated in FACTS. Some of the goals are as follows:

- 1- The shaping of U.S. government policy by the maintenance of a staff in Wash.
- 2- The control of the press, radio, motion pictures, etc., in many specified ways such as "feeding facts to newspapers;" "suggesting special 'angles';" "working with producers and writers," etc., etc.,
- 3- The control of U.S. churches by seeing that "Christian teachings" are "altered;" by helping in the preparation of lesson materials for Sunday schools, etc., etc.
- 4- The control of the thinking (brainwashing) of the American people and "the methods of modifying their thoughts."

By all odds the best available way to learn about the aims of the American Jewish Committee, however, is to study a document entitled AMERICAN JEWISH COMMITTEE, BUDGET, 1953. It is obvious that this book does not contain all the facts.

The document entitled "American Jewish Committee, Budget, 1953," does however, contain enough facts and in sufficient detail to give beyond any question or doubt a picture of many of the significant ways in which the American Jewish Committee works to achieve its purposes, which include the shaping of the policy of the government of the United States.

From its great headquarters in the United Nations city of N.Y., the American Jewish Committee directs its powerful Washington organization. Like a government it has its subordinate stations in all parts of the country. The branch offices afford a set-up for pressure, propaganda, the collection of intelligence, and other openly admitted activities. It is to be especially noted that the American Jewish Committee relies to a very large extent on an intelligence set-up which includes secret investigations.

An examination is here made of the major fields in which the AJC operates:

- 1- Churches of Christian denominations.
- 2- Education.
- 3- Veterans' organizations.
- 4- Tax exempt foundations and other "Charitable organizations."
- 5- Newspapers.
- 6- Magazines.
- 7- Books.
- 8- Motion pictures.
- 9- Radio.
- 10- Television.
- 11- Government.
- 11- Labor.

Here then, in the American Jewish Committee's own words, is an account of their plans and purposes. The quotations are intended as samples only and do not include everything on a given topic. All page references are to AMERICAN JEWISH COMMITTEE, BUDGET, 1953.

Influence On Christian Denominations

Because of the traditional influence of Christianity, it is not to be wondered at that the Christian denominations were among the very first targets of the American Jewish Committee.

The exerting of influence seems to have been attempted to some degree in most major denominations. A penetration sufficient for exercising a major degree of control seems, however, to have been achieved only in the National Council of Churches and the denominations in its network.

"Our primary resource group within Protestantism is the National Council of Churches of Christ's two major divisions—Christian Life and Work and the Division of Christian Education." (p. 98)

In regard to Jewish preparation of Protestant Sunday school lessons: "The National Council of Churches Dept. of Christian Education will call upon us for many new materials during the coming year." (p. 102) The American Jewish Committee's influence on Audio-Visual materials" used by the NCCC is shown on p. 67.

The only Protestant organization in which AJC control is analyzed in some detail is the Methodist Church. Referring to the AJC book Make Way For Youth, its success is noted and "new orders have come from the NCCJ, the Methodist church, and the Australian library." (p. 70)

The AJC is particularly powerful among Methodist women. Under "Resources outside the agency" (pp. 39-40) are listed not only such organizations as "The U.S. Committee for a Genocide Convention," "National Conference of Christians and Jews," "Voice of America," "United Parents Association," the "American Association for the United Nations," "National Citizens Committee for UN Day," but also "Women's Div. of the Methodist Church."

The last named Methodist group, "published handbook for community action, You Hold The Key To Human Rights, written and produced by our (AJC) staff." (p. 40)

Pages 148-49, and 179 of AJC, B, contain references to the moves of the AJC, working sometimes through the N.C.C.J., to influence Catholic policy. Claim is made for the establishment of contacts, but no mention is made of preparation of materials or other such specific evidences of control as is shown for the churches in the National Council of Churches.

With regard to broadcast programs of a religious nature, the influence of the AJC appears to be supreme:

In general, "We have now reached a mutually satisfactory arrangement whereby all national religious programs will be co-sponsored by the Synagogue Council of America and ourselves." One of the examples is "The Week In Religion" (pp. 54-55)

Specifically, as an example, "a national network preparing an Easter script, Pontius Pilate, was referred to us by the NCCJ (National Conference of Christians and Jews) for guidance. Similar recognition has come with greater frequency in Catholic matters." (p. 101)

For "Christological interpretations" of the Bible, see p. 65. See especially, pp. 100-102 for influence on Protestant denominations.

Education

The AJC lists certain organizations which cooperate so fully with its program that they are described as "resources" of the AJC. Particularly noted for cooperation is the U.S. Office of Education. "Sponsored 6 newspaper advertisements produced by us for American Education Week. 'Published a cartoon booklet, They Can't Wait, on public school needs, which we wrote and illustrated and distributed some 60,000 copies to date," etc. (p. 39)

The United Parents Association also has "used our materials." (p. 39) Much influence is exerted on the National Education Association (NEA) "Which has requested repeated printings of our pamphlet, Danger! They're After Our Schools: to a total of 90,000 to date." See also, p. 109.

References to influence on education are scattered through the AJC, B, book. On page 156 is a reference to the subsidizing of "research projects in the social sciences" by "fellowships" and "grants in aid." Professors are presumably among the "opinion molders" who receive books (p. 175) and other AJC propaganda. "Farm Study" is discussed on p. 154. The AJC has a magazine called COMMENTARY, and "a great many gift subscriptions are sent to government people, libraries and schools." (p. 185)

Veterans, Charitable, Youth, and Other Organizations

The American Jewish Committee gives the membership figures (p. 115) for 11 veterans organizations and shows its methods of influencing the only 2 with significantly large memberships, the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars. The AJC notes in veterans circles a "tendency to bracket liberals with pro-Communism..." (p. 116) Veterans, according to the AJC, have shown a tendency "to withdraw support from the UN, because of alleged liberal and pro-Communist influence." (p. 116) The AJC thus decides that it should give "even greater emphasis" to educating veterans and veterans' leaders to support "our basic democratic processes," the "our" reflecting, of course, the AJC concept. (pp. 116-117)

Proposed corrective measures are drastic, and 15 "resources outside the agency" (AJC) are listed. Here are some of the things the AJC claims to do (p. 119):

- 1- They "maintain a monthly press service for 480 veterans publications..."
- 2- They "put editors on guard against accepting advertising" which the AJC disapproves of.
- 3- They "confer with editors when stories or drawings, published in their magazines or newspapers, seems likely to create unfavorable impressions..."
- 4- They "suggest resolutions for State and National Conventions."
- 5- They "prepare background material and speeches for use by organization leaders..."

On page 120, the AJC makes this significant statement:

"Veterans groups generally have taken the 'extreme' position in combatting Communism. Hence, their views on civil rights and civil liberties differ widely from those of the American Jewish Committee.... We have stepped up our education in this regard..."

Detailed accounts of successes with veterans organizations include the following:

"We frequently supply speeches or speech material to officials of the Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars...Practically all of the addresses delivered by the National Chaplain of the Legion during 1950-51 were supplied by us, for which he expressed appreciation. Many of our speeches were used in national broadcasts by the Commander-in-Chief of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and those not used were printed and circulated to Depts. and Posts of the VFW in clippings form." (p. 122)

Many other achievements are named including "endorsement by leaders" of the Restitution Laws promulgated in Germany by Gen. Clay, and preventing the 1951 American Legion Convention from endorsing "The McCarran Act in toto." (p. 122) The AJC "supplied much of the material and photographs for the American Legion magazine article, 'Israel and The Soviet Union.'" (p. 123)

The Great Tax-Exempt Foundations and Other "Charitable" Organizations

Both Ford and Sloan foundations are listed as subject to AJC influence:

"We worked with Sloan and Ford Foundations in the development of their broadcasting and telecasting plans; also participated actively and directly in the Foundation's programs allied to our interests." (p. 57)

An item of assistance is recorded (p.56):

"Supplied the Ford Foundation with story material which was used in its well known radio series on CBS, The People Act."

See also below under "Radio and Television." for the contact of Mr. Saudek of the Ford Foundation with the AJC.

Other organizations and foundations mentioned as being subject to some degree of AJC control or contact include Camp Fire Girls (pp. 40, 138, etc.); America's Town Meeting of The Air (p.57); World Assembly of Youth (p.137); Girl Scouts (pp.137, 139); Child Study Assn. (p.137); General Federation of Women's Clubs (p. 137); National Mid-Century Committee for Children and Youth (p. 137); UNESCO (p. 137); National Social Welfare Assembly (p. 118); N.S.W.A. Committee on Camping (p. 137); N.S.W.A. Committee on Comics (p. 137); the Science Research Associates (p. 138); National Conference of Christians and Jews (p. 118 etc.); and many others.

Newspapers

In the field of newspapers, the AJC program is elaborate:

"Our material generally goes to a selected list of 1700 daily newspapers throughout the country. Since editors of the smaller papers are most receptive to 'canned' editorials, feature articles, cartoons, and the like, we confine the distribution of such material to those with less than 100,000 circulation. Editors of the 300 large dailies receive occasional factual memoranda which they use as background material for their own editorials." (p. 42)

Much evidence of success is listed. "For example, when public pressure, which we have helped to activate, results in the admission of displaced persons to the U.S.A.. it may be reasonably concluded that our considerable efforts in this direction were successful." (p. 44) Other fields in which success has been achieved or envisaged, with the help of the press, include "the defeat of the anti-school forces" (p. 44) "Federal FEPC," and "Revision of U.S. policy in Germany." One of the AJC goals is the public "Disapprobation of Red Witch-hunts." (p. 44)

Magazines

The AJC effort with magazines is very great.

"One of our most productive resources outside the agency is the Society of Magazine Writers, to which we belong. The Society's 60 members are responsible for about 80% of the important articles appearing in American magazines. To one or another of these writers we furnish ideas that eventuate in published articles... (p. 77)

By "conferences with editors and writers" the AJC achieves its purposes. "On most magazines we know at least 1 or 2 editors to whom we can speak frankly on most subjects. We give them complete outlines of suggested articles..." (p. 77)

Also "we are able to make suggestions to free-lance writers because we stand ready to supply them with the kind of research that is invaluable..." (p. 78) Again "on the preventive side we work regularly with editors, pointing out unwise features of projected articles." (p. 78)

"The most telling evidence of success is the responsiveness and voluntary repeat performance of editors. Among the publications that have developed considerable receptivity are Reader's Digest, Colliers, Look, This Week, Life, Time and Newsweek." (p. 79) Listed in the receptive category also are Woman's Home Companion and Everybody's Digest.

Books

There are scattered references to books here and there in A.J.C., B., of which the most significant is probably this under the heading "Revising of Social Science Text-books."

The A.J.C. program in this field is concerned especially with "the problem of revising the teachings of social science textbooks on immigration and the ethnic factors in American life. Our expert in this field has not only prepared the necessary background material but has cooperated with textbook publishers on this project." (p. 234)

Motion Pictures

The A.J.C. "Film Division" achieves its results not only through its own direct efforts, but lists the following as "resources outside the agency":

Hollywood motion picture companies, Distributors and producers of educational films, Motion picture Producers Association of America. Details (pp. 62-72) are too numerous to record. Here is a sample:

"Only 2 years ago, a producer made a film from the book, I Can Get It For You Wholesale. This featured an opportunistic and ruthless Jewish clothing salesman. After several conferences with our Hollywood liaison man, the chief character of the story was changed to a girl dress designer, who achieved success through opportunism. Furthermore the character was so portrayed that under no circumstances could it be assumed that she was Jewish." (p. 64) Unfavorable mention is made also of an "anti-Communist picture," not named, which was objectionable because it "may have reinforced the idea in the minds of some that most Communists are Jews." etc. (p. 64)

Radio And Television

The "Legal and Fact-finding Dept." (p. 6) of the A.J.C., meets not only with "publishers, newspaper people, Church and Labor officials, etc." but "with radio and television officials." Here is a part of the story (p. 53):

"Close relationships have been established with the major radio and television networks:

- 1- The Columbia Broadcasting System,
- 2- The National Broadcasting Co.,
- 3- The Mutual Broadcasting System,
- 4- The American Broadcasting Co.,
- 5- Dumont Television Network.

In putting over its objective the A.J.C. enjoys "close relationships with key individuals in the networks, advertising agencies, program package offices, program producers, directors and writers." (p. 53) examples are:

- 1- "Mr. Davidson Taylor, Vice-President of the National Broadcasting Co. in charge of public affairs television programs."
- 2- "Mr. Edward Stanley, manager of NBC public affairs radio programs."
- 3- "Mr. Robert Saudek, director of the Ford Foundation radio and television department."
- 4- "Dr. George Crothers, Columbia Broadcasting System's public affairs radio department."
- 5- "Mr. George Rosen, radio and television editor of Variety." (p. 53)

Some of the "methods and materials" used in influencing Radio and TV are (p. 54) furnishing the networks with "kits of script material," and with "information and story material for all kinds of programs—dramatic, quiz, documentary, forum etc." For religious programs see (1) above.

Labor

Scattered through A.J.C., B. are references to contacts with organized labor. The account of the "Labor Division" begins on p. 84. Among the "objectives" of the A.J.C. are these to:

- "4- Induce labor publicly to support specific measures bearing on social issues of interest to the A.J.C." (p. 85)
- "6- Induce labor to support legislation dealing with essential human relations problems, such as immigration, FEPC, UN, Genocide and Housing." (p. 85)

The resources outside the agency (pp. 86-87) include:

- "4- Directors of university workers programs.
 - 7- International labor unions.
 - 8- National Conference of Christians and Jews.
 - 14- Department of Labor.
 - 15- Mutual Security Agency.
 - 17- CIO Community Services Committee.
 - 18- AFL Community Chests Dept."
- Moreover, "all national labor service materials designed to meet labor's needs in the development of educational programs, and in leadership training, are created in cooperation with the organized labor movement..." (p. 88) Also, the A.J.C. has established a press service, regularly offering cartoons, editorials and a serial comic strip to labor editors." (p. 88)

Government

By all odds the biggest of the A.J.C.'s many ventures is their set-up for influencing government. In addition to their direct efforts to influence members of the government, much of their material directed to press, radio and television, veterans organizations, etc., has the ultimate goal of influencing legislation or Executive action. A whole section in A.J.C., B., 1953, is headed: WASHINGTON OFFICE.

The Wash. office serves (p. 269) "as the established liaison of the National Foreign Affairs Dept. (of the A.J.C.) for day to day contact with governmental authorities, particularly the Dept. of State..." It is recorded that "The Wash. office has served as the permanent liaison in the Capital not only for the American Jewish Committee but indirectly and informally also for all cooperative undertakings of various groupings of Jewish organizations..." The undertakings are designed primarily, it appears, to make U.S. policy hostile to German nationalism and friendly to "Israel" (p. 220, etc.); To abolish all immigration laws disapproved of by the A.J.C. and to discourage investigations of Communism. Among the targets at which A.J.C. propaganda and pressure are aimed are: "Governmental officials, Legislators and political leaders." "Repeated reflections of favorable public opinion must be brought to Senators. Views of influential citizens must be continually advertised."

The A.J.C. is strong in the field of government education:

"The U.S. Office of Education...asked us to supply text and drawings for a cartoon book on public school needs published by the Government Printing Office." On p. 39 two subdivisions of the U.S. government are actually listed as "Resources" of the A.J.C. These are "Voice of America" and the "U.S. Office of Education." The Dept. of State is especially cooperative. "Only recently the State Dept. asked for permission to continue circulation of the German and Japanese versions" of an A.J.C. booklet, Make Way For Youth. (p. 70) On p. 138 it is recorded that the A.J.C. is "consulted by State Dept. regarding philosophy and practice of youth councils."

Secret Activities

The strong arm of the A.J.C. is their branch devoted to secret activities and investigations.

"Quite important in the publicity and public relations work which this dept. does is its planning and carrying out publicity-wise a good many projects, supported or undertaken by the A.J.C., but not identified as Committee undertakings. Often, the very nature of the project makes such identification unwise." (p. 251)

The "need of the Investigations Division's services" has "greatly increased" during "the past 2 years." (p. 30) "The Investigative Div. derives its information as to anti-Semitic activities in large part through the medium of confidential investigations and operations, and contacts with confidential sources." (p. 29, 157)

ACTION BY YOU, THE CHRISTIAN IS SORELY NEEDED

As revealed above every part of our existence is under constant threat. Enemies of Christianity will show absolutely no mercy in obtaining their goal. Your life and property and that of your loved ones is not safe while this exists.

All loyal Americans must combat this anti-Christian force with every means at his disposal. While we twiddle our thumbs and dream of personal success, many of our elected representatives, who are good Americans, are threatened constantly by these evil forces who favor anti-American legislation.

As a result of our apathy we now face the most critical time in our history. Apparently we are already under the rule of the United Nation's One World Government. We must in some way eliminate this dangerous situation and regain the sovereignty of the United States of America.

The world is witnessing the greatest historic spectacle of recorded time. Almost in a single lifetime, we see the rise of a nation of really free individuals and then the swift, sudden threat to destroy that free society including the race of man who created it.

"What can I do?" Is the question which generally presents itself when uninformed individuals first learn of the plot against Christian civilization. Learn the truth. Even though the press, radio, television and motion pictures and current magazines are under the influence of these world conspirators, the facts are available to those with enough intelligent curiosity to want to learn the fate facing a free people. Factual Books such as THE IRON CURTAIN OVER AMERICA ($4.00 order from Common Sense) THE PROTOCOLS OF THE LEARNED ELDERS OF ZION ($1.00 order from Common Sense) FEDERAL RESERVE CONSPIRACY ($1.00 order from Common Sense) JEWISH ANTI-COMMUNISM (50¢ order from C.S.) and many others may be obtained as a start in the right direction so as to counter the daily brainwashing of the normal means of communication.

Learn what's good and what's bad for America. Tell the stories to friends at neighborhood gatherings, through your social clubs and church groups.

Write and wire your Senators and Congressmen, the State Department, even the Department of Defense, and let them know your full American views. The enemies of America flood these governmental agencies with propaganda to force legislation favorable to them. Remember the government is still supposed to be the servant of the people. Every loyal American must act. There is no time for a "let George do it" attitude. These conspirators are bringing their centuries old plot to a rapid conclusion. The situation is critical—only an intelligent, informed and militant citizenry can prevent the bloodshed of another 1776 if America is to be saved.

HELP SECURE A MILLION READERS

Why Tax Deductible?

Why is it necessary for Jews to spend at least 20 million (tax deductible taxpayer's money) a year in the U.S. to promote tolerance of them? No other class of people find this necessary.

On April 4th, The Joint Defense Appeal (American Jewish Committee and Anti-Defamation League) launched its 1957 drive for $5,600,000 at a dinner at the Waldorf Astoria. The purpose as stated "programs combatting bigotry and discrimination," has nothing to do with two campaigns for 100 million dollars each, this yr. by United Jewish Appeal which is used mainly to bolster Israel in their plot to grab still more territory from the Arabs. Why is it all your life you hear Jews screaming persecution (when caught with the goods) from many countries?

For 20 years we have read leading Jewish publications and in every issue they cry "anti-Semitism," or "discrimination." Still they are the most discriminating people on earth;—won't even eat off the same dishes the Christian uses.

Here are just two of hundreds of anti-Christian quotes COMMON SENSE has from Jewish publications:

"One of the finest things ever done by the mob was the Crucifixion of Christ. Intellectually it was a splendid geture. But trust the mob to bungle. If I'd had charge of executing Christ, I'd have handled it differently. You see, what I'd have done was had him shipped to Rome and fed to the lions. They never could have made a savior out of mincemeat."

...Ben Hecht, Zionist writer of Hollywood, p. 20 "A JEW IN LOVE."

"To Christians of all denominations Jesus is the symbol of all that is pure, sacred, and lovely. To Jews of the fourth century, Jesus became the symbol of anti-Semitism, of libel, of cruelty, of violent death.".....Joseph Dunner, Zionist Jew, in "The Republic of Israel," p. 10.

It is plain to anyone who takes time for investigating that all of the world is not out of step. It is the Jews who bring discontent, confusion and hate in countries until they are driven out. This will never stop as long as the Rabbis continue to shape the minds of Jewish youngsters in the anti-Christian cult which is camouflaged as Religion.

THINK HOW EASY

If each reader would send in just one new subscription, the COMMON SENSE reader list would be doubled immediately. What a practical effort for our COUNTRY and FREEDOM!

Human nature being what it is, we know not every subscriber will be an active part to this cooperative project. Hence, some patriots who are fired with zeal to drive this world Marxist Conspiracy from our shores could secure a number of new subscribers to offset those who send in none. Some wonderful patriots are doing this now.

A short while ago, a patriot sent in 305 subscriptions within 2 weeks. During the last month an informed business man in a western State sent us 450 subscriptions. A patriot out in Wyoming sends in 5 or 10 regularly; a friend in California sends an average of 10 a month; many send us 2 or 3 subscriptions a month.

COMMON SENSE carries no advertising, hence is free to give the unvarnished facts the people need to help them understand what is going on. For this we are constantly smeared by Jewish organizations as anti-Semitic, anti-Catholic, anti-Negro, and anti-everything else they can think of. The fact is, we are none of these things—but every bit of our investigation and probing, has led us directly into the Jewishness of Communism, we are dedicated to exposing this vicious serpent no matter how the chips fall. Our desire is to give you a paper each week with news while it is "hot."

Ask your friends to give you a dollar for twenty-four issues packed with truthful information, not available elsewhere!

How Red Is The Zionist Controlled NAACP?

Rev. Kenneth Goff

At the very beginning I wish to make it clear that the issue involved is one not of race but rather of subversion. None of the organizations which have exploited the race issue in this country has ever had the welfare of the negro people at heart. They have seized upon this issue as a convenient front for their more nefarious activities and as one with which they could dupe naive do-gooders, fuzzy-minded intellectuals, misguided clergymen and radical journalists to be their pawns.

1- The record shows that the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People was neither founded nor is presently directed by colored people. It was originated in N.Y. city 46 years ago as the brainchild of a Russian-trained revolutionary named William E. Walling.

2- Of its 5 founders only one was even part negro—a Communist-sympathizing lawyer named W.E.B. DuBois (72 C-F citations) whose record of participation in Communist, Communist-front and subversive organizations and activities, taken from the files of the Committee on Un-American Activities of the U.S House of Representatives, requires 8 pages of single-space, typed copy to outline. Among his more recent activities of this nature, was the donation of his services in the preparation of legal briefs defending since-executed Communist spies Julius and Ethel Rosenberg, and the imprisoned leaders of the Communist Party of the U.S. In 1953, he was awarded the International Peace Prize by the "Communist-front" World Peace Council, in recognition of his participation in the sponsorship of the series of Communist-dominated World Peace Conferences, held since 1949, and now is referred to by its officers and members as the organization's "Honorary Chairman."

3- The files of the House Un-American Activities Committee reveal records of affiliation with or participation in Communist, Communist-front, fellow-traveling or subversive organizations or activities on the part of the present officials of the NAACP the President, the Chairman of the Board, the "Honorary Chairman," 11 of 28 Vice Presidents, the Treasurer, 28 of 47 Directors, the Chairman of the National Legal Committee, the Executive Secretary, the Special Counsel, the Assistant Special Counsel, the Southeast Regional Secretary, the West Coast Secretary, the Director of the Washington Bureau, the Director of Public Relations and 2 Field Secretaries.

4- Board Chairman Channing H. Tobias (at least 50 Communist-front citations) was a member of the Executive Board and Co-Chairman of the N.Y. Committee of the "Communist-front" Southern Conference for

"ISLAND IN THE SUN" A RACE-MIXING PICTURE

Robert Rossen, director of this picture was a Communist Party member from at least 1937 to 1947 and took the Fifth Amendment in 1951. He met with the underground leader of the Communist Party, J. Peters (Goldberger) on May 3, 1942.

Darryl F. Zanuck (Jew) has spent three million dollars producing this picture as part of the Marxist plot to abolish segregation and force white and black children into close relationships in school. Zanuck was the first in Hollywood to produce an interracial picture several years ago. Remember "Pinky"?

This picture features Negroes and Whites making violent love. Harry Belafonte, Negro, makes love to Joan Fontaine, white, and Michael Rennie, white, ends his lovemaking by marrying Dorothy Dandridge, Negro.

Belafonte was discovered in a Greenwich Village, N.Y., hamburger stand by the clever Jewish brains of the entertainment industry. Millions of youngsters will (unless you as parents stop them) see this clever propaganda picture and be convinced that God made a mistake in creating some people white and some black. Such is the plan of the Marxist masterminds.

Belafonte recently divorced the Negress who had stuck with him through the "lean years" and married Julie "Robinson," a Jewess, daughter of Russian-born Jews. (see N.Y. Post, 4/18/57) This woman, a dancer, toured Europe with the Communist-fronter Katherine Dunham.

Belafonte is being touted as having great "sex-appeal" for white women, a degrading appeal to debauchery. As a person he is described as one whose "conversation is a tumble of mis-applied words and incomplete thoughts." He has spent the past year on a psychoanalysts couch, probably due to his past, which included an AWOL from the U.S. Navy, passing himself off as a Frenchman, a period of dramatic training in the Dramatic Workshop, (which has produced almost as many Communist-fronters in theatre as Actors' Studio), and a stint on the road in the filthy play "Anna Lucasta."

One World—everyone on the same level.

One Religion—mix the races, do away with Nationalities—One Language—end patriotism for your country.

"Island In The Sun," like the NAACP, is organized and directed by Jews.

He sponsored the "subversive and Communist" People's Institute of Applied Religion and the American Committee for Yugoslav Relief and was a member of the Executive Board of the American League for Peace and Democracy, "the largest of the Communist-front movements in the U.S." He has sponsored conferences and activities of the "viciously subversive" National Federation for Constitutional Liberties, the "Communist-front" N.Y.

State Conference on National Unity and the "subversive and Communist" American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born and National Committee to Win the Peace.

5-Roy Wilkins (9 Communist-front citations) pro-red record quoted on June 17, 1936, by the N.Y. Daily Worker, the official publication of the Communist Party in this country, as attaching "greatest significance" to the 1936 National Communist Party Convention and stating that the Communist Party's racial program had had "a very wholesome effect" in the U.S. He was further quoted by the Daily Worker on July 15, 1949, as boasting that he had voted in the N.Y. elections that year, for since-convicted Communist Benjamin J. Davis. He is listed as a member of the National Committee of the "Communist-front" International Juridical Association which has "actively defended Communists and consistently followed the Communist Party line." He was a sponsor of the "subversive and Communist" Conference on Pan American Democracy, and of a joint meeting in 1937 of the "subversive and Communist" American League against War and Fascism and the "Communist-front" American Friends of the Chinese People. He has spoken for the "subversive and Communist" International Labor Defense and the Worker's Alliance, the former of which is regarded as the "legal arm of the Communist Party" in this country. These organizations are all cited in "guide to subversive organizations and publications" put out by the Government.

6- Of the NAACP's 28 Vice President's, the following 11 have records of Un-American activities:

John Haynes Holmes, 23 Citations; A. Phillip Randolph, 20 Citations; the late Mary McLeod Bethune (who still is listed as a Vice President) and Wm. Lloyd Imes, 16 Citations each; Oscar Hammerstein, II, the composer, and Bishop W.J. Walls, 7 Citations each; Ira W. Jayne and L. Pearl Mitchell, 2 Citations each; and Willard S. Townsend, T.G. Nutter and Grace B. Fender-son, 1 Citation each.

But of all the NAACP officials and policy makers listed in the files of the House Un-American Activities Committee, none has a record as notorious as that of W.E. DuBois to whom I have previously referred as one of the founders and present "Honorary Chairman" of the Association. No less than 72 Citations of Communist, Communist-front and subversive activity are entered against his name—the latest of which was the statement he issued upon the death of Joseph Stalin reading: "Let all negroes, Jews and foreign-born who have suffered in America from prejudice and intolerance, remember Joseph Stalin."

8- NAACP was a member of American Youth for a Free World which was organized in 1942 and, in 1948, was described by the Cal. Un-American Activities Committee as "heavily infiltrated and effectively dominated by the Communist Party." The House Un-American Activities Committee in its 1951 Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications described the AYFW as "a Communist clearing house."

9- A report made at a meeting of the Communist Party of the U.S. on July 16, 1946, showed the NAACP was one of a group of left-wing organizations invited by the National Committee of the Communist Party, to a meeting held in Chicago to form a "third party." That report, as detailed on pages 150-51 of the 1947 Report of the House Un-American Activities Committee, lists the NAACP as an active participant in the Conference at which the Progressive Citizens of America was formed.

10- In 1945, the NAACP sent its Branch Dept. Director, Gloster Current, to London as an official delegate representing the Association at the founding of the World Federation of Democratic Youth. This Federation was cited by the House Un-American Activities Committee in 1948 as "part of the Communist International solar system."

JEWS ARE BEHIND DE-SEGREGATION

From The Herald Tribune, June 21, 1955

Asbury Park, New Jersey—The Reform Rabbinate came out squarely for integration in schools today at the 69th annual convention of the Central Conference of American Rabbis. The convention is being held at the Berkeley-Carteret Hotel.

The Rabbis indorsed a resolution submitted by the Joint Social Action Commission of the organization and urged Jews in all parts of the country to use their influence in their communities to make the integration decision of the Supreme Court effective.

Segregation For The Jews Only?

According to Ludwig Lewisohn (Jew) in his book "What is this Jewish Heritage?", Segregation is a Jewish necessity and prerogative, as opposed to their program for integration of Christian and Negro. We quote:

Page 12- Intensive Jewish education is proposed and a word is flung at the proponent. The word is "segregation." Or Jews establish a university. From certain quarters comes the strange word "ghettoization." But Jews exist. They exist, as was said long ago, as an historic group of recognizable homogeneity. Differentiated existence is in itself segregation. It is segregation by the fiat of nature or of God. Whoever, whether individual or group, seeks flight from his or its destined segregation, evidently seeks obliteration or death.

The word "segregation" will repay scrutiny. It means withdrawal of se (one-self) from the greg, the herd, the merely gregarious mass.

Page 14- In a society so menaced the act or fact of segregation, whether dictated by an historical destiny or in pursuit of an intelligible ideal, has a better chance of being good and fruitful and moral than almost any other human trend or act. He who has an historic separateness dictated by a great tradition and seeks to obliterate it, to throw it off, to destroy his segregation and merge himself into the greg, the herd, the mob, may not unjustly be called a traitor to the cause of the Western spirit, of those great traditions which must be saved if we are not to sink into barbarism. The intensity of a Jew's Jewishness is the measure of his service to this civilization in which we live.

Give Us Barabbas

Nineteen centuries ago and over, a Divinely created and inspired Man walked upon this earth. Had He come to us today, He would have found a nation living gaily beyond its means, both nationally and individually, a nation reeking with crime, a nation almost completely controlled both economically and politically by the money changers. Had He attempted to instruct our people and turn them away from their downward course, He would have been silenced and destroyed just as so many patriotic Americans have been silenced and destroyed during the present-day tragedy.

Christ found a replica of those conditions in Galilee. He labored unceasingly for the redemption and salvation of His people. But nothing could have saved Him after He drove the money changers from the Temple. The Pharisees demanded His trial. But Pilate could find no guilt in Him. It was the custom of the Roman government to release one prisoner at the yearly Passover. A word from the mob would have saved the life of Christ. Instead, they cried out: "Give us Barabbas" (a condemned robber)—Crucify Him, Let His Blood Be Upon Us and Upon Our Children." And so Christ carried His cross to His crucifixion.

This highly important historical fact should be of vital interest to us today when similar mobs are demanding the release of traitors and criminals while just laws, written for our protection, are so often brazenly flaunted.

The cry "Give us Barabbas" was heard around the world when the same old mob appealed for the release of the Rosenbergs. It has been heard for the release of every convicted traitor and in support of those undergoing investigation or trial.

The most recent demand of this kind comes from groups of professors, ministers and extreme liberals, seeking not only the pardon of traitors (mostly Jews) found guilty under the Smith and Security Acts, of planning the destruction of our government, but these groups go further. They not only cry for the release of Barabbas, but they demand the repeal of the laws under which the traitors were tried. It was J. Edgar Hoover who said: "I confess to a real apprehension so long as Communists are able to secure Ministers of the Gospel to promote their evil work."

Every informed person knows that the Jews are the instigators and leaders of Communism. The evidence from Jewish sources is conclusive on that point. The American people are not told the truth of the situation in Poland and Hungary. While those nations want their freedom from the U.S.S.R., the thing that they have been fighting for eleven years, is being ruled by cruel Jewish officials.

How strange it is that this problem of the Jew cannot be discussed on the floor of either House of Congress. It is the greatest problem before the world today because the Jew has infiltrated into every phase of world affairs, and he is behind the throne of every government. There can be no peace in the world until this problem is brought squarely into the open, thoroughly and frankly discussed, and settled for all time.

With all this evidence before us, why should we permit Zionist Jews to infiltrate throughout our Government? They are being appointed to vital posts where they can take a leading part in the active revolution, when it comes. Our people have short memories. As we view Hungary today, let us recall the words of Stalin when he said:

"I consider that the Communist Party of the United States is one of the few Communist parties to which history has given decisive tasks from the point of view of the World Revolutionary Movement. The revolutionary crisis has not yet reached the United States, but we already have knowledge of numerous facts which suggest that it is approaching. It is necessary that the Communist Party should be capable of meeting the moment of crisis, fully equipped to take the direction of future class wars in the United States. You must prepare for that, Comrades, with all your strength, and by every means; you must constantly improve and Bolshevize the American Communist Party. You must forge real revolutionary leaders of the proletariat, who will be capable of leading the millions of American workers toward the revolutionary class war."

If this problem is not faced and solved by proper governmental action, the peoples of the world will one day be driven to solve it themselves, and it will be a sad day for the Jew. The action now taken by the Hungarian patriots will be world-wide. No Genocide Treaty will protect them when courageous citizens finally act to rid their respective nations of these inhuman pests*

Gen. George Van Horn Moseley

*I feel at liberty to use this word as George Washington referred to them in his Maxims as "pests of society and the greatest enemies we have to the happiness of America."

GHANA

A tremendous amount of publicity has attended the celebration marking the birth of the first independent Negro nation in Africa. Negro leaders from all over the world, U.N. officials, the Vice-President of the U.S., and many VIPS were present on March 6, 1957.

What no newspaper in the U.S. has revealed however, is that the Prime Minister of Ghana is a Communist Party member, and that Ghana is a Communist-run State. Therefore it is not surprising at all that VP Nixon was not seated on the dais during the celebration, while the Communist Vice Premier of China was.

A survey of the Communist press is all that is necessary in determining the true facts. The Daily Worker, 3/10/57, p. 11, reviews "Ghana," the Autobiography of Kwame Nkrumah. (Nelson, N.Y. $5.00)

In the review of this book detailing the life of Ghana's Premier for the last 5 years (under the British Commonwealth) this flat statement is made: "Kwame Nkrumah is not only a man who served time in jail as an alleged Communist. He is a statesman who proudly asserts in his autobiography that he is a Marxist Socialist. He does not merely admit that he associated with Communists; he boasts of having learned from Marx and Lenin and from the experiences of American and British Communists."

Dr. W.E.B. DuBois (72 Communist-front citations) and his wife, were invited to Ghana on Jan. 22nd, by Nkrumah for the launching of the nation. They had met in 1945 at the Pan-African Congress, (a Communist conclave). The State Dept. refused DuBois a passport on Feb. 28th, whereupon DuBois wrote an open letter in the Communist National Guardian, addressed to Nkrumah as Premier of the new Dominion of Ghana, calling upon him to found a Pan-Africa (encompassing all Africa) based on socialism in cooperation with the USSR. Nkrumah cabled his regrets to DuBois when he learned DuBois was refused a passport. (Daily Worker 3/14/57)

Lester B. Granger, with many Communist-front citations and head of the Urban League, was present in Ghana, as was Cedric Belfrage, Communist editor of the National Guardian who was kicked out of the U.S. as a Communist by the Justice Dept. Granger, in an interview, tipped the real truth as to Ghana's importance (other than as the Red symbol of black rule in Africa). He stressed the importance of developing the nation's bauxite and manganese deposits, backed by the U.S.

The notorious Red-fronter, Adam Clayton Powell (73 Communist-front citations) was also present in Ghana, as was the Rev. and Mrs. Martin Luther King, A. Philip Randolph (45 Communist-front citations) and Ralph Bunche (7 Communist-front citations and identified as a Communist Party member by Manning Johnson). Appears like a big Red home-coming affair. Why did you not read this in your regular newspapers? Yes, why?

TERROR IN GAZA

Gaza
April 5, 1957

Dear Friends of Ours:

Thank you for inquiring about us during the period when we were in danger.

The Israelis took over Gaza Nov. 2, 1956, and as they entered they killed all the men that appeared in front of them, whether military men or not. They entered the homes and threw the young men out, lined them up and shot them in front of their parents, wives, brothers and sisters without any reason or cause. Those who were killed in this manner numbered 250.

Yesterday 100 corpses were discovered, 39 of which were returned by the United Nations Authorities to their families. The rest were returned later. There are 500 who are unaccounted for and we do not know anything about. A few days after they took over Gaza, they asked all men to leave their homes for inspection. While this was taking place, the Israeli soldiers stole the money, Jewelry, cigarettes, radios and everything that was light and expensive. Those who didn't abide by their order were lined up and machine gunned. These were the ones of the 39 bodies.

Dear friends, is that the country that the U.S., France, and England claim to be democratic? We are not Communists, but we don't want that kind of democracy either.

They (the U.S.) say they want peace and they want to stop Communism from swallowing our country. Why in God's name do they want to stop us from getting arms from any country, even if it was a Communist country, to defend ourselves? Here their country (Israel) made refugees out of us and displaced us, and it sheltered foreigners from different parts of the world.

Those who were killed in Khan Yunis in the manner mentioned above were 655 killed because of no wrong they had committed or fault of their own besides being young. One hundred and fifty of those were towns-people while the rest were from the refugees. There isn't a family in Khan Yunis that did not lose a martyr; some families lost as many as nine persons.

The same thing happened in Rafah, Khuza'ah and Buriah. We heard that the U.S. is going to help Israel economically and after that the U.S. wants us to like her and love her. Why? Because she is helping Israel to displace us and its humanistic economic help is helping Israel to stand on its own two feet and again attack us. We should thank the U.S. for that?

When we were graduated from the American University of Beirut, Lebanon, we put the Americans next to the Gods and we believed that they were perfect human beings. But after our experiences with them, that disappointed us greatly. They fell from their high place to a very low point in our eyes. The way they think is not straight and is beyond the understanding of any one of us who is fighting for his freedom.

The Israeli soldiers stole all the money in the Arab Bank; that was 149,059,655 Egyptian pounds ($417,369.03). We reported the theft to the U.N. Authorities, and what was strange was that the Israelis admitted that they had stolen it and began to bargain politically to return it. They wanted something else in return.

When they left Gaza, they kidnapped a number of young men. The families of those who were kidnapped do not know anything about them. In spite of all the efforts of the U.N. forces and authorities in search for them, there is no news about them. What more can I say about the atrocities that were committed?

Sincerely yours,

Negro Minister Speaks Frankly

WEBSTER McCLARY

Local Pastor St. Paul M. E. Church

To the people of Williamsburg County, South Carolina:

There are times to speak and times to keep quiet and this is a time to speak.

I am a negro who was born and raised in your county. At present I am serving as local preacher in St. Paul M. E. Church near Kingstree, S.C. During the week I farm my own land and also run a licensed taxi service in town. I belong to the Free & Accepted Masons, to the Grand Order of Odd Fellows and to the Joint Stock Society. It has been reported that I belong to the NAACP also.

First, let me say to my white friends that I have never belonged to the NAACP and never expect to. I'm too free and happy praising God, working hard and living in the friendship of both races.

I ask you to show this to your colored friends.

Second, let me say to my colored brethren and sisters:

You are doing a lot of talking about White Citizens Councils. You say they are not like a bunch of young drunks whooping and hollering on a possum hunt. You say Councils are springing up quiet as mushrooms in the night. And, you say right. Those are smart steady men and they mean business. They have told you there won't be any mixed schools hereabouts and I'm telling you you can depend on that. You can quit your secret worrying and fretting about mixed schools for most of you don't want them any more than whites do. You just didn't know how to keep from having them.

I can say this to any negro who has it sticking in his craw that he can be happy without trying mixed schools. All you have to do to get your heart's desire is buy a ticket to Philadelphia or other points north where they are already mixed. Nobody has to tell you that colored children don't learn books as fast as whites. But see for yourself how pitiful your big colored children will look in the same grades with smaller white children. Have you got enough money to dress your brood in clothes they won't be ashamed of? Go ahead and try it if you must. But don't be fool enough to slam the door in your white friends' faces before you go. You might want to come back like I did after I had lived up there a while. How, if you come home and find the door locked? Your old key won't be much good in a door fastened with a dozen ten-penny nails. Who is going to help you then? Will the NAACP give you a handout? Laugh, folks, laugh!

The years I lived in Philly and N.Y., I made big money as a house painter but it took it all to keep going. When I finally came back home I hardly had one dime to rub against another. What did I do? I went to my white friends and got a job. Later, who lent me money to start farming? Who sold me seed and fertilizer and mules on credit? When dry weather ruined my crops, who let my debts ride till the next year? Who let me have groceries and clothes on credit when I needed them? When I was sick, who fed and clothed me free? Not the Red Cross, not the Welfare Dept., not the NAACP, but my own white friends. I say God bless them and their seed.

Now please don't take the notion that I'm talking against my own race. I am not. I'm trying with the help of God to lead my people right. I'm warning all you negroes not to be misled by a few NAACP folks you see strutting their stuff in your community. Remember the old saying, "Give a calf enough rope and he will hang himself." Just keep an eye on the calves around you and you are apt to see a show turn into a circus. If you are one of the calves, cut the rope now. Come out into the open and throw your weight for equal but separate schools where negro children can learn to take pride in their own race instead of being ashamed of it.

White Folks have politely appealed to us negroes to use sense and look far ahead but they won't be surprised if we don't because we never have. Right now, I'm not appealing to you colored people about the distant future, I'm telling you about the present. If you are in the NAACP you had better get out while the getting is good. The White Folks have told you straight and honest. They don't blame any negroes for joining before they realized the NAACP was set to stir up trouble between the races here at home. But now things have busted wide open. Common horse-sense will tell you that every negro who stays in the NAACP and stays in the South is planting briars in his own path and briars can grow powerfully fast in a southern climate.

Did you read in the papers about Councils in other counties "Exercising Economic Pressure?" Do you know what that means? I didn't either till I had it explained to me. In our kind of talk it means getting fired from a job or having your credit cut off. Be fair. If you were paying wages to a fellow and found he was double-crossing you, what would you do? You would fire him so quick it would make his head swim. He would be lucky if he didn't get a kick in the pants for good measure. As for giving him credit, who? You?

If you think the NAACP will get those lost jobs back get somebody to explain the meaning of the news from Washington in the papers with big print in the top line saying, "Justice Department Lacking Interest in Economic Pressure."

Listen my colored brethren and sisters: Come out into the open and tell the world it's equal schools you want, not mixed. If you are too bashful, get somebody else to speak for you. Get on the winning side while you can. Forget the NAACP and the Supreme Court before they forget you. How long do you think they are going to stay in a lather trying to force mixed schools on South Carolina with all the whites, reared back on their hind legs, saying, "We won't have them!" and three-fourths the negroes slipping around to whisper, "We don't want them!" Take an open stand with your white and colored friends so things can settle down.

Let's all work together again on the program to build equal schools so your children can get a good education before they get gray-headed. Beg your Christian leaders to furnish you with good leadership. What this country needs is more Christian leaders on both sides who will teach their people to pray more and work toward friendship and peace and prosperity instead of mixing breeds against God's plan.

My friends, let all the nit-wit talking about mixing races go in one ear and out the other. It was God Almighty's plan to have a white race and a negro race and when Gabriel blows his last trumpet, the two races will still be on earth to answer. The sprinkling of mixed-breeds will only show that both races were human and sinful and standing in the need of prayer.

If I were a betting man I would bet you that you'll see the day before too long that Northern Big Shots in the NAACP will get sick of South Carolina negroes, just the mention of one will make their stomachs turn upside down. Here's why. When they came down here, we negroes thought they were pawing the earth, fairly kicking up gravel. They must have worked hard enough to frazzle an ox organizing NAACP chapters and sweet-talking suckers. They drew up petitions and got negroes from far and near to sign them. They must have felt sure they had the South by the tail for a down-hill drag. From the looks of news in the papers, they must have felt mighty steady in their saddles for they sure started driving their horses at a fast gallop. Then somehow, their horses began to stumble. First one and then another. What had happened? Why were so many negroes suddenly yelling their heads off to take their names off those petitions? What had happened, you ask? Nothing new. Our negroes were just up to their old tricks. I wonder if anybody ever told them that southern negroes are the best joiners on earth but the poorest stickers when it comes to following strange negroes. As for whites who step down on an equal footing with colored folks, we might pretend to respect them but when we get off to ourselves we call them Dressed Up White Trash or say their grandpa must have had some tar in his blood.

Of course southern negroes will follow any big talker a little while if there's some excitement going on. We love excitement. But just wait till the new begins to wear off. The leader will still be marching full speed ahead, thinking we are right at his heels. After a while he has to stop to catch his breath and mop his brow. That's when he glances behind him to see how we are making out. But there's not a negro in sight. All have taken to the bushes. Many are already making fast time by short cuts to reach trusted white friends who have already helped them out of more than one tight spot. Northerners don't want to believe its like that down South so we let them think what they please. It's not our fault if they have to learn the hard way.

I've done a lot of traveling in my day and seen a lot of sights. And I'm telling the world that South Carolina is a good place for negroes who want to be good citizens. My colored brothers and sisters, pray to God to give you the wisdom to teach your children to teach their children never to let strangers come into South Carolina and mess things up for our race. Watch your step about signing petitions now and forever more. God's blessings be on you and your seed.

Zionist Stooges Infiltrate Confuse Divide U.S. Leaders

Everyone knows by now that the great patriot and enemy of the Communists, Senator Joseph R. McCarthy is dead, but how many understand the conspiracy that hastened his death? If it could be generally understood, it would easily be worth a billion dollars to this country. Our country could be saved from bankruptcy and Marxist rule.

This statement sounds fantastic to those who are uninformed on the real cause or the world Communist Marxist conspiracy. Many people are conscious of cancer and know that it is dangerous, but how many people are correctly informed so they can do something about it?

Sen. McCarthy caused more people to become conscious of Communism than any man in our country. He went after Communism with a patriotic vigor. Each time as he set the net for these Marxist plotters he stirred up a hornet's nest, as at Fort Monmouth, when forty-two were caught in the net and examined thirty-eight of the forty-two were Jews. Looking for Communists, and finding most of them to be Zionists, put McCarthy in an embarrassing position—as he had been unsuccessful in preventing people of the Jewish faith from surrounding him closely. To carry on his war against Commies while some of his closest advisors were Jewish, was an almost impossible task.

With Rabbi Schultz, George Sokolsky, Arthur Kohlborg, Roy Cohn, and Dave Schine, always close at hand, guaranteed that the impression that Communism was Jewish would not go out from McCarthy's office.

Victor Reisel, in his column in the N.Y. Mirror of May 7th, states that McCarthy had proposed a National Commission to sift all that is known about Communism, and two of the committee of three, which he had proposed, were David Dubinsky and Bernard Baruch.

Did Rabbi Schultz in New York spend a good part of one full day with phone calls to Sen. McCarthy's office convincing him to appoint Roy Cohn as his Chief Council? They are very successful in placing secretaries with Congressmen and Senators, and today, on practically all Congressional Investigating Committees you will find the Research in charge of a Jew. The forceful argument used is, THIS WILL PREVENT YOU FROM BEING LABELED ANTI-SEMITIC.

We have a sworn statement to the effect that Bernard Baruch furnished 90% of the financial backing of the American Jewish League Against Communism, Rabbi Schultz' brain child.

McCarthy's vigorous search for Communists frightened the Jews. Anna Rosenberg had supervised the hiring of more than a million people while she was Asst. Secretary of Defense in charge of hiring all manpower for fifteen governmental departments. On the wall in back of Anna's desk in the Defense Dept., hung a large photo of Baruch.

The late Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy and his lovely wife Jean

The meeting of Baruch and McCarthy was in Baruch's suite at the Drake Hotel about noon, March 9, 1954. George Sokolsky and Roy Cohn escorted Senator McCarthy to Baruch's suite.

The Jewish Examiner of Brooklyn, March 19, 1954 reported that Hy Gardiner had stated in his column in the New York Herald Tribune that "the recent visit of Senator Joe McCarthy to elder statesman Bernard Baruch was not all sweetness and light." The Examiner goes on to state that Mr. Gardiner gave the following "inside story" on what happened: "Baruch refused to shake McCarthy's hand, then told the Senator that 'if he persisted in his unfair attacks on his alma mater (CCNY) he, Baruch, would consider it a personal attack and conduct himself accordingly.'"

It was brought out during the McCarthy hearing that a majority of those who were dismissed for subversive activities at Fort Monmouth on account of McCarthy's investigation were from the City College in New York. One of these, Aaron Coleman, was chief of the top secret Fort Monmouth radar laboratory which is our government's main radar laboratory for protection of the U.S. against bombing. U.S. Security officers found 43 secret classified documents in Coleman's home and it was established that he cooperated closely with Julius Rosenberg who was electrocuted as a spy.

Among the letters written by the F.B.I. to the Army was one on January 26, 1951, giving a report on Aaron Coleman. At that time Anna Rosenberg was in charge of the Defense Dept. Did Anna and her civilian Reds in the Army get excited upon receiving these F.B.I. warnings? They did not! Coleman was kept right on until Sept. 28, 1953; until Sen. McCarthy stirred up the Reds at Fort Monmouth.

At about 2:00 P.M. of March 9, 1954 (about two hours after this three quarter hour conference between Baruch and McCarthy) Senator Flanders, noted for his left-wing views and whose present term does not expire until 1958, which insured him from any campaign reprisals by Sen. McCarthy, as Flanders will then be 80 years old and obviously not a candidate for re-election, bitterly attacked Senator McCarthy on the floor of the U.S. Senate.

Assuming Baruch sent for McCarthy to get him to do something at Baruch's request, and that McCarthy refused, could Baruch have telephoned to Flanders to let loose the prepared attack on McCarthy? See pages 2726-2727 of the Congressional Record of March 9, 1954, which clearly shows by Flanders' own admission in the first paragraph of his speech for delivery knowing McCarthy would be in New York City when he, Flanders delivered it. (Senatorial courtesy requires that the attacking Senator gets word to whoever he proposes to attack so that the Senator attacked may have an opportunity to immediately reply to the attack on the floor of the U.S. Senate.)

It gives great pleasure to American patriots to know that thousands of people

McCarthyism Is Americanism! Long May It Live!

You Can't Fight A King Cobra With A Perfume Atomizer!

(We republish an editorial which was published in our May 15, 1954 issue which was republished from the N.Y. Sunday News, and which is most timely at this time.)

One of the laws of physics is that every action breeds its opposite and equal reaction. That law frequently appears to apply to politics and shifts in public opinion, as well as to liquids, solids and gases.

For example, let's consider the case of Senator Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.) and how and why he came to be the burning national issue that he is today.

In Sen. McCarthy, the domestic Communists and their fellow travelers have the fiercest, most courageous, least merciful single enemy they have ever yet run afoul of.

His strategy and tactics are fully as shrewd and agile as theirs, and often more so, which is the main reason why they hate his insides. McCarthy has demonstrated that he will never quit his crusade against U.S. Communism as long as he is able to carry it on.

By and large, we think that McCarthy's heart is squarely in the right place, and that he is doing a job which badly needs to be done.

Well, how did the domestic Reds acquire so relentless an enemy? What produced the force which some people damn and others bless under the name of McCarthyism? What was the action that bred this terrific reaction?

Anybody even sketchily acquainted with the history of this country for the last 20 years can easily figure out the answer to those questions.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt triggered off the McCarthy-producing action when he recognized Soviet Russia in 1933. From that time on, the New-Deal setup was, among other things, a love-nest for Communists.

They had virtually the run of the White House, and of the State Dept. Alger Hiss flourished, the Harold Ware Communist cell in Washington prospered, Red spies got about all the information the Kremlin wanted on anything American.

Roosevelt lifted one squawk against Communism, when Russia attacked poor little Finland in 1939. Outside of that, he was Joe Stalin's good friend and he became the Lend-Lease savior of Russia after Hitler attacked the Soviet in June of 1941.

When Truman took over in 1945 on Roosevelt's death, he continued the policy of slavish "friendship" for Russia, which was, as always since the 1917 Bolshevik Revolution, plotting the eventual conquest of the world. Truman began to see the light in 1947, regarding international Communism. But he could not or would not believe that the Reds who had penetrated the U.S. Government were plotting its violent overthrow.

Perhaps the climax of the action which produced McCarthyism was Truman's crack that the Alger Hiss case was a "Red Herring," followed a while later by the conviction of Hiss. Or perhaps it was Truman's firing of Gen. Douglas MacArthur for wanting to win the Korean War.

Anyway, the bulk of the American people have been aware for several years now that the Red criminal conspiracy in the U.S. is real, that it means business, and that the business it means is the enslavement of this country to Moscow and the murder of millions of Americans.

Sen. McCarthy is what you might call the living, breathing, fighting expression of that American awareness of the nature of the Communist enemy.

If he fights dirty now and then, it is because we are all up against the dirtiest foe imaginable.

And if his words and acts, sometimes shock the feelings of refined people, that is

Irving Peress

Now that McCarthy is gone, how about telling us,

WHO DID PROMOTE PERESS?

Anna Rosenberg could tell us—if she would!

because you can't fight a king cobra with a perfume atomizer.

The fierceness and toughness of McCarthy are the direct reaction to the softness and blindness of Roosevelt and Truman toward the Communist enemy. If those Presidents had had more sense, McCarthy would not have been necessary.

For McCarthyism, then credit or blame—as you choose—the New and Fair Dealers who are now screaming the loudest about McCarthyism. They are its legitimate parents, and they look more than foolish when they try to disown their offspring.

McCarthy And His Enemies

The N.Y. Times of July 18, 1953, reported "The National Community Relations Advisory Council, made up of six national and 30 local Jewish organizations yesterday attacked Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy..." Some of the constituent national organizations that make up the N.C.R.A.C. are: American Jewish Congress, Jewish Labor Committee, Jewish War Veterans of the U.S., Union of American Hebrew Congregations; also local, State and Regional agencies of the Jewish Community Council.

Following are a few of the Jewish as well as the Communist publications which smeared and defamed the great patriot Joe McCarthy. He unwittingly raised their ire when he started exposing Communists.

N.Y. Post, "To millions of Americans the spectacle of 6,000 N.Y. policemen frenziedly chering Joe McCarthy was an ominous show. McCarthy has become a modern symbol of disrespect for law and order." April 6, 1954.

The People's World, Communist daily newspaper of Calif., edited by the Jew Al Richmond, reporting the resolution of the Calif. State Committee of the Communist Party calling for a united stand against McCarthyism, stated: "While serving and reflecting the whole broad movement against McCarthyism which is now developing, the People's World has alone dared to report the views of the first targets of the McCarthyite attack, the Communists." March 25, 1954.

California Jewish Voice, Milton Freidman's column in the March 16, 1951 (note how far back the fight to "get" McCarthy started) issue stated: "...Sen. Herbert H. Lehman compared Republican Sen. Joseph McCarthy with Hitler. Sen. Lehman said the 'black evil of McCarthyism' applied through the Hitlerian 'big lie technique' has captured 'the imagination of the American people.'" Samuel B. Gach in his column, "In the Know..." had this to say about McCarthy: "Many people like Ike and so do I. If he is squeamish about permitting the name of the arch-villain of our present era to pass his lips, it's good enough for me too." March 26, 1954.

B'nai B'rith Messenger, "McCarthyism is a reactionary political movement whose chief weapon is quick reprisal against its opponents. It employs every tested device to paralyze the opposition. Against this array of weapons the defensive approach must inevitably fail. It can be met only, as the National Council of Jewish Women declares in one of its recent pamphlets, by a positive stand and by affirmative action." Jan. 18, 1952.

We often wonder why the Jews of Israel feel they have the right to pose questions regarding the Junior Senator from Wis. In an address before a large audience in Beverly Hills, Milton Freidman, Washington correspondent for the Jewish Telegraphic Agency, said that one of the questions most frequently asked of him during a recent trip to Israel was: "Why doesn't President Eisenhower stop McCarthy?" (Reported in the B'nai B'rith Messenger, Feb. 26, 1954.) Obviously the opposition to McCarthy by the Jewish people is not confined within American borders.

The Jewish Examiner, April 9, 1954. "BRAVE RABBI!—Rabbi Joseph S. Shubow of Boston, one of the most distinguished and eloquent spiritual leaders in the country, former associate of Rabbi Wise, has stirred up a hornet's nest among friends of Joe McCarthy, whom he has strenuously and fearlessly opposed for a long time..."

Jewish Life, July 1953. "...the freedom of our country demands an aggressive fight to drive McCarthyism from American life. The security of the Jewish people and the whole American people depends on it."

The Nation, March 6, 1954. "Emperor Joe is an artful bluffer but he has no clothes. His social program is 'anti-Communism' nothing more..."

Washington Post-Times Herald. Eugene Meyer, Editor, and his wife, Agnes, carry on a constant fight against Sen. McCarthy. Mrs. Meyer had this to say: "McCarthy is a political profiteer exploiting our fears for the advancement of his political power. It is his obsession with power and ever more power that leads him to despise human dignity and most of the democratic values that we cherish."

The Anti-Defamation League. Milton Senn, southwest regional director of the A.D.L. told a group of Santa Ana ministers and church representatives that the "nation is living in a period of fear and hysteria induced by 'outrageous' tags and labels, McCarthy-type investigations, inferences to Communistic links and the 'unproven' legislative reports on Communist and Communist-front organization." (Reported in the Register, March 17, 1954.)

Las Vegas Sun. Hank Greenspun, editor, once convicted for smuggling, has been indicted for writing and publishing material tending to "incite the murder or assassination" of Sen. McCarthy. In an article which appeared above his name, Greenspun said in part: "I have never been one to make predictions, but when a thing is inevitable, even I can foresee the future. Sen. Joe McCarthy has to come to a violent end. Huey Long's death will be serene and peaceful compared with the demise of the sadistic bum from Wisconsin...I would hate to see some simpleton get the chair for such a public service as getting rid of McCarthy..."

On the following page is a photographed list of the Jewish publications that smeared and fought Sen. McCarthy.

gave honor to him after death in Washington, and that over forty thousand came to Appleton, Wisconsin for his funeral. At this writing, his office is crowded with mail bags filled with letters from admirers all over the country. We agree with Senator Welker's remark in his tribute: "That fighting Irish Marine would give the shirt off his back to anyone who needs it—except a dirty, lying, stinking Communist. That guy he'd kill."

The Marxists and their dupes considered it of the utmost importance that they destroy Senator McCarthy as an example and to discourage all others with patriotic blood in their veins, who may be thinking of entering the battle against these subversive forces. If correct figures could be arrived at, we would likely learn that several million dollars has been spent to destroy this fighting American.

The National Committee for an Effective Congress was out in the open raising a huge fund to have Senator McCarthy censured by the U.S. Senate.

The President of this hatchet group Joseph Rauh, secretary Maurice Rosenblatt, are both Jews. There is a select list of approximately eight hundred contributors, to The Committee for an Effective Congress seven hundred fifty of which are Jewish. Among the names listed is a very wealthy Jew who is also on the Board of Directors of the American Jewish League Against Communism. (amazing isn't it?)

Much good could be learned from McCarthy's sacrifice for his country. If other leaders expect to survive on the patriotic front of America they must thoroughly understand the enemy and their clever tactics. If we are too cowardly and too naive to learn just who the clever, directing force is behind the destructive elements, who destroy our patriotic leaders, then the life of those leaders will be short.

Organized Zionists have been behind the destruction of many leaders such as Col. Charles Lindbergh, Senator Bert Wheeler, Father Coughlin, James Forrestal, Senator Bilbo, Congressman John Rankin, and finally Senator Joseph R. McCarthy. It was Jewish brains behind the war on General MacArthur and which also disrupted the America First Committee, boring from within.

Such a successful World-Wide Conspiracy must have a directive head composed of Luciferian brains. As we travel over the U.S. we see Pennsylvania Railroad Stations—railroad cars, engines and tracks—thousands of employees but you do not see the directive heads, the brains that are responsible for the successful operation of this wide spread railroad enterprise; but we know that a directive force exists—otherwise the Pennsylvania Railroad would cease to operate. Just so with the Standard Oil Co., and other large organizations. All must have intelligent direction.

Just so, this world wide Marxist conspiracy which has broken down governments all over the world, is directed by most cunning strategy. At the bottom this is motivated by an intense hatred of Christ. This hatred has been nursed and cultivated since the Crucifixion by the Pharisees who now call themselves Jews and teach that each Jew will have 2800 non-Jewish slaves, and that they will completely rule the world when their Messiah comes.

Zionist publications and organizations support World Government. The whole world subversive movement springs from the Talmud which is the most hate-filled, anti-Christian writing. The Talmud formerly consisted of 62 books; now it has 36 larger books, one of which is the index.

Twenty-four years of the Marxist conspiracy teaches me that each and every front line opponent of their subversive movement can expect Jews to move in close to "assist" them in the fight, and eventually the patriot will be entangled, confused, misunderstood, trapped, worn down and broken in health and spirit.

Surely open foes like Herbert Lehman or Felix Frankfurter will not be the men, but men who are most likely to be accepted by the anti-Communists. They get close to the opposition and guide them away from the real target. They keep their mind on the effect of Communism and not the cause.

At Chicago, in 1952, when the hour had arrived for Senator Taft to withdraw as the Presidential candidate just as General MacArthur had understood, five men were in the room with Taft for the decision. Two Jews demanded Taft not withdraw—Rabbi Hillel Silver, also Taft's secretary, Isaac Jack Martin, who is now Eisenhower's administrative assistant and who represented the White House at Senator McCarthy's funeral. The Zionists knew if General MacArthur was presented before the Convention he would be nominated and elected President. They were willing to spend millions to prevent this!

The so-called "good Jews" at the least, put the brakes on all anti-subversive activity by bringing about a situation where anti-Communists spend their energy trying to screen them. Patriots learn 90% of the important Reds are Jewish. However, they must ignore the fact for fear they will be branded as anti-Semites. They dare not call a spade a spade—or a Communist a Jew.

In August 1951, the American Legion called a meeting at the Astor Hotel in N.Y., at which 59 organizations participated. The Anti-Defamation League openly prevented the patriotic organization National Economic Council, Merwin Hart, President, from participating. Thirteen of the 59 organizations were selected to direct a crusade against Communism. The National Commander of the American Legion, George N. Craig, stated that the aims of the conference is "to awaken the American people to the menace of Communism, both at home and abroad, and to educate them in measures to counteract such influence." He continued: "We shall reach Main Street, U.S.A., with state and local conference groups, composed of responsible state and local leaders of the participating organization, and point out what Communism means and what Communists are doing throughout America. This will be done by newspaper, radio and other advertising, the furnishing of speakers for community groups, the distribution of pamphlets, booklets, and posters through schools and private organizations and by other means."

What has happened to these plans made in 1951? Answer: The Anti-Defamation League was one of the 13 organizations to direct this fight against Communism.

Such is the effect of millions of dollars spent every year under the direction of Zionists to promote brotherhood, which is only a smoke-screen for their foul activity.

Just to prevent offending a few Jews, the real cause is ignored and the enemy marks up another victory such as Joseph McCarthy's destruction. How about those who have not been destroyed as yet? Are we to learn from experiences of past casualties?

Those of us who are prepared and determined to expose the Marxist plotters regardless of how they squirm and protest must first resign ourselves to smear, unfair attack, persecution. We need to draw a line and fight our enemy with no holds barred, ask no quarter and give none.

This is a brutal war between the forces of Christ and the anti-Christ. If our friends are deceived into cooperating with the enemy then we must not be defeated by wasting our time and holding our fire until we analyze and screen each one to see if they mean well or do not know what they are doing. Just as the Marines fire on the enemy regardless, so we must do if we are to survive. The enemy is ruthless. Shall we allow ourselves to be lulled to sleep by the phoney brotherly love campaigns directed by these clever forces?

Picture of Senator Joseph McCarthy and his charming wife, Jean, suitable for framing as shown on front page, will be sent free for the asking.

Drew Pearson

HOW LOW CAN YOU GET?

Sixty years ago at Waco, Texas, lived Brann, the Iconoclast. His little magazine had the largest circulation of any publication in the world. Rulers of many countries subscribed. He had the most wonderful writing vocabulary of any writer in the U.S. Only he could do justice in commenting on Drew Pearson's column of May 7th; only he could avoid libel or offending the sensitive in describing this decrepit fourflusher. We admit we are not capable of depicting the low level Drew Pearson has gone in pouring out hate against Senator McCarthy. Such a clever job could only be directed by the intellect of Lucifer. As I read it, I visualize something with horns and a long tail—can almost smell the sulphur. How low can a human sink?

Many times publicly branded as a black malicious liar by Westbrook Pegler—that's Drew Pearson!

What a yellow-livered coward Pearson is. When McCarthy had Pearson's arms pinned to his side looking him in the face at the Sulgrave Club, Pearson was like a whipped dog. Now that McCarthy has been driven to his grave by hatchet men like Pearson, it is safe to attack him. This extreme example of hate by a spokesman for the Anti-Defamation League, which spends millions trying to brand Christian movements as hate groups, stamps them as hypocrites and skunks.

A number of patriots have told us they will ask papers carrying Pearson's column to drop it.

Will U.S. Fall "Like A Ripe Plum" As Lenin Predicted?

A speech delivered by former Governor J. Bracken Lee of Utah, on April 20, 1957, before the convention of the Congress of Freedom in Biloxi, Mississippi.

I am sure you people are thoroughly sold on what you are doing and for me to repeat a lot of things you already know would be out of order. I have another purpose here today. As you know, I am the new Director of "For America" and it becomes my duty as I travel over the various States and talk to groups to sell them on the idea of what we are trying to do.

We have no intention of interfering with any other patriotic organization. You can be assured so long as I am the director you have the wholehearted support of our organization in your efforts. We do not intend to attempt to take members away from you but to get members for you because we realize that everyone of these organizations are highly important to the Cause and I am not one who feels we must come under one head to accomplish results. In fact, hasn't the very success of the Communist Party been founded on the theory of having many organizations? Think of all the Communist-fronts. I wish we had an American in every organization. That's what I want—and so long as we are working for the same end and same goal, we are going to bless everyone of you and offer our assistance and our help.

Now, I am going to give you some of my thinking acquired in my service in public office.

I recently read a book I think everyone should read, and that is "The Big Give Away" by Eugene Castle—and you should read it because it is a marvelous book. There are some staggering figures in it in regard to the world give-away program.

I am not promoting this book for Eugene Castle; I am promoting it for the information it contains. One thing he points out that rather staggered me is the fact that since the beginning of our government up until 1950, a period of 158 years, the Federal Government has collected in taxes from its people the tremendous sum of 406 billions of dollars;—that is from the beginning up to 1950. Four hundred and six billions of dollars!

During that period of time we fought 6 major wars: the 2 World Wars, the Spanish American War, the Civil War, the War of 1812, the Mexican War, mostly paid for out of the taxation. We had run up some debt, of course, but now compare these 6 major wars with 158 years of government. Then take the year of 1950 up to and including the year of 1956, a period of 7 years, in which we fought and did not win the Korean War. Your Federal government has taken from the American people 433 billions of dollars in 7 years. Now, to me that is a tremendous amount of money and I suppose it doesn't mean very much unless you realize what has happened with this tremendous increase in funds that go to the Federal Government. I am sure you know that with money goes power, and in placing more money in the hands of your political leaders, you just place more and more power in their hands. That is what frightens me!

J. Bracken Lee, former Governor of Utah

Having had some experience in State government, I know how it operates and know if any individual elected to Congress or to a State Legislature would like a wonderful batting average as a voting record, the best thing he can do is to vote "no" on every piece of legislation and he would be at least 90% right. I say that because everyone of these groups have exactly the same approach. Every one of them. There is selfishness behind it to begin with. They want some special favors for themselves.

They come along with the argument that if you simply pass this piece of legislation or that it is going to be a wonderful thing for the people. Mind you, we do these things for the people as a whole and they have every argument why it will eventually pay for itself. You heard the argument on your highway program: the better roads that are built, the more money you will save on gas and oil, tires and repairs on your car, therefore that saving pays for the highway. We must agree there are some good arguments to everything. Which reminds me of the individual who was attempting to sell a deep freezer to a housewife. She said we can't afford it, and he said you can't afford to be without it. He said you could buy your food wholesale; you could put it in this freezer and in no time at all the money you saved on the wholesale price will pay for the freezer. So she scratched her head and said, "You know we are saving now on our washing to pay on a dryer and washer; we are saving on our travel bus fare to pay for our automobile; we are saving on our rent to pay on our home" and she said, "you know, I don't think we can afford to save any more."

This illustrates what has happened in this country. We are passing legislation for the benefit of a small minority and to the detriment of the great majority, and when we talk about minorities, we are all minorities. Actually there are people who argue that we should have majority rule. There is actually no such thing as majority rule. It is always minority rule. There is no such thing as a majority, and our country, of course, was founded on the theory not of majority rule, but the protection of minority.

I am just working for Bracken Lee and the future of his family. I wouldn't be here if I were not thinking of my future welfare and the welfare of my children so I am not like most politicians who will appeal to you from the standpoint that I am going to do something wonderful for you. It's Bracken Lee I am interested in, but I have to help everyone so as to help Bracken Lee and the future of his children.

It is impossible for any man or woman to have freedom and deprive others of that freedom. I must fight for your freedom in order to preserve my own. But what are we doing in this country? Each little group is nibbling away at the freedom of others and we have had a minority rule, and we have had most groups well organized and they are doing a pretty good job of getting what they want. All have been organized but the great important people, the real backbone of our nation, the people who are earning an honest living in trying to carry their fair share of the burden. That includes people in all walks of life and that is actually a majority of the people. Some people think we are never going to be able to do this until we get a majority. Just give me a good strong minority and I will show you what we can do in this country.

I used to think the solution to our problems was the election of another party, the election of another individual, somebody who believed as I do. But you know I have been disappointed so many times in my life in placing my trust in men who seek public office that I no longer think you will ever elect a sufficient number of men to do the job we think should be done. We are running into the question of human nature again, and after all, we are all human beings, we all have the human weaknesses. The President of the United States is not a perfect man. He has many weaknesses of his own and so do these other people, so let's get it out of our head that we are going to elect any perfect man to public office. It is impossible. I will prove it to you.

Your Government itself doesn't trust any of us. Not one of us. Your government says that people cannot be trusted with power. They regulate your banks; they regulate this hotel; they regulate those who furnish meals; they regulate every walk of life; and the theory upon which they base this fact is that we cannot trust these people with too much power.

We don't say everybody is dishonest. We just simply say enough of them that you don't trust them. We regulate banks on the theory that if we don't some banker is going to exploit the public. So everything is done to protect the public from being exploited. And yet, as we move along with this trend of the government saying that we cannot trust our citizens, the government is saying to us, but you can trust the politicians. Take this restriction away from us. What restriction? THIS CONSTITUTION! This is the only thing in the world that keeps the man in public office from going too far with his power. That is why I want this Constitution returned. I want every man in public office to be regulated, the same as the government regulates everybody else to keep from being exploited by those in public office as you are being exploited today.

WILL U.S. FALL?

I have worked to elect men to public office who have made certain pledges to me and I have found through some reason or other, they get to thinking about this from a different standpoint and the end result is that they haven't lived up to the things I thought they believed in.

The other day I read in the paper that Edgar Eisenhower criticized his brother, the President, and I agreed with every word of the criticism. I think he was right, but don't you know I can get back into the speeches that were made by Mr. Eisenhower and show you the same line of thinking before he became President, and even after that. I thought when I first heard that we elected the wrong Eisenhower, but you know, if you put Edgar in there he, undoubtedly, would do the same thing as his brother, when he gets on the other side of the fence. You see, power is a terrible thing in the other fellows hands, but never in ours. Did you ever think of that? If we just had the power.

So I say don't put your trust in any man when it comes to power. You are asking too much of human nature. Mr. Eisenhower and Mr. Dulles both said this treaty-making power of the Executive Branch was a terrible thing in the hands of Mr. Truman, but when they got it, they thought it was wonderful didn't they? See the human weakness?

Sure, you'll find an occasional city and an occasional state administration who will lean toward the thing we believe in, but money is power and the minute you let the Federal government put its hands in the pockets of the people, you lost state's rights, as the people in the South know, and you'll never get it back until you return to this Constitution, and you'll never return to this Constitution until you take the money away from the Federal Government. There is no other way to stop them. And I have people say to me: "Why that would create chaos if you take 33 billions of dollars out of the hands of the people in Washington." Well, what are you going to have unless you do do it?

People say we must do this; we must work out a program. We are going to do this a little at a time, but as far as I'm concerned when your doing evil you cut it out. You don't stop smoking cigarettes a little at a time; you don't stop drinking by tapering, or you don't stop dope by tapering off. You don't stop anything that is evil by tapering off. And I am interested in a major operation to put a stop to this evil thing.

We run into all kinds of excuses when you start doing something you believe in, and I might tell you right now I'm not interested in anybody's excuse as to why it can't be done. I'm through listening to these people. They say to me, "How are you going to pay this tremendous debt?" And believe me it is tremendous! But let me ask you, how are they paying it now? You'll never pay it until you return morality to government. You have a better chance of paying that debt when you take this immoral income tax and this money away from them than if you let them continue to spend it. I'm told you're going to throw hundreds of thousands of Federal employees out of work. You have a Federal payroll of a billion dollars a month; twelve billion dollars a year, and it's growing every day. Certainly you will throw a lot of them out of work, and I sympathize with them. I don't want men thrown out of work. But I tell you right now, they have been treated pretty nicely. They have been getting a big pay check; they have been traveling all over the world at our expense, many of them living in luxury they never knew before, including many Senators and Congressmen.

Personally, I don't want them to starve, so I suggest we put them on relief—it's a lot cheaper. Sixty-five dollars or maybe one hundred dollars a month for relief as against the minimum of $6500 a year plus a lot of expenses—you could save a lot of money.

The opposition tries to get you off the track. But I refuse to get off the track. I say to these people, "I am very sympathetic to your program, and hope after we take this money away by some miracle they may be able to help you, but as far as I am concerned, I value my freedom first, and the only way I can retain or get it back is to get rid of that tax and take the power from these people." I sympathize very much with all of these programs and agree with them. Take your various groups here, you have constitutional amendments, you want to return to States Rights; you want to get the government out of big business. You have all of these and others, and I am for every one of them.—But I contend when you take the money away from Washington that you are automatically going to stop most of this because if they haven't the money to squander and create the bureaus to interfere with you, you are automatically going to correct most of it. You're going to get it back to where, instead of the Federal government extending Federal aid to the State, you are going to have the States extending State Aid to the Federal Government—where it belongs. That's the reason I do not worry at all when somebody says; "what about this big war budget we have—we have this fear of the Soviet Union, we must keep a strong Army, Navy, and Air Force" because I know no American is going to deprive our Federal Government of those things necessary for our defense, even if the States have to take over and help them with it. I am sure they will do it, because we all love this country and we are not going to let any nation come over and take it away from us.

I have always taken the attitude if you are going to elevate people, you must appeal to them from the standpoint of the things that are good because there is good in everybody. I contend if you appeal to them with the things that are good, eventually you elevate all your people, because you will appeal to them to lift themselves up not from the standpoint of greed. So it's my thinking and my appeal has always been on the basis that this is the best thing for us. To return morality to the Government is the thing to do, not to talk about buying your support or buying your vote, but to get you thinking about something better. I ran for office and I asked for votes—appealed to the good people. But you know the New Deal has been successful by reversing that, by going out and appealing to the weaknesses—something in your pocket.

I have now salved my conscience so that I can make the selfish appeal and still accomplish a morale angle, and that is by appealing to the standpoint that you are going to get a raise in pay, the biggest raise you have ever had in your life if you will support my theory of the elimination of the 16th Amendment. So you see I am using the very thing that has been used to destroy.

Now if you think for one minute I am going to waste my time going to Washington and trying to convert a bureaucrat to giving up his job, you are foolish, because I won't do it; and I wouldn't waste five minutes of my time trying to talk to a big banker to give up this thing because he is making something out of it.—Foreign Aid and all the rest. Nor would I waste my time talking to a group of labor leaders, who are getting something out of this and like it. I wouldn't waste my time talking to big business, because big business is getting something out of it. Big Government, big business, big bankers and big labor, but there are a lot of good Americans who are not getting anything out of this but the privilege of paying the bill! The backbone of your nation that you can appeal to, and you can accomplish something with it. It is my honest opinion that if you forget trying to boost somebody for public office, and let me tell you I am no candidate for public office, I think I can do far more by never being a candidate for public office because I want the people behind this thing. I don't want them behind me, I want them behind a principle. That's why I talk the way I do.

Don't let people tell you it can't be done. Let me tell you something about this theory that a thing can't be done. You will hear all kinds of arguments as to why it can't be done, but do you realize that all the things worth while in life have been done by a handful of people! Do you know you would never have discovered America if it hadn't been for a few people who had the theory and the thought? If you had waited for the masses of people in Europe to decide there was an America on the other side of the earth here and you could travel across by boat and find it, they would have said you were crazy. If we had waited for the great majority of people to say that man could fly in a plane, you would never have flown. If you wait for the majority of people to say this can be done, it will never be done. But I am telling you it can be done! Do you know that power lies in the hands of the people?

If you want to throw fear into a Dictator, just get the people to rumbling a little bit and watch the smoke fly. You just don't realize the power that is in your hands and the hands of the many Americans, if we will just fight for it.

I recently returned from Washington and talked to a number of Senators and Congressmen, and Senator Bridges told me "you know I have been here a long time but never in my life have I seen the flood of mail that is coming into the Senate and the House today, and the White House. They are not petitions and not stereo-type letters" he said, "they are letters from people in all walks of life. Not letters who are threatening to defeat them at the next election, but just sensible letters from the heart, wanting to know when the leaders in this country are going to consider the welfare of the American people for a change." Oh! how effective that is. If you can just pass that word out;—write this letter from the heart.

Somebody started the idea, after he paid his income tax, wrapping up an old dirty shirt and mailing it back. YOU GOT MY MONEY, NOW HERE'S MY SHIRT. Very effective, and I will tell you why it is effective. Any person who will take the trouble to wrap up a package and pay the postage on it, that Congressman knows that you are mad about it, and don't forget that these fellows are politicians. Don't you know the reason why they have been doing what they do? Because they are surrounded with these organized pressure groups. The only pressure they get is from the spenders and none from the people who don't have the time because they are working too hard to make ends meet.

I contend we have to do something and we have to put our hearts into it and we have to put some money into it. There is no use kidding yourself. You have got to put your heart in it and some money.

Now let's suppose as we move along, we find we are not very effective in putting this over. If you keep all these groups in contact with one another, there could come a time, maybe prior to next March 15th, when we could do as Mary Cain has done. We could contact all of these different groups by mail, we could have them contact their members and say "how many of you people will pledge to fill out that Income Tax Return on the basis that you won't fill it out because it might incriminate you under the Fifth Amendment." Why if you could get thousands of people doing that, and we figure out how many agents they can afford to go after us, we will lick this thing one way or another. No one can contest you honestly in what you are fighting for. I defy anyone to get up and debate these issues with me, anywhere, anytime. That is the way I feel about it.

And you know, like somebody who spoke here before, I am not afraid of the Soviet Union at all. Not a bit afraid of them. I have no fear of the "atomic bomb." You can't kill me any quicker with that bomb than you can with a brick over the head. We don't, in my opinion, have any more to fear today, or near as much to fear, as our forefathers did, not near as much. We are much safer, but our government has been operating on fear to keep us afraid so we will keep letting them take our money and thus have more power over us to decide how we should live our lives.

I am always amused when somebody tells me they are interested in my teeth, so they are going to put flourine in the water to take care of my teeth. Why do you know if you took those do-gooders off the public payroll, they wouldn't waste five minutes worrying about your teeth? You've got this great big Board of Health and it is spread all over our States and they're so interested in our health, but do you know, honestly, if I have to be a slave, I would rather be sick than well.

You know, I am just a little bit weary of all this New Deal Fair Deal, Modern Republicanism, and this Marshall Plan, the Dulles Program and Ike's Doctrine. You know what I would like to have for a change is some American Plans and American Doctrine. That is all I am interested in.

Some fellow said, "Death and Taxes are inevitable, but thank God, death doesn't get worse every time Congress meets."

Will The U.S End Foreign Aid?

THE COMPLETE AND ASTOUNDING STORY OF HOW WE ARE WASTING BILLIONS OF DOLLARS IN FOREIGN AID.

A startling book is being made available today through the nation's booksellers. The book is THE GREAT GIVEAWAY in which the author, Eugene W. Castle, a private citizen, has made a detailed analysis of the way in which billions of American taxpayers' dollars have been wasted under the guise of mutual security.

The author has written a plain-speaking, fighting expose' of the continued waste and corruption in our government's foreign aid spending. Castle leaves some exalted reputations in near shambles when he gets through with them. He names the people who are responsible, cites specific instances, and supports his charges with full documentation. No such expose' has ever been published before. It will keep many Washington bureaucrats busy answering pointed questions.

Mr. Castle states he has marshalled his facts in this single, crisp volume, so that the average citizen can at least understand the design and the mechanics of this stupendous and mysterious giveaway program. His book will make many people happy and others angry, but all who read it are bound to carry the discussion which it stimulates beyond their own surroundings.

The time has come, says Castle, to start liquidating this nation's foreign aid ventures together with the taxpayer supported bureaucracy that keeps the spending going. He demonstrates with a wealth of material how the foreign giveaway is harming instead of helping our country today, while at the same time contributing to the ever-present danger of growing inflation at home.

Queer Isn't It?

By Scythian

The success of the Communist Revolution in Russia was chiefly due to the activities of a sinister and gifted man, Leon Bronstein Trotsky, who was the organizer and the commander-in-chief of the Red Armies during the most critical period of the Civil War. He repelled Yudenich's Army when it was nearing Leningrad; he suppressed the sailors' rebellion against Communism in Kronstadt; he helped greatly to defeat the White Armies of Denikin and Kolchak. In fact, if Trotsky would not exist, the World Communism, in all probability, would not exist now too. Until his death by assassination in 1940, Trotsky never renounced Communism as such, and was an energetic propagandist of his own brand of it, the so-called "Trotskyism."

The memory of this bloodthirsty Jew whose innocent victims are counted in millions is odious to every true anti-Communist either outside or inside of the Soviet Union.

Madame Trotsky was always a faithful companion and collaborator of her husband, and, so far as it is known, she never denounced Communism or repented the past crimes.

Consequently the American Government invited recently this ancient Communist lady—she is about 75 years old—to live in the U.S. for helping America "to combat Communism!"

If anything more idiotic in the field of the "fight of the Democracies against Communism" is known to our readers, they are kindly invited to share their knowledge with us,—to tell frankly, we don't....

When the combined British-French-Israel attack on Egypt collapsed ignominiously, everybody was under the impression that the Soviet ultimatum did it,—and nothing else. Mr. Dillon, (Lapowski) the U.S. Ambassador to France, confirmed this in his statement published by TIME for that international organization.

Mr. Dulles, however, in his recent speech before Congress, (Apr. 7th, CNA—UP) expressed a different view: it was the force of world opinion which prompted the aggressors to drop like a hot potato the unfinished business within 24 hours after receiving a somewhat roughly-worded message from Bulganin. (see TIME, November 19, 1956, p. 26.)

But, some time later, the full credit for achieving the Middle-East peace was given to the United Nations. Thus the Saturday Evening Post in its editorial of Jan. 5th, 1957, called this retreat a "Great Victory" (Dec. 24, 1956).

In our atomic Age the control of the nucleonic energy is the key to world domination...

Consequently those who, figuratively speaking, sit on top of the atomic pile, are sitting also on the top of the world.

Here is the abbreviated list of the most prominent past and present "A-Sitters":

Einstein,—"Father" of all; Oppenheimer,—"Mother" of A-Bomb; Teller,—"Mother" of H-Bomb; Rickover,—"Mother" of A-Submarine; Schwartz,—"Mother" of 28 cm. A-Shell; Lilienthal-Strauss, Chairman of the Atomic Energy Committee; Rabi, Chairman Comm. of Civil Control of Atomic Energy; Shapiro-Superintendent of the Nucleonic Laboratory; LeMay, Controls the combat usage through air power of the A and H Bombs; Hirshorn,—"U-King," own most of the Uranium mines in Canada; Rosenbergs, A-Spies, who delivered the secret of the first A-Bomb to the USSR; Beria, Former Chairman of the Soviet Atomic Energy Committee.

By a strange coincidence—but, naturally, by coincidence only—all those who are listed above are JEWISH...

Who Preserves And Defends America?

Marilyn R. Allen

President Eisenhower and his Administration are bankrupting Americans to try to BUY PEACE for the World! Actually, WE promote and finance WARS by our meddling, and by furnishing arms and money to nations so they CAN fight, and so the munition-making barons at home can roll in money. Anybody with a grain of sense knows you can't BUY peace: that we will HAVE it when nations and peoples want and deserve it. A bankrupt, debt-ridden, socialistic, UNfree America is NOT contributing to the peace of the world. On the contrary.

Mr. Eisenhower should be impeached for this unlawful, wasteful squandering of the taxpayer's money abroad: he has NO authority for it: the recipients have NO right to it: and NO honest accounting (as called for in ARTICLE I section 9 of the Constitution) is ever rendered to anybody. In addition to these 'Foreign Aid' billions, the USA also wastes fabulous additional millions supporting the many ventures of the Communist-stuffed, stacked and staffed United Nations, which also is boondoggling and do-gooding all over the world. If we HAVE to stick our long proboscis in everybody's business, why not watch what is going on in our own hemisphere—South America and the Caribbean—which is the only place our Monroe Doctrine applies, and where what is going on vitally affects us. Why not be alert to what is going on right under our own noses?

Why not recall that very expensive Sixth Fleet—which keeps our men and money lavishly "protecting" and financing the Mediterranean nations—and let it patrol OUR OWN SHORES and spend its millions here??? And what about our Seventh Fleet which silly old Truman kept bottled up in the Formosan Straits for so long, in order to prevent Chiang Kai Shek from helping our beleaguered men in Korea? It would be a SIN for anybody to help US! Don't forget that the tremendous expense of maintaining our FOREIGN STANDING ARMY, NAVY and AIR FORCE is also a part of that 'Foreign Aid' program! In case of any emergency AT HOME, our finest men and equipment will be thousands of miles from home. It was planned that way! Don't let our home-grown Reds tell you that they are there for the purpose of clobbering the USSR in event the latter attack America—first. America is the PRIME TARGET on their agenda, and once WE have been clobbered, the Dulles-Eisenhower doctrine of 'massive retaliation' aint a-going to do the dead a bit of good!

As a matter of fact, we are going RED so rapidly here at home—while pretending to fight "International Communism" abroad—that WE are apt to wind up in a much worse fix than those we are presuming to defend.

The late Joe McCarthy was a MAN, a fighting Marine, an AMERICAN. He tried to warn our people of their danger, but the pantywaist politicians (such as Utah's Watkins) smeared and slandered him for doing his duty. And now Eisenhower wants to open the skies over America to the Communists! How long would it take THEM to blow up the dams about which Watkins makes such a dither? These men in Washington must be getting senile. (I could use a worse word.) And what protection has been made for OUR people in case of an attack? Absolutely none. As a matter of fact, there isn't any—which is why ALL of our Fighters should be situated in and around America, for HER protection, at the first sign of danger. Of course if our people are quite willing to expend all their men and money for the benefit of FOREIGN nations, and if they still have childlike faith in the politicians who have so often betrayed them, rather than believing those who sacrifice everything to warn and save them, then there is nothing more to be said. Let them take their medicine without whimpering.

I have absolutely no faith in and no use for politicians (who have solemnly sworn to "preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the USA,") but whose overriding ambition and interest is to run the world, and to 'preserve, protect and defend' IT at the total expense of America. Watch what happens to such men in the soon future. God is not mocked, and America is HIS divinely-appointed country. HE intended it to be a free Republic composed of independent individualists—not a herd of leveled-down robots—not a Marxist Welfare State and base of supplies of men and money for the benefit of foreign nations. America's destiny was the exact opposite.

This writer feels much as expressed by Robert Ruark in his column titled, "Wars Just Bore This Boy," under date May 11th 1957. If folks want to fight, let 'em go to it. What business is it of ours? WHO appointed US to insist upon keeping the peace for the world? WE don't have to get into these foreign brawls, except that we let certain men in Washington PUSH us into them. I'm fed up to the gills of reading continually about the internal troubles of foreign nations, and seeing their headlines in our newspapers. There is SO MUCH that needs serious attention in America, but, as the publisher of The American Mercury (for May 1957) aptly says in an article titled, "Citizen of the World," "...His country is the world; any smaller territory is beneath his allegiance...he would give up his home...he would give up his sons to be killed in foreign wars...he would give up his daughters in bond to men of all races and faiths...He would settle new worlds rather than put his own home in order... Having no definitive beliefs or ideals of his own, a citizen of the world cannot be loyal to any beliefs or ideals...A citizen of the world seldom thinks for himself...He has compromised himself into nothingness...He is free as a bird, equally as brainy and equally as responsible...A citizen of the world is one who will stand for anything in general but nothing in particular...In short, a citizen of the world is an ideological fool." Amen, brother!

The doings and involvements of our own government are now so huge, so ubiquitous, so complex that the average citizen actually has not the slightest notion of what it is all about. How CAN the average man in the street, struggling to get along and take care of his family on a few measly thousand 50¢ dollars a year, comprehend a 72 BILLION dollar annual budget? And then on top of that, there are all the complexities of the UN octopus, which has literally hundreds of conventions, committees, commissions, agencies, boards etc. which cover all aspects of human life, with foreigners legislating for us in Paris, Geneva, and all over the earth. Then, in addition, there is NATO, a subsidiary of the UN, and another form of world government—which costs us BILLIONS—plus all the other similar organizations and treaties in which the Eisenhower-Dulles Administration has involved us—not the least being the last, the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine and commitments. Thus has government been effectively taken OUT of the hands of the people (who are supposed to be the masters, not the slaves of their government, under the American CONSTITUTION,) and removed completely out of their sight. It is controlled FROM THE TOP, and the people have little to say about it, regardless of their notes. The men at the top are handpicked (from the inside) as in the USSR, and as far as any "choice" is concerned, it is a matter of twiddle dum and twiddle dee.

Mr Eisenhower has considerable gall to say that Americans should be happy to bear confiscatory taxes as "foreign tribute" for his unrealistic dream of "world peace." WHY SHOULD WE?? but because of the great avalanche of mail FROM THE GRASS ROOTS, to Senators and Congressmen, in opposition to his unconstitutional program, President Ike 'goes to the people' to try to brainwash them into reversing their stand. Lets hope THE PEOPLE have the g-u-t-s to make it stick!

Maybe we Americans should move out, emigrate to some foreign country which we are supporting—so THEY can have low taxes and balance their budgets—and leave this country to the hordes of invading "refugees," and the Organized Minorities who run it. And I would MEAN that, except for the fact that I believe the Higher Powers are going to CLEANSE this beautiful Land of all those who desecrate and despoil it.

"Anti-Semitism"

The Patriot

Our Jewish controlled Press for decades has rained incessantly upon us the idea that "anti-Semitism" is un-Christian. With this we must agree—the most fanatical actual anti-Semites being of course, the Zionist Jews, who are unmercifully persecuting the Semitic Arabs, whom they castigate as "anti-Semitic!"

But the greatest so-called "anti-Semite" of all time was Jesus Christ!

Joseph Dunner, Zionist Jew, in "The Republic of Israel," page 10, (Oct. 1950) stated the following; "To Christians of all denominations Jesus is the symbol of all that is pure, sacred, and lovely. To Jews from the fourth century, Jesus became the symbol of anti-Semitism, of libel, of cruelty, of violent death." The Jewish Pharisees caused Christ to be murdered for his alleged "anti-Semitism," and whom they have reviled in the most foul language ever written, in that masterpiece of fraud, filth, and hate, their Babylonian Talmud, the Book of Law of the Modern Pharisees—the one and only power that can transform an ordinary human into a Jew.

The Religion of Satan

Perhaps we never had called to our attention that Jesus' mission on earth was to replace the hellish religion of the Pharisees with a religion of love, purity, and mercy. The Pharisees, a satanic Jewish sect, originating in that cesspool of sin, Babylon, returned to Palestine and arrogantly proceeded to bully their country cousins into forsaking the Law of Moses—in the name of Democracy and Progress!

Communist Influence In Government And Business

By Merwin K. Hart

From Economic Council Letter No. 407

Merwin K. Hart

Many authorities agree that Communism, although it has largely gone below ground, is more strongly entrenched in the U.S. today than ever before. Many otherwise well informed people do not believe this yet, or have not given enough attention to what's going on in the world even to have an opinion on it. Communism has shown its influence even in recent Supreme Court decisions, though doubtless all the Justices would vehemently deny this.

Communism has thrived partly because of official encouragement. If American foreign policy had been designed to aid Communism it could not, until fairly recently at least, have been better planned than it has been. Communism has unquestionably infiltrated all three branches of our Government.

But at the moment we call attention to the acquiescence of a considerable number of our business leaders and business groups. Nearly every one of them, of course, is opposed to Communism in principle. Yet tremendous numbers have acquiesced in Government policies, or have followed policies in their own businesses, that have furthered the grand design of Moscow to take over the whole world—especially the United States.

In late April, a staff member of one of the largest national businessmen's organizations in the U.S. wrote the following letter to former Ambassador and Assistant Secretary of State Spruille Braden, himself a businessman of broad experience:

"At the request of the U.S. Dept. of State and Commerce, this organization has agreed to act as host to a visiting delegation of nine Yugoslavian industrialists. These visitors are ranking members in their industrial fields.

"Instead of receiving briefing on broad subjects, this group prefers to interchange information on a round-table discussion basis. We understand they will ask specific questions on such matters as U.S. investments abroad, licensing and marketing methods in the United States.

"The session will be from 3:30 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Thursday, May 9th in the Board Room, here at our headquarters. Will you be free on that day to attend and participate in this discussion? No advance preparation is necessary.

"We are planning for an attendance of from five to seven U.S. members—less than their number. Although most of our visitors speak English, it is likely some interpretation will be needed.

"This note is signed in the sincere hope that you personally can attend. If you cannot, could one of your associates attend in your stead? In any case, because time is limited, may we be advised as soon as possible?

"Thank you for considering this.

"Our phone number is -----, etc., etc.,

"Sincerely,

(Signed) -----"

Mr. Braden replied the next day as follows:

"Please accept my thanks for your invitation to join a small group to interchange information with a delegation of nine Yugoslavian industrialists, who are ranking members in their particular fields.

"It distresses me that the U.S. Departments of State and Commerce permit such a delegation to visit this country and ask your organization to act as hosts to them.

"I am profoundly shocked that any business organization should consent to be hosts to a group of Communists who are dedicated not alone to the destruction of our free enterprise-capitalist system, but to that of our nation and our Faith. By receiving, honoring and lending prestige to these 'industrialists'—actually I suppose they are the Commissars of their particular industrial fields—your organization in my opinion, gives an aura of respectability to them and creates an execrable example for the American public and the entire world, at a time when we are engaged in a struggle against Communism for our very existence.

"I would just as soon attend a ceremony to honor Judas Iscariot, Benedict Arnold and Alger Hiss.

"I request that this letter be brought to the attention of your Board of Directors.

"Very truly yours,

(Signed) Spruille Braden."

When this letter was brought to the attention of the high staff officers of this particular businessmen's organization, the planned meeting was promptly called off. But without doubt there are many businessmen's organizations that are so uninformed that they would have walked into such a Communist trap. It should have been expected that the Communists would try to infiltrate any organization of such importance.

But to show that many business organizations as well as local political authorities are willing to fall for a scheme to cooperate with these Communist Commissars, we wish to state that the itinerary of the Yugoslav visitors was planned as follows:

Monday, May 6, 1957

United States Dept. of Commerce, Washington, National Sales Executive Association, Batten, Barton, Durstine and Osborne, Inc., Foreign Trade Zone.

Tuesday, May 7, 1957

Produce Exchange, New York, Luncheon at First National City Bank of N.Y., National Association of Wholesale Grocers.

Wednesday, May 8, 1957

Chase Manhattan Bank, N.Y., Luncheon—Commerce and Industry Association, Macy's Department Store.

Thursday, May 9, 1957

New York Port Authority—All day.

Members of both Houses of Congress returned from a ten-day Easter recess more convinced than ever that a substantial reduction in the budget must be made. One Representative from the West told us he had lunched recently with half a dozen other Congressmen, all of them strikingly outspoken in this attitude.

The budget now seems bound to be cut rather substantially. Probably more people know of more instances of waste or unnecessary spending than ever before in our history. There is a growing chance a tax cut effective Jan. 1, 1958, may result; but this will depend largely on the tax receipts and the general picture of Government finance at the close of the fiscal year, June 30. Earnings of many corporations are down; and since 52% of the earnings of large corporations is grabbed by the Government, there may be substantial falling off in receipts there.

The encouraging thing is that the conviction has grown in both Houses that the spending of recent years has been far too great. As we reported in Letter No. 402, the proposed budget of $71.8 billion is 17% greater than the combined budgets of the 32 next largest spending nations, not including Soviet Russia. This percentage figure is based on United Nations data. How did we ever get into such an absurd position?

While we have been increasing our debt and spending, Canada since 1945 has cut substantially both taxes and debt. Britain has just cut income taxes, partly because the U.S. granted her a loan and allowed her to skip certain interest payments on her

Eulogies To A Great Patriot

By George S. Schuyler
From The Pittsburgh Courier

When death suddenly and tragically removed Senator Joseph R. McCarthy of Wis. from this mortal soil, America lost its greatest son and patriot since the passing of Sen. Robert A. Taft.

I am glad to have known, talked and corresponded with him, for he was a rare personality, a man who had risen by industry and sheer merit from poverty and obscurity to the U.S. Senate, a man who won nation-wide praise and condemnation because he led a two-fisted, uncompromising fight against the Communist conspiracy when no other solon could be found to do so. The hysterical vehemence with which he was traduced by the army of Reds, fellow-travelers, crypto-Communists and their dupes in high places whose collectivist conspiracy he exposed, was a compliment to his patriotic endeavors.

Never in American history has any man dedicated to the protection of the nation from foreign enemies and their domestic dupes been subjected to such a sustained barrage of contumely. Never have so many so shamelessly sought by every low trick in the book to destroy a man whose "crime" was that he wanted the pinks and punks ousted from the State and other Government Departments, wanted to expose the spy cells and their dupes whose policies lost us the World War II victory in Europe and Asia, wanted to spotlight the horde of brainwashed Communist stooges controlling labor unions, newspaper policies, the theatre, the dance, radio and TV (and to an extent still do), and wanted to clear out the dangerous Red agents from sensitive defense departments and installations. The pink and Red-tinted opposition fought him with feverish fear. Why? Because they knew he couldn't be scared nor bought, and was determined to do right despite personal fortune.

Having been in the front ranks of the anti-Communist fight since 1922, and familiar with every twist and turn of the slimy conspiracy to capture and collectivise America, I assert that Joe McCarthy was not wrong on a single person he named. No matter how strong his language was on occasion, it was justified considering the danger. When even Presidents of the U.S.

The late Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy

A fearless patriot who loved America and fought everyone and anyone who would do her harm. He will live in the hearts of all true freedom loving Americans forever.

A few Senators mentioned that they intended to have the U.S. Senate expunge the Censure that was voted against McCarthy. Let's not forget to write and urge your Senator to support this move, NOW!!

George S. Schuyler

are brainwashed and hornswoggled by these conspirators, it is time for strong words and strongest action. What McCarthy exposed was only the surface. Many cells and apparatuses still remain. Let us hope someone with Joe's determination and persistence will expose them despite the generation of brainwashed vipers who traduced him and seek to smoke-screen the truth.

I am forever glad that as a founder and director of the American Committee for Cultural Freedom, I resigned and denounced the group when its growing anti-anti-Communism induced it to collect a subsidy from mysterious and unrevealed sources to publish a smear book, "McCarthy and the Communists." Joe McCarthy will live long after his traducers are gone.

By Merwin K. Hart
President National Economic Council

Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy, who died May 2, 1957, made a deeper and more lasting mark in American history than any other American statesman of his time. He had the vision to see what Communism had done and plans to do to his country. Beyond this, he had the courage and ability to get his story across to the American people. He had the courage, too, to stand with the few—to stand alone, if necessary, in the fight to preserve his country's freedom.

The Senator wholly lacked that quality, too common in American public life, that makes men willing to tag along with the crowd—unwilling to stand and fight unswervingly for principle.

Many men and women hated him. But many more honored, respected, and loved him. In its efforts to destroy McCarthy, the Administration of his own Party was willing to throw away the control of both Houses of Congress in 1954 and again in 1956. This conspiracy to destroy McCarthy was Communist-inspired, however little some of those who took part realized this truth.

In contrast with the dedication and patriotism of McCarthy, the term "modern Republicanism" sounds flabby indeed, and suggests the kind of weakness that, if not eliminated, will destroy both the Republican Party and America herself.

McCarthy, like all the rest of us, had his faults and shortcomings. But in the presence of the continued infiltration of Communism, this country is going to be saved only by the leadership of men of the courage and fighting spirit of Joe McCarthy.

Read and pass on!

TO ALL FREEDOM-LOVING AMERICANS

May 2nd, 1957, should bring sadness to every Freedom-Loving American, for on that date America lost Senator Joseph R. McCarthy, one of our greatest fighting sons. Senator McCarthy brought evil (Communism) to the attention of the citizens of the United States of America more than any other one American. He was killed by the anti-Christ movement in the world, particularly here in these United States of America. But he was not destroyed. His great Patriotism and Americanism will live on forever.

I know of nothing more fitting than to set up a Living Memorial to him. This has been started by Fulton Lewis, Jr., 1627 K Street, N.W., Washington, D. C. This Living Memorial Fund is known as The Joe McCarthy Memorial Fund and is for the support of Mrs. Joseph R. (Jean) McCarthy and her daughter, Tierney.

I, therefore, urge and recommend that every American who signed one of our anti-censure petitions for the Ten Million American drive send at least one dollar to Fulton Lewis, Jr. at the above given address.

McCarthyism Is Americanism!

Jewish Pressure-Politics Exposed!

By Robert Lee Gibbons

For many years conservative, nationalist Gentiles have recognized that Jews are overwhelmingly "liberal" or Marxist on domestic political issues, and internationalist in foreign affairs, and that they constitute a voting bloc which will support political candidates espousing such causes. We now have corroboration of this deduction, and from the proverbial "horse's mouth."

This confirmation is afforded by a book entitled "The Political Behavior of American Jews," by Lawrence H. Fuchs (Jew), Assistant Professor of Political Science at Brandeis University. It is published by The Free Press, of Glencoe, Illinois, the editor of which is one Jeremiah Kaplan. Hence the book could scarcely be considered anti-Semitic in derivation, and this fact renders more significant the statement by the author in the book's preface that "both the anti-Semite and the philo-Semite will find material here which they can put to their own uses."

Although emphasis is placed on the political behavior of American Jews in recent years, Fuchs describes their political sentiments and reactions from the founding of the Republic. For instance, he stated that they supported Thomas Jefferson "almost as one man." "There is no record of a single prominent Jewish opponent of the lanky, red-headed philosopher-politician," he proclaims. In citing reasons for this support Fuchs asks "Had not Jefferson written to a Savannah rabbi that diversity in religion was the best thing for the country?" (p. 26)

Another fair-haired boy to American Jewry was Martin Van Buren. Van Buren's claim to the favor of the Jews was derived from the following incident, on page 30:

"When the charge of ritual murder was brought against the Jews of Damascus by the local Franciscan Order, at the instigation of the French Consul, Van Buren acted swiftly to succor the Jews involved. As soon as the American Consul at Alexandria communicated news of the attacks being made on the Jews in Damascus, Van Buren sent letters of instructions to the American Consul there and the charge d'affaires in Constantinople to use their good offices to protect the Jews, many of whom had been imprisoned, tortured and murdered."

The diligent student of Jewry will note in passing that Fuchs does not deny the above charge of ritual murder, but attempts to place the French Consul in a bad light for his "instigation."

More recent beneficiaries of Jewish support at the polls were Theodore Roosevelt and Woodrow Wilson. Among the supporters of both men was the international banker Jacob Schiff, who gave financial assistance in 1917 to Messrs. Lenin and Trotsky as well.

Franklin D. Roosevelt eclipsed all other figures in American history in the affections of Jewry. Fuchs reports that the results of national surveys conducted by the American Institute of Public Opinion and the National Opinion Research Center at the University of Denver, show that "more than ninety out of every one hundred Jews in the nation voted for Roosevelt in 1940-44." Such findings must be embarrassing for the apologetes for Jewry who claim that there is no such thing as "the Jewish vote" and block voting by Jews. (p. 73)

In explaining this singular devotion to a man whose policies and acts were so tragic for America (or, at least, the Gentile majority thereof), Fuchs states:

"The two broad political triumphs which history will associate with the name of Franklin Roosevelt were: first, leading the American nation into European and international affairs on behalf of the Allies against the fascists and Nazis in World War II; and second, persuading the nation to accept the proposition that the national government is responsible for the welfare of all its citizens. In our time the first has gone under the name of internationalism and the second under the name of liberalism. In both political adventures Roosevelt had the solid support of American Jewry." (p. 100)

The above quotation amply confirms the suspicions of all Jew-wise nationalists and conservatives.

Fuchs proceeds to point out, however, that recent studies show that Jewish support for internationalism continued after the defeat of Hitler. "Survey results in recent years reveal that Jews have been first among the supporters for the U.N., World Government plans, Point Four, more liberal immigration policies, and aid to Europe." (p. 101)

The author makes some amazingly candid statements concerning Jewish sentiments in the 1948 campaign, as follows:

"Did Jews perceive that their group interest in internationalism would best be served by the election of Truman or Henry Wallace? Presumably the answer is yes. Otherwise, how could the extraordinary defection to Henry Wallace be accounted for?... Wallace based much of his campaign on the failure of Truman to carry on the internationalism of Roosevelt (negotiation with Russia) while the Republicans, if they debated foreign policy at all, chided Truman for being too internationalist." (p. 102)

Thus it seems that Jews, who protest publicly that they vote as Americans and not as Jews, have a "group interest in internationalism." While most other Americans, in 1948, were appalled and disgusted at the wartime negotiation and sellouts by Roosevelt to the Communists, the Jews were so disappointed at the cessation of such negotiation that they engaged in an "extraordinary defection" to the banner of Bubblehead Wallace of guru letter fame. Could this account for the Red complexion of Bubblehead's campaign?

Also with reference to Jewish preoccupation with internationalism, this book reveals that national surveys of the Elmo Roper organization showed that Jews were one of the few groups not critical of our Korean policy, and which favored negotiation there, and that they favored the European aid program more enthusiastically than Gentiles did. "American Jews," Fuchs states, "continued to associate their own group interest in internationalism with the fortunes of the Democratic Party in Presidential elections." (p. 103)

We leave to the individual Christian American to decide whether the above policies favored by the Jews, because of their "group interest in internationalism," have served the Republic well. On the basis of the results the answer should be self-evident.

Turning to domestic issues, Fuchs proudly proclaims the Jews were foremost in support for social security, unemployment insurance, favorable labor legislation, and progressive (Marxist) taxation. (p. 103)

Most white Gentiles, as well as a growing number of Negroes, in the South realize that the Jews are behind the drive for "civil rights" and mongrelization of the "goyim" races. In this area also Fuchs leaves the proverbial cat out of the bag. He reports that Samuel Lubell discovered there was no group in 1948 stronger for FEPC measures than the Jews, and reveals that in 1952 the results of surveys on the Negro rights issue showed Jews "were zealous in the quest for legislation protecting those rights and that the Wallace movement in 1948 received its strongest support from Jews in Atlanta. Of particular relevance to the present fight on integration in Virginia is the revelation by Fuchs that according to a mail survey of Jewish adults in Roanoke, more than 7 out of every 10 Jews in that city favored the 1954 Supreme Court decision on desegregation." (p. 108) Those leaders of White Citizens' Councils who accept the membership and money of Jews should read this book.

On other civil rights issues, such as "Communism in Government," according to 1952 surveys, the Jews "were at variance with every other segment of the population." The following quotation from page 109 speaks for itself:

"More than any other group, they were shocked at the behavior of Sen. McCarthy. Only the Jews thought that McCarthy handled the issue of Communists in government more poorly than the State Dept., President Truman, and the rest of Congress combined. Every Roper and Gallup public opinion poll has shown the Jews to be overwhelmingly hostile to McCarthy, although a majority of Christians viewed him with favor at the height of his power. The reaction of the Jews to the charges of Senators McCarthy and Jenner that the Democratic Administration had been honeycombed with Communists was distinctly negative."

The author admits there was one party, "an international party already known to many Jews before they came to America, which militantly advanced programs of interest to a great many Hebrews, the Socialist Party." (p. 124) Among such programs were international brotherhood and the welfare state. The Socialist strongholds were the Jewish ghettos, he asserts.

In his last chapter Fuchs rushes in where even Sigmund Freud would have feared to tread. He attempts to subject the Jewish electorate to a depth analysis to determine the sources of their internationalism and liberalism. He gives the following quotation from a book by J.O. Hertzler, "The Sociology of Anti-Semitism throughout History":

"Every influence and contact and experience has made him a universalist and internationalist...he has participated out of proportion to his numbers in movements for international justice, understanding, and humanitarianism, and has been receptive to social philosophies with a world view such as socialism, Communism, and a world state." (p. 171)

Here we see the double standard in operation. If a Christian had written that Jews are receptive to Communism, the Anti-Defamation League would smear him unmercifully.

Fuchs draws upon the Judaized jargon of psychiatry in explaining their internationalism. They are "insecure" because of anti-Semitic persecutions, and are anxious that the United States, "a country whose beneficence towards Jews in international affairs has been well demonstrated, play a strong role in international politics." (p. 172)

We are told that the Jewish fetish for "learning," at least, in part, assured their positive response to the Roosevelt "brain trust," (p. 189) and that their love for worldly pleasures directly influenced their position for birth control. (p. 190)

In comparing Jewish beliefs with those of Christians, Fuchs makes the startling admission that "American Jews, not Christians, have served these causes (of Communism and utopian ideas of world government) far out of proportion to their numbers." (p. 192) Any Christian who made this assertion, of course, would be a "despicable, base, undemocratic, un-American, anti-Semitic fascist." He also states the well-known fact that "the Jewish religion and culture are centered on the here and now, as the Christian religions and cultures are not." (p. 200) It is this fact, together with the "unusual cohesiveness and solidarity of the Jewish group," which explains what the author has shown in this book: that "an unusual number of Jews do derive their political attitudes and opinions from being Jewish." (p. 200)

Don't hold your breath waiting for the Anti-Defamation League to attack Fuchs for these disclosures. He was the recipient of a grant from the Sigmund Livingston Fund of the Anti-Defamation League to conclude his Boston survey, and he thanks Sol Kolak, the Director of the Boston office of the League, for his interest. Despite these facts, however, we recommend this book to all nationalists.

Communist Influence

debts to us. Other countries have cut their income tax because of moneys received from the United States.

We have been financing reduction of debt and taxes for many other countries by reaching into the pockets of American citizens and extracting additional amounts for the purpose.

How crazy can we get? And yet the Administration had the unmitigated nerve, early in the year, to tell the people that the President's budget could not be cut, and also that the people do not "understand!"

Instances of utter waste, including absolutely needless spending, could be produced in abundance. A Massachusetts school teacher gave two instances in her letter to her Senator, which we printed in Letter No. 406. Another case—a mass meeting of many hundreds—was recently held in Manhasset, N.Y., where it was proposed to spend $10 million to construct a by-pass to an important highway. Only two persons, both state officials, spoke in favor of it. Many spoke against the scheme. The cost would have been equally divided between N.Y. State and the Federal Government. One State official let the cat out of the bag when he said, as an argument in favor of the project: "If they don't spend it here, they'll spend it elsewhere!" There are communities like Manhasset in every section of the United States where useless, or at least postponable projects have been urged, and in many cases undertaken. So opposition to the fantastic Federal budget will save money for States as well as for the United States.

One of the biggest boondoggles of modern times is the United States Information Agency (USIA), whose job is asserted to be to "tell the American story" to foreigners. John O'Donnell, the columnist, stated recently, "The activities of the USIA have made America a laughing-stock in a field where the U.S. leads the world—news gathering, advertising and publicity." One item of the proposed $140 million for which this agency asked is $11,400,000 a year for world-wide press service. Since Associated Press, United Press and International News Service have world-wide connections and have long done a competent job (although at times some of their stories have been slanted), to lay such an expenditure on the backs of American taxpayers would be a joke, if it were not so serious.

Of the $140 million USIA asked, $56,400 is for subscriptions to The New York Times and New York Herald Tribune for Members of the British Cabinet, the House of Commons, the House of Lords and "British Newspaper editors and opinion makers." Both of these N.Y. papers are extremely internationalist and one-world minded, and frequently place the interest of other countries, especially Britain, on an equal plane with or even ahead of those of the U.S.

Then out of the taxpayers' pocket will also come the cost of 200 jets which the President appears to have decided to send to Communist Yugoslavia, as well as $125 million in aid—which we understand also has been decided upon—to Communist Poland. The idea in both cases seems to be that if we sweeten up the kitty to the extent indicated, we will somehow buy continued "friendship" from those countries. And to do these and a thousand other things that could be listed, the Federal Government takes 20 to 91 percent of the incomes of all American citizens, after having taken 52% of the income of all large corporations before the individual stockholder is sheared a second time.

These two projects are merely the most recent instances of America's shoring up (with your tax dollars) sagging Communist governments, when to withhold this support might assure their fall.

This eagerness of the Administration to send our money, or things our money can buy, to Communist countries, is simply a continuation of the soft-on-Communism attitude of both the Roosevelt and Truman Administrations. Apparently the State Dept. hasn't learned a thing. Or could it be that the policy is laid down by Communists or Communist sympathizers within the Dept., or by persons influencing the Dept. from the outside?

At the instigation of Harry Hopkins in 1941, Soviet leaders were persuaded to be good fellows and accept what grew to be $11 billion of Lend-Lease. Much of this was not for war materiel at all, although that was the pretext. Britain was as crazy (or as much Communist-influenced) as we were in sending "aid" to Soviet Russia. It was pointed out in substance by the late Capt. Russell Grenfell, R.N., in his Main Fleet To Singapore, published about 1950, that one reason the British lost Singapore, their greatest base in the world, was that planes necessary to defend it had been sent by Churchill to Soviet Russia.

Then there was also the mysterious order that compelled Gen. Patton and other great American military leaders to fall back a hundred miles from ground they had fought for and won, in order to permit Soviet forces to overrun East Germany and occupy the Balkan States. This enabled Soviet Russia to capture and take to Russia many of the most brilliant German engineers, chemists, etc. And that is why Soviet Russia is so powerful today in various new weapons, about which she would have known little but for the stupidity of the Allied command in graciously permitting Soviet Russia to take whatever she wanted in Eastern Europe.

Then again, Communist infiltration in the State Dept., employed such organizations as the Institute of Pacific Relations (whose leader, Owen Lattimore, after a thorough investigation by a Congressional Committee, was a "conscious, articulate instrument of the Soviet conspiracy"), to mastermind the takeover of China with its 600,000,000 people. That loss of China was perhaps the greatest blow the West has ever taken from the Soviets. Yet our Communist-infiltrated Administration in Washington allowed this course to be followed.

And now in the year 1957 we are yielding to Communist pressure (applied ever so brilliantly and skillfully) in this matter of grants to Communist Poland and jets to Yugoslavia.

Will we never stop this throw-away of our national resources and eventually, of our liberty? By the terms of the so-called Mutual Security Act this matter is wholly in the hands of the President. He doesn't need to consult anyone.

However, as of this writing, both of these proposed steps can be stopped. They can be stopped if enough Americans write or wire their protests to their Senators, and particularly to Sen. William F. Knowland. He is strongly opposed to both measures, and such letters and wires will strengthen his hand.

The growing and just complaint of the American people is that we have too damned much government. That by itself is unquestionably a vital part of the Communist-international socialist plot; for never before has there been anything like such a mighty effort to extend the tentacles of government into every branch of American life.

Many important businessmen have told us, that they "are not in politics." They are wrong. They are in politics up to their neck. They, more than any group in the country, can stem the tide which at flood will submerge their country, themselves and the businesses they are so eager to protect.

So, Fellow-Citizens—unless you enjoyed paying those taxes April 15th, and unless you enjoy submitting to more regimentation from Washington, write again to your Congressman and your two Senators.

What Saps We Are

Dublin's Lord Mayor, Robert Briscoe, arrived at Idlewild Airport March 14, 1957. Shortly after Briscoe was elected Mayor of Dublin by drawing the lucky number from a hat, Eastern newspapers began carrying articles about Briscoe coming to New York to appear at Irish celebrations which were supposedly to take place in a number of large cities. These articles appeared often with the earmarks of professional authorship, giving the impression that here is a Jew who is more Irish than Jewish. He loves Ireland so much he must come over as a good-will ambassador of the Irish people and show the U.S. just what a good Irishman he is.

In all the articles conditioning Christians to welcome this Irish Jew, not one word about the United Jewish Appeal was mentioned. (shrewd of them eh wot?)

On St. Patrick's Day, Briscoe marched at the head of the enormous parade in N.Y. This put him on the front pages and then came the announcement that he was here to make a 6 week tour of the U.S. on behalf of the United Jewish Appeal! Page ads appeared dated Mar. 21st, in many Eastern papers bearing a large picture of Briscoe, with one hundred million dollars as the UJA goal. Just how good an Irishman Briscoe is could be anybody's guess.

The N.Y. Daily News of March 15th, reports a speech to 200 Jewish leaders at a luncheon the previous day, in which Briscoe is quoted:

"There is nothing to wonder about because I speak Yiddish. A Yid is a Yid whatever else he may be." And, he continued "Although I happened to be born in Ireland and spent most of my life in politics, I have always been a Yid and I am still a Yid, and I have never forgotten."

So there we have it—Briscoe is a Khazar who speaks Yiddish and just happened to be born in Ireland. There are plenty more who just happened to be born in the U.S.!

In an interview on March 15th, in N.Y., he stated:

"I had always believed the Jews would never have a national home in Palestine, until they showed the world they were ready to spill their blood to get it."

He failed to mention that the Zionist Jews also spilled much Arab Christian blood and murdered innocent women and children plus driving them from their homes into the Sinai Desert, where they barely exist on 7¢ a day from the U.N.

Briscoe boasts of being a Zionist and of going to Poland and training young Jews with guns to move on Palestine and kill Arabs who had been driven from the homes where they had lived without interruption for over 1700 years.

Briscoe tells of his friendship with Vladimir Jabotinsky, leading Zionist, and their activity in driving the Arabs out of their homes. Jabotinsky, wrote in his book DIE JUDISCHE KRIEGSFRONT, in 1940, referring to the second World War—"When the National socialists and their friends cry or whisper 'this is brought about by Jews' this is perfectly right!"

Socialized Medicine Paving The Way For Communism?

By Dr. James L. Doenges

Dr. Doenges is a past president of the Association of American Physicians and Surgeons (1955-1956); past president of the Madison County (Ind.) Medical Society, and served as a delegate to the Indiana State Medical Association. For six years he was chairman of the Committee to Oppose Socialization of Medicine for Madison County, his committee's activities and publications drawing national recognition, particularly that of FSA director Oscar Ewing, whose venomous ire he aroused. He is a director of the Foundation for American Principles and Traditions, the Freedom School, the American Guard, and a member of the Legislative Committee of the Chamber of Commerce. His testimony before the Senate Finance Committee opposing extension of Social Security was reproduced in countless publications of national distribution. He is also a director of the American Progress Foundation.

Dr. James L. Doenges

We are assembled in a Congress of Freedom! Each has his own understanding of just what "Freedom" means. However, many facets are common to all. They are all a part of the entire concept. The problems of the medical profession are only a small, but extremely important, part of the whole. To mention some of these should enable all to understand the entire problem. We must each realize that what is happening to us is part of the comprehensive plan to destroy all freedom.

Many are discouraged—and with good reason. We see the flood of socialism rushing us from every side. Our efforts seem futile—far too little, much too late.

Leonard Read has stated that one must be willing to be in the minority, even if it is a minority of one! I subscribe to this philosophy. After all, it is difficult for such a minority to decrease in size—and a gain of 100% may be achieved by convincing one other person!

It is not our purpose to discuss the motives, motivating factors, or purposes which have caused or produced actions which have resulted in the present deplorable situation of the Medical Profession. Actually, this would be impossible.

Many of us believe the various programs which have done so much to socialize medicine are the result of a master plan. Evidence is abundant to substantiate this position. However, we should be charitable and believe that much has happened because some wanted to "do good," "help" or "alleviate the suffering" of others. In fact, much of this socialism has been prompted by innocents who want all to have the "best medical care"—always at the expense of someone else.

We have been told medical progress is so rapid and so expensive that only the "rich" can afford "adequate" care. The American public has never been sold a more false bill of goods! However, along with everything else, those who make such statements turn to the Federal Government for relief of these and all other difficulties. They do not realize they are falling into the "plan" to destroy all freedom in so doing. Regardless of the intent, the results are tragic. We live with the results—not the intent.

It has been stated that Lenin described the practice of medicine as the "keystone" in the arch of the Socialist State. Whether or not this is true, the implication is not in error. Those who would establish absolute control appreciate the importance of controlling those who would practice the healing arts. In the first place, most people really want to be well. The physician is their hope of remaining well or of regaining health should illness be present. Illness, regardless of type or degree, is associated with discomfort, inconvenience, or at least, a variable amount of displeasure. Of equal importance is the emotional factor. Few fail to become emotional in one way or another, when illness is present. Every person desires, at one time or another, some care from a physician.

Disregarding the important areas of confidence, trust, responsibility, and reliance, we must admit that he who controls those who are to administer to the average citizen when he is ill, or when his emotions in regard to illness in himself or another are involved, is in a position to control the individual. If the medical profession can be controlled by government, all others will succumb. If the profession cannot be controlled, it will remain an island of freedom which will cause a regrowth of the love of freedom in every other group. The intimate, personal, and confidential nature of the patient-physician relationship must be destroyed before collectivism can achieve its goal.

Just where are we, the medical profession, along the road to collectivism, away from freedom, today? Our story is little different from that of any other group or segment of the economy. Possibly the paths are separate, but the end is the same. The pattern of destruction differs only in detail.

The master plan is obvious.

Each group has had its share of "Judas Goats." Each group has succumbed to pressure from those who accomplish their purposes by generating "public demand" for governmental interference. Each group has attempted "to satisfy" the forces of evil—and in so doing, has surrendered its principles. The medical profession provides a perfect example. One would think that the simple ability to observe the fate of the profession in other countries would prevent the acceptance of socialistic practices here. Unfortunately the "ability to observe" is not always accompanied by understanding or the desire to learn, or even the willingness to continue observing.

Today, the plight of the medical profession in the U.S., in relationship to socialistic practices, is much worse than many realize or will admit. Superficially, the profession seems to enjoy a large amount or moderate degree of freedom. That which appears on the surface is underlaid by an extremely hard and brutal foundation of control and coercion, professional as well as governmental. Actually, the medical profession is, to an unbelievable and alarming degree, operating under various socialistic practices and influences. Most of these are unrecognized, or at least not admitted, by the majority of the people as well as the members of the profession.

Many would say the medical profession is free, unrestricted, an example of "laissez faire capitalism." Those who know will tell you differently. We must be interested in "beginnings" as well as "ends," in degrees as well as absolutes.

After all, in England where there is no

Bear With Us Dear Friends

Please forgive us if your letter is unanswered. We know you would not be so hard on us if you knew our problems.

Have you ever tried to run a thriving newspaper understaffed, underfinanced, inadequate equipment, constantly hampered at every turn? Something just has to be left unanswered, and we are sincerely sorry if it happens to be your particular letter. It isn't planned that way. We have a terrific backlog of unanswered letters, and we are doing our utmost to get to them as soon as we possibly can. Our volunteer staff is working long hours keeping our constantly growing subscriber list up to date.

So you see, our real trouble is "growing pains" and while there is nothing seriously wrong, the pain is genuine. We are earnestly trying to comfort ourselves with the motto: "Take what God gives, O heart of mine" and we ask you to bear with us through trials and victories, and share them with us. It truly hurts when our friends don't understand.

Former Commie-Now A Patriot Signs Sworn Affidavit On Fluoridation!

Kenneth Goff

subject.

Rev. Goff was formerly a leader in the Communist Party. He was assigned by Stalin's agents in the U.S. to work among the young people and help bring about a bloody Red Revolution. He plotted the death of officials and Christian leaders. He used a number instead of a name. He worked with Red plotters from N.Y. and Hollywood. While a Communist he was invited by Eleanor Roosevelt to be a guest at the White House.

Rev. Goff is now a sincere, active and militant Protestant Minister, who risked his life to make a complete break with the Communist Party.

To Whom It May Concern:

I, Oliver Kenneth Goff, was a member of the Communist Party and the Young Communist League, from May 2, 1936 to October 9, 1939. During this period of time, I operated under the alias of John Keats and the number 18-B2. My testimony before the Government is incorporated in Volume 9 of the Un-American Activities Report for the year 1939.

While a member of the Communist Party I attended Communist underground training schools outside the city of New York; in the Bues Hall, and 113 East Wells St., Milwaukee, Wisconsin. The East Wells St. school operated under the name of the Eugene Debs School, here, under the tutoring of Eugene Dennis, M. Sparks, Morris Childs, Jack Kling and others, we were schooled in the art of revolutionary overthrow of the established Government.

We were trained on how to dismantle and assemble mimeograph machines, to use for propaganda purposes during the revolution; how to work on guide wires and fuel lines of airplanes so that they would either burst into flames or crash to the ground because of lack of control; how to work on ties and rails to wreck trains; and also the art of poisoning water supplies.

We discussed quite thoroughly the fluoridation of water supplies and how we were using it in Russia as a tranquilizer in the prison camps. The leaders of our school felt that if it could be induced into the American water supply, it would bring about a spirit of lethargy in the nation; where it would keep the general public docile during a steady encroachment of Communism. We also discussed the fact that keeping a store of deadly fluoride near the water reservoir would be advantageous during the time of the revolution, as it would give us opportunity to dump this poison into the water supply and either kill off the populace or threaten them with liquidation, so they would surrender to obtain fresh water.

We discussed in these schools, the complete art of revolution: the seizure of the main utilities, such as light, power, gas, and water; but it was felt by the leadership, that if a program of fluoridating of the water could be carried out in the nation, it would go a long way toward the advancement of the revolution.

Why Must Jews Be Bribed For Their Loyalty To U.S.A.?

Two weeks ago I got Allan Moorehead's book "Gallipoli" from the public library to refresh my memory of World War I. I had not read more than the first chapter when the thought struck me with the force of a Sherlock Holmes solution to a case: Here we see Jews, in top positions in the countries of Europe using their power within a country for Jewish objectives. In short, they are adept in getting political power, but they can't govern.

Of course I had accumulated other information over the years. What happened to me on reading Moorehead, was that the many clues fell into place to explain the results of World War I. Following Wilson's moon-beam of "World safe for Democracy," we made all the sacrifices, committed all the breaches of morality to enable the Jew power to destroy our Ally Russia.

Around 1900 Theodore Hertzl, the Austrian Jew pioneer of Zionism, approached the Sultan of Turkey with a plan to buy land for Jews in Palestine. The Sultan said "no," and soon things began to happen to him. He had a "Young Turk" revolution on his hands and lost his throne. Moorehead says at least half of these Young Turks were crypto-Jews. And soon too the whole Balkan peninsula was aflame with assassinations, revolutions, and wars. All this generated "news" to stir up the people of Europe and America into taking sides on false premises and objectives.

But let us get to 1914—the opening of the war. Russia was an agricultural nation with no warm water ports and poor roads. She needed a constant flow of munitions from the West. The Dardanelles was the logical route to save Russian opposition to the Central Powers. Turkey tended to be friendly with the Allies and should at worst have remained neutral. Instead she was goaded into war. When diplomacy failed to open the Straits, Lord Kitchener agreed with one Winston Churchill, first Lord of the Admiralty, that they should be opened by force.

There is a legend that Jews, because of their international outlook, make exceptional diplomats—they do, for Jewish ends! Our country was represented at Constantinople at the time by two such superman Jews—Henry Morgenthau, Ambassador, and a Louis Einstein as special minister. Such ministers had more influence than now, but these two failed completely to keep the Young Turks from joining the Central Powers—couldn't even influence crypto-Jews apparently.

The expedition itself is a story of misdirection, of withholding essential supplies, of using up men in attacks on strongly held positions, and of young men from Australia, New Zealand, India, England and France with a strong whiff of revolution in their nostrils. They were world savers and left half their number killed, wounded or dead of disease. It was Napoleon's revolutionary madness over again; they were going to live forever in the memory of their people, but there were so many heroes and they failed so completely, and Communism has no gain in keeping their memory alive, that not a half dozen visit their graves in a year.

Probably most Americans have heard of the excuse for the Balfour Declaration as to a Jewish homeland in Palestine, but few analyze it. Balfour and others said they had to do it to bring the Jew power to the Allied side. Why did such Jews living among us need a special bribe to be loyal?

PAVING THE WAY

question that the medical practice is socialized, there are several thousand physicians who refuse to participate. However, would anyone suggest that this means socialized medicine in England is not a fact? I regret to inform you that, in the U.S. today, the medical profession is to an amazing degree practicing socialized medicine. Believe it or not, an extremely large number of physicians are doing so, without understanding what they are doing. They still have private practices, but part of their practices is being controlled by governmental or certain private agencies.

Unfortunately, some physicians seem not to realize what they are doing or to recognize the type of practice in which they are engaged. Some openly seek refuge from competition with those more capable and more successful by becoming salaried employees of government. Frankly, these have not the ability to be successful elsewhere. They attain a position of authority through the agency of force, government, they could never earn in competition. I wish we had the time to explore this field. A discussion of the inadequacies of the average government employee and the reasons for his flight from competition in the market economy provides a better understanding of the reasons for "big" government.

Some have adopted the immoral attitude that "if you can't beat them, join them." This has persuaded many to participate in programs they would otherwise shun. However, it requires no expenditure of energy, and the material rewards are present, real, and visible.

The greatest single step toward socialized medicine was taken when the medical profession permitted "third parties" to enter the traditional patient-physician relationship. You will observe this as a deciding factor in every one of the programs to be discussed. We do not have time for a discussion of the patient-physician relationship—but take my word for it, the practice of medicine is doomed when that relationship is violated. The quality of medical care is likewise doomed.

We have mentioned the "master plan" to establish socialism in this nation. To those who have studied the procedure by which a free people are led into or induced to vote themselves into slavery, the present picture of our nation is frightening. We wonder at the amazing inability of men in important positions to refuse to see—to ignore the facts—to minimize the warnings posted so clearly for all to see.

Our so-called "statesmen" refuse to believe that the Communists mean what they say—in spite of the fact they have written their plan—published it—and continue to reprint it—for all to see. The same refusal of our leaders to see—to appreciate what they see—has drawn the medical profession into a state of domination by the Federal Government. We have, in the United States of America today, Socialized Medicine.

In spite of the facts, many medical "leaders" refuse to admit what they know to be true, but that is where we are! Today many physicians in the U.S. are practicing Socialized Medicine. Only a few stalwarts who refuse to participate in any such scheme are not engaged in one form or another of this organized destruction of the free practice of medicine. That is where we are. How did we get there? That is an all important question—if we are to find a way to return to freedom! Here are a few of the events leading to this position.

The history of the last hundred years provides us with examples our "planners" have copied to perfection. Who among the unsuspecting would think that a program known as "Social Insurance" in Bismarck's Germany and "Social Security" in the U.S. would be full brothers—and would include the socialization of the practice of medicine? However, it worked so well in Germany and other European countries that it was copied by American Socialists with telling results.

After the first World War the International Labor Organization was formed. Its purposes are the establishment of world wide socialism. Its plans for Social Security and Socialized Medicine are, to a considerable degree, based on the programs of Bismarck. We joined the I.L.O. in 1934 and became a treaty member in 1948. We are bound, by treaty to the I.L.O., a special agency of the U.N., to consider and place into domestic law the recommendations and conventions of the I.L.O. at the earliest possible date. One of the achievements of the I.L.O. of which it is most proud is that two of its "technical advisors" came to the U.S. and helped plan our Social Security Law. This law has been amended and expanded until its original purpose is almost completely lost and it has become a most important instrument in socialism.

The last amendments provided for establishment of benefits for permanent and total disability, among other things. This requires a physician's certificate and although the patient is still responsible for the examination, we all know who pays in the long run. We also have the "disability freeze" which requires medical certification.

At present bills are pending in Congress to reduce the age at which government benefits may be collected for "permanent and total" disability as well as establishing a system of benefits for "temporary" disability. Also pending are bills to provide medical care for all receiving Social Security benefits. Other bills would provide that aid to certain groups of children continue as long as the physical defect exists, in short, for life. All of these require medical certification and the plan includes the payment of medical expenses by the government. Think of the millions of people involved.

None would suggest that our men and women who have sustained physical injury or disability in service should not be given the best of care. This attitude was fundamental in establishing the Medical Division of the Veteran's Administration. However, this administration has become one of the greatest agencies promoting government medicine we have. Being unable to fill their hospitals with "service connected" cases, they now have as high as 70% of their beds filled with "non-service connected" cases.

The abuses in regard to these procedures have been widely publicized. All services may be obtained by the individual signing a statement that he cannot pay for private care. The statement cannot be challenged or investigated. Care for dependents has expanded enormously. Care rendered to both the veteran and dependents by physicians in the local communities, paid for by the V.A. is of enormous proportions. By means of "presumption" of service connection many other cases become the responsibility of the Administration. There are about 20 million veterans today. Think of the number of dependents and the number of physicians involved.

A most recent outgrowth is known as "Medicare," a program of providing for care for all dependents of service men in their home communities to utilized local physicians. The term "dependents" is all inclusive. The physician is paid by some insurance company which is reimbursed by the Dept. of Defense with money taken from the people in taxes. This is, by definition, socialized medicine. Proposals are pending in Congress to provide similar benefits for other groups.

For years proposals have been made for outright socialized medicine to be known as health insurance. Never forget, you cannot "insure" health, you can only insure against the losses incurred if one becomes ill. Government has no special providence here.

After these programs failed, proposals for government "re-insurance" were submitted and are still in the plan. This would effectively establish government control in one segment of the "health insurance" field and would make certain its eventual success in taking over the entire field. It is part of the plan of the I.L.O. to destroy the private insurance industry.

Federal aid to medical schools for scholarships, construction, and operation is a current issue. It can only lead to government control. Federal aid for hospital construction has become enormous. This program, supposed to be a "one-time" appropriation, has grown and grown. In spite of all that has been said, it does give the government the right to control those hospitals. The bill is now being expanded to "aid" clinics, nursing homes, diagnostic centers, etc. Once started, there seems to be no end.

Think of all the Welfare programs which provide care of all kinds, including medical care, for the indigent and recipients of various types of public welfare. These all require physicians, in every community, to provide those services.

Many of us refuse to accept payment from such agencies but treat our patients as private cases without charge. We believe this is the proper way of doing it.

We observe with considerable fear the sudden interest of government in the field called "Mental Health." This area, by the very vague nature and poor comprehension of definitions and conditions, is not subject to reasonable limitations. The outline for such programs is to be found in the publications of various international socialist groups. Another area of government interference in medical affairs is that of the Dept. of Public Health, promoting the addition of medications to public water supplies. The possibilities of this procedure are frightening and all lead to government deciding what it believes is good for the people—and forcing it upon them. Socialized medicine in actuality, can exist on a so-called "voluntary basis." Labor unions and other groups establish clinics and hospitals. They employ physicians who work for the group, not for the patient, at a salary or "panel" rate. One "sacred cow" which must not be overlooked is the so-called "voluntary" programs which promise all things to all people. These tax exempt groups, operating under enormous special privilege are attempting to set physicians fees and to "satisfy" the socialists by promising that they can get the doctors to do what ever they desire. The dangers of these programs are not completely understood by most.

Another area in which real danger of government lies, is in many of the voluntary groups for special diseases or groups of diseases. There is too great a tendency of those in charge of such programs, to succumb to government, and open the door for government to step in. The recent vaccine program of the Federal Government is an excellent example. The Federal Government has its finger in practically every activity in the field of health. Directly or indirectly through state or local agencies, it enters the practice of every physician in almost every community.

If we are strict in our definitions, these practices constitute socialized medicine since in the final analysis, the bill is paid through the patient or some governmental agency out of tax money. It is a depressing thought.

However, there is an answer. It is as old as Christianity. The answer lies in physicians and all other citizens understanding these practices for what they are—Socialism—and returning to the utilization of true Christian Charity—as part of the privilege of practicing medicine as free men, in a free land. It requires only that individual responsibility be recognized and admitted by the public. Physicians should treat those unable to pay in the true Christian spirit as an evidence of love—and should not expect government to pay the bill. There is no other answer.

SLUM CLEARANCE

By Mrs. M. Conan, Phoenix, Arizona

Acting under the pretense of doing good, our government is doing evil. Slum Clearance is a scheme to do away with private ownership. Its purpose, hidden underneath, is to create a scarcity of housing by forcing owners to demolish their houses when they cannot comply with ridiculous housing codes; then our benevolent government steps in and builds thousands of housing units for these poor people, which it has made homeless. Quite a trick!

At the rate the government is taking over it will not be long before it owns all the land, and private ownership will be only a memory. The Communist Manifesto calls for destruction of private ownership and inheritance, and that is exactly what is happening here. Our poor, blind people cannot see this, but it is true nevertheless.

Small home owners, little business men and wage-earners constitute a large portion of our population. This middle-class is the backbone of our nation. Yet, this most important class is being relentlessly persecuted and ground to pieces by rapacious and bureaucratic tyranny. I can put it stronger—the middle class is in mortal danger of extinction, and it is because of Communist forces and general apathy. (One general of whom we are not so proud).

We say we do not want Communism in America, yet our government falls in line with many Communist precepts. Can it be our leaders know what they are about, or do they really care what happens to our nation? Why do they hold their hands and let this encroachment of the government upon private enterprise continue?

This plot to destroy America's system of private enterprise, or private ownership, working under the guise of doing good and "beautifying America" is operated by Public Health Service and Public Housing Authority. It is being put in action all over the nation. No city is overlooked. Thousands of perfectly good houses are being demolished to make way for government projects.

These government projects are costing the taxpayers millions of dollars. For every dollar received by the government in rents, we taxpayers have to add another dollar to make up deficiency in operating cost of the project. What it amounts to is that landlords are not only being deprived of their livelihood, but must pay the rent of the government's tenants. This is an ever grand gesture on the part of that gallant little fellow, the American taxpayer, but what will happen when the government has killed off all the taxpayers?

What real American wants his children reared in a government project? It is alright to build kennels for dogs and stalls for cattle, but human-beings should be allowed to do their own planning and building. The Bible says: "Every man shall sit under his own fig-tree". Nowhere does it say under "a government owned fig-tree." I am afraid John Howard Payne would never have found inspiration for his beautiful song, "Home, sweet home," had he been reared in a government project. Now, the "lowly thatched cottage" is torn down, and the morale of our people is also being torn down along with it.

EDITORS NOTE—

Those who live in Government housing can be directed how to vote. Negroes from the South are being methodically moved into enormous government housing projects in Philadelphia, New York, Chicago, and other important points where Marxists are building election control.

Land in the United States owned by the Federal Government is one-fourth of all the 48 states. The Federal Government owns forty-six and one-half per cent of Calif., forty-four per cent of Arizona, eighty-five per cent of Nevada, and this land has been secured mainly through purchase since 1913. In other words, the Federal Government has bought your land from you with your own money.

BE INFORMED . . . SPREAD THE TRUTH

Communism is rapidly enveloping the entire world, unhampered by the forces of Christianity and the efforts of Christian leadership. Why? Why are the American people ignorant when it comes to the one movement which will ultimately destroy them and their families? The answers to these questions are obvious when the facts are known regarding the control of the press and other means of communication. The American people are being prevented from knowing what atheistic Communism is. The truth is not allowed to be uttered over the radio or television or printed in the press. Good American authors work hard writing books and then find it difficult or impossible to have them published. The following is a list of some of the finest works available.

THE SUPREME COURT -- COMMUNISM'S TROJAN HORSE IN THE U.S.

By Robert Lee Gibbons

At last the Invisible Government has apparently secured the complete control of the Supreme Court of the United States. While Franklin D. Roosevelt was in the White House, the Invisible Government tried to take over the Supreme Court by having their chief tool, F.D.R., increase to 16 the number of Justices so they could add enough "left-wing" stooges to swing the High Court decisions in favor of the Marxists. Strong public protests prevented them from packing the Supreme Court at that time, hence they were forced to wait and replace deceased members with judges who would do their bidding.

May 17, 1954, the day of the desegregation decision by the U.S. Supreme Court, has properly been called "Black Monday." In recent weeks, however, patriotic Americans of all sections should have been filled with anxiety when they picked up their evening papers on Mondays for fear of reading of additional "Black Monday" decisions by that Court. They have certainly been forthcoming.

Probably the worst of these decisions was the ruling on June 3, 1957, in the case of Jencks v. United States that the defendant was entitled to inspect all FBI reports relating to testimony of witnesses against him. This appalling and outrageous decision, which went beyond even the request of the attorneys for Jencks, and which Justice Clark, in dissenting, said afforded to the criminal "a Roman holiday for rummaging through confidential information as well as vital national secrets," might have a crippling effect on law enforcement in general in this country, and has already created confusion in the Federal courts. Lawyers for Communist traitors under this ruling can now, unless prosecution is abandoned, learn the identities of FBI informants within the Communist movement.

In order to place the Jencks decision in its proper perspective as part of an overall trend and pattern of the Court's assistance to traitors and security risks, extending over a period of more than 2 years, we present the following brief descriptions of 31 other decisions:

1. In Quinn v. United States, decided May 23, 1955, the Court reversed the contempt conviction of a member of United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America who refused to answer a question before the House Un-American Activities Committee as to whether he had ever been a member of the Communist Party, even though he did not expressly invoke the privilege against self-incrimination, merely saying that he supported the statement of a witness on the preceding day who had invoked the First and Fifth Amendments.

2. On the same day the Quinn case was decided, the Court reversed the conviction of Julius Emspak, General Secretary and Treasurer of the same union, who had refused to answer 58 questions of the House

Chief Justice Earl Warren

Appointed to the Supreme Court as a Chief Justice in 1953, as a reward for his support of Ike in place of Sen. Robert A. Taft for the Presidency. Many of his opinions have favored the Communists.

Committee as to whether or not he was acquainted with named individuals who had been charged with having Communist affiliations. He cited the First and Fifth Amendments. In reversing, the Court claimed that these questions were within the scope of the Fifth Amendment.

3. In Bart v. United States, also decided on May 23, 1955, the contempt conviction of Philip Bart, general manager of the Daily Worker, was reversed, the Court claiming that the House Committee did not directly overrule his refusal, based on the Fifth Amendment, to name officials of the Ohio section of the Communist Party in 1936. The Committee counsel, Tavenner, had clearly told Bart that testimony relating to other people could not incriminate him.

4. In Peters v. Hobby, decided June 6, 1955, the Court gave a declaratory judgment that Peters, who had been Special Consultant to the U.S. Public Health Service and had been barred from the Federal service by the Civil Service Commission's Loyalty Review Board because of reasonable doubt as to his loyalty, had been removed invalidly, and ordered that the Board's findings as to reasonable doubt and its debarment ruling be expunged from its records.

5. On Nov. 7, 1955, the Court refused to review a decision of the Wis. Supreme Court which held that the Gwinn Amendment to the Federal Housing Law, prohibiting occupancy of subsidized Federal housing developments by persons in organizations on the Attorney General's list, was unconstitutional.

6. In Cammer v. United States, decided Mar. 12, 1956, the Court reversed the contempt conviction of Cammer, attorney for Ben Gold, who, after indictment of Gold by a Federal grand jury, mailed to members of the grand jury who were government employees, a questionnaire which sought to ascertain whether such employee jurors might be influenced by bias or fear to indict persons charged with association with the Communist Party.

7. In Penn. v. Nelson, decided Apr. 2, 1956, the Court upheld the Supreme Court of Penn. in its holding that the Smith Act supersedes the enforceability of the Penn. Sedition Act under which Steve Nelson, in the words of Earl Warren "an acknowledged member of the Communist Party," had been convicted. This holding in effect annuls all state sedition acts, and the immediate effect thereof was to stop prosecution of 10 defendants under the Massachusetts law as well as a prosecution then pending in Kentucky.

8. Not content with wreaking havoc with state legislation, the Court on Apr. 9, 1956, held that Sec. 903 of the Charter of the City of N.Y., which provided that whenever a city employee used the privilege against self-incrimination to avoid answering a question relating to his official conduct his tenure of office shall terminate, was unconstitutional. Irving Slochower, an associate professor at Brooklyn College, who had been suspended under the provisions of Sec. 903, as a result of this decision recovered over three and one half years back pay from N.Y. City and was reinstated as a teacher!

9. In United States v. Zucca, decided April 30, 1956, the Court upheld dismissal of denaturalization proceedings against Zucca, who was alleged by the government to have been a member of the Communist Party and other organizations affiliated with or controlled by it, and to have procured naturalization by concealment.

10. In Communist Party of the United States v. Subversive Activities Control

Associate Justice Felix Frankfurter

An Austrian born Jew, who rules the Court with an iron fist. Was the main incorporator of the Communist-front American Civil Liberties Union, a member of the legal staff of the NAACP and placed Alger Hiss in the Government with many more Reds.

Board, decided also on Apr. 30, 1956, the Court gratified the highest hopes of the Party. After the SACB had ordered the Party to register, the Party claimed that the testimony of Paul Crouch, Manning Johnson and Harvey Matusow before the SACB was perjurious. The government and the Court of Appeals deemed the unchallenged testimony sufficient to sustain the SACB's order. The Supreme Court reversed the Court of Appeals and remanded the case to the SACB where the Party could make its allegations as to perjured testimony.

11. In Cole v. Young, decided June 11, 1956, a preference-eligible veteran had been suspended from a classified civil service position on charges of close association with alleged Communists and an allegedly subversive organization, and later dismissed.

The Court held the dismissal not authorized.

12. In Mesarosh v. U.S., the Court again came to the aid of Steve Mesarosh, alias Steve Nelson. The convictions of Mesarosh and 4 others under the Smith Act were reversed, and new trials granted, because the Solicitor General believed that the testimony of one witness, Mazzei, given on occasions other than the trials of these defendants, was untrue. The Solicitor General merely asked that the trial court determine the credibility of Mazzei's testimony. Instead the Court brought to nought the government's efforts of more than 3 years duration to convict these defendants by the above reversal. (Oct. 10, 1956)

13. In Leedom v. International Union of Mine, and Smelter Workers, decided Dec. 10, 1956, the Court exploited a loophole in the Taft Hartley Act and also held that the National Labor Relations Board could take no administrative action to withhold from a union the benefits of the National Labor Relations Act even though a trial examiner had found that an officer of the union, Travis, had filed a false non-Communist affidavit.

14. On the same day, in a similar case, the Court held that benefits of the National Labor Relations Act could not be withheld from the Amalgamated Meat Cutters & Butcher Workmen of North America, AFL-CIO, even though one of its officers, Ben Gold, had been convicted in 1954 for a false non-Communist affidavit filed in 1950.

15. Not content with ruling in favor of Ben Gold's counsel and union as stated above, the Court on Jan. 28, 1957 made it a clean sweep for Gold, reversing his conviction for filing a non-Communist affidavit because of "official intrusion into the privacy of the jury."

16. In U.S. v. Witkovich, decided April 29, 1957, the Court ruled that the Attorney General could not, under the Immigration and Nationality Act of 1952, ask an alien against whom a final order of deportation had been outstanding for more than six months, questions relating to membership in and activities on behalf of the Communist Party.

17. In Schware v. Board of Bar Examiners of New Mexico, the Court held that the Supreme Court of N. Mexico had deprived Schware of due process in denying him the opportunity to qualify for the practice of law on the ground that he had failed to satisfy the Board of Bar Examiners as to his moral character. Schware had been a member of the Communist Party from 1932 to 1940, had used aliases to hide his Jewishness, had been arrested in Cal. on suspicion of criminal syndicalism, and had been charged with recruiting persons for the Loyalist (Communist) cause in Spain (May 6, 1957)

18. Not content with the Schware decision, the Court on the same day flagrantly invaded the sovereign prerogatives of the State of California in licensing practicing attorneys. It reversed the action of the Cal. Committee of Bar Examiners in refusing to admit one Raphael Konigsberg to practice, even though he had refused to answer questions directed at finding whether he was or ever had been a member of the Communist Party.

Congressman James O. Davis

Congressman James Davis was not far wrong when he said; "It seems that the Communists cannot lose a case in the United States Supreme Court."

Georgia is doing something about the Court. What about the other States following in its footsteps?

19. On May 13, 1957, the Court reversed the convictions of Kremen, Coleman and Stein for harboring Robert Thompson, convicted Smith Act defendant and bail jumper, on the ground that the defendants were victims of an illegal search and seizure.

20. On May 20, 1957, the Court affirmed the order of a court in St. Louis which struck out restrictions on Mrs. Antonia Sentner's Communist associations while under order of deportation.

21. On June 17, 1957, which clearly qualifies as a Black Monday, the Court ruled that John Stewart Service, one of the first targets of the late Joe McCarthy, had been wrongfully discharged from his State Dept. job by Secretary of State Dean Acheson in 1951 because of reasonable doubt as to his loyalty. This is the same Service who in 1945 gave confidential documents to Philip Jaffe of Amerasia Magazine.

22. Another blow delivered by the Court on the same day was much more damaging in its implications to the U.S. The convictions of 14 West Coast Communist leaders under the Smith Act were reversed. The Court enunciated a very narrow construction of the word "organize" in the Act, holding that it meant the mere establishment of the present Communist Party in this case, which took place in 1945, and that the 3-year statute of limitations barred any indictment on the "organize" section after 1948. The Court also criticized the charge to the jury for not specifying clearly that advocacy of violent overthrow, to be illegal, must be advocacy of action, and not just theoretical urging. Five of the fourteen defendants were acquitted, and the other nine were granted new trials.

23. On the same day the Court reversed the contempt conviction of labor leader John Watkins, who had refused to tell the House Un-American Activities Committee the names of persons he had known as Communists. In his opinion, Chief Justice Warren adopted standard Communist jargon, saying "there is no Congressional power to expose for the sake of exposure." Cases in lower courts which will probably be affected by this decision are those of Arthur Miller, who has already moved for reversal of his contempt conviction, and N.Y. Times employees Robert Shelton, Seymour Peck and Alden Whitman, who have also been convicted of contempt.

24. Likewise on June 17th the Court in Sweezy v. Wyman, reversed the New Hampshire contempt conviction of Prof. Paul Sweezy of the University of New Hampshire. Sweezy had been directed by the Supreme Court of that State to answer questions by Attorney General Wyman during an inquiry into alleged subversive activities. Sweezy refused and was convicted.

25. The Court, meanwhile, on May 27, 1957, had agreed to review the legality of the sentences of Gil Green and Henry Winston, original Smith Act defendants. This action resulted in the release on bail of Robert Thompson, also an original Smith Act defendant.

26. On June 24, 1957, the Court reversed the conviction of Communist lawyer Harry Sacher for contempt of Congress. Sacher, one of the lawyers who made a travesty of the Smith Act trial in 1949 before Judge Medina, refused to tell the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee in 1955 if he was then or ever had been a member of the Communist Party.

27. Also on June 24, 1957, the Court set aside the contempt conviction of Abram Flaxer, former president of the now defunct United Public Workers of America. Flaxer had refused to give the same Subcommittee information it requested.

28. On the same day the Court set aside the contempt conviction of Lloyd Barenblatt, former teacher at the University of Michigan and Vassar College. He had refused to tell the House Committee whether he was a Communist Party member at the time he testified, or if he ever had been.

29. Continuing to nullify the government's efforts under the Smith Act, the Court, on June 24, 1957, vacated the conviction of Detroit's Communists Sol. L. Wellman, Nathan Kaplan, Thomas Dennies, Philip Schatz, Helen Winter and William Allan.

30. On the same day the Court ordered a new trial in Ohio for Anna Morgan, convicted of contempt for invoking the privilege against self-incrimination 37 times before the Ohio State Un-American Activities Commission. (1952)

31. Also on the same day the Court vacated the Ohio conviction of 3 other defendants, Raley, Stern and Brown, who had refused to answer before the same Commission questions about "suspected Communist and subversive activities in Ohio."

It should be noted that over half of the above cases relate to JEWS. Case 22 includes Sternberg, Richmond, Schneiderman, Starvus Stack, Churnin Kusnitz. Other cases include Green, Gold, Mesarosh, Witkovich, Schware, Konigsberg, Kremen, Stein, Sentner, Sacher, Barenblatt, Flaxer, Wellman, Kaplan, Schatz, Winter, and Stern—ALL JEWS!

The foregoing record proves conclusively that the present majority of the Supreme Court is willfully subordinating the rights of the American public to the so-called "individual liberties" of traitors, security risks and other dubious characters. The rights under natural law for the people of a nation through its government to protect itself are being trampled upon by uncurbed judicial despots.

Congressmen Davis and Flynt of Georgia have made appropriate comments on the recent activities of the Court, as reported on page 8795 of the June 20, 1957, issue of the Congressional Record.

Representative Davis said:

"It seems that if there is one thing well settled, it is that a Communist cannot lose a case in the United States Supreme Court."

Representative Flynt is even more forceful, saying:

"Mr. Speaker, it is evident and it is clear that unless some action is taken to curb and check the unwarranted abuses of the Anglo-American system of jurisprudence by the present majority of the Supreme Court of the United States, they will gradually or precipitously devastate and shatter our Constitution, our laws, our statutes, the Congress of the United States, indeed our very Nation itself."

The future damage from the Court's ukases may be even greater than what has been described here. The Court has agreed to review the convictions of Claude Light-

The Nine Strong Men Of Our High Court!

By Sam Crockett

Hugo Black is the longest appointed member of the Court (1937); had no experience on the bench; accepted an award from the Communist Southern Conference for Human Welfare just after his appointment. (See Appendix IX, p. 1591) He is one of the sinister trio which has fought so viciously as members of the Court for a Soviet America from the very first. (The others of course are Frankfurter and Douglas) His wife sponsored the Communist Council of Young Southerners and the League of Young Southerners. (App. IX, pp. 675 and 1037)

William O. Douglas (1939) had no experience on the bench; brought his infamous career to a climax with his wilful grant of an order to stay the execution of the Rosenbergs after the Court had ended its term. This order was granted by Douglas on intervention by a stranger to the case who had been convicted as a dissolute person by California, the case having reached the Supreme Court 6 months previously with Douglas dissenting against conviction. (Edelman vs. State of Cal. 1/12/52) His wife sponsored the Communist League of Women Shoppers and its Washington branch. (App. IX, pp. 1009 and 1023)

These citations quoted are only tiny surface indications of the entire record of these justices, even though most of them have been careful to avoid open subversive affiliations.

Felix Frankfurter (1939) sponsored the Communist Medical Bureau and Committee to Aid Spanish Democracy. App. IX, p. 1611 He is the Jew who rules the Court with an iron fist. (Warren is merely the weak figure-head) He was a main incorporator of the ACLU, a Communist front, so cited; a member of the legal staff of the NAACP for many years, "had assisted that organization in making plans for and in the realization of its objectives as a Communist-front organization to advocate, propagandize and litigate to bring on racial strife to secure racial integration from which his own race is immune on religious grounds, as a part of the Communist objectives in the U.S." (See Ga. Resolution re. Impeachment, pp. 8 and 9, 2/22/57)

While teaching law at Harvard, his secretary was a known Communist. He placed Alger Hiss in the government and Wyzanski, a Jew, as a Federal Judge in Mass., who later fought successfully for Oppenheimer's acceptance as a lecturer at Harvard in 1957. Other of his proteges were Biddle, Acheson, McCloy, Nathan Witt, Lee Pressman, Lauchlin Currie—the last named, another alien and a Soviet agent. His brother Otto is an ex-convict, served time in W. Va. and in Iowa State Prison.

An investigation is underway to determine if Frankfurter is actually a citizen of the U.S! There is some doubt that he is as there does not seem to be any legal proof of his citizenship other than his unsupported word. He came to this country from Austria when 12 years old.

He was a member of the Advisory Committee of the Socialist Workers Education Bureau of America, counsel for the Tom Mooney Commission, attorney for anarchists Sacco-Vanzetti and the Communist Tom Mooney, supported the Scottsboro Rapists, etc. (See Common Sense issue 255 for his complete detailed record and the sources thereof)

Earl Warren (1953) appointed to the Supreme Court as Chief Justice as an award and in place of Robert Taft, for his key support of Ike's candidacy for President; has denied that the Communist Party secretly or publicly ordered its membership to support him for Governor of California. Nevertheless, it is doubtful that even he would deny now that the Communist Party would gladly support him for any office he might wish, including the Presidency.

William Brennan (1956) was attacked by Sen. McCarthy for pro-Communist utterances before his appointment to the Court. McCarthy was a right-wing Catholic and Brennan a left-wing Catholic.

John Harlan (1955) was supported widely by the Negro and Jewish Communist press when appointed due to his father's previous record on the Supreme Court and because it was anticipated he would follow the same pattern of appeasement of minorities. He has not disappointed them.

Harold Burton (1945) a Unitarian, as mayor of Cleveland, officially welcomed the delegates to the 3rd U.S. Congress Against War and Fascism, a Communist operation. (Appendix IX, p. 1094)

Tom Clark (1949) who ran with the majority of pro-Communist decisions of the Court until last month, is now seemingly scared of what is going on and may not be privy to the orders which were given to Warren et al, on the Court. He has had no practice on the bench and was kicked upstairs by Truman before the investigation of the Dept. of Justice then pending got too close for comfort.

Charles Evans Whittaker (1957) hasn't had a chance to prove his fidelity to the Court's pro-Soviet bias, but it is not expected that he will attempt to deviate.

Sen. Eastland warned the country over a year ago that "the Supreme Court had been indoctrinated and brainwashed by left-wing pressure groups; that individual members of the Court were guilty of grossly improper conduct in accepting awards and emoluments from groups and organizations interested in political litigation before the Court."

David Lawrence (N.Y. Herald Tribune, 6/5/57, p. 25) asked "Who really writes the decisions of the Supreme Court Justices? Do they use 'ghost writers'...Should the public be told what part of the decision is actually written by a Justice and what part is the composition of his law clerk? These questions have arisen not only because of the occasional expressions and phrasing which appear in Supreme Court opinions that seem conspicuously different from the accustomed writings of a Justice in his previous career but because the whole subject had just been opened up by the Commission on Government Security (12 citizens appointed by the President, Senate and House) which issued a recommendation that hereafter the judicial branch of the government should 'take...steps to insure that its employees are loyal...'"

Lawrence here has almost laid bare the notorious secret bandied privately among Washington investigators—that the law clerks and other personnel aiding the Court are RIDDLED WITH COMMUNISTS AND PRO-COMMUNISTS. It is explicitly in this area of investigation that there lies real hope of exposing the true machinations going on behind the august portals of the Court. The scandal which would result from the revelation that these petty, inadequate, evil men who crawled through slime to be appointed to the Supreme Court are merely the willing tools of their own subordinates and other external agents who dictate all major political decisions by the Court, would rock the foundations of the Judicial Juggernaut that has been formed since FDR took office.

Hints of this can be found in a book "Nine Men. A Political History of the Supreme Court from 1790 to 1955" by Fred Rodell, Random House, 1955. $5.00. A Jew and member of the Communist-front National Lawyers Guild, reviews this book in the Lawyers Guild Review for the winter of 1956. The reviewer, Murray A. Gordon, fulminates at length against Rodell for his attack upon the Court (strange, isn't it for a writer for the Red-front N.L.G. to defend the Court?) "Virtually each member of the Court is said by Rodell to be a servitor of his class interest—subtly or powerfully if able; without grace or force if mediocre... even (a) few renegades never succeed in deterring the Court from collectively yielding to the importunities of the monied interests or to the necessities of the political origins of the members of the Court...the Court is the sanctuary of sanctimonious political partisanship...the decisions of the Court are merely the expressions of individual political predilections...a Court...devoid of principle...the Court is simply the abode of a handful of men, each intent upon following his political and economic star."

Louis C. Wyman (N.Y. Times 6/25/57, p. 1) Attorney General of New Hampshire and head of the National Association of Attorneys General, publicly rebuked the Court in Sun Valley, Idaho, stated the Court's decisions relating to subversive activities "have set the U.S. back 25 years in its attempt to make certain that those loyal to a foreign power cannot create another Trojan horse here." He urged that the attorneys general support four courses of action: Clarify the 10th Amendment, which covers powers reserved to the states, and recommend the clarification at once to the 48 States; (2) Call for a method that would give the States "a greater voice in the confirmation of appointments to the Court than now exists through the U.S. Senate."; (3) Support legislation "designed to insulate against judicial legislation in derogation of a State sovereignty."; (4) The Conference named a special committee on internal security to prepare legislation for introduction at the present session of Congress.

With these recommendations and the suggestion made above COMMON SENSE concurs.

Hate Literature Hits The State

Republished from a Miami newspaper.

An "extremely large circulation" of hate literature throughout Florida was reported Monday by B'nai B'rith's Anti-Defamation League.

Nate Perlmutter, ADL state director, said "Common Sense," a newspaper printed in New Jersey, apparently was shipped into Florida, then re-mailed locally.

Perlmutter said the printing probably was distributed by a local group, and was mailed to a select list of officials, newspapermen and others in influential positions.

Now isn't this too bad?

"Hate literature," according to the ADL, is literature which exposes the world-wide Jewish Communist conspiracy. The Anti-Defamation League is the Jewish F.B.I., and the militant arm of B'nai B'rith. (Invisible Government) foot and Junius Scales under the membership clause of the Smith Act, which clause may become a casualty. Indeed the Daily Worker is subtly suggesting that the Smith Act itself may be later held unconstitutional, and this is not a remote possibility, for the Court has overruled itself before, as in the desegregation decision.

This news item makes no mention of the tons of brainwashing literature circulated by the ADL in Christian church circles, schools, factories and government.

It has also agreed to review Wilson et al, v. Loews, Inc. et al., which will involve the old Communist charge of "blacklisting" in Hollywood by the 23 writers and actors who brought this suit.

A dispatch just received from London England, quotes the Communist Daily Worker as praising the United States Supreme Court! (why shouldn't they? Ed.)

The Supreme Court is, in the words of its late member, Oliver Wendell Holmes, "a clear and present danger" to the United States. Its present majority is levying war against the United States, which constitutes treason under the Constitution. The appropriate Constitutional remedy is IMPEACHMENT.

We strongly urge all readers of COMMON SENSE to support as candidates for the House of Representatives only those men who will not shrink from IMPEACHMENT. The General Assembly of the home State of Congressmen Davis and Flynt has taken the lead by adopting a Resolution for IMPEACHMENT.

IF A MAJORITY OF THE STATES FOLLOW GEORGIA'S LEAD, THEIR SENATORS AND REPRESENTATIVES MUST SUPPORT IMPEACHMENT PROCEEDINGS. BUT YOU MUST FIRST FORCE ACTION BY PRESSURE UPON YOUR STATE LEGISLATORS!

START NOW! ORGANIZE! WRITE TO YOUR RELATIVES, YOUR FRIENDS, DO NOT DELAY! TOMORROW MAY BE TOO LATE!!

Paging Uncle Sam

Not every Jew is part of the Marxist conspiracy but many insincere Jews receive respect they do not deserve because Patriots are unable to properly screen them in fear of injuring the few Jews believed to be sincere. Jews as a whole are often defended by uninformed Christians; this provides a good cover for the majority to operate.

Here is a poem by a good foreign born Jewish person now living in California. "By their fruits ye shall know them."

PAGING UNCLE SAM

"Dear Uncle Sam, all that I am
Or ever hope to be,
I owe to you for all you do
To keep our country free;
Pressure groups hook many dupes,
(They're a crop that never fails)
Americanism needs a foreign "ism"
Like a cat would need two tails;
Let's remember the admonition
Of our own George Washington:
"FRIENDSHIP WITH ALL NATIONS EN-TANGLING ALLIANCES WITH NONE";
Why should we, bow to trickery
Of alien-minded organizations
Who use our Flag as a grab-bag
In behalf of foreign Nations;
Each Nation should fly its own Flag
To save its sovereignty,
My allegiance belongs to OLD GLORY
Its the only Flag for me."

Some people in Northern States are under the impression the Negro people want to abolish segregation and that it is the colored people who are pushing integration.

The Editor of COMMON SENSE recently interviewed people of the black and white race in twenty States and can truthfully say that approximately 90% of the colored people in the South want separate schools. Why shouldn't they? Most people like to be with their own. Your Editor saw Negro schools which appeared equal, and in many cities the Negro schools were better than those for whites.

The two races have been living in harmony in the South for quite some time, and they understand each other. Jewish Communist organizers from New York have been agitating and indoctrinating young Negroes in the South, using false promises just as they did with the Hungarian workmen to secure their support in Communizing Hungary. Later when Jewish Communism had full control of Hungary, the workers asked for recognition and were slaughtered.

Now in 1957, COMMON SENSE states positively that the NAAACP is a Communist dominated, agitation group which has never had a Negro as head of the organization since it was organized and financed by the Communist Garland Fund. A Jew has always headed the National Association for the Agitation of Colored People. (A more appropriate name for the NAAACP)

The NAAACP screams over and over that they are not a Communist-front organization, just as the United Electrical & Radio Workers Union with 600,000 members still do.

During 1946, the U.E. Union called a strike of 2,000 men at Phelps Dodge Copper Co. in Elizabeth, N.J. This strike lasted eight and one half months and cost the workers three million dollars. In 1949 the same U.E. Union conducted a strike at the Singer Sewing Machine Co. in Elizabeth,

A Zionist Jew and President of NAAACP.
Has contact with many Communist-Front organizations.

N.J. This strike of 9,000 workers idle for 168 days cost the workers, the company and merchants fifty-four million dollars.

In 1946 COMMON SENSE was the first and only publication to expose the U.E. as Communist. No organization or individual did so until years later when it became public knowledge, and later the U.E. was thrown out of the CIO as even too Red for that organization.

In 1946, COMMON SENSE published five issues exposing the U.E. as Communist and used 20 men to distribute them outside Churches on Sunday. COMMON SENSE published the names, photographs and records of the Hungarian Jews who were directing the strike:

Julius Emspak, Sec., U.E.; James Matles (Freedman) Director; James Lustig, District Organizer; Walter Barry (Isador Eisenstadt), National Advisor.

The U.E. used every means to discredit and smear COMMON SENSE and many good people were deceived into attacking this paper for "falsely accusing" the U.E. But time usually discloses the facts.

Newspapers of July 24, 1957 report testimony of William Wallace, former Communist in the U.E. before the Senate Internal Sub-Committee to the effect that the U.E. was Communist, and Communists did direct the Phelps Dodge and Singer strikes. He said; "We let our people bear the brunt of these strikes but actually we Communists directed them." The U.E.'s protest that they were not Communist was ten times stronger than the NAAACP's and COMMON SENSE has twice the damaging evidence against the NAAACP than it had against the U.E.!!

The NAAACP derives its real power from the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith which is the Jewish F.B.I. Twenty-four years study of the world Marxist conspiracy enables us to state that the U.S. is being brain-washed and prepared to give up its freedom. AWAKE! BEFORE IT IS TOO LATE!!

Since the Supreme Court Decision on segregation has focused attention on the NAAACP, and they have been exposed time and again as a Communist-front, at each important public meeting they cleverly state they must be careful to screen out all Communist influence. Then, why not start with themselves? All the important officers in the NAAACP we know of, have been tied up with Communism for years. When the Communists are put in a corner they take the "Fifth Amendment" or "don't remember," or like Alger Hiss, in an effort to deceive the public, sued Whittaker Chambers for calling him a Communist. Major Jordan's Diary shows conclusive evidence that Sen. Herbert Lehman is a powerful man in the world Communist movement and certainly he is the most powerful man behind the NAACP.

The Jewish-controlled NAACP agitators hand-pick Negroes to force into schools of the South as an opening wedge to break down segregation. The Autherine Lucy case was an outstanding example of this type agitation, and anyone who has studied the NAACP and its questionable leaders should see right through their scheme. The masterminds in New York are directing this attack on segregation, fully realizing it is going to bring trouble between White and Black—that is why it is brought about. Few people realize this is only part of the plan to condition our country for Communism.

Part of the globe in which half the population of the world exists, has already been broken down and Marxist rule set up. All kinds of deception was used to bring this about, camouflaged with high-sounding purposes. Now these masterminds are bringing pressure on Washington to send troops into the South. Are they trying to bring about a revolution to coincide with the outbreak of war in the Middle-East, when our sons will be called on to shed their blood in Palestine to again protect the Jews?

Jews of the South may join the Citizen's Councils, but every Jewish organization and publication in the U.S. are backing the fight against segregation. If Jewish influence were withdrawn from the de-segregation movement, it would die a sudden death!

Careful research has been done on the NAACP and the activities of each of its

This report intends to prove, without a shadow of a doubt that Dr. Ralph Bunche for a number of years had expressed himself in writings, speeches, and organizational activity in a manner which paralleled the Communist line in its major aspects. Further evidence is hereby presented to prove his expressions were of such a nature that they could only have been arrived at as a result of his going through thorough indoctrination in Communist methods and techniques. It will be shown his affiliations and activities were such as to fill the requirements necessary for a top level operated for the Kremlin apparatus.

It also presents authentic documentation to substantiate the following summation of Dr. Bunche's record of activities paralleling the Communist line throughout the years which is so consistent that it seems impossible to interpret it as accidental:—

1.-Travels in Africa, which coincided with the Kremlin's planting of agents in that part of the world, in order to lay the basis for racial explosions of the future. Bunche wrote from there (Journal of Negro Education) denouncing "Imperialist Capitalism" and advocated elimination of the current social order in the mother countries. The fruits of the Kremlin infiltration in Africa can be seen today in the bloody Mau-Mau massacres. (1935-1936)

2.-Wrote a pamphlet which advocated a Communistic program in respect to the Negro question and advocated class war throughout the world asking the non-white peoples to look to the Soviet Union for inspiration and leadership. (1936)

3.-Wrote a clearly Communistic line in respect to education. He voiced the Red line that "American education" is "goose step education." And that "Capitalism owns the colleges and universities by right of purchase." Bunche denounced "Red riders," and "oath clauses." He complained that "in America...we are living in an economy of capitalism and our educational system consistently harmonizes with the dominant capitalistic pattern." (1936)

4.-Bunche was praised in the official theoretical Red organ, THE COMMUNIST, published for top echelon Communists and supporters. One of the top Communists, A.W. Berry, praised Bunche for "approaching the Marxist viewpoint" and "that Bunche realized the significance of the class struggle." Berry then described Bunche as an "active friend and supporter" of the working class, which in the Communist aesopian manner means a friend of the Soviets, since they claim exclusive franchise as representing the "working class." (1937)

5.-Contributed an article to the RACE MAGAZINE, whereby he repeated the "class" position on the race question and considered those who called the National Negro Congress as "dominated by Reds" as "biased individuals." This magazine in its opening issue prominently announced that they are working for "a social upheaval which will plow up our institutions to their very roots and substitute a socialist order for the present capitalist imperialist order." (1936)

Actually the evidence of Communistic writings and Communistic organizational activity of Ralph Bunche is greater overall than the combined evidence that government agencies had when they first began to get interested in Red activities of Alger Hiss, Remington, Harry Dexter White and the Rosenbergs. Bunche's Communistic utterances and connections are there as a public printed record and it is a great puzzle as to why our Government officials have not taken appropriate action. Instead it seems, that there is an effort to hush up the entire matter.

It is impossible for a person accidentally to coincide in his own personal independent views so as to match the Communist line in all of its major features. It is quite possible that one may accidentally coincide in viewpoint with some one part of the Communist program, but, in respect to the overall line it is a mathematical impossibility for anyone to independently match the total

Red line in its various ramifications. Such impossibility is further compounded if the language used is strictly Marxist-Leninist.

A highly accurate report on Ralph Bunche consisting of 49 pages was prepared after careful research by Alliance, Incorporated, Archibald Roosevelt, Pres. Obviously space will not permit us to publish the entire report which covers excerpts from many writings in Communist publications by Ralph Bunche, who has been maneuvered into high positions by Marxist forces.

Ralph Bunche is national director of the NAACP and Deputy Secy.—General of the United Nations.

Those who are sufficiently interested, may obtain this 49-page report on Ralph Bunche, by sending a dollar to Alliance Inc. 200 East 66th St. New York, N.Y.

HIGH COURT ON THE MARCH

Excerpts from a Speech by Senator James O. Eastland

Columbia, S. Car., Jan. 26, 1956

"The Court is on the march and unless curbed...It will create a judicial dictatorship in this country. If this judicial march is not halted there will be no states. We will lose the dual system of government. State legislatures, state and county officials will be impotent and subject to the control and direction of the Supreme Court. Even the Congress will be impotent.

"The Communist conspiracy can never succeed in America unless there is first destroyed the powers of the States. It can never succeed until the people are deprived of the power to control their local institutions.

"I do not believe the people of any state in any section of this country desire to see, or that they will permit, the politicians who sit upon the Court to take from them the control of their schools, their local institutions, and their domestic affairs. Every section of the country has its local problems and they should all be combined in this overall legislative plan.

"If we have government of men, and not of law, and we escape tyranny only through compassion; then liberty exists only as a phantom among the shadows and the dream of a free people on this Continent in the dust lies dead."

U.S. GOLD AND YOU!

By George Racey Jordan Major USAF, Ret.

During a number of appearances before Congressional Committees I was able to disclose subjects of importance which had been handled with great secrecy, such as the shipment of atomic material to Moscow in the early days of the war under direct orders from the White House and supplying the Soviets with the master plates, paper and ink, permitting them to print and issue unlimited amounts of U.S. invasion currency (which we were subsequently forced to redeem).

This will be a candid talk about the program to take over the assets of the U.S. and to terminate the freedom of its citizens, through manipulation of their fiscal policy.

In the language of Winston Churchill this could be called an assault on "the soft under-belly" of our way of life.

Feeding upon the apathy of our people, their over-confidence in security and masked under a plausible pretense of propaganda to cover their real purposes, these plans have grown to alarming proportions and call for action to block their success.

The financial solvency of this nation and of each American citizen is in jeopardy because those in control of our government have changed our money system, discarding tangible legal money, backed by gold and silver and have substituted fiat paper currency based on the growing volume of our gigantic debts and obligations.

Our people have been stripped of the benefits and safety of gold in monetary and private use, except in the form of jewelry. American citizens are not allowed to buy and possess gold, as a store of value. If they are found to have gold in their possession they are liable to criminal prosecution by the Treasury with confiscation of the gold. But the same Treasury stands ready to sell gold to foreign purchasers on demand through International Central Banks, and they have been wasting our national gold supply in this fashion for more than twenty years. There is a deliberate conspiracy against gold.

Leaders in this conspiracy, here in the U.S., ignore our laws, flout our Constitution and continue to enmesh us more deeply in a morass of irredeemable paper currency while building for themselves additional dictatorial power over our lives and future, through illegal and arbitrary control under hidden guidance.

For twenty years these forces have consistently sought to destroy the value and use of gold in our national life. They have discouraged and destroyed the production of gold in the U.S. and they have distributed, dissipated and mortgaged our government gold reserves to International Bankers.

This has been done under cover of clever propaganda through which the public has been lulled into a false belief that this gold was being preserved for their security.

When Roosevelt seized all gold and ordered our citizens to surrender their gold coins and bullion to the Treasury, he stated in a radio address from the White House, in 1933:

"We shall seek to establish and maintain a dollar which will not change its purchasing and debt paying power during the succeeding generation.—This is a policy and not an expedient. We are thus continuing to move toward a managed currency."

Here was the pronouncement of a financial dictatorship entirely outside of any Constitutional authority vested either in Congress or the President. Here was likewise a public renunciation of the Presidential oath of office, whereby he swore to support and defend the Constitution.

Roosevelt followed his gold seizure with a prohibition of the rights of citizens to possess and hold gold in the future, contrary to their Constitutional property right, under the Fifth Amendment.

This was the most arrogant act in the long range program to deprive us of the safety and power that only gold provides. To understand its significance we must turn our thoughts back to Nov. 16, 1914, the day the Federal Reserve Act was written under the direction of Paul Warburg, agent for the Rothschilds, who in November 1910, traveled quietly from N.Y. to Jekyll Island, Georgia, in a private train accompanied by a picked group of legislators and both national and international bankers. There in secret session they wrote the plan to take over America which was presented to Congress under the leadership of Sen. Aldrich, under the guise of a program to protect the public and the finances of our nation, but by which we were sold "down the river" into the hands of International Bankers who would thereafter take their toll from our blood and sweat and leave us to our tears when it was too late to get out of their clutches.

Then came the recognition of Russia and Soviet agents settled upon us like a swarm of locusts. They became evident in all departments of our government and were soon surrounded by admirers and active collaborators.

The Communists are long range planners. Making a special drive to penetrate our fiscal departments they soon put one of their top agents, Harry Dexter White, in control of the Treasury with his power branching out through subordinate agents in other key positions. In the Senate Report of the Jenner Committee on "Subversives in the Government," there are listed 18 important departments or international bodies in which Harry Dexter White was either the director or the Treasury representative.

Here was an open highway to achievement, of the formula pronounced by Karl Marx, that:

"The surest way to overturn the social order is to debauch the currency."

The popular belief, carefully implanted through years of Treasury propaganda, is that the issue of dollars is limited by the national gold reserve.

In actual practice, two forces in the conspiracy against gold now came together. The Communists, working toward the ultimate wrecking of our economy so as to achieve their well advertised collapse of capitalism. The Federal Reserve working in collaboration with foreign bankers and moving toward complete freedom to issue paper currency under conditions of their choosing.

Each employed the thinking and methods of authoritarian dictatorships with a dim view of our laws, and contempt for our Constitution, so, they worked well as a team. The Communists wanted us to be drowned in an ocean of worthless currency and the Federal Reserve stood ready to create the ocean. Gold is a roadblock to them and they planned to destroy its production here in the U.S. before proceeding with the redistribution of our national gold reserves.

For several years before our entry into World War II there had been increasing

Whether We Like It Or Not!

"We shall have World Government whether or not we like it. The only question is whether it will be achieved by conquest or CONSENT."

So said James P. Warburg in a public speech. This is Warburg of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., whose president, Jacob

James P. Warburg Schiff financed the Communist Revolution in Russia in 1917.

Organizations and publications owned by the same breed are now determined we will have INTEGRATION whether or not we like it!

Hungarian Revolt Purely Anti-Jewish!

MEMORABILIA

THE THIRD ANTI.

The recent anti-Communist and anti-Russian revolution of the Hungarian people got a well-deserved share of publicity: American press did its best to cover the Hungarian events in the minutest details, and even did not hesitate to publish the most revolting pictures of the AVH agents mercilessly killed and mutilated by the mobs.

But, strange to say, by a certain tacit agreement everybody carefully avoided to mention one very important side of those riots: that the hate of the Hungarian "freedom fighters" was primarily directed against the Jews, whom the Hungarian people were accustomed to associate with Communism in general, and the dreaded AVH forces in particular since the days of the infamous Bela Kun, first Communist dictator. About this period TIME, (Jan. 7, 1957) says and we quote: "When Horthy came to Hungary the Red Terror became a counter terror MUCH OF IT DIRECTED AGAINST THE JEWS." (Bela Kun was Jewish)

The same thing happened also during the recent revolt. Why? TIME, of course, does not explain it, but it is clear that the Jewish minority in Hungary practically "in toto" was supporting Communism right from the start, worked actively in the ranks of the Communist Party, and was especially prominent in the AVH forces, just like it was in the Polish "Bezpieka," (Secret Police) headed by a Jew, Jacob Berman.

To prove this statement and for avoiding to be called the "anti-Semitic maniacs" we shall quote here the testimony of those, whom nobody can suspect of spreading defamatory rumors about the Jewish people. Claire Sterling in her article "Anti-Semitism in the Satellites" published by the Jewish magazine THE REPORTER on 4/14/53, makes these revealing statements: "The Hungarian government is ENTIRELY RUN BY MEN OF JEWISH DESCENT...a change in the government might easily bring a PURGE OF ALL JEWS." (p.19) "Gabor

Matyas Rakosi (Jew).

This Communist Jew is responsible for countless Christian deaths.

Peters" (a Jew) is the "head of the AVH or secret police. SEVENTY PER CENT of the Peter's staff is-or was-JEWISH." (p. 20) And Richard O'Regan, correspondent of the AP Agency, wrote from Budapest some time ago that "Nine out of 12 members of the Party Politburo reportedly are of JEWISH ORIGIN. So are 10 out of 12 generals. THEY HAVE MANY JEWISH SUBORDINATES." His correspondence is concluded by such an ominous and prophetic sentence: "The visitor to Budapest leaves with the impression that when the wheel turns, SMOULDERING ANTI-SEMITISM may burst forth in a flame engulfing the new rich and poor, Communist and anti-Communist alike."

This flame had to burst forth during the last Hungarian revolt, but the muzzled American press did not dare to speak about it openly for the most obvious reason: the very existence of the robber state of Israel depends now upon the goodwill of the American nation, and how would it be possible to plead for the American support of the "democratic" state of Israel, when the same "Children of Israel" in another place of the world dressed in the not-so-democratic AVH uniforms murder the Hungarian "freedom fighters" and, in turn, are murdered by them in the most horrible way?

Noel Barber in his article "Personal... From Budapest" published in the Sat. Ev. Post, Dec. 15, 1956, after seeing for himself the assassination of the innocent people by the AVH agents, says that: "It was now, too, that I was able to realize the foulness of the AVH,—the dreaded Hungarian secret police." And in another place he said, and we quote: "The fighters had already demanded that Nagy get rid of the Russians, BUT EVEN MORE INSISTENT were their demands that EVERY SINGLE MEMBER of the AVH should BE SHOT or imprisoned. These had been the henchmen of the hated Stalinist dictator, Matyos Rakosi, before he was kicked out." Matyas Rakosi is also a Jew, (Rosenkranz). Already at the beginning of the riots the rebels had broken into a jail in the capital, seized two prominent Jews, Defense Minister Gen. Hilhaly Farkas and his secret police son, Vladimir Farkas and shot them, this was reported by the AP Agency on Oct. 29, 1956.

There is little doubt, that scores of the Jewish Communists and AVH agents, saving their lives from the revengeful Hungarians, found their way to Austria, and from there were transported as "refugees" to the United States, and to the other free countries. Some of them, as it was written in the British press, were already identified by the Hungarians. It is quite significant, that the Agence France-Presse on January 12th, 1957, reported from Salzburg about the riots in the Hungarian refugee camps of that city "as a result of rumors that Jewish refugees were being GIVEN PREFERENCE IN DEPARTURES FOR THE UNITED STATES." Which shows that even in exile this third "anti" mentioned by us, the burning hate of the Hungarians toward the Jews, is still very much alive and active.

Christianity's Debt To The Jews

By a stereotyped employment of the ancient Pharisaic device of DOUBLE-TALK the Christian world has been utterly deceived as to the DOUBLE-MEANING of the word JEW, the two meanings of which the Pharisees have switched to create a devilish deception.

The ancient Hebrews were a people who accepted the religion and law given them by God through Moses. That most of them failed either to worship God or to obey the law is endlessly detailed in the Old Testament. During their minority status imposed upon them by their Babylonian captors, their cleverest shysters conceived the Pharisaic Conspiracy. Taking the old accepted religion and twisting it beyond recognition by means of arrogant intellectual tricks and frauds, the Pharisees made their members secret conspirators against the Babylonian enemy.

The religious and political warfare initiated by the repatriated Pharisees' arrogant forcing of their tradition of the elders upon the Palestinian Jews split Jewry into the traditional Jews (Sadducees and Samaritans) and the Pharisaic revolutionaries. Out of this revolt against the old religion and law there developed a counter-revolution against the Pharisees themselves—Christianity! From this three-way schism of Jewry, only Christianity and Pharisaism survived in significant strength. For the Pharisaic revolutionaries to claim to be THE Jews is as arrogant and fraudulent a usurpation as for the revolting American colonies to have claimed to be THE British Empire!

We can resolve all this confusion by realizing that the ANCIENT Jews, both their race and their religion, have been little more than a memory since 70 A.D. According to their Talmud, the self-styled "Jews" of today are THE PHARISEES. They have infinitely less claim to the traditions and the ideals of the ancient Hebrews than do the Christians. This truth is adequately explained in the Bible for those who have eyes to see:

"I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan." Revelations, Apocalypse 2:9. Jesus had previously fully exposed the Pharisees as worshipers of the devil (John 8:44) and children of hell (Matthew 23:15).

ONLY ONE DEBT does Christianity owe to the Pharisees: the creation of the appalling environment of hypocrisy, deception, iniquity, and sin which necessitated a remedy—CHRISTIANITY! Christian truth, love, and morality is the eternal foe of Pharisaic fraud, hatred, and treachery. In retaliation Pharisaism has eternally striven to inject its deadly venom into the followers of Christ.

It is Christianity which obeys the Ten Commandments. To the Pharisees these fundamental laws of God are an abomination, which they dare not reject PUBLICLY for fear of the righteous retribution which the outraged Gentiles would certainly visit upon them. Nearly two thousand years ago Jesus clearly explained this:

"Why do ye (Pharisees) also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition (of the elders)?" (Matthew 15:3) "Ye (Pharisees) also outwardly appear righteous unto me, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity" (Matthew 23:28).

That this rejection of the Ten Commandments is still a living and INTEGRAL part of Pharisaism has been RECENTLY demonstrated by the American Jewish Congress and the N.Y. Board of Rabbis. These Modern Pharisaic organizations joined hands to FORCE THE REMOVAL OF THE TEN COMMANDMENTS posted in the schools of New Hyde Park, Long Island! (Feb. 1957)

The Pharisees have no valid claim whatsoever to the cultural debt which the Christian owes to certain of the ancient Hebrews. The Pharisaic rulers themselves owe a similar debt to the ancient Hebrews for providing them with a respected tradition and law code which they could eternally pervert for the purpose of holding in bondage their own people, while exploiting unmercifully all other peoples of the world.

Since neither Moses nor Jesus were Pharisees, then what debt does Christianity owe this evil rebellion against the laws of God? "them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie?" (Revelations, Apocalypse 3:9)

GOLD & YOU

hostility to gold mining on behalf of the Treasury, by the Federal Reserve, and various powerful banks known to reflect their policies. Press stories and articles were appearing quite generally gauged to discredit gold and promote fear that it would lose value, that other nations would abandon its use, that we had a great surplus in the Treasury, that gold mining was a waste of time and energy and that people ought to turn their attention to something useful.

Preparations for the war, and later participation, gave them unlimited opportunity to expand their plans. The war provided a screen to mask their operations under the guise of "Classified Defense Secrecy."

At the start of the war, great pressure from many government departments was brought to bear upon the War Production Board, and an order was issued closing all gold mines in the U.S., which were at that time in the process of being re-equipped. The claim was that the men were needed in other mines and that the equipment and materials were being requisitioned to fill critical shortages. Neither of these alleged purposes was achieved, as no efforts were ever made to requisition machinery or supplies at the mines and the number of men changing over to other mines were negligible.

During the war 66 million dollars worth of mining equipment was taken over by the Federal Government, presumably to be used in the recovery of other vital minerals. Instead, the equipment was shipped part and parcel to the Soviet Union. This equipment put the Communists in the gold mining business and California out of it!

After the war documentary proof of these facts was secured from government files showing that the real objective was the destruction of post-war gold production in the U.S. and that the war necessities were merely used as an excuse.

While the machinery for managed currency was gaining momentum before the war, there was a measure of restraint in its issue. Although working under cover of Congressional sanction, the extensions of the Federal Reserve functions were so obviously in defiance of our monetary laws that it seemed as though a challenge must arise, that someone in banking, or business, or government, would step forward and question the authority assumed, and that the courts would be asked to intervene; but there was no challenge.

After organizing the Treasury and the Federal Reserve for his purposes, White joined with Henry Morgenthau and Maynard Keynes, fresh from London where he had just arrogantly addressed Parliament concerning his hastily conceived notes on a debtor's paper empire which he proposed to sell to the U.S. He then came here and worked out the complicated mass of double talk, befuddling equations and economic mesmerism called the Bretton Woods Monetary Agreements, as a financial superstate to control money, the value of money, trade, commerce and credit throughout the world, but financed by American taxpayers, and controlled by debtor nations.

This was put over on a war weary public under a tremendous barrage of propaganda with an impressive list of names and organizations most of which have since been listed by the government as subversive. This financial super-state was falsely represented as a mere detail of the United Nations Charter, which had just been approved, but instead of being just a mere detail it was the real power through which we surrendered our national sovereignty to a foreign tribunal.

Then the Soviet and Polish delegates, with Keynes and Alger Hiss, became the architects that launched the International Monetary Fund, with Harry Dexter White as director. This was an offshoot from Bretton Woods, presumably to accomplish the exchange of currencies, but in reality it was a trap to sluice away our Treasury gold. The Secretary of the Fund, Frank Coe, was dismissed in Dec. 1952, only after being publicly exposed as a Communist with a record of cooperation for years with their most powerful agents, including White. He had also been technical Secretary of the Bretton Woods Conference and has a lengthy dossier in the Senate Report on Subversives. Through these two organizations the U.S. was agreement bound to maintain the $35 price for gold, and not to change it without Congressional action and the consent of the Fund members.

The gold stored in Fort Knox and other Treasury depositories is actually only a warehouse stock of bars of metal. U.S. gold coins have been melted and destroyed and none of our dollars can be converted into this gold. This gold is sold to foreigners and domestic industrial manufacturers of jewelry, dental goods, etc., at $35 per ounce. They buy and sell gold at this price to their favored international customers, but not to American citizens.

The so-called "gold dollar" or "gold value" of the dollar is only a myth having no actual existence in fact. These beliefs arose when the Gold Reserve Act of 1934 was rushed through Congress purporting to give a gold value to a limited issue of dollars represented by stated number of grains of gold. When this formula was translated into ounces we found it established a gold price of $35 per ounce and the Treasury issued arbitrary Regulations under which it has since operated a gold monopoly for the sale of gold as a commodity at this price. For all practical purposes they have divorced it from monetary use in the U.S.

When Congress passed the Gold Reserve Act of 1934, outlawing gold coins, they effectively nullified the very formula in the Act declaring "the gold content of the dollar" since this would have been the equivalent of establishing a gold coin.

This fiction of the gold content has resulted from a masterful job of brain washing. It is implanted in the minds and language of our citizens so effectively that reference to it is almost automatic. It follows that they believe that "our money is safe because of the gold reserves in Fort Knox."

This gold does not safeguard our savings. It has not prevented our dollars during the past 20 years from losing nearly two-thirds of their purchasing power. This hoax was the beginning of unlimited Socialism here.

Our people cannot receive any part of the gold in exchange, like foreigners, for the Federal Reserve Notes which are popularly referred to as money. No business firm has access to this gold as payment on its accounts, no bank can hold it on deposit. It does not safeguard insurance policies, pension funds or annuities. No post office can pay out any of it on account of postal savings and no citizen can receive any of it in exchange for government bonds.

This follows the Soviet pattern. Under the pretext that their citizens misuse freedom, they confiscate it and make their citizens slaves. In this country, under the pretext that our citizens misuse gold by hoarding, our government confiscates it, and through this maneuver are making us slaves.

Instead of limiting the issue of dollars, either in the form of currency or bank credits, to some reasonable approach to a percentage of the gold on hand, these paper dollars are now turned loose against government bonds, deposit totals in the member banks of the Federal Reserve, their loans, short term Treasury notes and other forms of intangibles which serve as the background for monetized debts.

The flow of American dollars abroad, particularly since 1945, has been a reckless and unregulated river. The astronomical sums stagger the imagination. We have overfed the economies of many nations and all of this was done on the pretext of winning friendships for America, but we now face hostility, dislike and even hatred, practically all over the world. They were greedy for our gold. Now they own the bulk of it, or can take it at their pleasure.

For years the Treasury circulated propaganda, claiming to be the world's largest purchaser of gold and boasted that we had the greatest stock of gold in the world. Now that is changed. During more than four years practically no gold has been sold to us by foreign nations, our buying price of $35 is too low. They can do better elsewhere. During the same period we lost about $3 billion in gold which has been sold abroad at $35, which is a bargain basement price for foreigners, because in terms of their own economies and currencies it is of far greater value to them than its dollar price indicates.

A summary of our present gold position was recently published in the U.S. News & World Report of Feb. 24, 1956; it reveals:

Present U.S. Gold Reserve as down to $21.8 billions. Other nations claims against U.S. gold $13.8 billions. Net U.S. gold reserve for an emergency $8.0 billions.

The effectiveness of the Internationalist plans to put our fiscal policy into a "squeeze" has been well assisted by the mysterious and stubborn policy of the Treasury in maintaining the $35 gold price even though it has now led us to the brink of bankruptcy.

If we consider gold in its relation to national defense, we find that it is the most strategic metal in the world. It ranks as the most necessary metal that we should stockpile, but it has been neglected and ignored by all departments of the government in all plans for defense.

When we consider the importance of gold in the orderly operation of a peacetime economy, and its absolute necessity in time of global war, we realize that the shrunken Fort Knox gold supply is not a tower of strength but a confession of abject weakness!

There is no authority in our Constitution for outright gifts of taxpayers money to foreign governments, but these are being made in utter and flagrant violation of law, and permit many of these foreign nations to pay their commitments to the Rothschild controlled bank of England. Throughout the years there have been many signs in a general design pointing to complete socialization through the destruction of stable Constitutional authority in this country, creating unrest, suffering and economic collapse, to be followed by a war which provides the necessary excuse for the imposition of One World Government so that International Communism could administer and divide up the wreckage. In case the U.S. were suddenly involved in a new war, the paper currency of which we are so proud would be valueless, as were the paper German marks which were used in wheelbarrow loads to buy one loaf of bread.

We can prevent these things by breaking the monopoly and controls placed on our gold by Roosevelt, which opened the way for Stalin's agents and the subversives led by Harry Dexter White, to plan the secret transfer of our wealth to International Bankers.

A Bill is now pending in Congress to establish a Free Gold Market in the U.S. so that the true value of gold here, in terms of what the public calls "our dollars," can be established. With this in operation and with their freedom to buy and hold gold, our citizens will regain a great power that was taken from them back in 1933 and they can ultimately compel our government to establish a sound and realistic money system, and with the fallacy of their present gold price exposed the government can be forced to cancel its plans to ship gold out of the country at bargain basement price.

This Bill is supported in the gold program adopted at the recent Western Governors Mineral Policies Conference, in which the executives of 13 states, in which are located about 82% of all of the nations metal mines and practically all of our national gold deposits, met and formulated a practical plan, based on their Constitutional duties and States-Rights powers, to give the U.S. the greatest future benefits from its ore reserves and metal production.

Unless we again take gold into our control we will remain helpless in the hands of printing-press currency manipulators on our

Your Help Sorely Needed

Dear Fellow American:

I pray that you have begun to realize the awful truth, of the disaster rushing upon us while we are being kept in such blissful ignorance. You may be wondering what you can do to help stop this catastrophe.

There is something very important you can do now: You can send a generous contribution to Mr. Conde McGinley, Editor of COMMON SENSE. Make your donation to Christian Education Assn., Union, New Jersey. You must actually see the wonderful patriots who publish this paper in order to comprehend the sacrifices they are making. They are being threatened, harassed, and some have even been beaten. They have been bombed, pelted with bricks, and threatened with death by this pirate gang which has disarmed us with "brotherhood," "tolerance," "love," and "charity." The editor and many others on his staff donate their time and work free.

Mr. McGinley owned a chain of restaurants, which he gave up in order to devote the rest of his life to this cause. Even the Anti-Defamation League in its smear-sheet, The ADL Bulletin, was forced to admit that he could not possibly be engaged in this thankless job for profit, since he lives the life of a monk who has taken the vows of poverty and given up his worldly possessions.

I have no connection with either Mr. McGinley or COMMON SENSE other than that we are both dedicated to defeating the Jewish Conspiracy. I personally have contributed liberally to his work—no patriotic American can do less.

We are being hounded constantly by organized charities, 90% of the donations collected being expended for organizational work, advertising, films, mailings, etc.

You will find that most of these "charities" are actually big business, and Jewish-controlled. What difference does the Heart Fund, or the Cerebral Palsy, or the Muscular Dystrophy Funds make if Communism takes us over in the near future? We contribute religiously to our Churches, only to hear our Ministers urging Negro-White integration as "the word of God!" as well as Socialism and World Government, as if their "God were Karl Marx!"

THE ONLY CONTRIBUTION NOW THAT COUNTS IS ONE THAT GOES TO CORRECT THE HORRIBLE POLITICAL

DISEASE AFFLICTING ALL OF THE WORLD!!

Because of contributions by dedicated patriots of their time and money, you have received a considerable amount of censorship-breaking literature. This must be done in every community in the United States as a prelude to our organizing for action. If you love your God, your children, and your country, I implore you, concentrate all your contributions on this one Cause, the importance of which overshadows all the others combined. You will sleep better at night, knowing that your contributions are working day and night to guarantee you and your children the right to live as human beings, instead of as terrorized beasts into which Jewish Communism degrades all Gentiles caught in its clutches.

Won't that money you wasted on non-essential frivolity seem bitter if you spend the rest of your life in slave labor, and your children are raised as "integrated" zombies in a no-race, no-religion, hell-on-earth for Gentiles? For the sake of all you hold sacred and dear, aid in this fight! Your fight!

Yours truly,
An American Patriot

Delaware Leads States' Rights Action

Reprinted from the Wilmington Morning News, Wilmington, Del.

Dover, July 19, 1957—Gov. J. Caleb Boggs tonight recommended that the General Assembly be the first of any of the 48 States to move for States' Rights.

The Governor cited the recommendations of President Eisenhower at the recent Governors' Conference at Williamsburg, Va., when the President, talking about taxes and finances, requested the States to do what they could to establish their own financial systems.

The statement by the Governor was unusual and unexpected. But the Governor made it plain that he is sincerely interested in placing Delaware on record as being the first State to recapture the funds that are available for all phases of government.

Mr. Boggs said:

"As members of the General Assembly of Delaware, I know you share my grave concern over the gradual but persistent erosion of the rights and responsibilities of our sovereign State. Every thoughtful citizen will agree that this presents a dangerous threat to the preservation of individual freedom—our most cherished possession.

"Government is most effective and it is most responsive to the will of the people, when it is carried on at the level closest to the people. The wise patriots who wrote our Federal Constitution were well aware of this fundamental truth. They endeavored to bind it into our fabric of government by reserving to the States and communities all powers not specifically bestowed on the Federal system.

Asks Trend Reversed

"Our generation has witnessed an accelerating surrender of these powers to the central government. It serves the purpose to debate whether the transfer was by gift or by seizure. The question before us is whether—and how—this trend can be reversed before it is too late. I firmly believe the people of Delaware want to make their own decisions on their own problems, rather than have this done in Washington."

"I AM NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR THE SUCCESS OR FAILURE OF ANY CAUSE, BUT I AM RESPONSIBLE FOR MY OWN BEST EFFORTS IN THAT CAUSE."

COMMITTEE FOR A FREE GOLD MARKET

Box 868, Angels Camp, California

This Committee offers the opportunity to the American people to organize and protest, in a practical way, against arrogant Treasury practices of the past 22 years which have deprived us of our Constitutional right to possess gold and to hold it as a guarantee of future financial safety. These practices have been continued under the administrations of Presidents Truman and Eisenhower.

Our expanding membership proves belief in the power of public opinion to express the judgment and will of our citizens, and to establish A FREE GOLD MARKET.

THE SUPER-SMART JEW

From The Methodist Challenge

This is not a criticism of the Jews. It is a statement of fact that reflects the keen thinking and expert planning of Jewish leaders. It is a fact that the Jews are gradually taking over the Universities of America, many of them Protestant Church supported. They are heading up the NAACP and undertaking the dominance of the Negroes. They are behind the FEPC, the Genocide Treaty and the huge money give-away program of the present administration. They are bringing tremendous pressure upon our government to supply arms to Israel and thus become a party to the arms race of the Middle East.

They have a world-wide collection agency, rivaling the Red Cross, and through numerous "begging" groups are bringing millions of dollars into the coffers of the Zionists.

I repeat, this is not a criticism. I am saying that the Jew is a smart guy and has been throughout history.

Is Your Freedom Worth The Fight?

Do you want to do something practical to help prevent your country going like many countries throughout Europe?

It is just a matter of education. Evil forces have spent millions, brainwashing us in preparation for the final take over of the United States. If these forces are not sufficiently exposed soon they will have destroyed our people's will to resist.

The Marxists are working to destroy our Constitution, and impoverish us by steady mounting taxation and wars—then the final move for complete enslavement will come. IT IS COMING UNLESS YOU HELP TO TURN THE TREND!

Now that you understand what is going on, help place these facts in your neighbor's hands. The simplest and effective way to do this is to buy and distribute the patriotic, factual newspaper COMMON SENSE.

"Immigrationalsists" Conspire To Destroy The United States!

By Merwin K. Hart, President of the National Economic Council
Letter No. 408

Today immigration is one of the greatest subjects agitated in the halls of Congress and throughout the country. The present disposition of some Congressional leaders is to pass an immigration bill. And it may be taken for granted that such a bill would further let down the bars. So note carefully what follows.

There is no subject to which more thought is given by international communism, under orders from Moscow, than immigration. For the greatest force of communism and one which has been almost wholly successful the forty years since the Communist Internationale was set up, is infiltration. And infiltration in any given country is impossible without getting entry for communist agents. This was early realized by Soviet Russia and she has acted on it without ceasing.

In 1922 the Communist Internationale in Moscow established the International Red Aid. This had three purposes: the movement and deployment of communists and those most susceptible to communist discipline; the fighting of deportations within the various countries; and the working within Western countries among aliens and various nationality groups for communist objectives.

Within ten years International Red Aid had penetrated sixty-seven countries. They had 83,000 organizations and various subsidiary groups, controlled by 40,000 highly placed, trained communist officials. These organizations had an aggregate membership of more than 11 million.

The American section of I.R.A., organized in 1925 as the International Labor Defense, within ten years developed 800 subsidiary organizations.

The communists supplemented and implemented this operation by what they call a united front tactic—namely, to work with non-communist and even anti-communist groups on specific immigration objectives. That's where they fooled a multitude of good people, including churchmen.

A recent FBI analysis showed that of 5,000 of the more militant communists in the U.S., 91.5% were foreign born, married to foreign born, or of foreign parentage. One half of them traced their ancestry to Russia or its satellites. As we have stated before, Congressman Francis Walter in a Reader's Digest article of May, 1953, said that the House Un-American Activities Committee had found some three to five million persons who were illegally in the U.S. Mr. Richard Arens, director of that Committee, said recently that thousands of warrants were outstanding for the deportation of communists, criminals and other subversives which were completely unenforceable.

Mr. Arens, in an address to the Daughters of the American Revolution, April 18, 1957, reported there had been a complete breakdown in the enforcement of our immigration laws; that in Miami he had seen stacked up on the desk of the District Director of Immigration scores of files on cases of foreign subversives, international agents en route to the U.S. via Cuba. Mr. Arens asked:

Congressman Francis Walter

We owe Cong. Walter a great debt for standing up for America.

"How can you intercept these people?" "And they said, 'We can't. There is an outstanding order by the State Department that all documentation is waved for all persons coming into this country from Cuba ostensibly for less than twenty-nine days.' And we knew there were fifty thousand communists then in Havana, alone.

"We returned to Washington and asked the State Department about it and they said, 'The law says we may waive documentation in certain emergency cases, so we gave a blanket order.' And we said, 'What was the emergency?' and the answer was, 'The emergency is the terrific pressure we are under to get people into the United States.' "!!!

Pressure from the communists, of course. Pressure exerted in most cases indirectly through a multitude of groups. Most or all of these groups have secured deductibility before taxes for contributions, while groups like the National Economic Council which are fighting for their country's continued freedom, are refused deductibility.

Here then is a conspiracy to destroy America—a conspiracy that is being advanced and financed largely through money taken from the taxpayers!

Incidentally, Mr. Arens reported that they found consulates and embassies in this country to be virtually spy nests. He added:

"We interrogated officials of the Immigration and Naturalization Service and of the Dept. of State and not a single official testifying under oath could recall a single case in the history of the Republic in which a visa or admission was denied to an alien seeking admission to the U.S. in diplomatic status, on security grounds. Robert C. Alexander, who was then the Assistant Administrator of the Visa Div. of the Dept. of State, testified under oath that the visa office was turning down or recommending adversely between ten and fifteen cases a month of dangerous Soviet agents who were seeking admission into the U.S., but, he said, 'We are uniformly, without exception, overruled by the higher echelons in the Dept. of State.'

"Within two weeks time, the State Dept. empaneled a special commission to reprimand Mr. Alexander for reckless, dangerous statements."

It would thus appear that these "higher echelons" in the State Dept. have long played and still play the part of accomplices of communism.

Mr. Arens said that his Committee pick—

Hungarian Mosaic Or Queer Isn't It?

The state of Israel was founded on an undeniably unlawful act of robbery: nearly one million of the Arab indigenes were chased out from the land of their ancestors, their property confiscated without any compensation, and many of them were brutally murdered. Only recently the Jews killed most unlawfully 452 Arab civilians when invading the Gaza Strip. (Palestine Refugee Agency Report) The attack on Egypt by Israel which nearly started the 3rd World War can hardly be called a "lawful" act. . . . As Eisenhower said: A LAW-MINDED NATION such as ISRAEL could hardly be regarded in the same light as Russia. —Queer isn't it? . . . Could you imagine someone approving openly a POGROM in the American press? But, believe it or not, such a thing really happened, and happened only a few weeks ago. The famous writer James Michener, after observing the Hungarian revolt, said, and we quote: "I devoutly believe that the human race would have been better off if the Hungarians had ASSASSINATED EVERY ONE of the 30,000 AVO." (AVO or AVH,—Hungarian Secret Police)

But, as it was once stated by THE REPORTER, 70% of the AVO agents are Jewish, and its top officers are ALL Jews. Consequently Mr. Michener advocates nothing less than the outright assassination of 20,000 Jews, (70% of 30,000) and the complete extermination of the Jewish-controlled AVO,—Anti-Defamation League take notice and act!—Queer isn't it? . . . During the trial of the famous "Atomic Spies" Julius and Ethel Rosenberg, Judge Kaufman said that by their treason they "changed the course of history." On March 1st the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee reported that the late Harry Dexter White and his "lieutenants" Frank Coe, Solomon Adler and Irving Friedman brought the economic destruction of Nationalist China by holding back the gold shipments, and thus paved the way to communist invasion. There is little doubt that this betrayal of China also "changed the course of history" even more than the Rosenbergs' treason.

Jacobson and Weizman persuaded Mr. Truman to establish Israel, and this stupid and criminal act not only "changed the course of history" but actually brought the world to the brink of the atomic war. . . . Consequently already THREE TIMES within a few years a group of Jews had been able to "change the course of history" most radically. These questions arise: HOW could it happen? WHO is responsible? And HOW LONG will the Jews be permitted to shape the destinies of the world?—Queer isn't it? Or tragic?

Hungarian Tragedy

From: Congressional Record—Appendix Extension of Remarks Of
HON. ALVIN M. BENTLEY
Of Michigan

In The House Of Representatives, 7/2/57

Mr. Speaker, under leave to revise and extend my remarks in the Appendix of the Record, I wish to insert the following two resolutions recently passed at the Congress of the Association of Hungarian Students in the United States:

Memorandum

After the revolution in Hungary 18,000 Hungarians took refuge in Yugoslavia to escape the retributions of Bolshevik terror. This number includes 1,600 high school and 500 university and college students. After the hermetic closing of the Austrian border they found no other way to escape and they hoped to find guarantees for their personal freedom through the humanitarian aid of the Yugoslavs. Instead of freedom they found themselves in heavily guarded camps. This following letter will illustrate their present situation and the violation of all civil rights by the Government of Yugoslavia:

"Thanks God, I have only spent 6 days in the death camp of Gerovo. I am one of the few Hungarian refugees who has not been worked over by the clubs of the guard. I am fortunate to be on a transport to leave shortly for Canada. Finally after 5 months a few of us have the freedom of limited movement. It is hard to explain the majestic feeling to have left the prison behind with its fivefold fences. We are permitted to see the doctor in Gerovo but even then we may not use the road and have to walk through the mud. I am not complaining. All I am asking of you is to bring these to the attention of everybody you meet to let them know how mercilessly the Hungarians are being treated. We have written in vain to the Refugee Committee of the U.N. and the International Red Cross. There has been no response. Very probably our letters have not been forwarded, therefore they may not even know the conditions in the refugee camps. I beg you to be spokesman for 15,000 refugees still in Yugoslavia for their situation is very grave. Those who have returned to Hungary were bitter and convinced that the Kadar regime cannot be worse than the conditions here. I think this very fact speaks for itself. Not to mention the corrupt administration of the distribution of the gifts by the Red Cross. Every camp has stores of clothing. Yet people are walking around in underwear for they have no replacement for their torn clothing. The newly born babies are covered in rags collected from the tattered dresses of merciful people. In the camp of Marusevec we had no drinking water for days. The adult could easier stand it but it was hard on the mother. They could not give a drop to drink to their babies or wash the diapers. The daily cleaning is called a luxury and the bathing a capitalistic habit. In Lovran we organized a hunger strike because the food was inedible. The camp director in answer had shut off the water for 3 days and he recommended the ocean to the mothers for bathing their babies. (in Feb.) I can hardly wait to get out of here to be able to do something for those unfortunates left behind."—P.K.

We wish to add nothing to this letter of an eyewitness. The methods are not unknown to us. We have known them in the Hungarian prisons.

The assertion that the refugees went to Yugoslavia because they felt sympathetic toward its regime is not true. They fought as hard as anyone else especially for the defense of the uranium mines on the Hungarian-Yugoslav border. Their flow into Yugoslavia corresponded with the tightening Soviet-Hungarian controls over the frontier between Hungary and Austria. See page 21 of the Report of the Special Study Mission to Europe of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs.

To support the facts and truthfulness of the above letter we would like to point out the following:

(a) Switzerland was not permitted to send medicine to the Hungarian camps in Yugoslavia.

(b) The medicine gift made by Denmark had to be smuggled in.

(c) A well-known Belgian diplomat has recently completed a visit in the Yugoslav camps. After World War II he has investigated conditions in Nazi concentration camps.

"What I have seen in Yugoslav camps I shall never forget until I die," was his final conclusion.

(d) Photos taken in the camps speak for themselves.

(e) Testimonies by Hungarians brutally beaten up also support the conditions referred to in the mentioned letter.

(f) It is known that the Yugoslav Government regards the Hungarian refugees as a source of income. They collect $5 a day per every refugee and save approximately $4.50. Further the Titoist regime accepts the Soviet version of the Hungarian revolution

McCarthy's Last Crusade

On Jan. 30, 1957, Sen. Joe McCarthy fought his last major battle against our sworn enemies, and fittingly enough his opponent was a Jew.

On that date the nomination of James David Zellerbach of California to be Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the U.S.A. to Italy was submitted to the U.S. Senate. The ONLY Senator to rise in opposition to his nomination was McCarthy.

On the other hand, there was vicious opposition to McCarthy and support for Zellerbach from Senators Wm. Knowland, Jacob Javits, and Richard Neuberger. The last two named are Jews with Red-front records—Javits has a particularly serious record. Javits stated, "I have known Mr. Zellerbach for 25 years, personally and intimately." During the Senate Foreign Relations Committee hearing on his nomination only Wm. Langer appeared in opposition, while vocal support was given by Wayne Morse, Mike Mansfield, Wm. Knowland, Hubert Humphrey, and Wm. Fulbright. (See pages 1112-1118, Cong. Record, Jan. 30, 1957)

The following information on Zellerbach's Communist-front record was compiled by the American Legion and added to by Sen. McCarthy (as to his criminal record):

JAMES DAVID ZELLERBACH

Communist-front record:

Institute of Pacific Relations—member board of trustees from 2-18-47 to 2-15-49, suggested by Ray Lyman Wilbur (who also has a front record)—voted against an investigation of communist influence within the IPR on 4-22-47. (See IPR hearings, Vol. 14, p. 4944)

Served on the Board of trustees with:

Owen Lattimore, John K. Fairbanks, Ed. C. Carter, Frederick Vanderbilt Field, Lauchlin Currie.

Committee Opposing House Bill J.R. 211, helped to draft and signed statement opposing Bill 211, which, if adopted, would have required un-American, subversive, commuand would rather welcome the repatriation of refugees than their settlement in the free West.

It is very tragic that 600 college students and more than 1,800 high school students under the age of 18 must vanquish in police camps after their heroic stand during the revolution.

The communists tried to poison the soul of the youth by keeping them under demoralizing conditions to break their revolutionary and idealistic spirit. The Hungarian youth, by choosing the hardship of exile, has rejected the Soviet approach. They were looking for a world where they can find freedom, love and unlimited human rights. This is why we are turning to you for cooperation and assistance to save the faith of those who are interned by Titoist dictatorship.

Thank you for your understanding.

Most sincerely yours,

Aladar Merenyi,
President of UFHS.

Resolution—Deportations

We, the Association of Hungarian students in the U.S., charge that the Soviet Union and its puppet government in Hungary have by mass deportation, virtually destroyed the rising intellectual and cultural leadership of Hungary.

We charge that 46,000 Hungarians between the ages of 12 and 22 years of age have been imprisoned in concentration camps in Vologda, Tchaika, Suda, Krasnoyarsk and Novosibirsk in the Soviet Union; 12,000 young people are imprisoned in Obuda and Nepliget in the suburbs of nistic murals painted by a notorious pro-communist to be removed from the Rincon Annex P.O. Bldg., San Francisco. (See House Comm. on Public Works, 5-1-55, hearing, pp. 78-9) Zellerbach said he took this action as San Francisco Museum of Art board member because they were "very good paintings."

Radical Record

The National Committee for An Effective Congress—Signed a telegram to U.S. Senate supporting Flanders' resolution of censure against McCarthy on 7-23-54. Other signers included: Cass Canfield, Sam Goldwyn, Paul Hoffman, Reinhold Niebuhr, and Walter Reuther—all of whom have front records.

United World Federalists—member of the national advisory board, 1954-5. Fund for the Republic—member board of trustees for 3 years, just resigned. Bilderberg Conferences (More properly called an Illuminati organization) since 1954 a member of the U.S. delegation.

Foreign Policy Association—a director. Council on Foreign Relations—a member.

Budapest awaiting shipment to points outside of Hungary; 1,600 survivors of the siege of Csepel Island, whose age is unknown, have been deported to communist China.

Roughly 60,000 students attended Hungarian colleges and universities before the revolution. Approximately 7,000 fled to the West when the revolution failed. If, therefore, only one-third of the 58,000 young people known to be in prison are, in fact, students, then over 20,000 young people, or between 30 or 40 percent of Hungary's college and university students have been imprisoned or deported. The Soviet imperialists have dedicated themselves to nothing less than the destruction of our national culture and heritage. We, as a people, are apparently to be destroyed. Stalin's boast that the Hungarian problem was only a matter of boxcars is apparently being put to the test.

The Soviet Union and its puppet regime in Hungary deny that deportations have ever taken place. Yet at least one of the members of our association has sworn under affidavit that he was deported to the Soviet Union, but managed to escape from his captors and escape to freedom. Other members of our organization saw their colleagues put into boxcars in Budapest or, themselves, escaped from railway cars before being moved outside of Hungary.

The Association of Hungarian Students in the U.S. calls upon students throughout the world to protest the Soviet deportations of Hungarian students and to work for the freedom of those who are now in concentration camps. These students are not criminals. They sought the freedom to study what they wished to study. They have never been tried in courts of law. They have, instead, been taken by Soviet troops, thrust into boxcars and shipped like cattle

Nat'l Conference of Christians and Jews—director and nat'l vice chairman. (Pacific division) Institute of International Education—trustee. Committee for Economic Development—chairman 1956. Nat'l Fund for Medical Education—a trustee. (with Anna Rosenberg)

The last ten organizations named have been attacked as pro-communist or radical in varying degrees.

CRIMINAL SUIT

The Dept. of Justice in a release dated Nov. 19, 1956, gave the details of 3 anti-trust judgments entered against firms of which Zellerbach was an officer: Crown-Zellerbach Corp. of San Francisco, American Linen Supply Co., and Chicago Towel Co. They had been charged under provisions of the Sherman and Clayton Acts. Result: a fine and restraining order and consent decrees signed by the companies. Jacob Javits represented him in the East to 1941 in earlier case. Javits' law firm represented them to date.

Internationalist Background

International Labor Organization in Geneva—U.S. employer delegate and vice chairman of governing body—1945-8. ECA Special Mission to Italy (Marshal Plan) Chief—1948-50. United Nations—Alternate U.S. delegate to 8th Gen. Assembly—1953; Rep. of U.S. in UN on technical assistance to underdeveloped countries. Committee for a Nat'l Trade Policy—director. The Asia Foundation—director and member of exec. committee. Nat'l Manpower Council (Col. University)—chairman since 1951.

Zellerbach is a very important Jew and McCarthy knew it so he fought him. The rest of the Senate laid down and died.

Zellerbach was not appointed by Ike, his name was submitted to the President by the Invisible Government and automatically OK'd by Eisenhower.

ZIONISM AND MARXISM MARCH ON!!

from their native land.

We ask for the support of the freedom-loving students of the world. We ask them to come to the aid of their colleagues now in prison in the Soviet Union. We ask them to protest to the Kadar regime, to its embassies in their countries and to the government and embassies of the Soviet Union. Let our culture and traditions not be submerged by the Soviet imperialists.

The Iron Curtain Over America

When this book was first published by John Beaty, it immediately became a sensation. It had everything. It was documented. It could not be denied by the experts of distortion and alibi. Up to date it is in its fourteenth printing. And yet this book has been given the diabolic and un-American "silent treatment" that marks the war of the subversives upon American ideology. "The Iron Curtain Over America" is being read because hundreds of thousands of intelligent patriots will not be denied the truth.

This book is a must for those who want to actually know the rise and progress, the aim and purpose, the beginning and end of Communism!

IMMIGRATIONALISTS

ed at random 100 names from the thousands of diplomats within the U.S. from countries behind the Iron Curtain. These they sent to the Central Intelligence Agency and asked their backgrounds. Thirty-two proved to be active in the intelligence service of their respective countries; 29 in communist organization work; and 21 in other subversive activities.

Shortly thereafter the late Senator McCarran introduced a bill providing that no one could be admitted into the U.S. whose presence here would jeopardize public safety or security, irrespective of his status, diplomatic or otherwise. Immediately the State Dept. attacked the bill and completely stopped it on the theory that it would jeopardize our relations with the Soviet Union in our endeavor to build with them a world of peace!

Communism was still telling the State Department what to do.

Mr. Arens in 1952 headed the staff that made an investigation of the refugee situation in Europe. He and his associates came back with the sworn testimony of the immigration and security agents of this country in Europe. This testimony showed that 40% of the so-called "refugees" from Soviet Russia or its satellites were in a subversive or criminal category; that 30% in West Germany were either communist agents, sympathizers or security risks; that there were an estimated 60,000 Red agent "sleepers" in the pipeline waiting to come to the U.S. The staff also had the sworn testimony that it would be impossible to screen them out.

Yet the Refugee Relief Act was passed, allowing 214,000 more to be brought into the U.S. Sen. McCarran, Rep. Francis Walter and Sen. Jenner saw to it that an experienced and loyal American, Mr. Almanzo Tripp, was designated to head the screening operations. Shortly thereafter Mr. Walter received a phone call from the head of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, who told him, "We just piped into a meeting down in N.Y. City of what we might call a 'liberal' group, and a man got up and said: 'We are going to have Tripp knocked off.'" However, the head of the Immigration Service said, "Don't worry about it. We think we can hold it off."

But ten days later Mr. Tripp himself telephoned Mr. Arens and said, "I just got my orders. I am to be completely removed from the refugee program."

Then the next year the Refugee Relief Act was itself amended to liberalize its provisions. The definition of a refugee was so broadened that it would encompass anyone anywhere in the world who was outside of his homeland.

Mr. Arens said in his speech to the Daughters of the American Revolution:

"What of the present situation on the Immigration and Nationality Act? About a year and a half ago the Attorney General of the U.S. came before the Senate Immigration Sub-committee to testify upon what were announced as 'moderate revisions' of the Immigration and Nationality Act. He read a prepared statement. It was my responsibility as Staff Director of the Sub-committee to cross-examine him and to interrogate him. I was amazed to find he didn't know the provisions of the very bills he was endorsing and to which he was lending the prestige of his office. These bills would triple immigration and destroy the security safeguards of this Government."

Then Mr. Arens added:

"Thereafter, in about ten days the Secretary of State requested the opportunity to appear before the same Committee and to read a prepared statement lending the prestige and dignity of his office to the movement. But the very morning he was to appear, an emissary came from the State Dept. and said, 'The Secretary of State will not submit himself to any interrogation.' And so I was silenced in my attempts to reveal the facts respecting the bills which he was supporting and which likewise would have emasculated our protective immigration system."

So the Secretary of State permitted himself to be drawn into this communist conspiracy—repeat, drawn into this communist conspiracy.

During the second session of the 84th Congress (that is, in 1956) a series of amendments were added on the last day of the session to a routine bill pending in the Senate. These amendments were not even printed, as is the custom in the Senate, nor were they referred to any Committee of the Senate. There was no Committee report. There was no record vote. However, they were railroaded through the Senate. They would have increased immigration from the normal 230,000 a year to around one million. They would have destroyed the national origins quota system and would have emasculated the screening provisions.

Fortunately for America, Representative Francis Walter of Pennsylvania, Chairman of the Immigration Sub-committee of the House, stood firm and stopped these amendments in the House. For this action he is entitled to the eternal gratitude of the American people.

The House Committee on Un-American Activities has learned that during the past three years the Communist Party has created and now controls within the U.S. 180 organizations dedicated exclusively to bringing grass-roots pressure on the Congress to destroy the Walter-McCarran Act. The greatest success the communists have had is that they have persuaded the "liberals" and large segments of the general public that this communist drive is not communist at all—that it is simply an attempt to liberalize and make more "democratic" and humane our present immigration system.

Through these communist groups the communists claim (and the House Committee on Un-American Activities believes them) that they can have on Capitol Hill within 72 hours, 50,000 letters on any subject under the sun. Says Mr. Arens:

"In this campaign, wittingly or unwittingly, they have ready allies in the professional immigrationists and in the vote-hustling demagogues who would trade the security and welfare of this nation for so-called nationality bloc votes..."

These communists know that in the White House now Mr. Max Rabb, Secretary of the Cabinet, has as his major responsibility to look after the interests of the nationality groups of this country. In all probability that is what he was put there for.

The Economic Council has talked much about the budget, as our readers know. We believe that if public spending is not quickly taken in hand by the Congress this country can go broke—literally go broke. The fact that the Treasury's offer of three and five eighths percent bonds the week of May 12, was in large part a flop speaks for itself. We do not remember when an offer of U.S. bonds has failed.

President Eisenhower today is urging his $4 billion budget for foreign aid as necessary to defeat international communism. But the immigration legislation the Administration favors would meanwhile help communism to destroy America here at home.

This matter of immigration is vital. We have permitted our immigration policy to be shaped by communists—mostly by alien communists or their sons. The kind of people they have brought in have come to destroy America.

Mr. Walter said on TV recently that most of the first 6200 Hungarian refugees brought to the U.S. were communists, who were fleeing before the anti-communist rebels.

Congress should do something to get rid of most of these aliens illegally in this country. They are a menace to our very existence as a free nation.

All immigration should be stopped for a term of years, except for proven relatives of those legally in America.

Let there be an end of yielding to communists, internationalists and ignorant do-gooders including those misled clerics who want to substitute the "social gospel" for the gospel of Christ.

Congress will move, if enough of you citizens act.

Mad World

From Miami Beach SUN—

Have you read where Republican Sen. John J. Williams of Delaware is stuck with $1,508.26 left over from his last year's office stationery allowance? In previous years, when this happened to this thrifty Sen., he was permitted to return the surpluses to the U.S. Treasury. A new Treasury ruling now prohibits Williams to return any surpluses. If he keeps the money, he will have to pay federal income tax on it. If he formally gives it to the Treasury, it will be gift-taxed. The Treasury's only suggestion is that Williams buy and take delivery on $1,508.26 worth of stationery, then have it carted off to the Washington city dump. Think about this when you again make a tax payment. Here is a classical example of the current drunken Government spending, criminal waste, and silliness which boils my blood when our taxes aren't cut.

When Woodrow Wilson became President, the National debt was one billion dollars; today it is 270 billion dollars.

Bernard Baruch has been the powerful presidential advisor from Wilson through Eisenhower, inclusive. To the credit of the "Elder Statesman" are TWO WARS—and we are now threatened with MARXIST rule and inflation.

A LETTER TO THE EDITOR:—

House Resolution No. 1, to provide Federal funds for the construction of classrooms in the United States to take care of the expected heavy increase in pupil load within the next 5 years, was defeated on July 25th. This contrasts with House Resolution No. 9131, to provide $3,525,000 in Federal funds to develop educational, scientific and cultural centers in Israel, was passed August 7th, by a vote of 330 for, 75 against and with 37 members not voting. Actually there were 126 Members of Congress who on July 25th voted against using Federal funds for education in the foreign nation of Israel. Why should we deny funds for educational purposes in the United States and then turn around and give American taxpayers' money to pay for education in Israel?

Misguided actions like this generate the suspicions that are now plaguing our foreign aid programs. When Congress does more for Israel, than it will do for the people of the United States, how can we assume a posture of impartiality in foreign Affairs?

Yours very truly,

Many Popes Condemn Jews And Their Obscene Talmud

THROUGHOUT THIS ARTICLE THE READER WILL FIND QUOTES—THEY ARE DIRECT FROM THE JEWS OWN ENCYCLOPEDIA. WE PRINT THE FACTS HERE AND LET YOU BE THE JUDGE.

We have always hoped it would not be necessary to publicly oppose the position held by a Minister of the Gospel. During the last few years such strides have been made in Judaizing Christian circles that thousands of Christians, Catholics, and non-Catholics, are greatly alarmed.

The large number of readers and the many contacts we have throughout the U.S. keeps us continually informed. Many Methodists, Presbyterians and Baptists have quit their Church because of the Marxist-Judaic influence exerted by the NATIONAL COUNCIL OF CHURCHES, which is closely aligned with the AMERICAN JEWISH COMMITTEE, (See American Jewish Committee Budget 1953 where they boast of their influence in Churches. (Order from Common Sense, price $5.00).

The 1954 Budget reports to their Jewish members that they re-write Catholic Text-books for school children. When a member of the clergy confines his writings to theology, we do not question him. However, when he enters other fields, he is subject to criticism the same as the lay man and especially so if he writes about a subject about which he is not well informed.

In his article published June 2, 1957, Father Ginder has dealt with a subject on which he is anything but an authority. The Editor of COMMON SENSE has given 24 years study of the Marxist "CONSPIRACY" which is likely the approximate time Father Ginder has given to the study of religion, hence we may both claim to be authorities, but on different subjects. Father Ginder has written on an explosive subject and in a ridiculous form, just as this editor would likely do writing on religion. Such ridiculous nonsense by a Priest can be harmful. Catholics who respect him as a Priest are misled and confused. Catholics who are students of the Jewish communist plot are embarrassed to have a Priest propound such absurd, false information.

Elizabeth Dilling is a sterling Christian Protestant who formerly defended the self-styled Jews. After twenty-five years research, sixteen world trips, lecturing in every city in the United States and writer of several books, she certainly should qualify as an outstanding authority on a subject of which Father Ginder is an amateur. Hence, COMMON SENSE publishes Mrs. Dilling's answer, in part, to Father Ginder so the true facts may be known.

The "Jewish question" is the most important question before the world. Not excluding the Hydrogen bomb. The alarming threats to the world cannot be fully understood by those who do not fully understand this subject. Those who attempt to write on the "Jewish question" should understand it, and this is possible only after much study. Many Priests do understand the subject

We Need A Runnymede Now Before It's Too Late!

Of the many American lawyers who assembled recently at Runnymede, probably not one in ten had ever read the Magna Carta. Our Chief Justice may have brushed up on it for the occasion. It is not a document easily found in book stores and libraries. In fact, in some large libraries it takes time to locate a copy. It is discussed in encyclopedias but generally not quoted in full.

The barons and bishops who forced the Charter from the hands of King John not only wanted freedom from the unbridled will of the King, but they also demanded freedom from the financial power of the Jews—a power too often used by the King himself. By threatening the Jews, the King could replenish his exchequer.

It must be remembered that the Christians of that day were not allowed to accept interest—that field was left wide open for the Jew. The Jew used it until he had enslaved the debtor. All that was corrected by the Charter.

The Kings following John pledged allegiance to the Charter and reissued it generally following the original text. The feeling against the Jews, their trickery and usury grew until the coming of King Edward who settled the matter by giving them six months to leave the English shores. How much simpler would be the problems facing England today if the policy of King Edward had been adhered to. But wars bring the Jew back into power. His money is sought for and to get it concessions must be made. With the coming of Cromwell came the return of the Jews. Their appeal to return was referred to a commission of merchants and devines appointed by Cromwell—"The Protector" and although they reported against it, Cromwell connived to let them return. Like a growing cancer they have penetrated throughout the soft spots of the English race. But the English basic stock is still sound, fully capable of purging the nation of the Jew notwithstanding the fact that his sons and daughters have married into English wealth, aristocracy and royalty.

Today they have a powerful influence on all English policy just as they have throughout the United States. They were the deciding factor in our recognition of Israeli 11 minutes after it had been declared a state by the U.N. Forrestal had opposed the recognition of Israeli. Due to his opposition the Jews were after his scalp and he was on his way out as a Cabinet officer. When four Ambassadors of the Middle East appealed to President Truman not to recognize Israeli, but to abide by the promises made by President Roosevelt to the Arabs, President Truman is quoted to have said—"I am sorry, gentlemen, but I have to answer to hundreds of thousands who are anxious for the success of Zionism. I do not have hundreds of thousands of Arabs among my constituents." That fixed the Jewish vote for the time.

We need a Runnymede in the United States to free ourselves from the growing power of the Jews in finance and politics. It is reported that our Secretary of State has said that he trembles at the growing power of the Jews throughout the world. The wisdom of the statement credited to Benjamin Franklin when he urged the framers of the Constitution not to grant suffrage to the Jews, stands proved. All the effort today to prove that Franklin made no such statement is beside the point. The fact remains that such a recommendation by any delegate would have been wise for the importance of the facts involved stand 100% true no matter who might have voiced them.

Although there are over thirteen million Jews of all classes in our Republic they have not, as yet, entered the life blood of our race so seriously that a purge is impossible. Let us work and pray for that day when an aroused Congress loyally, backed by forty-eight legislatures representing the determined will of the great majority of our Christian citizens, frame a charter which the President of that day will be forced to sign, issue and execute. Such a charter should give the Jews a limited time in which to close their affairs and leave our shores, at home and abroad.

Nothing less will save the United States of America.

anti-Pharisaism of Jesus Christ, the Popes, and other authorities of your own church, it would seem, to be facetious, that you went out on a limb, and fell with the limb! Too bad, because I checked up by reading another editorial of yours on prophecies of Christ and found it sound, excellent. Just what sort of spirit inspired your all-out verbal frolic against "anti-Semites" who issue "mimeographed material"—cheap stuff—forgetting that the Divine One, who had no place to lay His head, told Truth without even a mimeograph, and that poverty is a monastic vow—well—that is the question. I might suspect a canny "convert" at your side. Anti-Christianity, Atheism, is well-financed-always! You know that.

You start off gaily with this: That any idea of a Jewish plot is as asinine as the idea that Catholics or Masons are trying to run the world—neatly junking Christ's own prophecy of Matthew 23:35 that the Pharisee synagogue of Satan would be guilty of "all the righteous bloodshed upon the earth..." You may not know that the religion called "JUDAISM" today is anti-Biblical, pagan, anti-Christ Pharisaism, Babylonian Talmudism in written form. It is sheer criminality out of the sewers of Hell—which is why Christ and the Popes spoke as they did against it.

YOU SAY:

"It takes all kinds to make a world, including a generous sprinkling of crackpots ranging from the mildly eccentric to the slavering fanatic—and how they love religion! To judge from our mail over a period of years, a great many people in this country are convinced that the whole world is secretly being run or about to be run by:

- "1. Jews, or
- "2. The Catholics, or
- "3. The Freemasons.

"Once a person harbors such a notion, it becomes an obsession. He thinks and talks of nothing else... It is actually a form of insanity..." You return to this theme by referring to: "this madness of anti-Semitism," and you end with the warning that if you do not beware of the "opinion that 'they' are weaving plots and conspiracies against mankind...in the end someone may have to call the wagon and have you carted off to the nearest MAD-HOUSE."

At this point, if you will return to the last photostat in my compilation, an article in the American Hebrew by Rabbi Spitz, you will see that that is exactly his idea: to fill JAILS and ASYLUMS with opponents of Pharisaism, ludicrously called "anti-Semites."

THE PAPAL BULLS

You continue:

"Traditionally, the Jews have always been the whipping boy for such people." At this point, shall we read the Bulls of the Popes from the earliest centuries on down the line to the 20th century—together—and denounce them as "BIGOTS, CRACKPOTS, Etc."?

JEWISH ENCYCLOPEDIAS ON POPES

The Jewish, and the Universal Jewish (1943) encyclopedias unite in stating that the Popes protected the Jews from violence, were ardently in favor of converting them, and fluctuated between lapsing and enforcing bans against Jewry, on the principle that they were "so many CAINS" bent on destroying the Christian, mind and soul.

Would you have "carted off to the nearest madhouse" the Popes who, as rulers of the Papal States or advisors to Kings, did the following? Take Jewish slavery: The basic doctrine of Pharisaic Judaism is that all non-Jews rank as animals: "the people who are like an ass—slaves who are the property of the master." (Keth. 111a etc., etc.) That Jews were principal slave dealers down through the Greek and Roman empires, and were first to bring African slaves to this country, is revealed under "Anti-Slavery," etc. (Jewish Ency., 1905) To quote:

"In this" (slave-dealing) "Jews became conspicuous during the later eras of the Roman empire...it is to Jewish relations to slavery that one can trace a number of outbreaks against the Jews on the part of the common Church...Emperor Constantine, the Theodosian code, Pope Gregory I...prohibited...the retention of Christian slaves by Jews." (p. 651) And: "certain precepts in the Maimonidean code of laws were specifically antagonistic to the emancipation of non-Jewish slaves" (page 649).

THAT is because the enslavement of the entire "animal" world is the objective of the only "Humans," the Pharisees, who alone are "MEN" (Exhibit 268 of the PLOT). Maimonides is a Pharisee Talmudic Big-Shot (1135-1204) of Judaism, today.

Protestants fail to realize that it was the attitude of the POPES on Jews which permitted Christianity to survive and not be blotted off the face of the earth.

Says the Jewish Encyclopedia (1905):

"The general principles governing the Popes in their treatment of the Jews... (1) to separate them from social intercourse with Christians as far as possible; (2) to prevent them from exercising any authority over Christians, either in a public (as officials) or a private capacity (as masters or employers)..."

Gregory I ("the Great" 590-604) who denounced Jewish slave-holding, warned the Bishop of Marseille in 591 that Jewish converts were not to be trusted.

Popes Gregory III and Stephen IV (768) continued the attacks of their predecessor Honorius I. (637) Hadrian I (772-95) attacked the social influence of Jews in Italy and forbade the Bishop of Orti to wear garments of Jewish style.

Leo VII advised the Archbishop of Mayence to expel the Jews if they refused to give up their nefarious religion. (936-9)

Gregory VII had a law passed against employment of Jews in administrative office, at the synod held in Rome in 1078 saying: "that the placing of Jews in authority over Christians was an insult."

More Papal "BIGOTS"?

Although Pope Alexander III (1159-81) had as his financial advisor Jehiel, the nephew of Joseph Garo, compiler of the Schulchan Aruch (boiled-down Talmud laws) the third Lateran Council under his Presidency: "renewed old limitations on the Jews, forbade the employment of Christian servants, and ordered that no new synagogues be built."

Lucius III, (1181-5) Urban III, (1185-7) and Celestine III (1187-91) praised Philip Augustus of France and expressed gratification over his expulsion of Jews.

Innocent III is the "bete noir" of Jewry among Popes. He "set the pace" for subsequent Popes from his period (1198-1216) on: "At the fourth Lateran Council in 1215 over which Innocent presided, his anti-Jewish attitude was incorporated in legislation. He urged the imposition of a special mark to be worn by Jews on the outer garments, whereby they might be easily distinguished from Christians (the Jew Badge). The Jews had again organized a commission which they sent to Rome to obviate the legislation to be introduced by Innocent, but this time they failed...The Papal policy for the rest of 13th century was directed toward enforcing the regulations of the Fourth Lateran Council" (Innocent's).

Gregory IX "openly spoke of reducing the Jews to a servile status and of using the badge to that end. In June 1239 Gregory turned his attention to the TALMUD and other rabbinic works, thus starting a phase of Papal-Jewish relations which continued into the 18th century...he ordered the confiscation (of)...these works which...not only contained blasphemies against Christianity but were the bulwarks of Judaism, preventing the success of the Church's conversionist efforts. This order led to the famous disputation of Paris (1240) and to the burning of many carloads of TAL-

MUDS (1242-1248).

"Innocent IV (1243-54) continued the attack on the TALMUD, (1244 and again in 1247) and caused a second confiscation in Paris..." Yet, no one followed your advice and wheeled up a wagon and had these men "carted off to the nearest madhouse."

"Alexander IV (1254-61) continued the fixed policy. In letters to the King of France and the Duke of Burgundy he urged the enforcement of the rule of the JEW BADGE and reminded them of their duty to forbid the TALMUD. The King of Navarre was given permission to confiscate money of Jews on the ground that it had been amassed through usury."

But In "BIGOTS, CRACKPOTS"

Omitting in your editorial, "BIGOTS, FANATICS, CRACKPOTS, Etc." the fact, of which you are evidently ignorant, that the Talmudic religion discriminates against the whole human race and denies it even human status, and all legal rights under any code, you commiserate over the dear Jews, thus:

"They have been thrown together through the years by persecution and discrimination quite as much as by their religion. With the professions barred to them and restrictions on the right to hold real estate, they naturally gravitated into banking. In other centuries, a Christian was not allowed to charge interest, so the Jews had a monopoly and many of them got rich. But riches foment jealousy."

So the Popes who issued edicts against the Jews owning property were just JEALOUS? How about the revered word, "Pharisees," which means separated ones? Do you ever read the current Jewish press, Father Ginder, and note the constant frenzy expressed that the separateness of Jewry MUST be maintained? That assimilation is equivalent to obliteration? You continue:

"In America, at least, the Jews are indistinguishable from the rest of us...they have their own physiognomy and their own church. But THAT is the ONLY DIFFERENCE." And oh! What a difference! Oi, Oi, what a difference!

These Popes Thought So!

Urban IV (1261-64) urged European rulers not to appoint Jews to public office... Clement IV (1265-68) was the first to bring the Jews of Poland openly into the sphere of Church policy...prohibiting them from managing lands, employing Christian nurses, and building new synagogues...this Pope urged the King of Aragon to seize and destroy all copies of the TALMUD...The comparatively new institution of the INQUISITION was told to pay close attention to converted JEWS...This last bull, "Turbato Corde" was destined to be repeated quite frequently by succeeding Popes. The mild Gregory X (1271-76) repeated it...Nicholas III (1277-80) wrote an indignant letter to the King of Castile because of his employment of Jews in state affairs. It was Nicholas III whom the Cabalist Abulafia hoped to convert to Judaism.

"Honorius IV" (issued) "an intemperate Bull which he dispatched to England in 1286. Therein he also attacked the TALMUD, cast doubts on Jewish moral life and asserted that the Jews daily cursed Christianity."

Intead of carting Honorius "off to a madhouse," in your thoughts, Father Ginder, it would be better to study the Shemoneh Esreh, or 18 "benedictions," the seventh and twelfth of which curse christians to hell, so that Orthodox Jews, in reciting them 3 times weekdays curses the Christian 6 times, but 8 times on holidays, when he recites them 4 times. The "Alenu" which calls for spitting when Christianity is alluded to, and the Pass-over Ghad Gadyah or "Only Kid" hailing one nation smashing another until only the TALMUDISTS are left, might help to prove that Honorius was not the one who needed the madhouse.

A study of the supreme bible of Judaism, the TALMUD, will show that his reflections on "Jewish moral life" were well founded, if Jews live DOWN to their religion.

More Papal "Bigots"

"Clement V (1305-14) continued to oppose money-lending by Jews," says the Universal Jewish Ency., and the Church Councils and Popes went on passing edicts to control this anti-Christ element. "The refusal of the German Emperor Louis to stop money-lending by Jews subsequently became one of the heresy charges against him." John XXII followed a consistent policy of severity toward the Jews of the Papal States. He resumed the attack on the TALMUD. The TALMUD was burned in Rome in 1322, and Jews were expelled from various places under the Pope. "Benedict XII (1334-42) urged the destruction of a new synagogue." Clement VI ordered the Jews of Ancona to wear the badge, and he "urged authorities to aid the Inquisition in the search for relapsed Jews." Urban V (1362-70) urged that the Jews be compelled to wear the badge and to live in a separate quarter." Gregory XI (1370-78) Despite the pleas of the Jews of Carpentras, refused to free them from districts where John XXII had limited their residence. He issued sharp reprimands to an Archbishop of Magdeburg, to the Bishop of Nuremberg, and to King Henry of Castile for showing favor to the Jews (1372) (to whom) he wrote "a second time charging him with showing particular favor to such as hated Christians."

"Eugene IV (1431-47) yielded to the demands of the Council of Basel which, in 1434, called for anti-Jewish legislation. He ordered the enforcement of the badge, (1432 and 1435) extended inquisitorial power over Jews, (1434) and countenanced accusations of host desecration... (his) 'Dudum ad Nostram' (Aug. 8, 1442) was one of the most hostile bulls ever promulgated. It all but created a ghetto, ordered the breaking off of social and economic relations... and revoked all privileges... Nicholas V (1447-55) asserted that advantage was taken of Papal privileges to endanger the souls of Christians. He forbade social and economic relations... office holding... new synagogues, and ordered... the badge."

You might ask yourself, Father, whether the millions and millions of dollars being showered upon Catholic colleges by the Jewish-run Ford Foundation is influencing their attitudes toward the enemies of Our Savior until they turn out such ideas as yours? Of course the process is subtle. Again quoting:

Paul IV "issued the bull, 'Cum nimis absurdum.' Among its regulations were the establishment of a ghetto, the stern enforcement of the badge, the prohibition of more than one synagogue in any community... the last article of which rescinded all grants of previous Popes. Having been shocked, as head of the Inquisition, by the freedom enjoyed by Jews and Marranos" (the Talmudists who pretended to have turned Christian in order to undermine from within the Church) "Paul IV set about, as Pope, to ferret out Judaizers... Paul IV persecuted Hebrew books... not limiting his confiscations to the TALMUD... his death brought a feeling of relief among Jews... In Feb., 1569, Pius V struck an even more serious blow when, in 'Hebracorum gens' he accused the Jews of immorality and sorcery, and expelled them from the Papal State... caused the closing of 108 synagogues... This resulted in a further attack on the TALMUD," under Gregory XIII (1572-85).

Under Clement VIII, (1592-1605):

"Every restriction on Jewish life was culled from previous Church legislation, so that social, economic, professional and intellectual contacts between Jews and Christians were made all but impossible. The badge was enforced; a Jew could not talk to a Christian..."

"In Feb. 1592 the Pope renewed Bulls of Paul IV and Pius V and ordered all Jews, with the exception of those in Avignon, Rome and Ancona, out of his dominions... the attack on Jewish books was intensified... The confiscated books were burned in front of St. Peter's on Jan. 14, 1601... during the reign of Urban VIII (1623-44) new, stringent regulations for the badge were enforced by the Inquisition... Clement X (1670-76) could not be influenced to prevent the expulsion of Jews from Vienna... forbidding Jews to drive through the streets of Rome... Innocent XIII (1721-24) and Benedict XIII (1724-30) renewed the restrictions of such hostile Popes as Paul IV and Paul V... Clement XII (1730-40) instituted an extensive confiscation of Jewish books... Pius VI (1775-99) renewed all the edicts which had been dormant under his predecessor... followed by a severe edict against TALMUDIC and CABALISTIC books..."

Pope Leo XIII "was the first Pope who exercised no territorial jurisdiction over the Jews... He encouraged anti-Semitism by bestowing distinctions on leading anti-Semitic authors, as Lueger and Drumont; he refused to interfere in behalf of Capt. Dreyfus or to issue a statement against the blood accusation. In an official document he denounced Jews, and anarchists as the enemies of the Church." Drumont only died in 1917.

"La France Juive" (Judaized France) by Edouard Drumont, covered Europe, going into a hundred editions, and translated in many languages: "He obtained his historical information about Jews from clerical sources." That he was honored by the POPE for his "anti-Semitic" writings would indicate that your wagon, Father Ginder, to cart Popes to the "madhouse," will have to be a mammoth affair!

I'm afraid there won't be any room for "cheap stuff" like me, because I use a mimeograph!

Rome—Jewry's Enemy No. 1

Is it any wonder that ROME and its official church, since Constantine made it so in 323 AD, has been the symbol of everything horrendous to Talmudists? From the time that Pompey was dragged into the family battles of Hyrcanus and Aristobulus in 63 BC, the Romans had headaches with Pharisee Jews...

The BarKochba revolution which sadi-stically killed some million non-Jews, in 135 AD, was barely put down when new headaches arose, and the battle of the GHETTO began in earnest in 323 AD. In 1870 the Pharisees won. Now Protestants and Catholics are vying with one another to serve this Anti-Christ sect, "which say they are Jews, and are not" (Rev. 2:9; 3:9).

Protestants Swallow It

PROTESTANTS are as ignorant as today's CATHOLICS about the BABYLONIAN TALMUDIC religion, spawned in Babylon until around 1040 AD, the synagogue rituals today uttering prayers for the "sages" of Babylon no longer there, teaching utter filth and whoredom even burning children to Molech for black magic, as enshrined in the BABYLONIAN TALMUD. They simply do not know that there is a world religion backed by the supreme financial and political power described in Revelation 17, 18 which was bred in Babylon, is named for Babylon, and is a sewer of Babylonian satanism. They don't KNOW that. See, on Babylon, Exh. 268, The Plot.

The Church never taught baby-raping.

sodomy, incest, murder, theft, perjury—TALMUDISM DOES.

The Great "Catholic Menace"

Whence comes the popular theme in Fundamentalism that the CATHOLIC Church is as great a menace as communism and is rising to take over the world? What are the facts? Is the CATHOLIC Church a GROWING menace, or is it being chased into the catacombs along with all Christians all over the world?

This Time Of Jacob's Trouble

Christian Persecution

As the seventh anti-Christ world government is rising, we see being fulfilled the warning of Christ that before the Anti-Christ rose to his fall, Christians would be persecuted in "all nations" for His Name's sake. Then Christ will come "to Zion" to reign (Matt. 24:9; Mark 13:13; Luke 21:12, 17). (Zion is one of the Jerusalem mounts).

The Case Is This:

Only one religion calls itself Pharisaism today:

"The Jewish religion as it is today, traces its descent without a break, through all the centuries, from the PHARISEES... The TALMUD is the largest and most important single member of that literature... and the study of it is essential for any real understanding of PHARISAISM" (Universal Jewish Ency., "Pharisees").

Christians make nonsensical remarks about Judaism because they have NOT studied the TALMUD. That is the "ESSENTIAL" which you lack, Father Ginder!

When Christ faced the Pharisees in PERSON, He called them children of the killers of the PROPHETS (Matt. 23:31-5).

Who Sold Protestants This Lie?

Who sold the Christians on the idea that the self-styled "JEWS," a gang of Negro-Chinese-Asiatic-European-former-Christian-Babylonian pagans, are what they call themselves: "Israel," "Judah," "People of the Book," "God's Chosen People"? The TALMUD (Galatians 3:29 and all the rest of Scripture to the contrary-!).

Who makes the CATHOLIC Church the "Babylonian Whore," and the Roman empire, revived, God's own enemy? THE TALMUD! The TALMUD, which states that "without metaphor" the "MESSIAH" is "the Jewish people" (See Exh. 147 of Keth. 111a)—although that does not bar out a Dictator for them.

Who has been fighting, first the Roman empire, then the CATHOLIC Church, for the last 1900 years? The TALMUDISTS.

The TALMUD speaks of: "a hostile world, symbolized by the TALMUD as ROME, which overthrew Israel" (Talmudists) (Sanhedrin 21b, p. 117, Soncino edition). Again: "ROME... came to be used symbolically of CHRISTIANITY" (Sanhedrin 12a, p. 52).

Back To "BIGOTS FANATICS, CRACKPOTS, ETC."

Returning to your theme that "many people" are possessed with the worse than "nutty idea that the world is about to be run by:

- "1. The Jews, or
- "2. The Catholics, or
- "3. The Freemasons."

You launch into a derisive attack on those who describe the Hungarian revolt as "rebellion against the Jew-Soviet slavery... The Jew-communist fiends." This, you say, came in one of those "vulgar mimeographed broadsides... cheaply thrown together" (like this of mine)—so, of course, untrue. You decry such "madness of anti-Semitism" which "creeps through our mails." You go on to ask:

"If the world were in the hands of a Jewish conspiracy... How explain Soviet anti-Semitism and the fact that in Russia the Jews are kept herded into one province that is virtually one big ghetto?"

Now, I wish, Father Ginder, that you could read the JEWISH press which has been wailing about the "anti-Semitism" in Hungary and Poland, and the fact that the chief positions being held by JEWS has made it unsafe for Jews to stay there. It would take time, but you would see that someone has sold you a bill of goods—and HOW!!

"No Rabbi Ever told A Jew To Steal"—You Say

You really shake the limb in behalf of the Jewish "religion," saying:

"Sure—there are bad Jews, just as there are bad Catholics. If a man misbehaves he is acting in spite of his religious training, not because of it. No priest ever told a Catholic to cheat. No rabbi ever told a Jew to steal. So if a Jew steals, he is that much less a JEW." For this "Rock and Roll" song, the only cure is to read the universal law of the Jewish religion, in its countless forms, which is that non-Jews rank as animals and may be "milked and beefed" as long as it is not found out and does not cause other "Humans" some trouble from the "animals." As you will have my book of photostats and the COMMENTARY, just look it up, Father Ginder! In civilized countries, being a "JEW" is illegal. It is only behind an Iron Curtain that us "Cows" can be milked and beefed Talmudically—and it is being DONE!!!

The Anti-Catholic Marxists

Unless you know that Marxism is but the carrying out of the basic doctrine of Talmudism—the stablating of the "animals," you can be brainwashed by the perpetrators—as you apparently have been. Look up Karl Marx in any Jewish encyclopedia and see the praises for his "keen dialectical" reasoning due to his Talmudic ancestry. His bible of Socialism—The Communist Manifesto, calls for abolition of all property rights, of marriage and religion and morality and calls for free community of women. If you lack time to learn that every Socialist movement has been run by "Jews" and still is, you might get "Jew and Non-Jew," from the Commission on Information About Judaism of the Central Conference of Rabbis, etc., and read on p. 30: "SOCIALISM WAS ORIGINATED BY JEWS; and today Jews play a leading role in its spread and interpretation."

That is a quick and accurate way of summing up what I have learned the hard way through 25 years of research on the subject, keeping endless records often used by the FBI.

A Suggestion

If I might suggest something, Father Ginder, it would be that you send to your co-religionist, Conde McGinley, Union, N.J. and get the reproduction of the report of that czar of world Talmudism, the AMERICAN JEWISH COMMITTEE. Also get the Jewish-run FORD FOUNDATION reports. You may indeed GASP at the millions of dollars which are being poured out on Catholic institutions and colleges by these enemies of your church and of ALL forms of Christianity. Ask yourself: "Are those many millions buying any change of attitude on the part of Catholics?"

If Jews are undermining the Catholic Church from within, they are perfecting Talmudic Judaism which calls for the destruction of Christianity: gives Christ FIVE sadistic deaths; calls His mother a whore and prostitute, consigns all Christians to eternal hell under "boiling excrement," etc., etc, Christianity never sprung from the sewers of Babylonian Talmudism! WAKE UP! Reread the Bulls of the Popes warning you on trusting "converts." As news comes of TTTO, whose chief man is Moishe Pijade, Talmudist, closing a 400-year old Franciscan monastery, to use it for war materials, supplied by the USA, probably; as the Red Beast crucifies Christians from Berlin to the China Sea, and Zionism dominates every capitol; as 13 Bishops and 5,000 religious are in jails or at slave labor in Czechoslovakia—HEED their CRIES! That is the prayer of Elizabeth Dilling for YOU!

HELP US TO SECURE

A MILLION READERS

YOU TOO CAN HELP!

For those who have wondered how much money Israel receives yearly from the United States (which means the average citizen) here is the answer:

$45,000,000 US farm surpluses,—Israeli Bond sales (Tax deductible) $51,000,000 United Jewish Appeal Funds (Tax deductible) $100,000,000—Private capital investment $25,000,000—and Tourist dollars $5,000,000 which makes a grand total of $226,000,000.

Expected additional "aid" (legalized extortion):

$30,000,000 Added farm surplus—Outright grant by the U.S. $25,000,000—An Export-Import Bank loan $75,000,000 which makes a total of $130,000,000.

The totals listed above do not include previous yearly grants. Even so, they are astronomical figures. (Source: N.Y. Post, 2-21-57 p. 54)

With these figures in mind, may we remind you that COMMON SENSE has continually and vociferously opposed such terrible drains on our American treasury since the very first day Israel became a State.

Our opposition has been based on the conviction that suppressed information once revealed and placed in the hands of those whom the Jews call "opinion molders" CAN and WILL have an effect on high levels. We know from confidential sources that in the past our efforts have borne fruit in unexpected quarters.

Officials in the Pentagon, the Immigration Dept., the State Dept., G2, Naval Intelligence, the FBI, Senators, Congressmen; top executives in corporations; many influential people, read COMMON SENSE and USE the information in its pages. In many ways these hidden patriots try to and often succeed in stemming the tide of legalized extortion called "aid to Israel." (as one example of patriotism at work)

WE MUST CONTINUE TO REACH THESE PEOPLE, AND MORE LIKE THEM! WE MUST HAVE MORE FACILITIES FOR DISSEMINATION OF TOP SECRET MEMORANDA IN OUR POSSESSION TO THESE PEOPLE!!!

We must have at least one editorial assistant to take the burden, at least partially, from the editor's back.

This is of such a vital nature that it is only possible to hint at the potential value of the operation we have in mind.

There are many of you who have in the past requested that we embark on such a project. Here is your chance to participate in it.

IF YOU CONTRIBUTE ONLY ONE-MILLIONTH OF THE AMOUNT ISRAEL RECEIVES FROM US EACH YEAR—WHICH IS $2.26—THAT IS A START.

Jewish Influence In Communism

From the very beginning of the modern communist movement, its principal philosophical and practical motivation has been provided by the International Jew. Communism, in the Slavic states such as Russia, Hungary and Poland was and is a predominantly Jewish movement; in the early days of the Russian Revolution, the reins of the Soviet government were almost entirely in the hands of Bolshevik Jews such as Trotsky, Zinoviev, Kamenev, Radek, Sverdlov, and Litvinov. Lenin, believed to be a gentile, was married to a Jewess, N. Kroupskaia, and contemporary anti-communist historians recorded that they spoke only Yiddish in their home. The strongly Jewish flavor of the Bolshevik government was not confined to the higher echelons of officialdom; in the Politburo, the strongest governmental department, Jews numbered more than 8 times the strength in proportion to their membership in the Communist Party, which was itself not inconsiderable. The Politburo remained almost exclusively Jewish all through the early days of the regime, the number of Israelites increasing from 40% in 1919 to 42.9% in 1922. The Press Bureau, which was in charge of the conditioning of the Russian people through the propaganda media of the public press, was almost completely Jewish in complexion; the Jew Radolsky was appointed official censor of all Soviet journalistic activities in one of Lenin's first governmental appointments. Jewish influence was especially powerful in the Central Council of Commissaries. In 1920, the Central Council consisted of 20 members, of which 17 were Jews, and 3 gentiles. The Commissariat of War at the same time consisted of 43 members, of which no less than 34 were Jews. In the Commissariat of the Provinces, 21 out of 23 belonged to the same race, as did 45 out of the 55 members of the Commissariat of the Interior. The Commissariat for Foreign Affairs was comprised of 17 members; out of this number, 14 were Jews. Taken as a whole, the percentage of Jews in the Com-

Nickoli Lenin

missariats, the highest offices of Revolutionary Russia, was during the Lenin regime as follows:

In 1917-18, out of 316 Commissars, 300 were Jews.

In 1920, out of 457 Commissars, 322 were Jews.

In 1921, out of 550 Commissars, 447 were Jews.

In 1922, out of 525 Commissars, 445 were Jews.

The U.S. Secret Service (a forerunner of the present Central Intelligence Agency) was aware of this Jewish influence in the Soviet government, and circulated to allied governments a confidential report on the matter.

Integration! Communism's Wedge In The United States

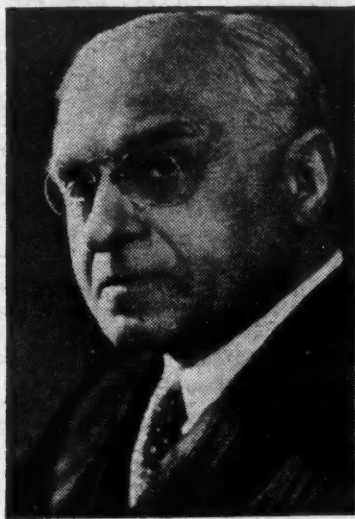

Not since the Civil War has there been so much confusion, misunderstanding, and suspicion between our people. It was set off by the Supreme Court decision on May 17, 1954 ordering the mixing of the races.

Anna Rosenberg, the Hungarian born Zionist, while Assistant Secretary of Defense had been forcing the mixing of races in the Armed Services and sent scores of Negro soldiers to Germany, the result was thousands of Negro babies left behind for the German people to take care of. Eleanor Roosevelt advocated that the U.S. adopt 5,000 of them.

Now comes the big push to force Negroes to quit their schools and crowd in with white children, and in New York City and Washington, children are forced to leave their school close by and go by bus to an integrated school.

Newspaper headlines tell of trouble in many States because of this forced mixing of the races. Over 90% of the Negroes oppose integration. Ill-will is being kindled between North and South, Black and White, Christian and Jew, Catholic and Protestant. Courts, under orders from Washington, are forcing people of the South to submit to rule by Court Injunction. Only a small percentage of our people have studied the world conspiracy so as to understand this is all a part of the Zionist plot to disorganize and take over our government. Those who have read the Protocols can see the plan being accomplished. Zionists are getting ready to spring the trap and many of us are helping them do it!

Gullible people look on this de-segregation issue as merely a White girl and a Negro boy sitting side by side in school. It goes far deeper than that!!!

Associate Justice Felix Frankfurter

An Austrian born Jew, who rules the Court with an iron fist, was the main incorporator of the Communist-front American Civil Liberties Union, a member of the legal staff of the NAACP, and placed Alger Hiss in the Government along with many more Reds.

During the past 2 years, the Supreme Court has brazenly rendered decisions in favor of communists. The Court ordered FBI files opened to communists. Good American citizens are alarmed and demanding impeachment and control by Congress.

The Zionists in N.Y. are splitting their sides laughing at the naive Christians who cannot catch on to the overall plan. Half the population in the world is under Jewish-communist rule in 16 European countries, China and the Soviet Union, because they did NOT understand until

AFTER the trap was SPRUNG!

The Supreme Court is supported by taxpayers, but it serves only the powerful Jewish minority directed by the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith. Take time to put this jig-saw puzzle together.

The following is from Drew Pearson's column of 1942:

"For today, as the Court winds up its term, second only to the President himself, Justice Frankfurter has more to do with guiding our destinies of war than anyone in Washington." He goes on to say:

"He put his own men in three key Cabinet posts; is on intimate terms with British Ambassador Lord Halifax, and Chinese Foreign Minister T.V. Soong; has an old student of his, Dean Acheson, sit at the right hand of Secretary of State Hull."

Drew Pearson continues;

"Almost no major move is made without Frankfurter's finger in it. If the President is sending a mission to India to help the British settle independence problems, Frankfurter sits in on discussions. If an investigation is to be made of Pearl Harbor, Frankfurter recommends his friend Justice Owen Roberts—who is appointed. If a Federal Judge is to be named in Massachusetts, Frankfurter recommends his old pupil Charles Wyzanski, who is appointed."

Frankfurter is an Austrian-born Jew. For years he was attorney for the NAACP, for 25 years he was the most important Director of the American Civil Liberties Union, cited as a communist-front. The Un-American Activities Committee said that 90% of those they defended were communists. These two organizations, together with the Anti-Defamation League,

United States Day Under One Flag

The United States Day Committee was formed by a group of Patriotic Citizens in the City of Tulsa, Oklahoma, in the summer of 1953. It resulted from weekly conversation by the group discussing dangerous political developments. The flood of propaganda belittling the United States and extolling internationalism through the United Nations, seemed to be the most immediate danger. The question was what could be done about it? The answer seemed to be to have a United States Day, October 23, on which emphasis could be placed on the importance of our constitutional form of government, unhampered by "control by alien ideas under a Super-government." It was felt that instead of being an instrument of peace, the United Nations was a very definite danger to our right of self government and was being used to circumvent our constitutional guarantees.

We have been overjoyed to find that the various patriotic groups and organizations put the interest of their country and its people above everything else and cooperate in all patriotic endeavors. All of them have helped in the promotion and observance of United States Day. Some of them extending the period of observance to a week so they could have their observance on their regular weekly meeting date. Some of them working toward having their National organization pass approval of United States Day as an annual observance by their organization. And we have had the whole hearted cooperation from such groups as "The Congress of Freedom," "For America," "The American Coalition" and many others. As a result, many of the addresses made on United States Day were given by some of the most outstanding speakers of America.

So patriots let's go! Let's all help awaken the American people and save this nation of ours.

Yours for God and Country

De-Segregation

were the most active in presenting the de-segregation argument to the Court, WHILE FRANKFURTER WAS JUSTICE ON THAT COURT! While he taught law at Harvard, his secretary was a known communist.

He was attorney for Sacco and Vanzetti, the anarchists; and Tom Mooney, the communist who bombed the San Francisco Preparedness parade; supported nine Negroes who raped two White girls in Scottsboro, Alabama; was head of Advisory Committee of the Socialist Workers Education Bureau of America. He placed hundreds of communists in the New Deal under FDR, among them Nathan Witt, Lee Pressman, Lauchlin Currie, John Abt. Alger Hiss and Dean Acheson were also his proteges. His own brother, Otto, served terms in the penitentiary, in West Virginia and Iowa. Look up his record!

Another Marxist who was a member of the Court before his death, Louis D. Brandeis, coined the slogan "Zionists, organize, organize, organize"—and they did. Brandeis was Frankfurter's uncle. When Frankfurter, while at Harvard, felt he had prepared Alger Hiss as a stooge for Jewish interests, he arranged for him to continue his training while secretary to Brandeis. Later Hiss sat at the dying Roosevelt's side at Yalta, where he turned over millions of innocent victims in Poland, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, East Germany and Manchuria to communism.

Sworn testimony in Washington, shows that Louis D. Brandeis, his wife and daughter Elizabeth, all solicited funds for the Commonwealth College at Mena, Ark. This college which flew the hammer and sickle flag was closed by that State as a communist institution.

How was President Woodrow Wilson forced to place Brandeis on the Supreme Court? Briefly, the highlights:—While Wilson was president of Princeton University, he became quite friendly with Prof. Peck's wife who lived next door. Later while Wilson was President, Samuel Untermyer, representing Mrs. Peck used Wilson's personal letters in a demand on Wilson. It is reported as a settlement Wilson allowed Untermyer to place a man in the next vacancy on the Supreme Court. Brandeis was appointed!

Samuel Untermyer was head of the World Jewish Economic Federation. In 1933 he attended a gathering in Europe of Jews from all over the world. The purpose of the meeting was to start a world boycott of Germany. On the day he returned from Europe he made a radio broadcast which was reported in the N.Y. Times of August 7, 1933. Untermyer stated: "Our race is starting a sacred war against Germany... for we Jews are the aristocrats of the world." Our United States put ten million of our boys in uniform before the shooting stopped. That war is not over—the Jewish communists gained control of China and 16 countries in Europe and are now working on the United States.

These same Marxist Jews were the hard core of those who steamed us up for World War II and steam-rolled everyone who was opposed. It appeared more popular than de-segregation does today. They maneuvered the churches behind the war just as today, war popularity was forced on us, lives were lost, cost 350 billions of dollars, and billions more since, built up communism, placed the USSR in a position to destroy us, and any honest person knows now that it was wrong. It did not work. Few understood who was pushing us into war and even less had the courage to denounce them.

De-segregation will go about like Prohibition—both are unworkable. Millions of misguided people incited by religious racketeers forced Prohibition on the U.S. Congressmen voting "dry" did not let that interfere with their own drinking—as today, many lawmakers in Washington support race mixing in schools but send their own children to Virginia where the schools are still segregated. Thousands of people died from drinking bootleg whiskey, alcohol, varnish and canned heat. Arthur Brisbane, the great newspaperman, wrote that no living person would see prohibition repealed. One year later the Legislatures and Congress repealed it.

De-segregation, like Prohibition, is being forced on citizens who do not know why it is pushed at this time of critical world events. The majority of citizens do not have the time to investigate or the will to resist, hence we are having law by injunction. It all stems from Zionist influence on the Supreme Court. Much hatred will result; lives will be lost; Negro and White, who lived peacefully for years will be at each other's throats.

De-segregation won't work, but it will prove valuable to the Zionists who want Christians disorganized while they help Israel engineer a war in the Middle-East, at the conclusion of which they plan on taking several countries with two-thirds of the world's oil supply.

The Chicago Daily Tribune printed an interesting article on the front page of the May 28, 1950 issue entitled "Three Men Called A Government In Themselves, Frankfurter Rated Most Powerful." And we quote a small portion of this article:

"The names of three men who have played important roles in the United States for almost a score of years weave in and out in the curious pattern of British, American, and Soviet relations. These men are:

Felix Frankfurter, associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court.

Henry Morgenthau Jr., former Secretary of the treasury.

Herbert H. Lehman, United States Senator and former governor of N.Y.

"FRANKFURTER MOST POWERFUL"

A person with highest State Dept. connections identified these three figures as the secret government of the United States. Frankfurter was pictured as the most powerful man in the government, reaching into the White House with his proteges.

"Lehman was pictured as a powerful Wall Street force. He is a former partner in Lehman Bros., Wall Street banking company still controlled by his family. Morgenthau was named by the State Dept. authority as the spokesman of the powerful Zionist groups.

"The names of all three figures were woven into the case of Alger Hiss, convicted perjurer-spy. All have played a role in domestic and foreign policy of their time."

The Chicago Daily Tribune of April 25, 1949 quotes Frankfurter, who replied when asked who really runs the U.S.: "The real rulers of the nation are undiscoverable."

Patriots, keep one eye on de-segregation and the other on the Middle-East where your sons may die again for "Democracy" (Jewish interests). The Invisible Government has Washington in its grip!!

Frankfurter's ACLU Approved Force To Overthrow Government!

Investigation in 1920 revealed objective;

The American Civil Liberties Union for 40 years furnished legal defense for anarchists and communists when their traitorous activities landed them in jail.

Morris Ernst, one of the New Deal's principal advisors, who was sent to London by FDR to secure the Fabian program to be adopted by the New Deal, was President of the American Civil Liberties Union for years. Felix Frankfurter and Morris Ernst organized the ACLU.

Frankfurter for 25 years was the leading force in the ACLU. Today he sits on the Supreme Court bench, also rules the State Dept. from his residence where five advisors consult with him. Now one can easily see why the recent decisions favoring communists came about.

From: "Revolutionary Radicalism. Its History, Purpose and Tactics with an exposition and discussion of the steps being taken and required to curb it. Being the Report of the Joint Legislative Committee Investigating Seditious Activities, filed on April 24, 1920, in the Senate of the State of New York. Part I—Revolutionary and Subversive Movements abroad and at home, Vol. 11, Albany, 1920.

The following is from a statement of one of the directors of the American Civil Liberties Union (in 1920) at the request of the committee:

COMMON SENSE HAS BEEN INFORMED THAT FRANKFURTER WAS THE DIRECTOR WHO MADE THIS STATEMENT.

"Efforts are undertaken to secure the release of persons in prison for offenses involving solely the expression of opinion in speech or print.

"Expression of opinion, as we define it, includes any language unaccompanied by an overt act—that is, an act which in itself is a violation of the criminal law.

"Language that is part of an overt act or criminal act is part of the issue of free speech; but the language unaccompanied by such an act, even if the logical consequences of it lead others to the commission of the act, is legitimately within our conception of free speech. For instance, the advocacy of murder, unaccompanied by any act, is within the legitimate scope of free speech.

"There are some of our Committee who dissent from this view which I have expressed here, believing that the line should be drawn at a point this side of the view of extreme free speech advocates. The view I have set forth, however, is I believe, the view of those who believe in free speech without reservations, as do the great majority of our Committee. I would say in behalf of the entire Committee that all of them believe in the right of persons to advocate 'the overthrow of the government by force and violence.'

How Naive Can One Be?

As to Chief Justice: before Felix Frankfurter had selected him for the Supreme Court, Warren had never had a day's experience as a Judge not even as a police Judge!

Some researchers think they have read the Talmud when they receive a book sold by Jews for Christians to read. The Talmud consisted of 62 books, lately in 35 larger books. To learn how filthy, anti-Christian the Talmud really is, order "Facts are Facts" by a former Jew (price $1.00) or Plot Against Christianity by Elizabeth Dilling, Part I Commentary ($1.25) Part II, Photostats ($1.25).

Warren Studies Talmudic Law Here

Chief Justice Earl Warren with Dr. Louis Finkelstein, chancellor, on arrival at Jewish Theological Seminary.

There appeared on the front page of the N.Y. Times 9/14/57 an article describing the study of the Talmud in N.Y. City by Earl Warren. "Chief Justice Earl Warren enrolled yesterday for a short course of instruction in judicial processes more than 2,000 years old." The article continues: "The head of the nations highest tribunal sat down with scholars of the Jewish Theological Seminary of America for three days of discussions of Jewish law and its relevance to contemporary legal problems." The article explains Rabbi Finkelstein's closeness to the Supreme Court Judge. "Dr. Finkelstein, chancellor of the Seminary at Broadway & 122nd St., said he had long been acquainted with Mr. Warren. He disclosed that the Chief Justice had expressed a desire to learn something of Jewish legal tradition with its guiding emphasis on moral law."

The Rabbi thinks the Talmud is divine. "It is unusual in any country for a Chief Justice to sit down with a group of scholars," he said. "We desire to express our respect and reverence for him as a person, and for the legal system at the head of which he stands, by sharing with him our most treasured possession—the Talmud and its teaching."

The article continues, "Mr. Warren will participate this afternoon and tomorrow in discussions of the Talmud, containing the code of Jewish ecclesiastical law, called the Mishnah, and its interpretation." They imply that late Supreme Court decisions are like the Talmud. "The interpretation is analogous to a Supreme Court decision expounding the merits of a case, rabbinical reasoning and its conclusions." Here comes the Fifth Amendment, "At last night's session following a dinner, Dean Saul Lieberman of the Seminary's rabbinical school discussed aspects of the Mishnah dealing with the law and court procedures. It included the Jewish legal view of self-incrimination, involved in the Fifth Amendment that has posed a vexing question in American constitutional law."

Did someone say they talked about race mixing? "Dr. Finkelstein said that the subject of racial segregation would not be mentioned at the Seminary talks. This would be in deference to judicial tradition against public discussion by a Supreme Court Justice of any case of which the Court was involved. Mr. Warren wrote the majority opinion outlawing segregation in public schools."

And that these freedoms and standard of living have resulted from our form of government.

Ours is a government, which, under the Constitution and Bill of Rights, protects the individual and the States, and assures the independence and sovereignty of the nation.

It is an obligation of every loyal citizen to protect this heritage and pass it on to future generations.

SECOND: To awaken the American people to the fact that we are in grave danger of losing our freedoms and national sovereignty by the usurpation of individual and states rights by the federal government and surrender of national sovereignty to internationalism.

As shocking as it may sound, we have already lost much that our forefathers fought and died to attain. By an arrogant usurpation of power, without the consent of the people or the Congress, the federal courts have changed the meaning of the Constitution. They have restricted the rights of individuals and of the states contrary to all previous decisions of the courts. Likewise by the encroachments of the federal government, many of the freedoms and prerogatives of the States have been lost.

And because of Executive agreements and treaties, many of them secret, our nation has already lost many of its sovereign rights. And if present trends are not checked by loyal American citizens, the Internationalists will soon make of the United States a second rate nation—or worse still, surrender its sovereignty to the United Nations or some other World Organization dominated by our enemies.

A FEW ILLUSTRATIONS OF FREEDOMS LOST

1. The United States has lost the right to win a war. We furnished 90% of all the allied men fighting in the Korean war, yet the United Nations refused us the victory. For the first time in history, we not only lost a war, we lost face with the peoples of the world.

2. The federal government has usurped the right to tax our people to support citizens to serve in foreign armies—even under the direction of our enemies. The federal government not only taxes us to carry on the legitimate costs of our own government, but through taxation forces us to contribute to a world-wide "give away program." Millions of us feel that much of this so-called "foreign aid" is not helpful to either the peoples or the governments to which it is given. Yet we are forced to contribute to it.

3. Every citizen, including the farmer, has lost the right to direct his own business affairs. Behold the farmer who planted six acres more of grain than the government told him to. He is being punished even though he fed it all to stock on his own farm. No longer is "a man's home his castle" or the soil he has earned by the sweat of his brow is really his own!

The above illustrations are only a few of the many that could be given to show how the individual, the state and the nation are losing their constitutional rights, either to the federal government or to internationalism. And these are not mere statements. Every one of them, and more, can be proven by the facts in the case.

FLY THE UNITED STATES FLAG AND NO OTHER

We recognize the tremendous propaganda machine that is attacking our way of life and meet it head on.

First we must face the fact that the internationalists in the Godless, alien-controlled United Nations, and through UNESCO, together with those in government positions, aided by the tax-free endowed funds of foundations, have an almost unlimited amount of money at their disposal for propaganda purposes and that they are making good use of it to brainwash the American people against the ideals that have made the United States great and in favor of socialist and international ideas.

They have entered every educational agency, the press, radio, television, schools, colleges, women's clubs, civic organizations, and even the churches. Their propaganda is literally flooding every avenue to the mind of man, woman, and child. And the only possible chance to offset the erroneous information they are proclaiming, is meet them on every field of battle, and give the people the truth. Truth will win the battle for the minds of people. But it will take the cooperative efforts of all patriotic persons.

We have to be prepared for unfair attacks. This has been the method used by those opposing all patriots and patriotic groups. They use a smear campaign against all who put the interests of the United States above every other nation. They call such persons or groups, Extreme Rightists, Super Patriots, or even Hate Groups.

WHAT CAN YOU DO?

We favor friendly relations and cooperation with all peaceful nations, but we believe, any change in our Constitution should be reserved to the people of the United States alone. Our central purpose, therefore, is to preserve intact the sovereignty of the United States as an independent nation under the Constitution

Patriots who write to the President wonder what effect their letters have and what becomes of them. Here is the answer. A Minister is annoyed to receive an answer from Maxwell Rabb whose real name is Rabbinowitz. This Zionist Jew from Boston, was placed in the White House by the Invisible Government to watch contacts with the President. Rabb is also Secretary to the Cabinet and handles all communications between the White House and Congress. Think this over.

David Niles, another Boston Jew, held these key spots during the Roosevelt and Truman regimes.

A patriotic organization worked hard to secure 50,000 signed cards asking President Truman to protest to Tito because of brutal treatment of Archbishop Stepinac; a committee arrived at the White House and was forced to deliver the cards to David Niles who also was placed there by the Invisible Government to see that the United States co-operated with Marxists such as Tito.

Had one Rabbi been in prison, the White House would have been put in a panic and Congress would have been called upon to declare war if necessary to release the Rabbi.

But persecution and prison to Christians is different. Hence, if you have in mind to write the President about anything not favorable to the American Jewish Committee, save your postage and time. Use the effort to help correctly inform youth in schools and colleges.

Are Zionists To Control Civil Rights Enforcement Laws?

When the surrender of Germany had been brought about by the Pharisees (Jews) using FDR and Winston Churchill as fronts, there had already been government setups prepared to take over the cities. For some time before Germany was crushed, a training school in Virginia had been preparing groups of officials—mayors, police chiefs, etc.—for duty in each German city. They followed closely behind our victorious army, and as the German cities fell and were occupied, each was turned over to these already trained teams, most of whose personnel were JEWS.

Back in Washington, orders were being issued in the name of FDR by Rabbi Stephen Wise, Felix Frankfurter, Bernard Baruch and Henry Morgenthau, all are spokesmen for the Invisible Government, which completely controlled the New Deal. A Jew in control of Germany would have been too obvious, hence Gen. Lucius Clay, a man who owed allegiance to the Zionists was put in control.

When he returned to the United States, he had to be rewarded for the splendid job he had done (in the eyes of the Zionists). Bernard Baruch gave him a desk in Dillon, Read Company, Wall Street financiers at $20,000 a year. Baruch controlled Dillon, Read Co., Dillon (real name Lapowsky) who was former Ambassador to France, and is now in our State Dept.

Lucius Clay is now front man for Sidney J. Weinberg, Wall Street man who stated in the N.Y. Times of Nov. 7, 1955 that he worked on the Ford family two years before they finally agreed to give up control

General Lucius Clay

Zionists in manipulating governments use as a front non-Jews whom they control, while they direct from behind with their cunning and money. Lucius Clay has been a valuable front. Jews seldom seek elections, but control many of the elected, hence force themselves into key spots. of the Ford Motor Co. Weinberg is quite an important man in the Invisible Government and the strong arm in dictating policies to be followed by the White House.

Immediately after Eisenhower's first election, headquarters were established at the Commodore Hotel in N.Y. City where the machine for operating the administration was set up fulfilling a promise to Ike while in Europe that the Administration would be run for him.

At the Commodore, the frame-work of the government-to-be consisted of the following men, all of whom are tied to Zionist interests: Paul Hoffman, Tom Dewey, Sherman Adams, Milton Eisenhower, Lucius Clay, H. Cabot Lodge, and directing all this from behind the scenes stood Sidney Weinberg, Arthur Goldsmith, Felix Frankfurter and Bernard Baruch, spokesman for the Invisible Government.

To be positively sure that the non-Jews in the White House did not deviate from instructions, three Zionists—Maxwell Rabb, Isaac Jack Martin and Murray Snyder—were placed in strategic positions. Snyder has lately been transferred to the Defense Dept. as Asst. Secretary in charge of Public Relations.

Weinberg uses Lucius Clay as his front in maneuvering the Administration to conform with Zionist interests.

Now it is rumored that Eisenhower will appoint Gen. Clay to head a six man Civil Rights Commission which was provided for in the Civil Rights Bill. Now the enforcement of Civil Rights Legislation, as was the enforcement of Zionist orders in Germany, will be once again directed by the Zionists using Lucius as Clay in their hands.

If the Gen. is appointed, indications are he will be expected to use armed force. It is believed if Clay develops too much opposition, Eleanor Roosevelt (57 communist-fronts) will get the post. She and other proposed members of the Commission—Tom Dewey, Adlai Stevenson, Francis Biddle,—are owned by the Zionists.

WHO REALLY PRESSURED IKE INTO SENDING TROOPS TO LITTLE ROCK?

Sherman Adams and his good friend, Max Rabb (Rabinowitz) in a friendly pose.

It is whispered in Washington circles that Maxwell Rabb (real name Rabinowitz) had Sherman Adams pressure Eisenhower into ordering Federal troops into Little Rock, Arkansas.

"Unrest And Deceit"

Dear ole mammy darkey, your love and trust lives on,
But "someone's" tampering with our friendship,
The devil's out to do us HARM.
Dear Ole Mammy Darkey, your love and trust so pure,
You told me lots of stories true now let me tell one to you.
What're it is they call you, be of dark or lighter hue,
Not even one of us could be, except for God's own will.
These troubled times HE could forsee,
So He gave us.....CHRISTIANITY.
He led the way, HE bore the CROSS, to bring us solitude,
So the least we can do and ought to do is show our gratitude.
HIS PLAN has steered us thru the years and we are not to interfere.
HE made us for a reason...clear...then died to save us here.
Let us first of all be worthy, loyal and sincere.
Worthy of the plan HE lead, that we abide in what HE said.
To worship HIM, respectful be, but most of all fulfill HIS plea.
To be content within ourselves, and question NOT, HIS PLAN,
As HE entrusted each of us to do the best we can.
So that each may thru might and main, keep his own race pure,
God tested us with obstacles....that we must all endure.
One was SEGREGATION.....we know it is God's Plan,
He wants HIS Negro lady to have her Negro man.
How low the lowly White who will rob the Negro's nest,
Darkening the future....bringing such unhappiness.
The cruelty will lie within, the "oneness" of our Negro friend.
No, we cannot live in HARMONY from UNREST and DECEIT,
Must we have a Civil War to bring about defeat?
But agitation doth work horrors on a peaceful, righteous plan,
For as sure as CHRIST was CRUCIFIED, they're out to crucify HIS PLAN.
Dear Patriot, Negro woman, with heart and soul like mine,
Pray with me, TRUST in HIM, in these troubled times.
Pray they "strike-not" in the end.....
By falsely claiming they're your friends.
Those communists would use you with their FAKE party line,
Their promises would FADE away and in the end they would decline.
Such abuse is plainly clear, in other countries through the years.
Give your honest, faithful seal, their rotten scheme to reveal.
God will bless you in HIS WILL, for you have nothing to conceal.
Do your part to hold the line as I promise you I will hold mine.
And when the SNAKE is finally dead, you and I will bury....his ugly, ugly head.
Thought of color will not bleed us, this battle won together,
For underneath we'll feel the same, that we have saved each other.
And when we face OUR SAVIOUR, we won't feel ashamed,
We'll feel clean and pure, proud and right, just as any other.
For you've every right to be as proud, as any other race,
To walk along and sing your song, tho' each must keep it's place.
Remembering God's obstacles that we must all endure,
Remembering too our MASTER'S PLAN to keep HIS races PURE.
Lo' CHRIST will not be defied, proof was cast on Calvary where HE died.
CHRISTIANITY was born right there, to help us in times of despair.
Don't you QUESTION HIS torment, anguish, blood and tears,
We, who cannot QUESTION NATURE or HIS timely seasons of the year.
Please, won't you listen to my plea...EXPOSE this ugly PLOT,
The ALIEN SCHEME with EMPTY DREAMS, that double-crossing flock.
God's Chosen People, NAY, false claims they lay to things which they are really not.
Dear People, have you ever stopped to think, "What would be your lot"?
NO ASSURANCE have you NOW...whereas CHRIST CAN SAVE YOU; they cannot.
Now the road we go can lead two ways, to righteousness or wrong,
But the LOVE OF GOD and the LOVE OF FLAG can never do us HARM.
Our true Christian background allows us to rejoice,
We could not be communists, we'd NEVER make that drastic choice.
For all the trouble brewing....in the SOUTH, HERE and ABROAD....
Is not the PEACEFUL PLAN of CHRIST....it is the hateful, oh that hateful Christ-less ANTI-CHRIST.
Author.....K. Burgess, in loving memory of the TRULY GREAT PATRIOT, the Honorable Senator JOSEPH R. McCARTHY, that whatever good this creative piece may do, would further and strengthen his fight FOR AMERICA against the ALIEN, EVIL, and FOUL SCHEME of communism in subduing minorities, generally. Communists, read and weep....An informed America is the ONLY SAFE AMERICA.

Admiral Crommelin Sends Telegram

Rear Admiral John G. Crommelin, USN Ret., sent the following telegram Wednesday to President Eisenhower in regard to his actions in Little Rock, Ark.:

"The press states you are taking steps to employ federal troops in Little Rock. Many patriots believe much information and advice reaching you is controlled by the same agents of the communist-Jewish conspiracy or invisible government who influenced Truman to fire Gen. MacArthur and deny ammunition to our fighting men in Korea. I feel it is my duty to inform you immediately that in employing federal troops to attempt to enforce integration, you are considered by many informed Southerners to be a tool of the communist-Jewish conspiracy."

Rear Admiral John G. Crommelin, USN Ret. Montgomery, Alabama

No Wonder The Whites Are Scattering

Philadelphia Tribune (Negro Newspaper) 9/21/57, states that 1,000 Negroes from the South are coming to Phila. each week. They should know. That figures to be at least 52 thousand a year for Philadelphia Pa. alone.

Reports from New York City, Newark, Baltimore, Chicago, Los Angeles, (where the whites are scattering to the suburbs as fast as they can) are in keeping with these figures from Philadelphia.

A member of the Georgia legislature in a speech in New Orleans, only recently stated that during the last seven years over four million Negroes have gone North and it was likely a larger number would go during the next seven years. Apparently the North will soon learn by experience that it knows little of the race problem.

OUR THREAT IS FROM THE INSIDIOUS FORCES WORKING FROM WITHIN WHICH HAVE ALREADY SO DRASTICALLY ALTERED THE CHARACTER OF OUR FREE INSTITUTIONS.

"The Bridge At Andau" & The Hungarians

By D.A.C. — Hungarian Doctor

James A. Michener's book "The Bridge At Andau" (1957, Random House) was a best seller.

Many thousands of Hungarians crossed into Austria over the bridge at Andau during and after the Hungarian revolution of 1956. Mr. Michener interviewed hundreds of Hungarian refugees. He is trying to help us understand the true face of communism.

About the role of the Jews in the communist system, his book has nothing to tell. Mr. Michener wants to lead us to believe that the sadistic torturers in the secret police of Soviet-occupied Hungary, during the years since 1945 were non-Jewish (see p. 146). But the Hungarian refugees know that the thousands of communist secret police in Hungary were and are today almost entirely Jewish.

On page 177 Mr. Michener writes, that "Few nations, for example, have a worse record of anti-Semitism, or a longer one," than Hungary. This statement is perfectly refuted by the words of two eminent Zionists. Rufus Lears, Zionist historian writes in his book "Israel, A History Of The Jewish People." (1949, The World Publishing Co.) On pages 608-609, that around 1894 the Jew, Baron de Hirsch prophesied, Hungary "would never know the bane of anti-Semitism." Rufus Lears continues: Hungary was "a land to which the Jews were proudly and passionately attached, where.....they were free and unafraid to lead their own life." Rufus Lears writes that this situation remained unchanged in Hungary until the end of the first World War.

The number of Jews was about 4% of the population. At the end of the first World War in 1919, the same Jews, who were as "proudly and passionately attached" to Hungary, took over that country, created a communist government under the leadership of the Jew Bela Kun, and in four months tortured and massacred 30,000 Christian Hungarians.

The truth is that "anti-Semitism" in Hungary started in 1919 by hunting out the Khazar-Jew communist gangsters.

On page 172 Mr. Michener writes, that after World War II, communism brought security and food for the Hungarians. What kind of security it was, everybody may learn from "The Bridge At Andau." Food never was brought into Hungary, but was carried out from Hungary to the Soviet Union by the Reds. Hungary was always rich in foods. Industry products, bought from Western Europe were always paid with the best quality wheat, bacon, ham and wine by Hungary. That country never knew such misery as during the years since the Soviet invasion of 1945.

On page 38 Mr. Michener writes that one cannot "ignore the considerable real gains made in Budapest during the first days of communism." This statement is pure nonsense. A bloody terror started immediately after the Red Army took over Hungary in March of 1945. It was the worst reign of terror from the very first day of the occupation.

It is remarkable that we found only two places in Mr. Michener's book "The Bridge 'At Andau," where the words 'Jewish' (p. 143) and "Jew" (p. 144) have been mentioned. More remarkable, that in both places the words are mentioned in connection with the "Nazi terror." Of course the "chosen people" of the Khazar-Jew Zionists were always persecuted. They were persecuted while they Crucified Hungarian priests in 1919, and while they tortured and murdered 30,000 Christian Hungarians in the same year. The maniacal sadist Zionist Khazar-Jews were always "persecuted," and the many millions of Russian, Polish, German, Estonian, Rumanian, Hungarian, Bulgarian etc. victims of that "persecuted" sadistic Zionist gangsters were only Christians, hardly worthy to be regarded as worms.

The following few words, from p. 149, give us some further wink concerning Mr. Michener's philosophy:

Communism in America could "easily find men and women who would enjoy kicking a Negro to death or shouting down some small businessman..."

Now this is the kind of philosophy that opens the door for an author to get his book on the best-seller list in America.

On page 143 of "The Bridge At Andau" Mr. Michener writes, that the worst accomplished by the communist torturers "fell short of what the Nazis did." Everybody who will read Mr. Michener's book, will find the correct judgement to that statement.

The Catholic weekly "The Tidings" reported on page 12 of the Jan. 4, 1957 issue:

"Father Brun of the Belgian Sheut Society, who had also experienced Nazi cruelty in Germany, said after his suffering under the Chinese (Communist) that he preferred 10 years in a Nazi camp to one month in a Chinese (Communist) prison."

The world-conquering Khazar-Jew Zionist gang will never forgive the Hungarians for abolishing the Bela Kun terror regime in 1919. Historians, who are influenced by the Zionists, are in general, unfriendly to the Hungarian nation.

Never forget, that the Khazar-Jew Zionists are the creators, the managers and the protectors of communism over all the earth. They are the judges and they are the hangman over all behind the Iron Curtain. Communism is not "just another political system;" it is not a political system at all, but a gigantic butchery, created by the megalomaniacal Zionists to destroy Christianity and the white race, to prepare the way for the world domination of the "master-race" of the Zionists.

Negro Minister Forced On All-White Church!

The "new social order," euphemistically called in some church circles "the Kingdom of God on Earth," brought about the dissolution of a congregation of white Methodists in Los Angeles recently. The Normandy Ave. Methodist Church which is located in a neighborhood being taken over by Negroes and whose property over a period of 49 years has been paid for by white people, was arbitrarily assigned a Negro Pastor by the Bishop in charge.

The old congregation of the church certainly cannot be called race-prejudiced in view of their previous record. Their Sunday school is made up entirely of Negro children under white teachers and for years the congregation has kept the church membership open to "all colors, races and creeds." No Negro has accepted their invitation, however, since there are all-Negro churches in the vicinity. There has been no friction at all with the Negroes.

Tolerant as though they were, this assignment of a Negro Pastor to an all-white church was too much for the membership.

When the assignment became known, the membership met and reached the decision to withdraw from the church, even though that meant abandoning property and a congregational home which they loved and struggled for 49 years to pay for. On last accounts, the Normandie Avenue Methodist Church had a Pastor and a church building but no congregation.

John H. Seal, chairman of the retiring church board, issued a statement which said:

"For 160 years our citizens have enjoyed religious freedom, bought with the life blood of our forefathers and written by them into our Constitution. We of the older generation were born into that heritage of freedom to choose for ourselves our own religion and pursue happiness in the practice thereof. But, as we observe the usurpation of power by tyrants, whether in civil or ecclesiastical government, we shudder at the realization that the demise of that heritage may be close at hand."

In the JEWISH WORLD of London, for Feb. 9, 1883, there appeared this benevolent message: "The dispersion of the Jews has rendered them a cosmopolitan people. They are the only cosmopolitan people, and in this capacity must act and are acting as a solvent of national and racial differences. The great ideal of Judaism is not that Jews shall be allowed to flock together one day in some hole-in-the-corner fashion, for, if not tribal, at any rate separatist objects, but that the whole world shall be imbued with Jewish teachings, and that in a universal Brotherhood of Nations—a greater Judaism, in fact—all the separate races and religions shall disappear."

Patriots! Something To Think About

For our new readers who are not familiar with the circumstances in connection with the court case in which the editor, Conde McGinley, has been involved for over four years, we give you these highlights.

During the last week of March 1953, the Zionist organization, American Jewish Congress, had their Vice President, Rabbi Joachim Prinz, file suit against the editor for $250,000 because of a statement in Common Sense to the effect that Prinz was a red Rabbi. Because of the exposure of the Marxists-Zionists, the American Jewish Congress had been trying to stop the publication of Common Sense by calling on printing concerns and demanding that they stop printing the paper. At the time the suit was filed, the National Jewish Post, in screaming headlines, March 27, 1953 issue, quoted the Rabbi: "It's about time this scurrilous sheet was put out of business." It is obvious this was the reason for bringing suit.

During the so-called trial the editor's attorneys tried to introduce documented evidence showing that more than 200 officers, former officers and active members of the American Jewish Congress were affiliated with communist fronts. Rabbi Prinz was national Vice President of the A.J.C. This evidence, including a letterhead of a communist-front bearing the name of Rabbi Prinz, along with much other evidence was denied to the Jury. The editor's two main witnesses were only allowed to give their names and addresses. The Rabbi and his witnesses on the stand talked unrestrained.

We have a statement on file that during the second day of the trial, Sam Silverman, Chairman of the Independent Democrats of N.J. told a party in the court room "we got this S.O.B. (meaning McGinley) in the bag" and explained how. When court adjourned, Silverman walked with this same person to the corner of Broad & Market Sts. and stated he was riding home on the same train with Judge Ewart who lives in Toms River N.J.

On March 31, 1955, at the end of an eight day "trial" in Superior Court in Newark, N.J., during which the jury was not allowed to see hundreds of documented papers of evidence, Rabbi Prinz, V.P. of the World Jewish Congress, V.P. and member of the Exec. Committee of the A.J.C., and now President of the New Jersey A.J.C., was awarded a judgment of $30,000 against Conde McGinley, editor of Common Sense.

Judge Ewart, instructing the Jury, gave them to understand their only duty was to decide the amount of judgment. The suit was promoted and directed by the Commission on Law and Social Action of the American Jewish Congress.

The trial was intended to be the final knockout blow to Common Sense, and, indirectly, to all those informed patriotic Christians who dare occupy the front lines in this battle to expose the Marxist world plot. Jerome Eisenberg, attorney for Rabbi Prinz, stated in his charge to the Jury that he wanted "a stiff judgment, not only to stop McGinley, but also a hundred other McGinleys."

The American Jewish Congress is the aggressive Zionist organization which forces its members into key spots in government, such as their Vice President, Simon Sobeloff, now U.S. Circuit Judge for Md., Va., W. Va., N.C. and S.C.

Attorneys representing Rabbi Prinz were: Will Maslow, Chief Council of AJC, Philip Baum, also of the N.Y. office of AJC, and Jerome Eisenberg who at the time was Chairman of the Commission on Law and Social Action, all Jews.

Now read the clipping below from the Newark News, three months after the trial.

Sworn in by Brother newark news 7-2-56 John J. Ewart Becomes Ocean County's Second Full-Time Judge

Special to Newark News.

TOMS RIVER—John J. Ewart, a 60-year-old Toms River lawyer, yesterday was sworn to a five-year term as Ocean County's second judge, with his brother, Superior Court Judge Howard Ewart, officiating.

Ewart, a Democrat, was praised for his ability and character by members of the judiciary and the bar in an hour-long ceremony in the main courtroom. Superior Court Judge Frederick W. Hall, assignment judge, said it was probably the first time in New Jersey history that a judge was sworn by a brother who was a judge.

Ewart, who will receive $16,000 annually, resigned this week from the Dover Township Committee, a position he had held for more than 12 years. He was born on a farm near Hightstown, Sept. 29, 1894, and was educated at Atlantic City High School and Princeton University.

On the bench for the ceremony were the Ewart brothers, Hall and County Judge Albert S. Larabee. More than 100 persons attended, including Thomas A. Mathis, veteran county GOP boss and his son, State Sen. W. Steelman Mathis, who confirmed Ewart's selection by Gov. Meyner.

It is the first time in the 105-year history of the county that ocean has had two full-time judges. The new appointment was made because of the growth of the county and the increase in litigation.

Former county judges attending were Harry E. Newman of Lakewood, Maja Leon Berry, Russell G. Conover and Percy Camp, all of Toms River. Henry Wiley, president of the Ocean County Lawyers Club, and Robert F. Nothman, president of the County Bar Assn., congratulated the new judge for their groups.

Even at this late date we cannot tell you ALL WE KNOW but any child should be able to put this jig-saw puzzle together.

During the 12 years Mr. McGinley has been exposing un-American forces and protecting himself against vicious attacks of the A.J.C. and others, he spent every dollar he had. In order to continue publication of Common Sense, a few patriots formed a corporation, the Christian Educational Association, and Mr. McGinley became editor at no salary. Now the American Jewish Congress, in another move to put Common Sense out of business, is trying to confiscate machinery and equipment which never belonged to Mr. McGinley. They have subpoenaed twelve friends of Common Sense in an effort to terrorize and discourage this anti-communist group of patriots.

If Common Sense is to be saved, we will have to fight and fight hard. A few of us cannot stand up against the American Jewish Congress which has a membership of 50,000 Zionists. We have the facts and the truth, but need money for attorneys and court costs. We need real money. The situation is serious!

We pray that every patriot who reads this will send us quickly what he can afford. No need to tell you HOW the Marxists are methodically planning to destroy each and every one who dares to expose their plots. Help save this fighting Christian paper.

During twelve years of publication it has opened the eyes of thousands, but there are thousands more who are uninformed or misinformed.

We here at this end are praying and working long hours. We are not afraid but have exhausted ourselves financially. Please stand with us and we will stand with you.

Send your contributions to Christian Educational Association (Incorporated).

More than two thousand million (2 billion) American dollars have been given, directly and indirectly, to Israel. For 125 years—from 1789 to 1914—28 Presidents of the United States spent less than 23 billion dollars altogether.

In 1912, Bernard Baruch ushered Woodrow Wilson into the White House. William H. Taft, Wilson's predecessor, spent less than 3 billion dollars during his entire administration. Wilson, advised by Baruch, spent 47 billion dollars.

The citizens of these United States struggled to regain their sovereign authority during the administrations of Harding, Coolidge and Hoover. These three Presidents spent only a fraction of Woodrow Wilson's reckless, irresponsible, international spending.

President "Pearl Harbor" Roosevelt spent almost 400 billions of dollars. Harry Truman, the "Red Herring" pet of the International bankers, spent 191 billion dollars from 1946 to 1949. What "High Tax" Harry alone spent would have provided a $5,000 house, free and clear of any mortgage, for you and 38,200,000 families in the U.S.

President Eisenhower promised to reduce spending. His West Point education was nullified by his "training" at Columbia University. As a result he currently prepared a budget of over 86 billions of dollars per year, the largest peace-time budget in the history of our country. The international bankers continue to "advise" him. Lenin predicted that "We will spend the United States into bankruptcy." Lenin's "plan" is being directed and followed.

How long will Americans play the role of "sucker" while their "invisible government" continues to tax their earnings—and to scatter what doesn't stick to their fingers to economic cultures throughout the world?

The annual interest alone on our national debt now equals seven and one half times the total debt before our Presidents had "international advisors." Unborn generations will stagger under our astronomical debts.

The master minds behind this diabolical plot create tax-exempt international organizations to carry out the "planned" conspiracy—the United Nations, the International Monetary Fund, the International Bank for Reconstruction, UNESCO, are just a few of them. A Once Powerful Country Being Brought To Its Knees!

No effort is made to cross the Ts and dot the Is in this article. Just the highlights in plain words for people so they can understand, with as little reading as possible, just how our country has arrived at a situation where the heads of our Government and so-called important leaders are jittery and frustrated, while the United States has lost prestige and earned the contempt of the whole world. Are we about to get on our knees to the Marxists and surrender to World Government controlled by Zionists?

George Washington warned, "Friendly relations with all, but entangling alliances with none."

Had our government been placed under control of a group of inmates from St. Elizabeth's Mental Institution in Washington 25 years ago, could they have maneuvered our country into a more ridiculous state than we now experience? Could we have been deeper in debt (280 billion dollars). Our taxpayers now work three months a year for the government — not to mention the hidden taxes — so our One Worlders can throw billions down rat holes all over the world. The U. S. now has our soldiers in 72 countries not including Little Rock. Anti-Christian forces have divided our own people while the scum of Europe swarms in to help the Zionists take over. Lenin said we would wreck ourselves. Was he right?

In 1917, Leon Trotsky (Bronstein) left the United States with 276 East Side Jews who had been trained by Trotsky while in New York and financed by Jacob Schiff, head of Kuhn Loeb & Co., Jewish bankers, 30 Wall St., New York. These 276 traveled in a sealed train from Switzerland to Russia where they acted as the spark plugs of thirty thousand communists who enslaved 180 million Russians. A campaign of slaughter was set in motion, liquidating people who were slow to accept Communism, the number killed to the present being estimated from 75 million to 125 million people which includes satellite countries. It is believed 25 million have been killed in China alone since our State Dept. thru Gen. Marshall betrayed Nationalist China.

In four months during 1919 Bella Kuhn (Cohen) communist leader of Hungary, had thirty thousand Christians slaughtered.

The communist revolution in Spain was set off by Mosés Rosenberg Soviet Ambassador to Spain, on July 17, 1936. It lasted to March 29, 1939. Communist leaders believed they would soon be able to cross over and take France and Italy, placing them in position to crush Germany. Very likely Divine Providence brought General Franco back to Spain to liberate the Spanish people.

The communists had sent forces from 22 nations to defeat Spain. The U.S. contributed the communist Abraham Lincoln and George Washington Brigades recruited by N.Y. Jews. When they were defeated and left stranded in Spain, Bernard Baruch sent ten thousand dollars to bring them back. (Time Magazine 1-2-39). Spain would have been defeated but for timely aid given by fighting planes sent by Germany and Italy to help Franco.

During the communist revolution in Spain, Roosevelt was President, his wife, Eleanor, headed a Zionist campaign to raise funds to support the communists in Spain who were burning hundreds of churches and slaughtering religious by the thousands. Many religious were soaked with kerosene while alive and set on fire in the street. It is difficult to believe the Christians of the U.S. were so misinformed and gullible as to remain quiet while their fellow Christians were being slaughtered throughout the world.

Had one Rabbi been held in jail or killed, our Congress in Washington would not have been able to transact any business until the full strength of our government was brought into action against those who would dare touch a hair of these anti-Christian Rabbis.

One and a half million people died, but Spain was free. The communists had sent 100,000 men into Spain and their defeated remnants returned to the Soviet Union. It was evident to the communist leaders they could not spread out over the border and take over Europe because of Germany.

Roosevelt, while Governor of N.Y., had been captured by the N.Y. Jews. A tremendous smear campaign was put on Herbert Hoover, then President, in order to destroy him. Communist Jews inaugurated a so-called Veteran's march on Washington and took over, setting up tin shacks along Pennsylvania Ave., right up to the Capital. These men were stirred to violence by their leaders who were directing from a hotel room. Violence spread beyond the ability of police to control, and Gen. MacArthur was ordered to restore peace. For this he was smeared by the Jewish Press.

Our gullible people were prepared to elect FDR who promised to reduce the national debt, he was elected to the Presidency in 1932. Judge Samuel Rosenman, who had been his right hand man as Governor, was writing his speeches. The government gates were thrown wide open to the N.Y. Zionists who covered Washington like locusts, filling every key spot in the government and creating hundreds of new agencies to be headed by themselves. Soon the Treasury was turned over to Henry Morgenthau Jr. (Zionist) and Harry Dexter White, a communist Jew who later killed himself when exposed by the Un-American Activities Committee.

The Soviet Union, swarming with world agitators which had gathered in Moscow, was about to fall. Maxim Litvinoff (Finkelstein) Ambassador from the Soviet Union to the U.S. was bringing pressure on the captured FDR to recognize the Reds and save communism. This FDR did in 1933. Later we were again to save communism from being wiped out by Germany when the Zionist Churchill pressured FDR to trick us into war through Pearl Harbor in December 1941.

The communists in the Soviet Union, realizing that Germany with their manufacturing efficiency and military know-how, were deadly enemies of communism, were preparing to take over Germany from within and were sending thousands of communist Jews through Czechoslovakia into Germany, just as they are now doing in the U.S. and worming themselves into key government spots. Germany, realizing these communists were infiltrating their government to such an extent they could not hope to defend themselves against outside communist attack, began combing these agitators and placing them in camps where they could be watched. Organized Jewry the world over began screaming persecution, although the worst enemy had not accused Germany before the war of killing one Jew, the Jews who permeated the governments of England, France and the U.S., prepared to bring war on Germany.

Samuel Untermyer was head of the World Jewish Economic Federation. In 1933 he attended a gathering in Europe of Jews from all over the world. The purpose of the meeting was to start a world boycott of Germany. On the day he returned from Europe he made a radio broadcast which was reported in the N.Y. Times of Aug. 7, 1933. Untermeyer stated: "Our race is starting a sacred war against Germany...for we Jews are the aristocrats of the world."

Col Charles Lindbergh in a speech for the America First Committee, stated that the Jews were pushing us into war, and immediately FDR branded Lindbergh as a "Copperhead" and stripped him of his rank of Colonel. Jewish advertisers forced the newspapers to give Lindbergh the silent treatment for many years.

War must be brought on in such a clever way that the world would believe the allied countries went to the assistance of defenseless Poland. Roosevelt sent Wm. Bullitt, half Jew, then Ambassador to France, to Poland and promised them 1,000 planes within 7 days if they would agree to a war with Germany. England also promised Poland the entire backing of the British Empire. Neither the U.S or England gave Poland the slightest help. The war was touched off, Poland was tricked, and sacrificed—now Poland is under communism!

Jews all over the world were screaming for the destruction of Germany and were taking over the government desks in Washington while the Christian boys were sent to fight in Europe. A stream of ships were bringing refugees out of Germany to the U.S where they inflamed our sons to go over and fight the Germans.

The reader should bear in mind that Bernard Baruch was chief advisor to the last 7 Presidents beginning with Woodrow Wilson, as the national debt went from one billion to 280 billion dollars. The taxpayers were going deeper in debt while Baruch and his co-religionists were amassing millions. Jewish power in the U.S gained tenfold!

The U.S. put ten million of our boys in uniform before the killing stopped. Germany, which had kept communism hemmed up in the Soviet Union, was crushed. The Allies won the war but now we find Great Britain practically disintegrated, England itself bankrupt, France's government fallen 19 times, and the U.S. shaking with fear. And of course the American taxpayer is still supporting England and France. Remember we fought for THE FOUR FREEDOMS!

The communists now, with no opposition have spread out taking over 16 countries including China with its 600 million people. The Soviet Union, which was merely a mass of disorganized manpower and of no prestige in the world, now through the cooperation of the American Zionists has been brought up to a world power.

During the war we shipped the communists 362,000 trucks and jeeps, 1,045 locomotives, 333,000 telephones, 13,475 planes and 478,000 tons of railway rails, and since the war gave them more than 300 million dollars worth of electrical appliances and heavy machinery and food.

The German army was cleaning out communism in Asia and were 20 miles from Moscow. Had the U.S. not backed the communists, the Germans would have continued on and taken Moscow, winning the battle of Stalingrad and there would have been no more communism in the world.

Now President Eisenhower and his one world advisors are afraid and frustrated because of Sputnik No. 1 and 2.—John Foster Dulles has been flying over the world poking his nose into every country's business in an arrogant spirit, calling their attention to the fact that we have air fields located all over Europe. These one worlders who helped the Jews destroy Germany, are now ashamed to face the results of their insane efforts. They prefer to have the public believe that the communists excelling us in science is due to Russian brains.

Our authorities now admit the communists have better TV, the largest jet passenger planes, more submarines, more fighting planes and excel us in the Satellite field and certainly they have more manpower (600,000,000) in China alone) and more determination than we. They conveniently ignore the fact that this supremacy of the Soviet Union is due to German brains which accounts for the serious situation we now face. We crushed Germany and drove the vast amount of German brains into communism's arms!

Carl H. Von Wiegand, Dean of American Foreign Correspondents, stated in the N.Y. Journal American, 6-27-47, "One of the most prominent German industrialists told me today a large part of the cream of technical, constructive and inventive brains in Germany is working for communist Soviet Russia. He asserted no less than 250,000 of Germany's best technicians, engineers, designers, constructors, draftsmen and inventors in every branch of technology are now in Soviet service in Russia and in the Soviet occupied Zone.

"The number seemed so incredible that I asked another industrialist, director-general of what remains of a former large plant in which much American capital is invested. The second industrialist said: 'That is about the number we in Germany estimate at present in Soviet service. Such reports as reach us say these men are well paid and are happy to have work.' These men, he added, include some of the 'best brains' developed in Germany during the war in shipbuilding, both surface and submarine craft; airplanes, tanks, artillery and explosives."

In addition to all this, the communists have spies carefully located all through our U.S. Government Depts. We allowed the Rosenbergs, Golds, Sobels, Greenglass' and dozens of other Jewish spies to take our military secrets to the communists, which is now being used to bring us under their yoke.

You, the U.S. taxpayer paid for building the crumbling communist nation up to a world power that now has us trembling. Under Truman, in 1948, we backed the Zionists in driving one million Arabs out of their homes and our taxpayers are now paying to build up Israel and help them take over the remaining Arab country including the oil in the Middle-East so that Israel can be a world power.

We have given a billion and a half dollars to Tito, and lately 200 late model jet planes. Now our Crusade For Freedom is backing Radio Free Europe in their campaign to build up Tito as part of the Zionist world machine to be ready to take over the communist countries should Moscow collapse.

It appears that only God above can rescue us from the mess that these Jew dealers have placed us in. It does not appear reasonable to believe that God would see fit to save a country which destroyed

Germany, the only country capable of crushing communism, unless a sufficient number of patriots have the courage to stand up and drive these un-American forces from our Government!

WHAT PRICE INTEGRATION?

What Price Integration?—a book on the social effects of race mixing published recently, is going into its 2nd edition, the author, Austin E. Burges has announced.

Though this discussion of the racial problem from the Southern viewpoint is thoroughly documented and written in an unemotional manner, no publisher could be found who would handle it. The author, therefore, took the gamble of publishing the book at his own risk—and won. Copies of the book have sold from coast to coast and from border to border.

What Price Integration? was quoted from during the recent Civil Rights debate in Congress.

Every debatable statement in the book is backed up by reference to source material. It presents much information on the race problem that is little known. Though serious in tone, the book is written in simple language enlivened now and then with a flash of humor. The author, a former employment agency worker, reports that he has interviewed some 50,000 Negro and tabulated information on them. In addition, he did extensive research work.

JUST WHO DOES PAY THE TAXES IN THE SOUTH?

A tabulation by Sheriff R.W. Wasson, of the taxes to be collected for 1957 from white and colored taxpayers in Clairborne Parish (County) makes interesting reading.

The figures are startling. Of $577,689.80 to be collected by the Sheriff, $7,906.45 will come from Negro taxpayers. Our white population is 48% of the total—our Negro 52%. This means that 48% of our people (the whites) pay 98.6% of our taxes. The remaining 52% (the Negroes) pay 1.4%.

I do not have tax reports as yet from other Louisiana Parishes (Counties), but the Clairborne Parish picture is not exceptional for this State. Doubtless it is typical of each County in most Southern States.

The Southern Negro goes to good schools, rides over good roads, and gets free health service from money provided not by Northern, but Southern taxpayers. Who are the Southern taxpayers?

These figures give the answer. They show who is doing what for whom in the South.

Letter Of Herman Goering To Winston Churchill

Letter written by Herman Goering the night before he committed suicide. We are reprinting for the third time due to its extreme timeliness.

Mr. Churchill:

You will have the satisfaction to survive me and my comrades in misfortune. I do not hesitate to congratulate you on this personal triumph and the finesse with which you have accomplished it. You have gone to great expense in order to secure this success, for yourself and Great Britain. Should I believe you sufficiently naive as to consider this success anything more than a show, detrimental to the Great German Empire—a performance for the peoples and their Jewish and Bolshevik confederates, which were maneuvered by you into the war—then my statement to you during the last hour of my life would, also in the eyes of posterity, be squandered upon an undeserving one.

My pride as a German and as one of the foremost responsible German leaders forbids me to lose even a single word in a dispute of world-historical importance on the disgraceful lowness of the methods employed by the victors as far as these proceedings concern my own person. However, as it is the obvious and announced intention of their administration of the law to throw the very German people into the abyss of illegality and to rob them once and for all of a future possibility to defend themselves by the removal of the responsible men of the national socialistic state, I have to add a few words to the historic subject of the verdict, premeditated by you and your allies.

I direct these remarks to you, since you are one of the best informed ones regarding the true underlying reasons for this war and on the possibility of avoiding the same; or to end it at least in a manner bearable for the European future; and yet refused your testimony and your oath to your own high court of justice. Therefore I shall not fail, while there is still time, to call you before the tribunal of history and direct my statements to you, because I know that this tribunal shall expose you some day as that man, who, with ambition, intelligence and energy has thrown the fate of the European nations under the heels of foreign world powers.

In you I identify before history the man who had the ability to bring Adolf Hitler and his political accomplishments; the man, who will, however, be unable to raise the shield protectingly against the invasion of Europe by the Asiatics.

It was your ambition to justify the Versailles Treaty regarding Germany. It will prove fatal to you that you succeeded. You personified the hardened obstinacy of your old gentry; and you also personified the stubbornness of its old age, opposing the last gigantic effort of the rejuvenated German power to decide the fate of Europe in the steppes of Asia in order to safeguard the same in the future. Long after my responsibility in the future development of events has found its objective judge, it will be put to your account that the past bloody war has not been the final one which had to be fought on the continent for the very possibility of existence of its nations.

You will have to answer for the fact that the bloody war of yesterday will be followed by a still greater one and that the European nations will not rule at the Volga, but at the Pyrenes mountains. It is my fervent wish that you may at least live to see the day on which the world, and the western nations in particular, will become aware of the bitter truth that it was you and your friend Roosevelt who sold their future to Bolshevism for a cheap personal triumph over nationalistic Germany. This day may come sooner than you like, and you, in spite of your advanced age, will still be vigorous enough to see it dawn bloody red over the British Isle.

I am convinced that it will bring you all those unimaginable terrors which you escaped this time through the good luck of war; or through the abhorrence of the German conduct of war to a complete degeneration of the methods of fighting between peoples of the same race. My knowledge regarding the kind and amount of arms and of the projects from us, which—thanks to your military assistance to the red army—have fallen into their hands, enable me to form this supposition.

There is no doubt that you—according to your habit—soon will write good memoirs and you will write them the better, as there is nobody to hinder you to tell and suppress whatever you like.

You believe it very clever to have submitted this historic truth to the craftiness of a handful of ambitious junior lawyers in order to have it changed into an expedient dialectic treatise, in spite of your awareness as a Briton as well as a statesman, that with such means the problems of existence of peoples could not be solved and judged; neither in the past nor in the future.

I have an only too well grounded opinion of your power and the cunning of your intelligence as to credit you with believing the vulgar propaganda with which you motivated the war against us and with which you had your victory over us glorified in a fantastic show.

I state here with great emphasis as one of the highest military, political and economic leaders of the Great German Empire the following: This war could not be avoided because the politics of Great Britain—under the influence of your person and of your friends of like opinions in all fields—persisted constantly to hinder the life-interests and the most natural development of the German people; and—filled with the senile ambition to uphold the British hegemony—preferred the 2nd world war to an understanding, as we on our side had tried time and again to bring about, beneficial to both of the most prominent nations of Europe.

I declare herewith once more most emphatically that the guilt of the German people in this war—into which they were forced by you—consists solely in trying to end the eternal difficulties to their national existence, which you artfully instigated and continued.

It would be useless to go with you into a dispute over the causes, the conditions of restraint and the motives which led during the course of the war to political and military complications and which your lawyers knew so well to use in a one-sided manner at the cost of the national socialistic regime. The devastated European regions of culture and rubble treasures give still today testimony of the embittered despair with which a great and proud people yesterday, with unparalleled readiness to make sacrifices, fought for its existence. Tomorrow they will testify that alone the overpowering might, led by you in the field, was able to cause the subjection and deprivation of their rights. The day after tomorrow the Russians will bear witness of the betrayal which surrendered Europe to the red Asiatics.

The Germany which you conquered will take revenge on you through its downfall. You have neither produced a better political nor shown a greater courage than we. You have not won the victory due to better qualities or superiority of your strength and strategy, but merely after 6 years with the predominance of your allies. Do not believe your victory to be all that which you tell the world. You and your land soon will harvest the fruits of your political art. What you as an experienced Cynic would not admit toward us—namely that our fight in the East was an act of urgent self defense, and not alone for Germany but for all Europe; and that the German fighting this war, which you constantly condemned, therefore was justified. This, your ally and friends of today, Stalin, soon will prove to you and to the British Empire.

Then you will experience what it means to fight this enemy and you will learn that necessity knows no law; Also that you can neither fight him successfully with treaties of law nor with the weight of Great Britain and her European dwarfs.

You have stated to the German people that you were primarily concerned with the restoration of their democratic mode of life. But you have not said a single word that you want to restore to them the sensible foundations for living, which have been denied them these past 25 years. Your name stands under all essential documents of this epoch of British want of comprehension and jealousy towards Germany. Your name also will stand under the result with which this epoch of Germany's liquidation has challenged history in lieu of Europe's existence.

My belief in the vitality of my people cannot be shaken. They will be stronger and live longer than you. However, it distresses me to know them defenseless in your power and that they now also belong to the luckless victims, who, thanks to your success, do not approach a future of progressive work for the realization of their common aim, set forth by intelligence for the western peoples, but are driven toward the greatest catastrophe in their common history.

I do not wish to argue about outrages, which you—rightly or wrongly—ascribe to us and which neither agree with my nor the German peoples comprehension; neither do I wish to talk about those atrocities which have been committed on your part and on the part of your allies towards millions of Germans; for I know that you have made under this pretend the entire German people the object of a collective outrage of a proportion never known in history. I also know that you would not have acted differently regarding your treatment of Germany without this pretention, because since 1914 you have striven for nothing less than the destruction of the German empire. Thus, your historic goal denies you the office of a judge over the avoidable and unavoidable consequences caused by your unremitting intentions and which were welcome to you as subsequent proof for the justification of your actions. Today I regret my and the national-socialistic governments greatest mistake, the fateful error to believe in your discernment as a statesman. I regret to have trusted you with justiciously recognizing the world-political necessity of a peaceful and progressive (prosperous) Germany for the existence of a flourishing England. I regret that our means did not suffice to convince you at the last moment that the liquidation of Germany would also be the beginning of the liquidation of Britain's world power. We began to act—each one according to his own law. I in line with the new one, for which this Europe was already too old—you holding on to the old one, for which this Europe is not any more important enough in the world.

I shall know how to approach my end in the absolute conviction as a German National Socialist and considering everything else, to have been a better European than you. I leave the judgment of this with an easy mind to posterity. I hope sincerely that you will belong to this world for a long time to come as fate might grant you—as it has to me—when you decline to leave to posterity also a truth.

Sincerely,
Herman Goering

Give-Away Program Itemized Communists Get Their Share!

From the Councilor Newsletter, July, 1957, published by Association of Citizens' Councils of Louisiana, Inc.

Honorable Alvin E. O'Konski, Member of the House of Representatives from the State of Wisconsin, on June 21, 1957, filed a list showing where foreign aid funds have gone. Mr. O'Konski stated that "The total of American gifts to foreign nations from July 1, 1940 through June 30, 1957, is $130,350,032.00. That is 48 1/2 percent of the $275 billion national debt Senator Byrd mentions.

"In 17 years, the American Government has taken away from the American people, by force of tax laws, 48 1/2 per cent of their total wealth for gifts to foreign nations. The American Government has given away to foreign governments 48 1/2 percent of America."

"Mr. Speaker, who got the money from our grand give-away program? Here is a list of where the money went since June 30, 1945.

"But the spenders say we had to do it to stop communism. Yet if you look at these figures close you will see that the two biggest Communist countries, Russia and Yugoslavia, got a big chunk. Yes: the givers want to see communism prosper, too, on taxpayers' dollars.

A LETTER TO EISENHOWER

After our golf playing President sent the troops into Little Rock I sent him the following wire.

Needless to say all my life I have loved this country up until you have shown the dictatorship that you represent. Have cashed my government bonds as I refuse to loan this present form of government money to send troops into the good State of Arkansas, and persecute the good citizens of that State. Since your colored friends say to hell with the government and you seem to approve so be it. I made the sad mistake of voting for you twice.

Yours very truly,
L.W.H.

GET ON THE WALL AND SOUND THE WARNING BEFORE IT IS TOO LATE!!

Get on the wall watchman and sound the warning. Let people know our country is in grave danger of sudden attack. Rally around those that are not afraid to speak their minds. Listen to their warning. Turn not your back upon them. You who are in authority, exercise your power and influence.

Proclaim to the world that you are an American and will stand for every good thing, pure and Holy in the eyes of God who raised us up from a wilderness that was inhabited by an uncivilized people.

Speak out. Be not afraid. We have slept long enough. Condemn everything that is un-American. Condemn those who are not in accord with American ideals and principles. We know this is the last outpost of the Christian religion and the Godless people want to destroy it and everything we represent. Speak now, O America, for tomorrow it may mean death to countless thousands who will be so foolish as to think they have a right to speak.

Yes, the enemy will do the talking then. Yes, they will laugh at us and say: We pulled down the beautiful structure you reared and changed the whole course of your history.

They can say: We conquered you without our armies and did it with the irresistible might of our spirit—with ideas and propaganda.

The enemy controls means of expression—television, radio, movies and large newspapers. How will we offset this poison propaganda? Where we can, we must circulate the truth through the printed word.

Sunfed stands for Special United Nations Fund for Economic Development. If established by the General Assembly, it would be another of those weirdly named special UN agencies like ECOSOC and UNESCO.

The proposed organization was dreamed up by one Hans W. Singer, a special UN economic advisor, a British subject, and a great admirer of Soviet Russia.

If it comes into being as outlined by Singer, SUNFED will set up a 10-year, $50,000,000,000 program for helping underdeveloped nations and areas improve themselves economically. Of this enormous sum, the United States will have to contribute 70%—$35,000,000,000. That will come to $3,500,000,000 a year out of the blood, sweat and toil of the U.S. taxpayer. It would be in proportion to our contributions to the UN activities we bankroll directly and indirectly.

"It will be a heavy burden on U.S. taxpayers," Singer has cheerily admitted in a speech to a UN study group of American women, "but you'll just have to manage that. You'll get accustomed to paying the taxes. After all, American taxpayers paid $65 billion for the war, and can be led to spend the same for SUNFED."

The other and worse half of this story is that SUNFED would deal out these huge sums as its controlling bureaucrats pleased, and the United States would have no say about which nations got the money.

Among the UN bureaucrats who would take part in dishing out the money would be Singer himself, the Polish communist W.R. Malinowski, and the British Socialist David A.D.K. Owen. Singer, incidentally, is a great friend of Gunnar Myrdal, another UN economist chiefly notorious for his hatred of the U.S. economic system.

With characters like these in charge, you can have one guess as to where billions of your tax money would go. They would go to help shore up communist, socialist and semi-socialist countries around the world—while communists everywhere exult in the spectacle of Capitalist Uncle Sam bleeding himself to keep Marxism alive, fat and sassy.

This plan to milk the United States for another $35,000,000,000 deserves the condemnation, we think, of all real Americans.

Civil Rights Bill Author Due For The Congressional Boot!

Congressman Emanuel Celler, Zionist Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee and the boastful associate author and defender of the infamous Celler "Civil Rights Bill," prepared as part of the plan to disorganize and condition our country for communism, is in for a well deserved rough time. At the next session of Congress he is scheduled to be expelled for the "Boycott Americans" speech he delivered in the House of Representatives on August 28, 1957, which appears in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD of September 11, 1957, on page A-7475.

In this speech Celler called upon his "fellow Americans" to boycott the Shell Oil Co. and the American Express Co., inasmuch as those companies had stopped doing business in Israel because they found it unprofitable. Celler's so-called "fellow Americans" are easily identified as the Lawyer's Guild, the Anti-Defamation League, American (?) Jewish Congress, the American (?) Jewish Committee, the B'nai B'rith, the NAACP, and other assorted chums of the Zionists, along with the varied hue associations of Christians and Jews financed by the CELLERITES!

Any printed matter in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD is entitled to free mailing by the Congressman responsible for the article printed therein, including speeches by any member of Congress. Celler and his Cellerites will mail this Celler speech to thousands of Jews, Negroes and brain-washed Christians, under the free mailing privileges granted to members of Congress, so Celler is starting another boycott to further the nefarious ends of the Jews.

While the boycott is a favorite weapon of all "cold wars," it can be a boomerang, in that Celler will find patriotic Americans gleefully boycotting Jews who boycott Americans. One would think Jews would realize when they exiled a million Christian and Moslem Arabs from Arab cities and farms thus perpetrating their five thousand billion dollar larceny of the mineral, chemical and petroleum deposits in the Palestine lands taken, and sought to be taken from the Arabs by Jews, that the Christians and Moslem Arabs would bitterly resent the most colossal robbery in history, second only to the theft by the Jews of Russia and the Soviet satellite countries, and their murder of millions of Christians, the latest in that chapter being the Crucifixion of the Hungarians within the past year.

Congressman Celler and his fellow Cellerites will soon find to their sorrow they are as unpopular in the U.S. as they are in the Germanic, Latin, Arabian and Scandanavian countries. The only place left for the Jews to corrupt and enslave is the Antarctic. There they will become anti-Penguin!

Emanuel Celler unwittingly has again shown us that we are in a death struggle—the Jews have been in a cold war with Christians for centuries. Their pro-integration propaganda is part of the world wide conspiracy to break down all races and

Following is Congressman Celler's Red-Front record, which speaks for itself!

Sen. Jacob K. Javits (Zionist)

Sen. Jacob K. Javits (Zionist) at a dinner given by the Joint Defense Appeal, a Jewish Fund raising organization, at the Plaza Hotel, in N.Y., Oct. 24, 1957, called on President Eisenhower to name immediately the members of the Civil Rights Commission called for under the new Civil Rights Law. At the time Javits was a candidate for the U.S. Senate, there was much ado about his Red-front associations. Congressman Emanuel Celler and Sen. Javits were the authors of the Civil Rights Bill.

Thank You, Dear Mr. "SOL"!

Down through the ages Jews have brought countries to such a disorganized mess, that the non-Jews turned on them. Hence, Jews have been run out of practically all countries, some of them as many as four times.

Once they have power, they push on until they become intolerable. It was the Jews who murdered the Czar and his family, then set up communism in Russia in 1917. At last the Russian people are realizing that a Frankenstein was bred in their country and the Soviet Union is now in a hot spot, faced with a decision either to give up the countries they have taken or push on for world control.

Previously Jews planned on ruling the world from the Soviet Union. Now that the Zionists have been so successful in having our taxpayers set them up in Israel and communism is becoming unpopular in the U.S., we see Jews squirming to convince us they did not finance, establish and direct communism in Russia. Try as they may, they cannot erase the true facts.

RUSSIA SINCE THE 1917 REVOLUTION

In 1917-18, out of 316 Commissars, 300 were Jews.

In 1920, out of 457 Commissars, 322 were Jews.

In 1921, out of 550 Commissars, 447 were Jews.

Editor

For already three years we have been trying to convince everybody who would pay attention to our words that in the summer of 1953 something quite radical happened in the USSR,—so radical, in fact, that it changed the entire outlook of the Soviet Government and brought the world to the "brink" of a third World War which was barely avoided in Nov. of the past year.

Speaking plainly, it was the collapse of the "Cosmopolite-Jewish" clique which ruled over the USSR all the past years through the Secret Police Forces (CHEKAMVD). The Soviet Army, finally, succeeded in liquidating this group, killed its leader Beria, and helped recently to evict from the Government the last "Cosmopolitans,"—Kaganovich, Molotov and Malenkov.

There is no doubt, that the American "Experts on Russian Affairs,"—90% of whom are Russian Jews, understand perfectly well what is going on inside the Soviet Union, but, being bound by the common "Taboo," they cannot tell the American public about the close ties which formerly existed between the "Cosmopolite" communism and International Judaism. Nevertheless those, who would like to know the truth can easily find glimpses of it even in the Jewish-dominated American press. Thus in TIME, (March 21, 1955) there is such a revealing sentence: "Rakosi was so well regarded in Moscow that he escaped the COSMOPOLITAN purge which carried Pauker and other JEWISH COMMUNIST leaders before Stalin's death."

As you may see from the above, TIME implies in this short but significant sentence that there was in the communist-dominated countries a certain COSMOPOLITAN-JEWISH fraction which was inimical to another group within the Communist Party. In THE REPORTER, (Sept. 21, 1953) "The Best Specialist on Russian Affairs" I. Deutscher says clearly, that Beria, this Georgian half-Jew, whom Deutscher calls a "liberal" and a "champion of minorities" was killed by the vicious reactionaries, the "Great Russian Chauvinists." In the U.S. NEW S& WORLD REPORT, (Jan. 21, 1955) the ex-chekist Khokhlov who, obviously, should have known what had happened in the Soviet Union, told the story quite clearly, and we refer those who would be interested in the details to pages 46-47 of his interview. We shall quote here only a few more important sentences taken from that article: "So, in 1948 Zhadnov and some other people began a struggle AGAINST JEWS...Zhadnov died in 1948, and immediately Beria and Abakumov made in Leningrad a trial. They said that this group which accused JEWS of COSMOPOLITANISM were only GREAT RUSSIAN CHAUVINISTS and not really good communists. So some very high people were tried, some were shot and some put in jail...Abakumov was then Minister of State Security and he lead the trial. This was a temporary victory for Beria, MALENKOV and Abakumov. In 1949, 1950 and 1951 the ANTI-JEWISH COMBINE was broken down." As one can see from the above passage, Khokhlov uses the same expression as Deutscher,—"The Great Russian Chauvinists," although, being just fresh from the USSR, he, most probably, did not even know at that time who this Deutscher is and what he says. And, significantly enough, TIME also calls the Jewish communists as Khokhlov does, "COSMOPOLITANS." It is of interest to note, that only lately Khrushchev accused Malenkov of being one of those who organized the Leningrad Trial,—or, in other words, pointed out that Malenkov was on the JEWISH side during this struggle.

But to those "Doubting Thomases" who would like to have still another proof of this cardinal change in the Soviet Government, we have now something better to offer than the testimonies quoted above:

The very words of the recognized leader of World Jewry, Israel's Prime Minister Ben Gurion, (Son of a Lion," as he modestly calls himself, or SOL for short) who said recently before the members of the Zionist General Council that "WHILE IN THE EARLY STAGES OF STATEHOOD ISRAEL ENJOYED THE MORAL SUPPORT OF RUSSIA AND THE MATERIAL HELP OF CZECHOSLOVAKIA, to our great shock and regret both countries have WITHOUT JUSTIFICATION turned into Israel's BIGGEST ENEMIES." (Cable of Reuter & UP, July 18, 1957). Every word in this sentence is an acknowledgement and a revelation.

First: Israel at the moment of her creation had full support of the USSR,—and that of Mr. Truman, of course, who worked then in a touching unity with the Soviet representatives in the U.N.; second: Czechoslovakia provided by order of the masters "material help,"—meaning arms and ammunition, to the Israeli troops and trained them at exactly the same places, where the Egyptians were trained later; and third: "something" had suddenly happened, which, to the great consternation of International Jewry, turned their staunch supporters into implacable enemies—"without justification," as Mr. SOL says. He didn't tell WHAT happened, but, fortunately enough, both Deutscher and Khokhlov did this explanation for him earlier, and if we put those testimonies together, we shall then have a most clear and convincing picture of the "Decline and Fall" of the Cosmopolitan Jewish clique in the Soviet Union destroyed there by the "Russian Chauvinists" who gained strength during and after the 2nd World War.

We have a hope, that from now on even the most timid American "Experts" will dare to tell cautiously the truth about Soviet Affairs,—the truth boldly disclosed in the indignant roar of their SOL, whose tail was so painfully twisted by the famous Soviet note during the war in Egypt. And that is why we wish to thank Mr. SOL warmly for establishing beyond any reasonable doubt the true nature of the Soviet changes,—conversion of that country from the ardent "pro" to the violent "anti" Judaism which is the very root of the current political problems of our troubled world and the very possible cause of the next nuclear war...

Thank you, Mr. SOL, thank you!

A Jewel Or Tinder Box!

The following is an interesting quote from "The Message to Israel" Nov.-Dec.-57

"The land of Israel is the center of the land surface of the earth. It is located on the eastern border of the Mediterranean. 'Mediterranean' means middle of the earth. Israel is so located that travelers going from one Continent to another must pass through her territory. The land has therefore been referred to as 'the bridge between nations.' Israel has a decided advantage over other nations, and think of what an advantage this will be when Jerusalem is the capital of the world! The land of Israel is also the center of all population. It is also the political center of the world for the laws and forms of government coming out of this land have furnished the pattern for most all other nations. For years we have heard and read about the treasures to be found in the mineral wealth of the Dead Sea. The Dead Sea will be a perpetual source of wealth to the nation that controls it and contains sufficient wealth for the land to be called 'The Jewel Box of the World.'" with the USSR bloc (8-23-54). Celler scored Scott McLeod and demanded his ouster from the State Dept. (9/7/54). Celler asked that the Judiciary Committee take over the Un-American Activities Committee (11/6/54). Rep. Walter charged that Celler was trying to oust him as Immigration Subcommittee Chairman of the Judiciary Committee (1/26/55).

Over the years Congressman Celler has voted against appropriations for the House Un-American Activities Committee under Dies, Thomas, Wood, and Velde.

If Celler is not a member of the Communist Party—he is cheating the Party out of its just dues.

Is The Worm Finally Turning?

Are the American people beginning to realize it was American Jew-Dealer's money that financed the original Red-Bolshevik revolution in Russia? That Jew-Dealers caused the U.S. to recognize the communist government of the Soviet Union in 1933 to save communism from going under at that time? That Jew-Dealers sent 11 billions of American taxpayer's dollars and equipment into Russia to build communism into a powerful state? That Jew-Dealers provoked the Japanese into attacking Pearl Harbor so they could get America into the war to prevent Germany from destroying communism?

That after the war the Jew-Dealers turned over to the communists hundreds of millions of previously free peoples together with their countries? That Jew-Dealers pushed many aggressive communists into strategic government offices in the U.S. so these communists would supply the Soviet Union with our atomic secrets as fast as they were invented and, at the right psychological time of inward confusion, turn the U.S. over to the communists? That only a few of these communists have been exposed to the sunlight of public opinion and that the many are still securely entrenched?

That Jew-Dealers throttled the Nationalist Chinese so as to force the mainland of China into communist hands? That Jew-Dealers, through the United Nations, prevented our great American Generals from stopping the North Chinese communists from swarming into Korea so as to prolong and stalemate the Korean war? That Jew-Dealers in the U.S. have done more to expand world communism than have the communists in Asia? That freedom loving peoples behind the iron curtain know they cannot successfully overthrow communism as long as the International Jew-Dealers control the U.S., England, France and the United Nations because the Jew-Dealers would block any help reaching them as they did the Hungarian Freedom Fighters?

That Jew-Dealers packed the Supreme Court so they could destroy States rights and disrupt America by causing internal strife? That the Jew-Dealers are only using the Negro as a pawn without caring in the least what happens to him? That the Jew-Dealers manipulated the U.S. off of the gold standard and completely subjected our money system under absolute control by the International Jewish Bankers so they could put the "squeeze" on us and cause a financial panic at any time they wish to subject us.

That Jew-Dealers usurped the old established Jewish organizations and diverted them into being Defamation Leagues to defame anyone opposing communism? That Jew-Dealers usurped both major political parties in the U.S. and have contaminated, and all but eaten out, the very core of Christian culture? That Jew-Dealers destroy most viciously any American patriot who effectively combats communism or tries to expose the Jew-Dealers who continue to do these things? That after the Jew-Dealers have caused communism to take over the world they can then come out into the open and outwardly take over communism since they have always been its backbone? That in this way they plan to have everyone where they want them?

Nero was severely condemned for fiddling while Rome burned. Will history record that the American people fiddled while the Jew-Dealers disintegrated our Republic? Is it wishful thinking to hope that the worm is turning? That trusting, brainwashed American people are finally waking up and coming into understanding which will enable them to see causes instead of bewilderingly fiddle while their freedom is being destroyed? Since a few scheming people created this condition by their own efforts others must rectify it by their own efforts. This is Divine Intervention at work.

The Jew-Dealers must be exposed to the sunlight of public opinion and restricted from enslaving us to further communism, but we must not seek vengeance upon them. "Be ye therefore wise as serpents and harmless as doves."

ZIONISM AND COMMUNISM ARE TWIN BROTHERS!

Treaties Not Superior To Constitution

This popular sophistry about a treaty having power to over-ride the Constitution has gone far enough—Ay, too far!—And it is high time it were brought to a stop, for there are those who are using the idea for an ulterior purpose.

The error in present day thinking arises from a misconception of Article VI, which however is perfectly clear when properly read.

When a question arises as to the meaning of a passage in any writing the only correct basis for judging is the intent of the author who penned the words. This should be our guide in reading Article VI.

We all agree that the Framers of the Constitution were a very conscientious and patriotic lot and it is inconceivable that they ever intended that any subsequent international agreement should carry more authority than the Constitution itself, which they labored so hard to produce. NO! It never was so intended.

ARTICLE VI declares without equivocation that:—

"This Constitution and all Laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof;...shall be the Supreme Law of the Land; and the Judges in every State shall be bound thereby,..."

This provision is definite, clearly understandable and irrevocable save by amendment. By this statement the Constitution is made supreme and binding upon every State. That is as it should be, else each individual State would soon be going its own divergent way and chaos would result.

And it is equally necessary that treaties, which are among the many Laws of the United States made in Pursuance thereof, should also be a part of the Supreme Law of the Land, for the same purpose of concord, and this inclusion of treaties is provided for when Article VI says;

"...and all Treaties made, or which shall be made..."

So we have it that "This Constitution" and "Treaties made" are BOTH Supreme Law of the Land; supreme in their relation to the States.

But with relation to each other there is a vast difference between the Constitution and a Treaty, the first being irrevocable original authority while the second derives its authority from the first and may be repealed by the Congress. Because of these inherent differences in power and authority it is impossible that any Treaty can over-ride the Constitution, however much such claims may be made. Foisting a treaty above the Constitution is nothing but subversion.

There is still another point where Article VI is under attack, and for no good reason. After providing that both the Constitution and Treaties shall be Supreme Law, Article VI goes on to say;

"...and the Judges in every State shall be bound thereby, any Thing in the Constitution or Laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding."

Strange to say, there are those who read that as saying that Treaties shall be the Supreme Law of the Land, any Thing in the Constitution (OF THE UNITED STATES) notwithstanding.

This is the so-called "Amortization Clause," the death sentence of the Constitution, which however is only a figment of the imagination.

However spurious the claim, the idea is being used by International One-Worlders to make United Nations rules and regulations compulsory over and above the provisions of the Constitution.

IT NEVER WAS SO INTENDED. It is inconceivable that the Founding Fathers, all capable statesmen, ever had any idea of setting a trap whereby some agreement with a foreign power would overturn our Constitutional Republic; nor did they unwittingly make an error, for their written words say as plainly as good English can say it that no State Constitution or Laws may withstand the Supreme Law of the Land.

The Supreme Law provision is what puts UNITY into the Union; its removal would lead to utter chaos. There is nothing wrong with Article VI. It needs no amendment. It is correct and necessary as written.

What really does need mending is that group of One-Worlders who have gotten into power and are working with an unmentioned ulterior purpose.

Commies Still In Key Positions!

Republished from National Economic Council Letter No. 409:

On June 12, 1956, Dr. Bella Dodd, formerly a professor in Hunter College, N.Y., and a brilliant lawyer, who was for many years a member of the National Committee of the Communist Party USA, was a sworn witness before the Senate Internal Security Committee. The following colloquy took place:

Senator Jenner: "Dr. Dodd, what is your honest opinion as to whether or not the Communist Party is gaining, standing still, or losing ground in America? We know where it is in the world. But in America."

Dr. Dodd: "I think the Communist Party is gaining at an alarming rate. I think the Communist Party is not gaining that under the label of communist, but by having its operators operate under many different labels, under many different titles. But the people who were known to me as either Party members or associates of the Party are mounting to important positions in policy-making, both on the industrial level, on the communications level, and on the governmental level."

Could This Be Signs Of A Coming Dawn?

By Our Foreign Observer

In LIFE, (Aug. 12, 1957) appeared a most revealing article of a certain Mr. G. Steiner, a Jew, about American Jewry. In this article Mr. Steiner states among other things that the Jews are "undeniably the most prosperous and politically conscious minority in the U.S." They have a "significant influence in the media of mass communication." "There are a great many Jewish writers, impresarios and performers—men skilled in presenting ideas and summoning emotions." Mr. Steiner adds that "the Democrats have a tradition of regarding Jewish support as necessary for national victory."

We have no space to quote more excerpts from the Steiner article, but the quotations mentioned above prove without any doubt that the political power of the American Jewish minority is entirely out of proportion to the number of Jews allegedly residing now in the U.S. (Steiner's modest estimate is only 5.2 million, or 3% of the total population).

The tragic impasse of the American policy in the Middle East, as every American should understand by now, is the result of the relentless pressure exercised by this Jewish minority on the past and present Administrations. In fact, it is absolutely certain, that only the support of Israel by the U.S. pushed the Arabian States into the communistic fold and thus created the most explosive situation in this part of the world.

America as such has no interest in supporting the 1.5 million Jews who robbed the Arabs of their land and property, but, together with the rest of the free world, she has the most vital interest in keeping the good relations of the Arabs who have oil, pipelines and the Suez Canal in their hands. And more than that: the world was already on the brink of a global war in November of the past year when the Jews attacked Egypt, and the threat of such a war will always be present until the source of it—the State of Israel—continues to exist!

As Mr. Steiner correctly stated, the Jewish influence on American media is quite significant. It is so "significant," that nothing which does not fit the general policy of the Jewish minority is permitted to appear in print. All which the American public gets from the newspapers, magazines, radio, etc., is so distorted, falsified and emasculated that the real meaning of the facts disappear in the unhealthy mist spread by the Jewish propaganda machine.

But the terrible harm which this Jewish influence does to the American people is getting already so obvious, that even such timorous magazines as the Saturday Evening Post and Time dared recently to publish such statements which only a few months ago they would never dream to mention,—and this is, indeed, an encouraging sign.

Thus TIME said, and we quote: "Moscow and Washington tumbles over each other to be the first to recognize the new state, (Israel) the day it proclaimed itself a nation (the U.S. won) and the telegram of congratulations that Israel's premier Ben Gurion later sent Stalin on his 70th birthday remains one of the least attractive pages in Israel's diplomacy." (Sept. 30, 1957).

In this passage TIME pointed clearly to the millions of its readers that Israel is the illegitimate offspring of the Stalin and Truman conspiracy, and that Ben Gurion, before he put on the shining armour of a "Democratic Leader," which he is wearing now, had been a most shameless Stalin bootlicker. The readers are left to ponder for themselves if America shall risk another war and sacrifice her sons for the benefit of Ben Gurion & Co.

The SATURDAY EVENING POST, of Sept. 14, 1957, went still further in its editorial signed by W.F. French. Without naming the "pressure group" which every reader can easily identify, Mr. French tells openly how the "neglected" minorities force their will on the unorganized majority,—i.e., speaking in plain language, Mr. French asserts that Americans are governed by a "minority" which terrorizes the politicians by "the pen"; and WHO wields this mighty "pen" we know from Mr. Steiner's quotation given at the beginning of this article.....

Let us hope that these cases will not remain isolated, and more of those who are not Zionists but TRUE AMERICANS, and form the majority of the American population will awake from their lethargic sleep!

But the time left is very, very short—and if the Jews remain in control of the American Government for a few more years or even months, they, most certainly, will ruin this Christian Nation completely.

Draft Admiral John G. Crommelin For Governor Of Alabama

It is now quite obvious to well informed Southerners that the plan worked out by the communist conspiracy to mongrelize the Southern white man and hold him in economic bondage is well under way.

It appears that Alabama is to be the proving ground for operations connected with the communist take over of the South That State has been selected because it is strategically located in the heart of Dixie. Therefore, the communists have concentrated their activity economically, educationally, judicially, politically and propaganda-wise, on Alabama.

The voters of Alabama have a wonderful opportunity to save their State, and save themselves and their children from forced integration, mongrelization and communist overlordship. ADMIRAL JOHN R. CROMMELIN SHOULD BE DRAFTED FOR GOVERNOR OF ALABAMA to replace the present governor whose term expires in 1958. The Admiral is the one man of demonstrated integrity, courage, and ability who, as governor of Alabama, could defeat the communist conspiracy and protect Alabama and the South from the communist controlled NAACP and its plans for mongrelization!

Admiral John Crommelin, of Wetumpka Alabama, although he is only fifty four years old, is a successful small businessman and farmer, a profound student of government history, a great leader in World War II, and Alabama's well known and highly respected citizen.

If the people of Alabama are sufficiently alert to elect Admiral Crommelin, they will have a man who cannot be bought or bluffed, and a Governor who will stiffen the backbone of the South. In view of the critical position our country is in, we need to place real patriots in strategic positions.

U.S. Following Soviet Tactics In Dealing With U.S. Farmers

By Robert J. Drake

Republished from the

Cleveland (Ohio) Plain Dealer, Nov. 13, 1957

The legal muscle of the U.S. government was being flexed here yesterday to seize, if necessary, a $25,000 farm to satisfy a $420 wheat penalty lien. And the farmer invited the government to take over.

He is Dr. P.S. Whiteleather, a Minerva physician and owner of a 150-acre farm in Columbiana County. Whiteleather made public the exchange, through his attorney, of correspondence with the U.S. attorney's office here relative to collection of the penalty assessed against him for exceeding his wheat quota in 1954.

A letter signed on Nov. 1st, by D.J. Cimino, assistant district attorney, gave Whiteleather 10 days to pay up or face foreclosure action. The physician's reply, in effect, was to go ahead and foreclose.

Whiteleather is president of the Independent Farmers of Ohio, a small but vocal group opposed to government subsidies and particularly to wheat quotas. They refuse to give government crop surveyors data on plantings, and their farms are posted against trespass by federal agents to forestall acreage surveys.

Whiteleather said his only asset subject to foreclosure was his farm. "They can have it," he said. "I have no use for it under their management. I've had a lot of fun with it, but if they're going to run it, I'm not going to be their caddy.

"I'm so convinced I'm right I'll give everything I've got to break up the system. The farm is worth $25,000, which is a lot of money in my small world. But if I don't have it, I've already lost it."

Whiteleather said he had paid twice the amount of the assessed penalty in fighting a losing battle in the courts.

Cimino said the letter was to serve fair notice of legal steps to collect the debt.

U.S Prepares To Seize Farm To Satisfy $420 Wheat Fine

"It's a valid judgment in the courts," he said. "The government got the judgment, and the appeal was dismissed."

Had String Of Penalties

"My understanding is that property would be seized as an absolute last resort. We don't move in unless it's a must."

Until this year Whiteleather had an unbroken string of annual wheat penalties as determined by his county agricultural stabilization and conservation (ASC) committee. His original 1954 penalty was $840, which was later cut in half, plus $47 costs.

In 1955, when the physician refused to divulge any crop data, the ASC charged him with planting his entire 150 acres, including 60 acres of timber, to wheat. This penalty was finally dismissed, but costs of $26.40 are still being sought.

His 1956 penalty is $115 for allegedly overplanting his 38-acre allotment by four acres. "This year I haven't heard from them," Whiteleather said, "They've ostracized me. I raised the usual amount of wheat, which I always tell people is just under 14 acres."

Four Others Get Letters

Penalties are not assessed for overplanting where the total acreage is under 15. "They've never been on the farm to measure, to my knowledge," said Whiteleather, "and they don't claim to have been. They estimate from the road."

If Whiteleather was ignored this year, some of his membership was not. The Physician said four Columbiana County farmers had recently received letters from Dave T. Herrman, state ASC director, informing them that wheat penalty assessments were being levied. They are Ben Weingart of Leetonia, Neil Lippencott of Minerva, Frank Saffell of North Georgetown and William Evans of East Rochester. All but Lippencott owe penalties assessed for earlier years.

Saffell, who has unpaid penalties pending for every crop season since 1954, said his 1957 penalty was $451.36 for raising 403 bushels over quota. He owes $450 for last year.

"Crushed" By Penalty

Saffell cited the case of Herman Nolling of Kensington. "He hasn't raised wheat since the penalties came along," said Saffell. "But when he refused to let the ASC on his farm, they declared his entire farm acreage in wheat. They finally dismissed this action when he swore in an affidavit that he hadn't planted wheat, but they took judgment against him for $23.10 in costs."

Other county "wheat rebels" refusing to pay old assessments are Walter Warrington of Leetonia and Herbert Saner of East Rochester. Whiteleather said Lippencott was a young beginning farmer who was "crushed" by a $211 penalty assessed on

Let's Keep It CHRISTmas

Dear Fellow Americans;

At the beginning of the century, the people in many parts of America took a week off to celebrate Christmas, another week for the annual revival of their church, a day on Easter Monday, and a day on Whitsuntide Monday. There were thus fourteen Christ-inspired holidays in addition to Sundays.

How many holidays or vacations are now related to the Church? Easter and Christmas have not been forgotten, but there is strong anti-Christian pressure to convert them into mere orgies of merchandising in which Christians are pressured into buying things they cannot afford for recipients who do not need them.

Easter and Christmas can be saved as Christian holidays only by your taking care of how and where you spend your money. In selecting presents, remember that a dollar spent inadvisedly may be a contribution to those who hate your Christian faith and everything it stands for.

Let every card you send at Christmas have on it a New Testament verse, a Church, a Cross, a Hymn, or some other symbol of your faith. Apart from your personal gifts which fill a material need, let your Christmas gifts in 1957 be something that will bring Christ into the lives of those whom you wish to help. I have given as presents many copies of a beautiful New Testament whose large type lends appropriate dignity to the Gospels and Epistles, which are the basic documents of our faith.

My other presents are mostly books and periodicals which are for rather than against Christianity and the decencies of our American Christian civilization. COMMON SENSE is such a periodical. It caters to no advertiser, and gives that portion of the truth which is not found in newspapers nor on the air.

Yours for a Christian Christmas,
John Beaty

Proof Positive That Communism Is Jewish

A LARGE PORTION OF THIS ARTICLE IS REPRINTED DUE TO POPULAR DEMAND OF READERS

People who have the interest and courage to face facts regarding the world wide crisis are not surprised at the following quotations:

Winston Churchill in a speech to the House of Commons on Nov. 5, 1919 said:

"Certainly I dispute the title of the Bolsheviks to represent Russia....They despise such commonplace as nationality...No sooner did Lenin arrive than he began beckoning a finger here and a finger there to obscure persons in sheltered retreats in N.Y., Glasgow, in Berne and other countries, and he gathered together the leading spirits of a most formidable sect, the most formidable sect in the world...."

(The London Sunday Herald on Feb. 8, 1920, carried an illustrated article entitled, "A struggle for the Soul of the Jewish People," by Winston Churchill, from which the following is published).

"Some people like Jews and some do not; but no thoughtful man can doubt the fact that they are beyond all question the most formidable and the most remarkable race which has ever appeared in the world.

"I deal here with the schemes of the International Jews. The adherents of this sinister confederacy are mostly men reared up among the unhappy populations of countries where Jews are persecuted on account of their race. Most, if not all, of them have forsaken the faith of their forefathers and divorced from their minds all spiritual hopes of the next world. This movement among the Jews is not new. From the days of Spartacus—Weishaupt to those of Karl Marx, and down to Trotsky (Russia), Bela Kun (Hungary), Rosa Luxembourg (Germany), and Emma Goldman (U.S.), this world-wide conspiracy for the overthrow of civilization and for the reconstitution of society on the basis of arrested development, of envious malevolence, and impossible equality, has been steadily growing. It played, as a modern writer, Mrs. Webster (author of World Revolution), has so ably shown, a definitely recognizable part in the tragedy of the French Revolution. It has been the mainspring of every subversive movement during the 19th Century; and now at last this band of extraordinary personalities from the underworld of the great cities of Europe and America have gripped the Russian people by the hair of their heads and have become practically the undisputed masters of that enormous empire.

TERRORIST JEWS

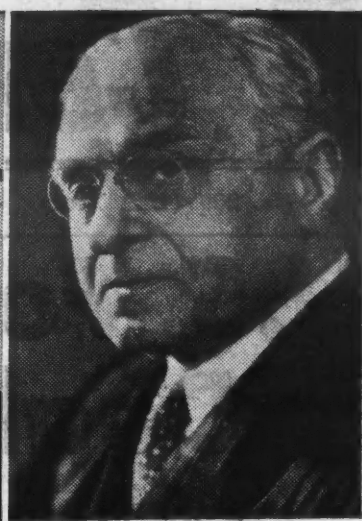

"There is no need to exaggerate the part played in the creation of Bolshevism and in the actual bringing about of the Russian Revolution by these international and for the most part atheistic Jews. It is certainly a great one; it probably outweighs all others. The majority of the leading figures are Jews. Moreover, the principal inspiration and driving power comes from the Jewish leaders. Thus Tchitcherin, a pure Russian, is eclipsed by his nominal subordinate Litvinoff, and the influence of Russians like Bukharin or Lunacharski cannot be compared with the power of Trotsky, or of Zinovieff, the Dictator of the Red Citadel (Petrograd), or of Krassin or Radek—all Jews! In the Soviet institutions the prominence of Jews is even more astonishing. And the prominent, if not indeed the principal, part in the system of terrorism applied by the Extraordinary Commissions for Combating Counter Revolution has been taken by the Jews, and in some notable cases by Jewesses. The same evil prominence was obtained by Jews in the brief period of terror during which Bela Kun ruled in Hungary. The same phenomenon has been presented in Germany (especially Bavaria), so far as this madness has been allowed to prey upon the temporary prostration of the German people. Although in all these countries there are many non-Jews every whit as bad as the worst of the Jewish revolutionaries, the part played by the latter in proportion to their numbers in the population is astonishing."

The following quotation is from an article in the Century Magazine, Jan. 1928, by Rabbi Marcus Eli Ravage:

"We have been at the bottom not merely of the last war but of nearly all your wars, not only the Russian, but of every other major revolution in your history. We have brought discord and confusion and frustration into your personal and public life. No one can tell how long we shall go on doing it...We still dominate you. At this moment your churches are torn asunder by civil war between Fundamentalists and Modernists."

The "Jewish World" of London issued this statement on Jan. 10, 1929:

"The fact of Bolshevism itself, the fact that so many Jews are Bolsheviks, the fact that the ideal of Bolshevism so nearly resembles the cherished ideals of Judaism, should make the serious Jew reflect with care."

"Jewish Life" of N.Y., issue of May, 1938, under the title "Anti-Semitism Must Be Defeated" declared:

"Every Jew who is sincerely interested in the plight of the Jews...should realize that the best sons of the Jewish people are the Jewish communists, and that the most faithful ally of the Jews...is the communist Party."

The late Rabbi Judah L. Magnes was even more explicit when he told a N.Y. audience in 1919:

"Revolutionaries, socialists, bolsheviks, majority or minority socialists, under whatever name we may call them, are JEWS, and they are to be found in every revolutionary movement as leaders or propagandists."

The "Jewish Communal Register" of 1917-18, published by "Kehillih (Jewish community) of N.Y.," 356 2nd Ave., N.Y. (p. 1019) praises Jacob Schiff head of Kuhn Loeb & Co., for financing the Russian Red Revolution.

"Without exaggeration it may be said that the great Russian Revolution was indeed accomplished by the hands of the JEWS." Statement by the Jew, M. Cohen in "The Communist Charuov," April 12, 1919.

"The world revolution which we will experience will be exclusively our affair and will rest in our hands. This revolution will tighten the Jewish domination over all other people." Paris Jewish magazine, "Peuple Juif," Feb. 8, 1919.

"War to the hilt between communism and capitalism is inevitable. Today, of course, we are not strong enough to attack. Our time will come in 20 or 30 years. To win we shall need the element of surprise. The bourgeoisie will have to be put to sleep. So we shall begin by launching the most spectacular peace movement on record. There will be electrifying overtures and unheard of concessions. The capitalist countries, stupid and decadent, will rejoice to cooperate in their own destruction. They will leap at another chance to be friends. As soon as their guard is down, we shall smash them with our clenched fist."

Dimitry Z. Manuilsky (Jew)

Presiding Officer UN Security Council, 1949

From a speech before the Lenin School Of Political Warfare, 1931.

The following quotes are from the "PROTOCOLS" which, of course, the Jews claim are forgeries:

"...Far back in ancient times we were the first to cry among the masses of the people the words 'Liberty, Equality, Fraternity'...and with them carried away the well-being of the world..." (Protocol 1)

"...Remember the French Revolution to which it was we who gave the name of 'Great'; the secrets of its preparations are well known to us for it was WHOLLY THE WORK OF OUR HANDS." (Protocol 3)

"...The intensification of armaments, the increase of police forces, are all essential for the completion of the aforementioned plans. What we have to get at is that there should be in all the States of the world, besides ourselves, only the masses of the proletariat, a few millionaires devoted to our interests, police and soldiers." (Protocol 7)

"...We must be in a position to respond to EVERY ACT OF OPPOSITION BY WAR with the neighbors of that country which dares to oppose us: but if those neighbors should also venture to stand collectively together against us, then we must offer resistance by a universal war." (Protocol 7)

The following is from the booklet "Jewish Anti-Communism."

From the very beginning of the modern communist movement, its principal philosophical and practical motivation has been provided by the International Jew. Communism, in the Slavic states such as Russia, Hungary and Poland, was and is a predominantly Jewish movement; in the early days of the Russian Revolution, the reins of the Soviet government were almost entirely in the hands of Bolshevik Jews such as Trotsky, Zinovieff, Kamenev, Radek, Sverdlov, and Litvinov. Lenin, believed to be a gentile, was married to a Jewess, N. Kroupsaya, and contemporary anti-communist historians recorded that the couple spoke only Yiddish in their home. The strongly Jewish flavor of the Bolshevik government was not confined to the higher echelons of officialdom; in the Politburo, the strongest governmental department, Jews numbered more than 8 times the strength in proportion to their membership in the Communist Party, which was itself not inconsiderable. The Politburo remained almost exclusively Jewish throughout, increasing from 40% in the early days of the regime, to 42.9% in 1922. The Press Bureau, which was in charge of the conditioning of the Russian people through the propaganda media of the public press, was almost completely Jewish in complexion; the Jew Radolsky was appointed official censor of all Soviet journalistic activities in one of Lenin's first governmental appointments. Jewish influence was especially powerful in the Central Council of Commissaries. In 1920, the Central Council consisted of 20 members, of which 17 were Jews, and 3 gentiles. The Commissariat of War at the same time consisted of 43 members, of which no less than 34 were Jews. In the Commissariat of the Provinces, 21 out of 23 belonged to the same race, as did 45 out of the 55 members of the Commissariat of the Interior. The Commissariat for Foreign Affairs was comprised of 17 members; out of this number, 14 were Jews. Taken as a whole, the percentage of Jews in the Commissariats, the highest offices of Revolutionary Russia, was during the Lenin regime as follows:

In 1917-18, out of 316 Commissars, 300 were Jews.

In 1920, out of 457 Commissars, 322 were Jews.

In 1921, out of 550 Commissars, 447 were Jews.

In 1922, out of 525 Commissars, 445 were Jews.

The U.S. Secret Service (a forerunner of the present Central Intelligence Agency) was aware of this Jewish influence in the Soviet government, and circulated to allied governments a confidential report on the matter, from which we quote extensively below:

SECTION I.- In Feb., 1916, it was first discovered that a revolution was being fomented in Russia. It was found that the following persons, as well as the banking houses mentioned, were engaged in this work of destruction; Jacob Schiff, Guggenheim, Max Breiting, Kuhn, Loeb, & Co., Jewish banking houses of which the following are directors: Jacob Schiff, Felix Warburg, Otto Kahn, Mortimer Schiff, S.H. Hannauer. (All Jewish)

SECTION II.- In the spring of 1917, Jacob Schiff began to supply funds to Trotsky (Bronstein) to bring about the social revolution in Russia. The N.Y. "Daily Forward," which is a Judeo-Bolshevik organ, gave a subscription for the same cause.

SECTION III.- In Oct. 1917, the social revolution took place in Russia, thanks to which certain Soviet institutions took over the direction of the Russian people. In these Soviets the following people (all Jewish) made themselves remarkable: Lenin (real name Unianoff); Trotsky (Bronstein); Steckloff (Nakames); Martoff (Zederbaum); Zinovieff (Apfelbaum); Parvus (Helphand); Uritsky (Padomilsky); Larin (Largo); Bohrin (Nathansohn); Martinoff (Zibar); Bogdanoff (Zilberstein); Dan (Gourevitch); Genetsky (Furstenburg); Garin (Garfeld); Suchanoff (Zilberstein); Sanchanoff (Gimel); Kammelf (Goldman); Eiszanoff (Bleichmann); Pistnitsky (Ziwin); Axelrod (Orthodox); Glasunoff (Schultze); Zuriesian (Weinstein); Lapinsky (Lowensohn).

SECTION IV.- At the same time the Jew Paul Warburg was remarked to be in active contact with certain Bolshevik notables in the U.S.A. This circumstance, together with other points about which information has been obtained, was the cause of his not being elected again to the Federal Reserve.

SECTION V.- On the other hand, Judas Magnes, subsidized by Jacob Schiff, is in close touch with the world wide Zionist organization (Paole Zion) of which in fact he is director. The final end of this organization is to establish the international supremacy of the Jewish Labor movement.

SECTION VII.- Scarcely had the social revolution broken out in Germany when the Jewess Rosa Luxembourg automatically assumed the political direction of it. One of the chief leaders of the international Bolshevik movement was the Jew, Haas. At the same time the social revolution developed along the same lines as the social revolution in Russia.

SECTION VIII.- If we bear in mind the Jewish banking house of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., is in touch with the Westphalian Rhineland Syndicate, German Jewish house; and with the two brothers Lazare (Jewish House in Paris); and if in addition we remark that all the above mentioned Jewish houses are in close touch with the Jewish houses of Jacob Speyer of London, New York, and Frankfurt-on-Main, as well as with Nyan Banken, Judeo-Bolshevik house at Stockholm; it will be manifest that the Bolshevik movement is in a general measure the expression of a general Jewish movement, and that certain Jewish banking houses are interested in the organization of this movement.

WE WERE WARNED

A report issued by the Netherlands Minister to Petrograd, M. Oudenyk, on Sept. 6, 1918, and subsequently presented by order of the Crown to all ranking British officialdom, reads in part:

"The foregoing report will indicate the extremely critical nature of the present situation. The danger is now so great that I feel it my duty to call the attention of the British and all other governments to the fact that if an end is not put to Bolshevism in Russia at once, the civilization of the whole world will be threatened. This is not an exaggeration but a sober matter of fact...I consider that the immediate suppression of Bolshevism is the greatest issue now before the world, not even excluding the war which is still raging, and unless, as above stated, Bolshevism is nipped in the bud immediately, it is bound to spread in one form or another over Europe and the whole world, as it is organized and worked by Jews who have no nationality, and whose one object is to destroy for their own ends the existing order of things."

Jews solidly entrenched in all the principal governments maneuver hate among the nations,—one group against the other—and before the citizens can recover from the staggering sacrifice of bloodshed and taxes (World War II cost U.S. taxpayers 350 billion dollars) a new alignment of hate is developed and governments put their taxpayers under more debt to the International Bankers. This will go on and on until the gullible Christians dig deep and look into the phony "brotherly love" propaganda, which prevents the source and cause from being generally known!

WHY DO JEWS CREATE SUBVERSIVE MOVEMENTS?

The Jewish people are taught, and believe that before their Messiah comes they are to have complete control of the world. With only 16 million in a population of two and one half billion, the Jews must control governments and mass membership in labor organizations. Communism and Socialism are two of the twelve hundred fronts organized by them in the U.S. alone.

Judaism is a cult based entirely on the hatred of Christianity. We quote here two of more than 100 anti-Christian statements

COMMON SENSE has in its files. These statements are made by noted Jewish leaders.

Joseph Dunner, Zionist Jew, in "The Republic of Israel," page 10, Oct. 1950, stated the following:

To Christians of all denominations Jesus is the symbol of all that is pure, sacred, and lovely. To Jews from the fourth century Jesus became the symbol of anti-Semitism, of libel, of cruelty, of death."

Ben Hecht, Zionist writer of Hollywood, on page 20 of "A Jew In Love," wrote:

"One of the finest things ever done by the mob was the Crucifixion of Christ. Intellectually it was a splendid gesture. But trust the mob to bungle. If I'd had charge of executing Christ I'd have handled it differently. You see, what I'd have done was had him shipped to Rome and fed to the lions. They could not have made a Savior out of mince meat."

Now after 40 years of communist activity, public sentiment is rising against communism. The American (?) Jewish Committee and the Anti-Defamation League are making frantic efforts to turn the spotlight away from them!

QUEER, ISN'T IT?

The last Jewish Congress declared, that only 5.2 million Jews reside now in the U. S. (TIME, Feb. 18, 1957). The Yearbook of the American Churches of this year is more generous and admits that there are 5.5 million persons in America who profess Jewish Faith. But in the same TIME, Oct. 7, 1957), it is stated about a certain Mr. Kafka that he is "a not practicing Jew." So, apparently, the Jewish population of the States may be divided into two groups: "Practicing Jews" who belong to the Jewish Church, and those who, like Mr. Kafka, are agnostics or just religiously indifferent people.

From the "Yearbook" we know that 5.5 million are "Practicing." But how many are not? This problem would be a difficult one to solve, but, fortunately enough, TIME itself gave us the clue to this solution. TIME stated in a short footnote, (Feb. 11, 1957) that only 10.6% of the total population of N.Y.C. profess the Jewish Faith; but the World Almanac says that 28% of that City's population is Jewish, which clearly means that to every 106 "Practicing" Jews in New York there are 174 who are not. Assuming that the same proportion can be applied to the total Jewish population of the States, we shall get such an equation: 106: 174 equals 5.5: X where "X" is equal, approximately, to 9 million. Adding those 9 million of the "Not Practicing Jews" to the 5.5 million of "Practicing" ones we shall get a grand total of 14.5 million Jews who live now in America!

Since, according to the same Congress, the total Jewish population of the world is only 11.8 million, we come to such an interesting conclusion:

"Out of 11.8 million Jews who live in the whole wide world 14.5 million reside now in the U.S."

Value Of Christmas

By Early Van Deventer

The land is full of Christmas. The story of the Christ Child has literally filled the air. Strong, clear-toned voices of youth proclaim the anniversary of the birth of a little baby, who was none other than the Son of God, King of Righteousness, Prince of Peace, the gift from the Divine Creator to a distressed and sinful world. This wonderful child when he reached maturity, was to take away the sins of the people and give them abundant,—yes, eternal life, to every believing soul.

The birth of Christ was the greatest event ever to take place on this earth. We proclaim it in songs and story, pageants and plays, carols and choruses. Our magazines and newspapers tell of it by special articles displayed in the most prominent space. The theme even runs through all the advertising. The radio by songs and sermons proclaims it, and TV depicts it to the millions of watching eyes.

What is the effect of all this Christmas demonstration? Is it just a meaningless flurry? The Good Will messages we send through the mails, the giving of gifts, one to another; can its effects be measured? Does it check the hand of the assassin? Does it lighten the foot on the gas pedal that brings death and destruction to thousands? Who can tell? Who can tell better than J. Edgar Hoover who makes it his business to weigh the effect of such things on the crime meter of the nation?

Hoover, reporting the crime rate by months, sees the indicator hand go down when the Christmas Season arrives, and sees it remain down for several months thereafter, until the Christmas spirit might have worn off. Again he sees it rise to dangerous heights and so remain until the next Christmas arrives.

Murder and violence is always at a low ebb at Christmas time while negligent manslaughter,—meaning car accidents go as low as 18% below the yearly average for 9 months after Christmas, and then climbs to 50% above average until the first of the year and Christmas spirit arrives again.

Is Christmas worth while? Shall we stop singing the carols, stop showing the Christmas pageants in our schools and churches? Shall we stop the sermons and songs, the pictures and the plays? No!

If there were no Christmas we would have to invent one just to beat back the drab discouragement by bringing hope and courage and the joy of living to the people once a year.

Real Master Of The New Deal

In the old Liberty magazine for Nov. 12, 1938, there was a feature article by Frederick L. Collins under the title of "The Hidden Master of the New Deal." He was Edward Mandell House of Texas, is the thought of the Collins article.

House was a near neighbor of Franklin D. Roosevelt and his mother in New York for many years. After FDR was nominated in 1932, he hurried east to visit House. The "astute Mr. House" rather than Jim Farley "was to be the real manager of the Roosevelt campaign."

Collins raised the question as to whether House was a Jew and dismisses it in a snap judgment, said the middle name Mandell (Jewish) was given him in honor of a neighbor. But we have other evidence which would place House as a crypto-Jew. In years past many Jewish immigrants went to Texas following revolutions in Europe and got lost in the gentile population.

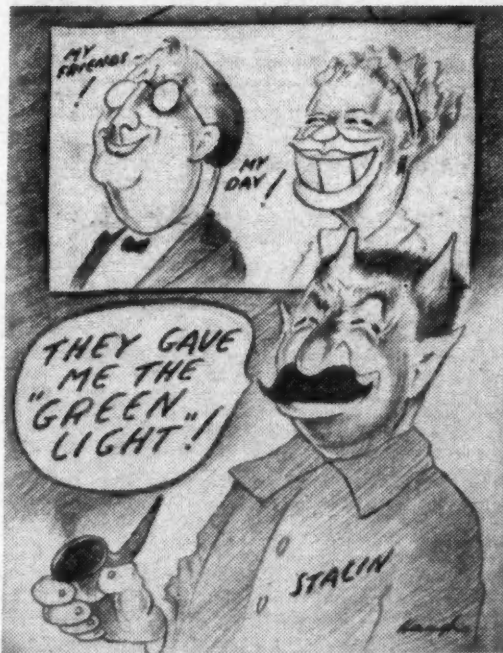

In 1912 before he had piloted Wilson to the Presidency, House tried his hand at a novel of revolution, published anonymously under the title of Philip Dru, Administrator. It is silly as a novel, but is a blueprint for Jew-led revolutions in gentile countries. America was in such bad shape in 1912, that street riots and armed revolution were in order. The Constitution was obsolete.

CHRISTMAS 1957

Christmas is a merry season,
Hearts are gay and we rejoice.
Its symbol dominates the reason,
We are Christians and by choice.
Modern doctrines brought to bear,
Bring confusion twice confounded.
Principles show wear and tear,
By strange thinkers we're surrounded.
"Peace on earth, good will toward men,"
Is the message we are taught.
Our knee before one God we bend,
Not before an earthly court.
In rejoicing Christmas day,
Pray for those misguided men,
These souls, confused, and gone astray,
That God will bring them back again.

REMEMBER THE 3RD COMMANDMENT AND DON'T SHOP ON SUNDAY

Problems required a dictatorship. Collins doesn't mention it, but Philip Dru, with the addition of some refinements of Jewish cruelty, was a blue-print for the Red Revolution in Russia and in the colonial nations since!

Dear Friends,
One day as I sat musing
Sad and lonely,
Without a friend,
A voice came to me
From out of the gloom.
Saying, "Cheer up!
Things could be worse."
So, I cheered up.
And, sure enough
Things got worse!

Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (Patriot)

The late Sen. Joe McCarthy's words stand out in the Congressional Record of April 25, 1956:

"I suggest that we set up a special joint Congressional Committee, with full subpoena powers, to investigate the guided missile program, and to keep a vigilant eye on its progress. If the committee finds that the program is not on an all out basis, then it must go into the further question of why it is not on an all-out basis. If we are falling behind the Soviet Union in the development of a weapon that may permit communism to conquer us, then we must find out who is responsible and what has motivated those who are responsible."

U.S. FARMERS BEING VICTIMIZED

The "hot wheat" farmers apparently have no legal recourse. A test case waged by the Independent Farmers attorney, Robert Albright of Columbus, lost in the lower federal courts and was turned down for review last month by the U.S. Supreme Court.

THIS IS THE INDEPENDENT FARMER'S PEARL HARBOR!

Those who are familiar with the way the communists in the Soviet Union regulate the farmer will readily see a similar method being slowly imposed on our own farmers here in the United States.

During one week alone, over 30,000 Ukrainian farmers were shot because they did not comply with communist orders. The farmer here in the U.S. must learn the true facts about Marxism—who controls it, and who finances it, and why. The truth will shock the average person beyond his imagination!

Taxpayers Useless Financing Of NATO Bleeding America!

Collective Defense

STRENGTH OR PERIL?

By Bonner Fellers

Brigadier General, U.S. Army, (Retired)

The Red Satellites have moved our President to set up a crash defense program. It includes the pooling of NATO scientific knowledge, defense reorganization and closer NATO ties. But the President has reserved, possibly for a later date, the discussion of his recent joint agreement with British Prime Minister Macmillan. The agreement begins:

"1. The arrangements which the nations of the free world have made for COLLECTIVE DEFENSE and mutual help are based on the recognition that the concept of national self-sufficiency is now out of date."

This is a most astonishing admission. "The concept of national self-sufficiency is now out of date," means to the soldier, that we can no longer stand alone. Could this be true? Most certainly the Soviet Union can stand alone. And if it—with its enslaved population—can stand alone, then why can't we—who are free—stand alone?

Might we not be in deadly peril, if our defense—our very survival—depends upon others? Have we abandoned our traditional American self-reliance?

Those who are interested in the solvency of our government are bound to be apprehensive over part of the eighth paragraph of the Eisenhower-Macmillan Agreement.

"8. We recognize that our COLLECTIVE SECURITY efforts must be supported and re-enforced by cooperative economic action."

Beginning with World War I, there has been unprecedented cooperative economic action—especially with NATO—but the aid has always flowed from and never toward America.

Collective Defense is a catch phrase which seems to ring true. Its appeal is elemental, emotional and comforting. But like other support pulling expressions, it has been coined to deceive. Collective Defense, or Collective Security as it is sometimes called, was probably first suggested for American consideration by the DAILY WORKER. On December 22, 1937, Clarence A. Hathaway, Editor of the Daily Worker spoke over CBS Station WABC. His subject was "Collective Security—The Road to Peace." In it he said,

"We urge the people to put pressure on Congress and the Administration for the immediate application of a COLLECTIVE SECURITY Policy."

Incidentally, in his three hour harangue, November 6th, Nikita Khrushchev confirmed the Communist endorsement:

"We appeal to all people, all parliaments to...set up COLLECTIVE SE-

MacArthur On Tax Slavery

General Douglas MacArthur

Republished from New York Daily News

The man who won the Pacific war, and could have won in Korea if Truman and Acheson had let him do so, took taxes as the subject of his speech, and what taxes mean to all of us.

His most striking statement:

"Taxes have grown so rapidly in recent years that now they are the largest single item in the cost of living. Americans will pay for government this year more than they will spend on food, clothing, medical care and religious activities combined."

What To Do And How To Do It!

THE ROAD BACK TO SANITY

By P.A. del Valle, Lt. Gen., U.S.M.C. (Ret.)

When the Founding Fathers, under Divine inspiration, framed the American Constitution, they made history. For the first time in this world a government was founded upon the principles and concepts of Christianity. They stated that our rights were derived from God, and not from any worldly king or government. They went further and made it clear that government derived its just powers from the consent of the governed. They gave the Federal Government certain well defined powers, reserving to the sovereign states and to the sovereign people of those states, all powers not thus written into their Constitution. They then divided the powers thus placed in the Federal Government into three co-equal departments, each of which was a check and balance upon the other two.

Under the Constitution this nation became the most prosperous and the greatest power on earth. Then came alien doctrines and alien people confusing us with Eastern sophistries, weakening our Christian faith, and tinkering with our Constitution in subtle, but deadly fashion. Under guise of "liberalizing" and "modernizing" they managed to evade and change the intent of the Constitution, and to change its concept, which was Christian, into socialistic theories which are devoid of Godliness, and were sold to us under illusions of a materialistic Utopia upon Earth as an improvement over a Christian spiritual hereafter.

We have seen these changes at work for about 50 years. Millions of our best youth have spilled their blood in wars to end wars which only start new ones. Billions in money representing the inventiveness, the industry, and the productiveness of our people have been and are now being wasted. We are committed to give money to and to defend in war almost every section of the world. Our governmental policies, both foreign and domestic, regardless of party or person in power, seem to emanate from insane asylums. We hear God denied from our very pulpits, and our schools have become a system for the destruction of faith and good order, and patriotism. Treason rides high and finds no challenger. We tremble with fear of nuclear warfare which we developed, but which was treasonably smuggled to our enemies by men who still walk our best streets in freedom and in honor, while men who try to expose them are destroyed.

What to do? Return to the Constitution

CURITY in Europe and Asia."

Following World War II, Secretary of State Dean Acheson presented Collective Defense to the Congress. It was explained that the Collective Concept contemplates that each nation will provide such military means as it is best suited to contribute. Some powers are rich in natural resources, some have huge manpower reserves, others possess industrial genius. By pooling these resources, and integrating them into striking forces, Mr. Acheson claimed that an effective Collective Defense for participating parties would be insured.

Under this Collective Concept NATO came into being. Beginning with the Eisenhower Administration, justifiable alarm over the inexorable rise of Soviet military might has caused our Collective Defense to be expanded. Secretary Dulles—possibly impelled by the herd instinct—has flown over the globe, lavishly passing out American taxpayers money, seeking alignment of peoples to the Free World cause. As a consequence, we now have more than 10,000 Executive Agreements among some 70 odd foreign powers. We have troops in varying strength in 73 countries. A wider dispersion of our surface forces cannot be imagined unless we should occupy Outer Space.

On the other hand, the Soviets keep their forces under close control on the Eurasian land mass. It is far sounder military doctrine than the policy of global dispersion which we are following.

Collective Defense Is Not New

In 1867 Bismark formed the North German Confederation. But the three powerful South German States of Bavaria, Baden and Wurtenburg remained independent. European rulers feared the rising power of the North German Confederation. Against Bismark, Napoleon III reasoned that most of Europe would be on the side of France.

During the spring of 1870, Napoleon III made firm alliances with Austria and Italy. He believed he had positive pledges that the South German States, Spain and Britain would support him, if he struck Bismark's new Prussian Army.

On July 15, 1870, France declared war. Immediately Bavaria, Baden and Wurtenburg joined Bismark. Russia took Austria out of the war by threatening to strike her on the east if she joined France. Britain, Spain and Italy chose neutrality. Without a single ally, Napoleon III fought and lost the war.

The point is that the pledges of the European Powers to Napoleon III were just as binding then, as are the NATO pledges now. Nevertheless, war wrote the answer and France fought ALONE.

In the early spring of 1941, Nazi troops massed in the Balkans threatened Greece. Mr. Churchill, with Greek approval, decided on a British occupation of Greece. Field Marshal Wilson commanded the intervention.

The roads from Yugoslavia into Greece lead through difficult and narrow mountain passes. By skillful use of the terrain, it might be possible, Wilson reasoned, to pile up the invading Nazi in the mountain passes.

A Greek force of 100,000 men had just stopped an Italian invasion on the Albanian front. In northeastern Greece, were 4 divisions which had been recruited locally. Both these forces the Greek King placed at Wilson's disposal. In addition, the British promised 7 divisions and 23 RAF squadrons from Africa.

Passing through Yugoslavia at touring car speed, the Nazi entered northern Greece. The 100,000 Greeks on the Albanian front refused to move to the east because they were determined to finish off the Italians. The 4 Greek divisions in northeastern Greece refused to move to the west to block the Nazi advance because they preferred to defend their own homes rather than Greek homes elsewhere. Britain sent only two divisions, plus odd units, and 10 RAF squadrons. With heavy losses, the British were thrown out of Greece.

The point of this Greek tragedy is—here were Greeks refusing to move a short distance to defend their own people. Collective Defense was not possible among Greeks themselves. In other words—War wrote the answer to Collective Defense in Greece—as it will in any other war.

In the Korean War, 500,000 South Koreans fought heroically. The United States contributed 450,000 Americans and probably paid most of the bills. All our other U.N. Allies combined contributed a token force which totaled 45,000—a mere 10% of the American effort and less than 5% of the total forces.

Again, the conclusion is inescapable. Collective forces reflect the individual goals, selfishness and vulnerabilities of the powers they represent. Their collective effort varies directly as the threat to their own interests and security.

Despite official praise of NATO—the so-called Shield of Western Europe—the actual defense picture is critical. Today, after six years of preparation, NATO surface forces defending the Rhineland scarcely boast of 15 divisions. NATO Air Power in Europe is decidedly inferior to the Red Air Force. Heralded as the post war answer to the Soviet threat, European NATO today is all but impotent. As a matter of fact, world peace today rests entirely on the American Strategic Air Force which is not even a part of NATO.

But our Collective-minded leaders are not discouraged. Secretary of State Dulles has given us a preview of the program now contemplated. The billions America has already poured into NATO are only the beginning. Bewildered American taxpayers will soon be asked to finance a brand new NATO program.

Mr. Dulles proposes now to place our Intermediate Range Ballistic Missile in the hands of European NATO Powers. If we could not afford adequately to arm Europe with bombers, how can we now afford to arm it with Intermediate Range Ballistic Missiles? This weapon may prove to be just as costly as the bomber. Missiles are not retrievable.

For some time the State Department and other leaders have suggested that nuclear weapons will make the small nations the military equal of the strongest powers. But the bomber and the ballistic missile have radically upset the conventional balance of power among nations. Formerly, manpower, the will to fight, natural and industrial resources, determined military might. Now, nuclear weapons and delivery systems—in being when war starts—are the true measure of a nation's military strength.

Today, small nations cannot afford even conventional forces. And with the coming of nuclear weapons, the cost is utterly prohibitive. Only two powers—the USSR and the USA are willing to afford such expensive weapons. Consequently, the only way our Allies can possess nuclear capabilities is for the American taxpayer to give them these enormously expensive weapons. And this is exactly what is being proposed.

A London dispatch, dated November 10th, discloses that the United States and Britain seek to draw 50 friendly nations into an anti-communist block. For this action no organization is to be formalized lest it be considered to rival the U.N. But the concept was endorsed in principle at the recent Eisenhower-Macmillan Meeting. Nuclear weapons and guided missile stock piles are to be provided the 50 participating powers. Allies will be given a voice in decisions governing their use. This is militarily faulty. Air Power and Space Power delivered as an entity are indescribably destructive. Parceled among, and controlled by, 50 allies, their potency decreases enormously.

Suppose we were to supply NATO and 35 other friendly powers with missiles for offensive defense. It would be wicked to equip our friends with weapons which would draw enemy fire unless we also provide weapons for their defensive defense. In other words, in order to make the proposed program effective or even workable, European NATO and other countries not only will have to be blanketed with offensive missiles to attack the Kremlin but will also need defensive super-sonic fighter interceptors and anti-missile-missiles for their own defense if they are attacked. To supply NATO and 35 other countries with offensive and defensive weapons would probably cost as much as our entire United States Defense effort.

Let us now suppose that we have supplied NATO Powers and 35 other Allies with adequate offensive and defensive equipment. We have absolutely no assurance that the Soviets would attack Europe. The United States is the only nation blocking the Communists dream of world domination. It is most likely—and it is militarily sound—that if the Reds strike, they will by-pass Europe and strike directly at the United States and our overseas Strategic Air Bases encircling the Soviet Union. Except in Spain, there are no Strategic Air Bases on the European Continent. Our bases in England cannot be used in war without the express consent of the British Prime Minister. Unless attacked, our European Allies might be inclined NOT to strike the Soviet Union but rather be neutral. In this case, they would hold their weapons in reserve, just in case the Red attack against them might come later. Most certainly, to remain neutral and hold their fire would be a human reaction.

Let's make a quick estimate of the possible war combat effectiveness of our three strongest Allies.

France, something like a third communist, has been at futile wars with her colonies for years. It is doubtful if today she has one complete combat division on the NATO front. The French Government is unstable; in war, firm reliance cannot be placed on France.

Britain is dependent upon sea supply for her survival. The Royal Navy now ranks a poor third. Britain is paring her Army to the bone; the RAF is being phased out in favor of missile defense—missiles which are to be provided by us but which do not yet exist! Since a half dozen four-megaton H bombs could destroy Britain, neutrality will look sweet to the British. In war, can we depend upon the availability of our Strategic Air Bases in England?

Western Germany is rearming reluctantly. The Red Air Force and missile program have a 12 year lead on German preparations. If a war is fought on the ground, Germany is certain to be the initial battlefield. Nuclear weapons might stop a Red invasion of Germany, but the blasting would wipe out the German population. Germany may not be allowed adequately to rearm. As Freda Utley once put it, France wants Germany strong enough to stop the Reds, but not stronger than the French Forces. Germany is divided. Suppose the Kremlin offered a United East-West Germany and, as a price for neutrality, promised not to invade? Where then would be the German effort in the Collective Defense?

The Red Army can overrun Europe; the Red Air Force can destroy Europe; probably the Red Intermediate Range Ballistic Missile can do likewise. Should war come, our European Allies will receive such Soviet punishment as their war effort invites. If they stay out of the way—they may survive. If they are participants to an attack against the Soviet Union, they will be destroyed. And this fact forces one to doubt the wartime value of the Intermediate Range Ballistic Missile in the hands of 50 friendly powers. This certain temptation to be neutral casts doubt on the war availability of many of our overseas bases which encircle the Soviet Union. When war writes the answer, it could be that we shall be forced to rely chiefly on our Western Hemisphere bases.

Self-preservation is the first law of nature. Nations, like individuals, put survival above all else—even treaties. This is no criticism of our Allies. If the Reds strike—only war can write the answer. Under such circumstances, do the American people dare subscribe to the Eisenhower-Macmillan Agreement that "THE CONCEPT OF NATIONAL SELF-SUFFICIENCY IS NOW OUT OF DATE"?

Collective Security introduces a political weakness. When one nation becomes a member of the Collective, it is apt to lose control of its own destiny. This actually happened in Korea. There we could have won the war, but our U.N. Allies, with varied global interests, could not agree to such a victory. We shall yet pay for our Korean compromise.

Grave Economic Dangers Arise Out Of The Eisenhower-Macmillan Agreement

Our finances are in poor shape. Our debt of $275 billion is said to be less than half our actual true financial burden.

To equip NATO and possibly 35 other countries so as to be armed against the Soviet Union will cost more billions than our leaders dare to announce. Yet, it would not be surprising if the President promises—while in Paris this month—a new multi-billion dollar Eisenhower Plan for NATO and the Free World.

The need to strengthen our own defenses is desperate. If war is thrust upon America, our own American forces must be able to win—with what is left—after a Red sneak attack. The only way we can adequately defend ourselves and our Allies is to prevent war from happening. The Soviet Union is the base from which must emanate the Kremlin's effort for world domination. Destruction of this base will not be risked IF America is stronger than the Red Forces.

The cost of adequate defense of our own homeland will be enormous. We must have more Intercontinental bombers and North American bases. We must add the ICBM to our arsenal. We must create our own defense against Red bombers and Red ICBM. Again the cost will be terrific. Nevertheless, if we curtail spending for conventional surface warfare in Europe and stop Foreign Aid, adequate defense is possible at a material saving—even as much as $10 Billion—in our present defense expenditure. A super multi-billion dollar Foreign Aid program, however, would be the straw that breaks the camel's back. The value of the dollar probably would drop enormously. The inflationary spiral would rise toward the orbit of Sputnik. Remember, the Kremlin intends to win by collapsing our economy.

Unless and until we have created a decisive air and space advantage over the Soviets, and until our defense is adequate, not one dime should be spent for Foreign Aid. This would entail no abrupt cutoff to our Allies. There are now some $10 billions of unexpended Foreign Aid funds to cushion the shock of this proposed cut.

To put Foreign Aid ahead of our own defense for survival would be suicidal to both ourselves and our Allies.

Then there is a final and grave misgiving. The Department of State appears to have a strange fascination for the Collective Concept. Could it be that the motivating spirit of this entire Collective effort is a passion for World Government? Are Foreign Aid and the deployment of troops in some 70 countries a manifestation of One Worldism rather than actually for OUR OWN AMERICAN Defense?

It is disturbing to realize that both our Secretary of State and our President have expressed an affinity for the Super-State.

On February 26, 1941, Mr. John Foster Dulles, then a Member of Sullivan and Cromwell, prepared a confidential draft for Mr. C.K. Streit, author of UNION NOW WITH BRITAIN. The draft, according to Mr. Streit, was "to serve as a basis for soundings and informed discussions" on the creation of "THE UNION" of the British Commonwealth and the United States. "THE UNION" was to have power to determine peace and war, make treaties and exercise all other attributes of sovereignty. Our entry into the Union, of course, would have terminated the sovereignty of the United States.

By 1942, Mr. Dulles had gone a step further. He then endorsed:

"Ultimately, 'a world government of delegated powers.'

"Strong immediate limitations on national sovereignty.

"International control of all Armies and Navies.

"A universal system of money..."

"World-wide freedom of immigration.

"Progressive elimination of all tariff."

In his book, CRUSADE IN EUROPE, General Eisenhower recommended, "a central and joint agency" to decide disputes among powers by a majority vote. There after, the agency "shall have the power and means to enforce its decision."

Our danger lies in the fact that Internationalism—under the guise of Collective Defense—now sounds the dominant tone of our leadership.

Under World Government, what would happen to the United States can be stated quite simply: The United States would be disarmed. The United States would be bankrupt. The American people would have lost their liberty. When American Liberty dies, Freedom is dead everywhere.

IKE MEETS MACMILLAN

The New York Herald Tribune, in their issues of December 4, 1957, relates that Prime Minister Macmillan states that Lewis Strauss (Zionist) arranged his meeting with President Eisenhower and GENERATED most of the ideas that made it successful!

In reading the following letter by Mr. Dresser, a distinguished attorney, it is well to bear in mind that Strauss, a Zionist, has been a member of Kuhn Loeb Co. for many years. It was Jacob Schiff, then president of Kuhn Loeb Co., Jewish Bankers, who financed the communist revolution in Russia in 1917. His grand-daughter, Dorothy Schiff, is now publisher of the Zionist New York Post.—Editor

Dear Senator:

The Eisenhower-Macmillan Joint Statement as reported in the press on Saturday, October 26, 1957, contains the following provisions:

"In application of these ideas, and as an example which we believe can and should spread among the nations of the free world, we reached the following understanding:

"1. The arrangements which the nations of the free world have made for collective defense and mutual help are based on the recognition that the concept of national self-sufficiency is now out of date. The countries of the free world are interdependent and only in genuine partnership, by combining their resources and sharing tasks in many fields, can progress and safety be found. For our part, we have agreed that our two countries will henceforth act in accordance with this principle.

"2. Our representatives to the North Atlantic Council will urge an enlarged Atlantic effort in scientific research and development in support of greater collective security and the expansion of current activities of the task force working in this field under the council's decision of last December.

"8. We recognize that our collective security must be supported and reinforced by cooperative economic action. The present offers a challenging opportunity for improvement of trading conditions and the expansion of trading conditions and the expansion of trade throughout the free world. It is encouraging that plans are developing for a European free trade area in association with the European Common Market. We recognize that especially in the less-developed countries there should be a steady and significant increase in standards of living and economic development."

These provisions raise some important questions. Do they indicate an intention to establish a partial World Government not only for military but also for economic purposes?

Is it intended that our foreign aid program shall be expanded still further and made permanent by our sharing our wealth with the other members of the world organization and the still further removal of our tariff restrictions on foreign imports?

If this is the meaning of the statement, it is of the highest importance that the subject be thoroughly debated and the American people made aware of the nature of the proposal.

In his broadcast Friday night (October 25, 1957) Fulton Lewis, Jr. stated that the understanding or arrangement was to be made effective by Executive Agreement, and not by Treaty. The former, of course, requires action by the President alone, while a Treaty requires approval by the Senate by a two-thirds vote. Submission to the Senate would presumably arouse substantial opposition, which the Administration may wish to avoid. If this is a fact, it is a most disturbing circumstance.

In reaching a conclusion as to the desirability of the proposed arrangement, it seems not inappropriate to consider the following points:

1. That Great Britain, while having at the present time a so-called "conservative" government, is highly socialized and recent elections to the House of Commons indicate that the Socialist Labor Party may well be returned to power at the next general election. Such leaders of this Party as Aneurin Bevan have shown a marked disposition to collaborate with Russia, despite the latter's manifest intention to obtain domination of the world.

2. It was the British scientist Klaus Fuchs who, while in this country on a friendly mission with other British scientists, stole the secrets of our atomic bomb and transmitted them to Russia, thereby hastening by an untold number of years Russia's development of the bomb.

3. The shipment of strategic materials by Britain to Communist China during the Korean War, which was carried on to such an extent as to lead to a petition by a number of Members of Congress that steps be taken to stop it.

4. The part that Great Britain and our other allies in the United Nations took in preventing our winning the Korean War, an achievement that would have led to the downfall of the Communist regime in China and would have completely changed the world situation in our favor.

5. The continued recognition by Britain of the Communist Government in China.

6. The relaxing by Britain of her restrictions on trade with Russia.

7. The serious economic conditions in Great Britain brought on by her tragic experiment in Socialism, and the large-scale emigration from Britain, particularly among the able and educated young people who are fleeing from the Welfare State.

8. The use of the billions of dollars that we have given Britain since the war in nationalizing her industries and in maintaining her socialist government in power during much of this period.

9. For some time it has seemed that there was a desire on the part of certain elements in our government to make this country a part of an international organization. This has been manifested by the persistent attempts by the State Department to secure the delegation to an international body of powers given by the Constitution to our own Congress. Examples of this are OTC and GATT, and the International Atomic Energy Agency. These actions have led many to wonder whether we are being led into a World government by easy stages.

These, I think, are some of the things that should be considered in any discussion of the Eisenhower-Macmillan Agreement.

It would seem clear that no such arrangement should be entered into by mere Executive Agreement. Certainly, the Senate should be given an opportunity to debate the question.

Very sincerely yours,
Robert B. Dresser

and its Christian concepts. How to do it? Begin with repeal of the FEDERAL RESERVE ACT., whereby our Congress surrendered unconstitutionally to a group of international bankers, the control of our money. From there to the repeal of the equally unconstitutional Income Tax Law, a concept of Karl Marx. We proceed step by step to restore the Constitution and we return to Sanity. But first and most important, the people, through its Congressional representatives, should recover their money power. The rest will be easy. Remember that the most powerful international banking group in the world has this motto: LET US CONTROL THE MONEY OF ANY COUNTRY AND WE CARE NOT WHO MAKES ITS LAWS. Write, telephone and telegraph to our representatives in Congress, at least once a week, until they wake up and regain their most important power from the greedy hands of aliens to whom Christian, free America is anathema. Where We Are

It is difficult for some people to see that a group of Pharisees, or Zionists, as they are known today, have set up an invisible government which operates to confuse and destroy the U.S. government which is known and seen by most of the gullible taxpayers. FDR, who triggered off most of our headaches, once said: "things do not happen; they are planned that way." Speaking of FDR—wonder what happened to the "FOUR FREEDOMS" we supposedly fought for in the last war? hmmm...Ed..

McKeesport, Pa., Daily News

Twice within this generation the United States has stood at the absolute pinnacle of world power, influence and respect. The first instance came with our victory in World War I; the second as Japan bowed to the inevitable and surrendered in 1945.

At the close of World War I, the U.S. was the only major nation in full and prosperous operation, undamaged by the conflict. Britain and France, the western allies of the time, and the beaten Central Powers of Europe were exhausted. Russia was in the throes of a revolution.

In this situation, the U.S. was in a position to compel a just and lasting peace—a peace that might have held for a century. But the U.S. missed its chance. Instead of a lasting peace, we got a decade of runaway inflation, the worst depression in history, an age of strident dictators and finally a war more terrible than the one our victory ended.

Why did this country in defiance of fateful opportunity, fail? There have been many answers advanced, but only one suffices. Instead of compelling a workable peace, we approached the task with a philosophy of self-negation—the notion that we wanted nothing for ourselves, not even firm guarantees of our national security—and our minds full of realistic illusions.

This philosophy and these illusions, no matter how nice the philosophy sounded and how inspiring were the illusions, simply did not work. At Versailles, the greeds and the revenge lusts of cunning men ripped our peace program to shreds and we retreated—the most powerful nation on earth—from the conference table, bewildered and grasping only the impossibility of Woodrow Wilson's promised League of Nations which, in turn, was rejected at home. We should have been more practical.

As the guns stilled in World War II, the U.S. stood supreme again. Western Europe was in shambles. The Soviet Union was propped up by our lend-lease billions in the wreckage of Stalingrad and her eastern industrial cities. Still, even before the end of that war, our opportunity was thrown away. At Teheran and again at Yalta and, finally, at Potsdam our enduring idealism had done us in.

We should give Russia, heartland of the communist world conspiracy, everything she asked and ask nothing in return, proclaimed our peacemakers as they proceeded to concede, without guarantees and with no strings attached, the victory to the Soviet, carrying away only the idealism of the United Nations which quickly became incompetent in reality and, indeed, a colossal fraud.

Since then, we've seen, in a steady run of idealistic blunders, the position of this nation descend until, as of this moment, we are trapped on war brinks in the Middle East, where the intemperance of a camel-path country could plunge us into nuclear holocaust, castigated almost daily from the U.N. forum established on our soil, despised in a rising wave of un-Americanism everywhere, and, in the most unbelievable occurrence of all, disputed in our once firm claims of scientific and technical leadership.

How did this come about? Why did we win two wars and promptly lose the peace? How has the U.N. become the sounding board against which the most scandalous of lies are daily hurled against us? Why, when we have given billions of our substance freely to everybody who asked it, are we despised? How, when we have spent more on military preparations than the rest of the world combined, has a little ball, soaring in the upper air, tipped the judgment of the so-called neutrals in favor of an evil movement which terms itself our mortal enemy?

These are questions which should be asked now. Some of them should have been asked before as we proceeded on, humiliating ourselves in a Korean war which we could have won, entangling ourselves everywhere with Mr. Dulles' fantastic notions of collective security, ladling out billions in a foreign aid program which we do not know how to stop, and piling up our debt and costs to proportions beyond our ability even to comprehend.

And where are we? We are worse off now than we were a month ago and much worse off than we were a year ago. And we are infinitely worse off than we were as we stood honored, courted and endowed with vast opportunity at the close of World War II. We are where we are for only one reason and that is the ridiculous philosophy which we have followed—the now proved absurdities of playing the role of Uncle Sam instead of the hard-minded, practical Uncle Sam of bygone eras in a still evil and still dangerous world at large.
